

Evening 3 — Yemen: speaker briefing

Read this twice at home. Never at the lectern — the lectern carries CUE.pdf.

The evening. Parts I, II and III of RUNSHEET.md: al-Aswad al-‘Ansī from the Persians of Yemen to the dawn adhān in Ṣan‘ā’, then Qays b. Makshūḥ's turn against the Abnā’ and the two men judged at Medina, then Kinda, al-Nujayr and al-Ash‘ath's pardon. About 86 minutes of material (66 CORE) for 34 story minutes: drop GOOD cards first.

Say once, inside the story, at #17 ("Whom Fayrūz killed in Yemen"): almost all of this scene-by-scene detail reaches the books through one transmitter, Sayf b. ‘Umar; the killing itself and Fayrūz's name are in al-Bukhārī.

Three things never to do. Do not choose between the reports of who struck the blow, who called the adhān, or whether it was nights or one night before the Prophet's ﷺ death. Do not project or read out the words al-Aswad's own people used of him to save their lives. Do not give Qays b. Makshūḥ or ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib an honorific — their standing is not settled on our pages.

Part I — al-Aswad al-‘Ansī (a flashback, ending in Rabī‘ I 11 AH)

1. The two bracelets

Runsheet: Opens the part. Bukhārī-sourced, so the evening begins on its soundest report

Tier: GOOD · When: in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime [\[SOURCED\]](#) — صحيح البخاري ٤٣٧٥ · Map: two dots only, صنعاء and اليمامة, lit at the same moment. What happened: The Prophet ﷺ said that while he was asleep he was brought the treasures of the earth, and two bracelets of gold were placed in his hands, and they weighed on him. He was inspired to blow on them; he blew, and they went. And he interpreted them as the two liars between whom he stood — the one of Ṣan‘ā’ and the one of al-Yamāma. The two men who would break Arabia are named in one sentence, by their cities, before either of them had risen. Beats: 1. The Prophet ﷺ tells a dream — While he was asleep, he was brought the treasures of the earth. 2. Two bracelets of gold — Two gold bracelets were placed in his hands, and they weighed heavily on him. 3. He blows, and they are gone — He was inspired to blow on them; he blew, and they went. 4. Two liars, named by their cities — He read them as the two liars he stood between: the man of Ṣan‘ā’ and the man of al-Yamāma. 5. Named before either had risen — The two men who would break Arabia are named together, in one sentence, before either had risen. Quote after beat: 4 The statement:

بينا أنا نائم أتيتُ بجزائن الأرض، فوضع في كفي سواران من ذهب، فكبراً عليّ،
فأوحى إليّ أن انفخهما، فنفختهما، فذهبا فأولتهما الكذابين اللذين أنا بينهما؛ صاحب صنعاء، وصاحب اليمامة

— صحيح البخاري ٤٣٧٥ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/2206> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٥ ص ٢٢

همّام بن مُنَبِّهٍ from أبي هريرة^{رض}

English: "While I was sleeping I was brought the treasures of the earth, and two bracelets of gold were placed in my hands, and they weighed heavily on me. It was revealed to me that I should blow on them; so I blew on them, and they went. And I interpreted them as the two liars between whom I stand — the man of Ṣan‘ā’ and the man of al-Yamāma."

عبرت: The two claims that broke the peninsula are named together, by their cities, in one sentence. Hands-up? no ⚠ OCR/typography caveat, logged in $4.2 and repeated here because this one is going on a slide. The Shamela text prints «انفخهما» with a stray shadda in the ٤٣٧٥ wording, while the ٤٣٧٣ wording on ص ٢١ ج ٥-٢٢ prints «انفخهما». Read this off a printed page image or a critical البخاري before it reaches a slide. One wrong letter kills the point of quoting it.

2. The Persians of Yemen

Runsheet: Who the Abnā' were

Tier: GOOD · When: shortly before the Prophet's ﷺ birth [SOURCED] · Map: the whole of Yemen shaded Ḥimyar, then Abyssinian, then a single arrow from Persia down the Gulf to صنعاء, and the word الأبناء settling over it. What happened: Before Islam, Yemen had been a kingdom of Ḥimyar, then was taken by the Abyssinians under Abraha — the Abraha of the Elephant. A prince of Ḥimyar, Sayf b. Dhī Yazan, went to Caesar for help and was refused; he went to Kistrā. Kistrā sent with him men taken out of his prisons, under a commander called Wahriz. They broke the Abyssinians and took Ṣan‘ā’ — a little before the birth of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, Ibn Kathīr says elsewhere. Those Persians stayed, married among the Arabs, and their children were called simply "the Sons" — the Abnā’ — a name that stuck, the editor of Ibn Kathīr's text explains, because their mothers were of a different people from their fathers. Fayrūz and Dādhawayh, whom we meet again in Ṣan‘ā’, were of them. Beats: 1. Ḥimyar, then the Abyssinians — Before Islam Yemen was a kingdom of Ḥimyar; then the Abyssinians took it, under Abraha of the Elephant. 2. A prince of Ḥimyar seeks help — Sayf b. Dhī Yazan went to Caesar and was refused; then he went to Kistrā. 3. Kistrā sends men from his prisons — Kistrā sent with him men taken out of his prisons, under a commander called Wahriz. 4. Ṣan‘ā’ taken from the Abyssinians — They broke the Abyssinians and took Ṣan‘ā’, a little before the birth of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. 5. The Abnā’, the Sons — Those Persians stayed and married among the Arabs; their children were called the Abnā’, "the Sons". 6. Two men of the Abnā’ — Fayrūz^{رض} and Dādhawayh, whom we meet again in Ṣan‘ā’, were of the Abnā’. Quote after beat: 4 The statement:

ثم اتفق الحال على أن بعث معه من بالسجون طائفة تقدمهم رجل منهم يقال له:
وهرز، فاستنقذ ملك اليمن من الحبشة

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3158>

English: "Then it was settled that he would send with him a party of those in the prisons, led by one of them called Wahriz — and he recovered the kingdom of Yemen from the Abyssinians."

عبرت: A garrison sent to serve a foreign king became, two generations later, the men who held Yemen for Islam. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

ثم استرجعه سيف بن ذي يزن الحميري وكان ذلك قبل مولد رسول الله ﷺ بقليل

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/839> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٢ ص ٤١١

English: "Then Sayf b. Dhī Yazan al-Ḥimyarī recovered it — and that was a little before the birth of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ."

الأبناء: قوم من أبناء فارس أرسلهم كسرى مع سيف بن ذي يزن لما جاء يستنجدهم على الحبشة فنصروه وملكوا اليمن وتديروها وتزوجوا من العرب. ف قيل لأولادهم الأبناء وغلب عليهم هذا الاسم لأن أمهاتهم من غير جنس آبائهم.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3188> · (اللسان citing) ج ٧ ص ٤٢ editor's footnote, البدايه والنهايه

English: "The Abnā': a people of the sons of Persia whom Kistrā sent with Sayf b. Dhī Yazan when he came seeking their help against the Abyssinians. They helped him, took Yemen, settled in it and married among the Arabs — so their children were called 'the Sons', and the name stuck, because their mothers were not of their fathers' race."

The definition of «الأبناء» is the editor's footnote at ج ٧ ص ٤٢, not Ibn Kathīr's text — say "the editor explains".

3. «My Lord has killed your lord tonight»

Runsheet: Bādhām and Kistrā · SKIP BEATS 8

Tier: CORE · When: in the Prophet's ﷺ Medinan years; the book gives no year [SOURCED] · Map: a line from المدينة to Persia (Kistrā's letter torn), a line from Persia to صنعاء (the order), two men riding صنعاء → المدينة, and back. What happened: The Prophet ﷺ wrote to Kistrā. Kistrā saw that the letter began with the sender's name before his own, tore it up without reading it, and ordered his governor in Yemen, Bādhām, to send this man to him in chains. Bādhām chose two sensible officers and told them: if he is a liar, bring him; if not, come back and tell me. They stayed in Medina a whole month. When they pressed for an answer, the Prophet ﷺ said: go back and tell your master that my Lord has killed his lord tonight.

They wrote down the night. Bādhām said: count the night — if it is so, he is a prophet. Then letters came from Persia: Kistrā had been killed that very night, by his own sons. And Islam entered the heart of Bādhām, and of the Persians of Yemen with him. Beats: 1. A letter to Kistrā, torn unread — The Prophet ﷺ wrote to Kistrā; seeing the sender's name before his own, Kistrā tore it unread. 2. Kistrā's order to Bādhām — Kistrā ordered his governor in Yemen, Bādhām, to send the man to him in chains. 3. Two officers ride to Medina — Bādhām chose two sensible officers: bring him only if his claim is false; otherwise come back and tell me. 4. A whole month in Medina — The two officers stayed in Medina a whole month, then pressed for an answer. 5. "My Lord has killed your lord tonight" — The Prophet ﷺ said: go back and tell your master that my Lord has killed his lord tonight. 6. Count the night — The officers wrote down the night. Bādhām said: count it; if it is so, he is a prophet. 7. Kistrā killed that very night — Letters came from Persia: Kistrā had been killed that very night, by his own sons. 8. Islam enters Bādhām's heart — Islam entered the heart of Bādhām, and of the Persians of Yemen with him. Quote after beat: 5

The statement:

فقال لهما: ارجعا إلى صاحِبِكما فأخبراه أن ربي قد قتل الليلة ربّه، فأرّخا ذلك
عندهما ثم رجعا سريعًا إلى اليمن

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3159>

English: "He said to them: go back to your master and tell him that my Lord has killed his lord tonight. They dated it, and went back quickly to Yemen."

عبرت: The first Muslims of Yemen's ruling house came to Islam by checking a date. Hands-up? Before the answer: "Two officers come to arrest a man and stay a month. What do you think they told their governor?" Next: E-AW19 carries what follows on the same page — Shīrawayh's letter, Bādhām's Islam, and the deputyship of the whole of Yemen until his death.

4. The whole of Yemen, until he died

Runsheet: The arrangement: Bādhām kept over all Yemen until he died; then Shahr over Ṣan‘ā’ and Companions sent out — ‘Alī^{رضي} and Khālīd first, in 10 AH (the page does not say which Khālīd)

Tier: CORE · When: the year 10 AH (631–632 CE) [SOURCED] for the Companions sent; CE

[STANDARD] ; Bādhām's Islam and death undated on the pages read · Map: all of Yemen washed in one colour under صنعاء — Bādhām's. Then the wash breaks: صنعاء alone stays with Shahr, and riders come down from المدينة into Yemen — two, then two more.

Destinations are not given for the first pair; do not draw them to a place. What happened:

In Persia, the son who took Kistrā's throne, Shīrawayh, wrote to Bādhām: take the oath of allegiance for me from those under you — and as for that man in Arabia, do not dishonour him; honour him. And Islam entered the heart of Bādhām, of his family, and of the Persians of Yemen. He sent word of his Islam to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ — and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sent him back the deputyship of the whole of Yemen, and did not remove him from it until he died. When Bādhām died, his son Shahr was made deputy over Ṣanʿāʾ and some of its districts, and a party of the Prophet's ﷺ Companions went out as deputies over the others: first, in the year ten, ʿAlī^{رض} and Khālīd^{رض} — Ibn Kathīr gives them no further names — and after them Muʿādh^{رض} and Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī^{رض}. Ibn al-Athīr has the deputyship in one line: when Bādhām and the people of Yemen accepted Islam, the Prophet ﷺ gave him the governorship of all Yemen, and he held it until he died. Beats: 1.

Shīrawayh writes to Bādhām — Shīrawayh, Kistrā's son and successor, wrote: take allegiance for me; do not dishonour that man in Arabia; honour him. 2. Islam enters Bādhām's heart — Islam entered the heart of Bādhām, of his family, and of the Persians of Yemen. 3.

Deputy over the whole of Yemen — Bādhām sent word of his Islam; the Prophet ﷺ made him deputy over the whole of Yemen. 4. Never removed, until he died — He was not removed from it until he died. Ibn Kathīr and Ibn al-Athīr both record it. 5. Bādhām dies; Shahr holds Ṣanʿāʾ — When Bādhām died, his son Shahr was made deputy over Ṣanʿāʾ and some of its districts. 6. Companions go out as deputies — Over the other districts went Companions: first, in the year ten, ʿAlī^{رض} and Khālīd^{رض}. 7. Then Muʿādh^{رض} and Abū Mūsā^{رض} — After them the Prophet ﷺ sent Muʿādh^{رض} and Abū Mūsā al-Ashʿarī^{رض}. Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

وبعث إلى رسول الله ﷺ بإسلامه، فبعث إليه رسول الله ﷺ بنياة اليمن بكماها، فلم يعزله عنها حتى مات

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3159>

English: "He reported his Islam; the Messenger of Allah ﷺ sent him the deputyship of all Yemen, and did not remove him until he died."

عبرت: The governor told to send him in chains became his deputy over the whole of Yemen — and was never removed. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وقام بالملك بعده ولده شيرويه وكتب إلى باذام أن خُذْ لي البيعة من قبلك، واعمد إلى ذلك الرجل فلا تهنه وأكرمهُ

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3159>

English: "His son Shīrawayh took up the kingship after him, and wrote to Bādhām: take the oath of allegiance for me from those under you; and as for that man — do not dishonour him, and honour him."

فدخل الإسلام في قلب باذام وذريته من أبناء فارس ممن باليمن

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3159>

English: "So Islam entered the heart of Bādhām and of his offspring among the sons of Persia who were in Yemen."

فلما مات استناب ابنه شهر بن باذام على صنعاء وبعض مخاليف، وبعث طائفة من أصحابه نواباً على مخاليف آخر، فبعث أولاً في سنة عشر علياً وخالدًا، ثم أرسل معاذًا وأبا موسى الأشعري وفرق عمالة اليمن بين جماعة من الصحابة

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3159>

English: "When he died, [the Prophet ﷺ] made his son Shahr b. Bādhām deputy over Ṣan‘ā’ and some districts, and sent a party of his Companions as deputies over other districts. He sent first, in the year ten, ‘Alī and Khālīd; then he sent Mu‘ādh and Abū Mūsā al-Ash‘arī, and divided the governorship of Yemen among a group of the Companions."

وَكَانَ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَدْ جَمَعَ لِبَاذَانَ حِينَ أَسْلَمَ وَأَسْلَمَ أَهْلُ الْيَمَنِ - عَمَلَ الْيَمَنِ جَمِيعَهُ ... فَلَمْ يَزَلْ عَامِلًا عَلَيْهِ حَتَّى مَاتَ.

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٦ — <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/887>

English: "The Prophet ﷺ had gathered for Bādhān — when he accepted Islam and the people of Yemen accepted Islam — the governorship of all Yemen ... and he remained its governor until he died."

⚠ Which ‘Alī and which Khālīd, the page does not say. Khālīd b. Sa‘īd b. al-‘Āṣ is named a few lines later in the same list as a governor, so do not assume which Khālīd is meant, and do not supply a nasab for either aloud (§1.3, §8 item 12). No year is given for Bādhām's Islam or his death (§8 item 2). The name is Bādhām in Ibn Kathīr and Bādhān in Ibn al-Athīr — say which book you are reading (E-AW18).

5. Yemen divided, and a teacher on the road

Runsheets: The governors of 10 AH · SKIP BEATS 1

Tier: GOOD · When: the year 10 AH (631–632 CE) [SOURCED] for the year; CE [STANDARD] ·

Map: Yemen broken into labelled zones — صنعاء (Shahr), نَجْرَان (‘Amr b. Ḥazm), مأْرِب (Abū Mūsā), الجَنْد (Ya‘lā b. Umayya), هَمْدَان, عَك, حَضْرَمَوْت (Ziyād b. Labīd) — and one dotted line looping through all of them: Mu‘ādh.

What happened: When Bādhām died, the Prophet ﷺ did not appoint one man over Yemen again. He divided it. Bādhām's son Shahr kept Ṣan‘ā’. ‘Amr b. Ḥazm had Najrān; Khālīd b. Sa‘īd the country down to Zabīd; Abū Mūsā al-Ash‘arī had Ma‘rib; Ya‘lā b. Umayya al-Janad; ‘Āmir b. Shahr Hamdān; al-Ṭāhir b. Abī Hāla the tribe of ‘Akk; Ziyād b. Labīd Ḥaḍramawt. And Mu‘ādh b. Jabal was not tied to one district. He was a teacher, moving from one governor's country to the next. All of that, Ibn Kathīr says, was in the year ten — the end of the life of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Beats:

1. Yemen divided among governors — When Bādhām died, the Prophet ﷺ did not appoint one man over Yemen again. He divided it. 2. Four districts and their governors — Shahr kept Ṣan‘ā’; ‘Amr b. Ḥazm had Najrān; Khālīd b. Sa‘īd down to Zabīd; Abū Mūsā Ma‘rib. 3. And four more — Ya‘lā b. Umayya al-Janad; ‘Āmir b. Shahr Hamdān; al-Ṭāhir b. Abī Hāla ‘Akk; Ziyād b. Labīd Ḥaḍramawt. 4. Mu‘ādh, a teacher on the road — Mu‘ādh b. Jabal was tied to no district: a teacher, moving from one governor's country to the next. 5. All in the year ten — All of this, Ibn Kathīr says, was in the year ten: the end of the Prophet's ﷺ life. Quote after beat: 4 The statement:

وَكَانَ مُعَاذُ مُعَلِّمًا يَتَنَقَّلُ فِي عَمَالَةٍ كُلِّ عَامِلٍ بِالْيَمَنِ وَحَضْرَمَوْتِ.

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٦ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/887>

English: "And Mu‘ādh was a teacher, moving through the district of every governor in Yemen and Ḥaḍramawt."

عبرت: The state in Yemen was a map of governors — and one man who belonged to all of them. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

فَلَمَّا مَاتَ بَاذَانُ فَرَّقَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - أُمَرَاءَهُ فِي الْيَمَنِ

— ١٩٦ ص ٢ في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/887>

English: "When Bādhān died, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ divided his governors across Yemen."

وذلك كله في سنة عشر، آخر حياة رسول الله ﷺ فبينما هم على ذلك إذ نجم

— ١٤ ص ٧ البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3160>

English: "All of that was in the year ten, the end of the life of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ — and while they were so, there appeared ..."

Full district table with Ibn Kathīr's variants: §1.3. Comes after E-AW19, which carries Shahr and the first Companions sent.

6. 'Abhala, "the veiled one"

Runsheet: Name + laqab + one sentence, in one breath

Tier: CORE · When: after Ḥajjat al-Wadā', 10 AH (632 CE) [SOURCED] ; CE [STANDARD] · Map:

مذحج country shaded; a small mark in it, كهف حُبَان, unplaced beyond "in Yemen". What happened: His name was 'Abhala b. Ka'b, of 'Ans, a clan of the great tribe of Madhḥij — which is why he is called al-'Ansī. People called him Dhū al-Khimār, the veiled one, because he was never seen without a turban and a veil across his face. The books say he was a conjuror who showed people wonders, and that whoever heard him speak was taken by his voice. When the Prophet ﷺ came back from the Farewell Pilgrimage and was taken ill from the journey — not yet the illness he died of — the news reached this man. He claimed prophethood, and Madhḥij followed him. Ibn al-Athīr and al-Dhahabī both give it the same title: the first apostasy in Islam, in the Prophet's ﷺ own lifetime. Beats: 1. 'Abhala b. Ka'b, of 'Ans — His name was 'Abhala b. Ka'b, of 'Ans, a clan of the great tribe of Madhḥij: hence al-'Ansī. 2. Dhū al-Khimār, the veiled one — People called him the veiled one: he was never seen without a turban and a veil across his face. 3. A conjuror with a captivating voice — The books say he was a conjuror who showed people wonders; whoever heard him speak was taken by his voice. 4. News of an illness reaches him — The Prophet ﷺ returned from the Farewell Pilgrimage ill from the journey, not his final illness; news reached 'Abhala. 5. Madhḥij follows his claim — On that news he claimed prophethood, and the tribe of Madhḥij followed him. 6. The first apostasy in Islam — Ibn al-Athīr and al-Dhahabī both call it the first apostasy in Islam, in the Prophet's ﷺ own lifetime. Quote after beat: 2 The statement:

وَكَانَ يُلقَّبُ ذَا الْخِمَارِ؛ لِأَنَّهُ كَانَ مُعْتَمًا مُتَخِمِّرًا أَبَدًا.

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٦ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/887>

English: "He was nicknamed Dhū al-Khimār, because he was always turbaned and veiled."

عبرت: He moved on the news that the Prophet ﷺ was ill — the first of these claims was timed to it. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وَكَانَ الْأَسْوَدُ الْعَنْسِيُّ لَمَّا عَادَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مِنْ حَجَّةِ
الْوَدَاعِ، وَتَمَرَّضَ مِنَ السَّفَرِ غَيْرَ مَرَضٍ مَوْتِهِ بَلَغَهُ ذَلِكَ، فَادَّعَى النُّبُوَّةَ، وَكَانَ مُشْعِبًا
يُرِيهِمُ الْأَعَاجِيبَ، فَاتَّبَعَتْهُ مَذْحِجٌ، وَكَانَتْ رِدَّةُ الْأَسْوَدِ أَوَّلَ رِدَّةٍ فِي الْإِسْلَامِ عَلَى عَهْدِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/888> · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٧ —

English: "When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ returned from Hajjat al-Wadā' and fell ill from the journey — an illness other than the one he died of — news of it reached al-Aswad, and he claimed prophethood. He was a conjuror who showed them wonders, and Madhḥij followed him. The apostasy of al-Aswad was the first apostasy in Islam, in the time of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ."
أول ردة كانت في الإسلام على عهد رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم على يد عبهلة بن كعب، وهو الأسود، في عامة مذحج: خرج بعد حجة الوداع،

وكان شعباذا يريهم الأعاجيب، ويسبي قلوب من يسمع منطقه

— <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1176> · (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء —

English: "The first apostasy in Islam, in the time of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, was at the hand of 'Abhala b. Ka'b — al-Aswad — among the generality of Madhḥij. He came out after Hajjat al-Wadā'. He was a conjuror who showed them wonders, and he captivated the hearts of whoever heard him speak."

كان الأسود العنسيّ واسمه عبهلة بن كعب ولقبه ذو الخمار، وكان كاهنا مشعوذا يفعل الأعاجيب ويخلب بحلاوة منطقه

— <https://shamela.ws/book/12320/1279> · تاريخ ابن خلدون ج ٢ ص ٤٨٢ —

English (Ibn Khaldūn): "Al-Aswad al-'Ansī — his name 'Abhala b. Ka'b, his nickname Dhū al-Khimār — was a soothsayer and a conjuror who worked wonders and beguiled with the sweetness of his speech."

Ibn Khaldūn is framing only — «كاهنا» (soothsayer) is his word; attribute it to him by name if used. Al-Dhahabī's report comes through Sayf b. 'Umar, from al-Ḍaḥḥāk b. Fayrūz, from his father.

7. Ten nights to Najrān, twenty-five to Ṣan'ā'

Runsheet: [HANDS] 1: "How many nights from his rising to Ṣan'ā'?" — ask at beat 1, before beat 3 · replaces TB28 — do not run both

Tier: CORE · When: the first twenty-five nights of his rising [SOURCED] · Map: كهف حُبان → نجران (write "10 nights") → صنعاء شعب outside صنعاء → صنعاء (write "25 nights"). صنعاء turns red. Then a red wash spreading, feathered, over Yemen. What happened: He came out with seven hundred fighting men and sent the Prophet's ﷺ governors a letter: you who rebel against us, hand back what you have taken of our land, keep what you have collected intact, for we have the better right to it. Ten nights after he came out he had Najrān. Then he made for Ṣan'ā'. The first men to stand against him, Ibn al-Athīr says, were Shahr, Fayrūz and Dādhawayh. Shahr, son of Bādhām, came out to meet him at a place called Sha'ūb, and was killed, and his army of the Abnā' was broken. On the twenty-fifth night al-Aswad was in Ṣan'ā'. A man at al-Janad remembered it arriving as news, one piece at a time: he is at Sha'ūb; Shahr has gone out to him; he has killed Shahr; he holds Ṣan'ā'. And the books say his affair spread like fire. Beats: 1. He comes out with seven hundred — Al-Aswad came out with seven hundred fighting men. 2. "You who rebel against us" — He wrote to the Prophet's ﷺ governors, calling them rebels: hand back our land; we have the better right. 3. Najrān in ten nights — Ten nights after he came out, he had Najrān. 4. The first to stand against him — Then he made for Ṣan'ā'. Ibn al-Athīr names the first to stand against him: Shahr, Fayrūz^ر and Dādhawayh. 5. Shahr killed at Sha'ūb — Shahr son of Bādhām met him at Sha'ūb, and was killed; his army of the Abnā' was broken. 6. Ṣan'ā' within the month — Al-Aswad held Ṣan'ā' on the twenty-fifth night, says Ibn Kathīr; after twenty-odd, says al-Dhahabī. 7. News at al-Janad, piece by piece — At al-Janad the news came in pieces: he is at Sha'ūb; Shahr went out; Shahr is killed; Ṣan'ā' is his. 8. Spreading like fire — And the books say his affair spread like fire. Quote after beat: 2 The statement:

وكتب إلى عُمَّالِ النبي ﷺ: أَيُّهَا الْمَتَمَرِّدُونَ عَلَيْنَا، أَمْسِكُوا عَلَيْنَا مَا أَخَذْتُمْ مِنْ أَرْضِنَا،
وَوَقِّرُوا مَا جَمَعْتُمْ، فَنَحْنُ أَوْلَى بِهِ، وَأَنْتُمْ عَلَى مَا أَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٤ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3160>

English: "He wrote to the Prophet's ﷺ governors: 'You who rebel against us — hand back what you have taken of our land, and keep intact what you have collected, for we have the better right to it; and stay as you are.'"

عبرت: He called the lawful governors the rebels — the first thing a usurper changes is the words. Hands-up? Before the numbers: "Seven hundred men. How long, do you think, to take Ṣan'ā'?" Also on the page:

ثم ركب فتوجّه إلى نَجْران فأخذها بعد عشر ليالٍ من مخرجه ثم قصد إلى صنعاء، فخرج إليه شَهْر بن باذام فتقاتلا، فغلبه الأسود وقتله، وكسر جيشه من الأبناء واحتلّ بلدة صنعاء لخمسٍ وعشرين ليلةً من مخرجه

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٤ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3160>

English: "Then he rode to Najrān and took it ten nights after he came out; then he made for Ṣanʿāʾ.

Shahr b. Bādhām came out against him and they fought; al-Aswad overcame him and killed him, broke his army of the Abnāʾ, and occupied the town of Ṣanʿāʾ twenty-five nights after he came out."

فبينما نحن ننظر في أمرنا إذ قيل: هذا الأسود بشعوب، وقد خرج إليه شهر بن باذام، ثم أتانا الخبر أنه قتل شهرا وهزم الأبناء، وغلب على صنعاء بعد نيف وعشرين ليلة

— (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء ص ٢٩ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1177>

English: "While we were considering our position, it was said: al-Aswad is at Shaʿūb, and Shahr b.

Bādhām has gone out against him. Then the news came to us that he had killed Shahr, routed the Abnāʾ, and taken Ṣanʿāʾ after twenty-odd nights."

وَكَانَ أَوَّلَ مَنْ اعْتَرَضَ الْأَسْوَدَ الْكَاذِبَ - شَهْرٌ، وَفَيْرُوزٌ، وَدَاذَوَيْه

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٧ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/888>

English: "The first to stand against al-Aswad the liar were Shahr, Fayrūz and Dādhawayh."

Ibn al-Athīr, same page: «وَاسْتَطَارَ أَمْرُهُ كَالْحَرِيقِ» — full quotation under E-AW06. The witness at al-Janad is ʿUbayd b. Ṣakhr (§2.2); al-Dhahabī's "twenty-odd nights" sits beside Ibn Kathīr's twenty-five — keep both. Supersedes E-TB28's first half.

8. The governors scatter

Tier: GOOD · When: after Ṣanʿāʾ fell [SOURCED] · Map: from صنعاء and مأرب, two blue lines joining and running east to حضرموت (Muʿādh^{رض} and Abū Mūsā^{رض}); two blue lines north to المدينة (ʿAmr b. Ḥazm^{رض}, Khālīd b. Saʿīd^{رض}); the rest pulling into the mountains of عك. What happened: Muʿādh b. Jabal left Ṣanʿāʾ in flight, reached Abū Mūsā at Maʿrib, and the two of them went on to Ḥaḍramawt. ‘Amr b. Ḥazm and Khālīd b. Sa‘īd went back to Medina. The other governors fell back on al-Ṭāhir b. Abī Hāla in the mountains of ‘Akk. Ibn al-Athīr says al-Aswad's hand reached from the desert of Ḥaḍramawt to al-Ṭā‘if, to al-Aḥsā’ and to Aden, and Ibn Kathīr says his kingdom grew strong and his affair hardened. A great many in Yemen apostatised. And the Muslims who stayed dealt with him by keeping their heads down and their faith hidden. Al-Dhahabī adds that al-Aswad never wrote to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ at all: there was no one to contest him, and the kingdom of Yemen was clear for him. At Ḥaḍramawt, Mu‘ādh married into the tribe of al-Sakūn, and they drew close around him. Beats: 1. Mu‘ādh and Abū Mūsā to Ḥaḍramawt — Mu‘ādh left Ṣan‘ā’ in flight, reached Abū Mūsā at Ma‘rib, and the two went on to Ḥaḍramawt. 2. Two governors return to Medina — ‘Amr b. Ḥazm and Khālīd b. Sa‘īd went back to Medina. 3. The rest fall back on ‘Akk — The other governors fell back on al-Ṭāhir b. Abī Hāla in the mountains of ‘Akk. 4. From Ḥaḍramawt to al-Ṭā‘if and Aden — Ibn al-Athīr: his hand reached from the desert of Ḥaḍramawt to al-Ṭā‘if, al-Aḥsā’ and Aden. 5. Many in Yemen apostatise — His kingdom grew strong and his affair hardened; a great many in Yemen apostatised. 6. The Muslims who stayed hide their faith — The Muslims who stayed dealt with him by keeping their heads down and their faith hidden. 7. He never wrote to the Prophet ﷺ — Al-Dhahabī: al-Aswad never wrote to the Prophet ﷺ; no one contested him, and Yemen was clear for him. 8. Mu‘ādh marries into al-Sakūn — At Ḥaḍramawt, Mu‘ādh married into the tribe of al-Sakūn, and they drew close around him. Quote after beat: 1 The statement:

وَحَرَجَ مُعَاذٌ هَارِبًا حَتَّى لَحِقَ بِأَبِي مُوسَى وَهُوَ بِمَأْرِبَ، فَلَحِقًا بِحَضْرَمَوْتَ

— ١٩٧ ص ٢ في التاريخ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/888>

English: "Mu‘ādh went out in flight until he reached Abū Mūsā at Ma‘rib, and the two of them went on to Ḥaḍramawt."

عبرت: The book writes down, without softening, that great Companions ran — and that running was how they lived to come back. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وَاسْتَتَبَ لِلْأَسْوَدِ مُلْكُ الْيَمَنِ، وَلَحِقَ أُمَرَاءُ الْيَمَنِ إِلَى الطَّاهِرِ بْنِ أَبِي هَالَةَ، إِلَّا عَمْرًا
وَحَالِدًا؛ فَاتَّهَمَا رَجَعَا إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/888> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٧

English: "The kingdom of Yemen was secured for al-Aswad. The governors of Yemen fell back on al-Ṭāhir b. Abī Hāla — except 'Amr and Khālid, who went back to Medina."

وَوَغَلَبَ الْأَسْوَدُ عَلَى مَا بَيْنَ مَفَازَةِ حَضْرَمَوْتَ إِلَى الطَّائِفِ، إِلَى الْبَحْرَيْنِ وَالْأَحْسَاءِ،
إِلَى عَدَنَ، وَاسْتَطَارَ أَمْرُهُ كَالْحَرِيقِ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/888> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٧

English: "Al-Aswad prevailed over everything from the desert of Ḥaḍramawt to al-Ṭā'if, to al-Baḥrayn and al-Aḥsā', to 'Adan — and his affair spread like a fire."

وَاشْتَدَّ مَلِكُهُ، وَاسْتَغْلَظَ أَمْرُهُ، وَارْتَدَّ خَلْقٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْيَمَنِ، وَعَامَلَهُ الْمُسْلِمُونَ الَّذِينَ
هَنَّاكَ بِالتَّقِيَّةِ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3160> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٤

English: "His kingdom grew strong and his affair hardened; a great many of the people of Yemen apostatized, and the Muslims who were there dealt with him by guarded concealment."

وَلَمْ يَكْتُبِ الْأَسْوَدُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ؛ لِأَنَّهُ لَمْ يَكُنْ مَعَهُ أَحَدٌ يَشَاغِبُهُ، وَصَفَا لَهُ مَلِكُ الْيَمَنِ.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1176> · (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء ص ٢٨

English: "Al-Aswad did not write to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, because there was no one with him to contest him, and the kingdom of Yemen was clear for him."

Drawing the reach: «مَا بَيْنَ مَفَازَةِ حَضْرَمَوْتَ إِلَى الطَّائِفِ» is a claim of dominance — a feathered zone, not a frontier. (Musaylima, by contrast, did write — that contrast is our observation, not a sentence on these pages; for the room, not for a slide.)

9. His three commanders, and the widow of Shahr

Tier: CORE · When: during his three or four months [SOURCED] · Map: inside صنعاء, three labels under al-Aswad's mark — مدحج: 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib · the army: Qays · الأبناء: Fayrūz and Dādhawayh. What happened: He had to govern what he had taken. Over Madhḥij he put 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib. Over the army, Qays b. 'Abd Yaghūth — the man also called Qays b. Makshūḥ. Over the Abnā', the Persians of Ṣan'ā', two of their own: Fayrūz al-Daylamī and Dādhawayh. And he married the widow of the man he had killed, Shahr son of Bādhām. She was Fayrūz's cousin. Ibn Kathīr gives her name, and he says two things about her: that she was beautiful — and that she was a believer in Allah and His Messenger, and one of the righteous. Then, once he felt secure, al-Aswad began to treat all three of his commanders with contempt. Beats: 1. Madhḥij: 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib — He had to govern what he had taken. Over Madhḥij he put 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib. 2. The army: Qays b. Makshūḥ — Over the army, Qays b. 'Abd Yaghūth: the man also called Qays b. Makshūḥ. 3. The Abnā': Fayrūz^{رض} and Dādhawayh — Over the Abnā', the Persians of Ṣan'ā', two of their own: Fayrūz al-Daylamī^{رض} and Dādhawayh. 4. He marries the widow of Shahr — He married the widow of the man he had killed, Shahr son of Bādhām. She was Fayrūz's^{رض} cousin. 5. Zādh: a believer, one of the righteous — Ibn Kathīr names her Zādh: beautiful, and a believer in Allah and His Messenger ﷺ, one of the righteous. 6. Contempt for his commanders — Once he felt secure, al-Aswad began to treat all three of his commanders with contempt. Quote after beat: 5 The statement:

وتزوّج بامرأة شهر بن باذام وهي ابنة عمّ فيروز الدّيلمي، واسمها زاذ، وكانت امرأة حسناء جميلة، وهي مع ذلك مؤمنة بالله ورسوله محمد ﷺ، ومن الصالحات.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٤ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3160>

English: "He married the wife of Shahr b. Bādhām — the daughter of Fayrūz al-Daylamī's uncle. Her name was Zādh. She was a beautiful woman — and with that, a believer in Allah and His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ, and one of the righteous."

عبرت: He put the men he had defeated in charge of their own people, and married into the house he had destroyed — and kept the enemy inside his own walls. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وكان خليفته على مَذْحِج عمرو بن معدي كرب، وأسند أمر الجند إلى قيس بن عبد يغوث، وأسند أمر الأبناء إلى فيروز الدَّيْلَمي ودادويه

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٤ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3160>

English: "His deputy over Madhḥij was 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib; he gave command of the army to Qays b.

'Abd Yaghūth, and command of the Abnā' to Fayrūz al-Daylamī and Dādhawayh."

Name: Zādh in البدايه, Āzād in الكامل ج ٢ ص ١٩٨. Say "Ibn Kathīr calls her Zādh".

10. "By open fight, or by stealth"

Runsheet: The Prophet's ﷺ letter (gist only; the text does not survive)

Tier: CORE · When: the Prophet's ﷺ last months, in his lifetime [SOURCED] · Map: one rider, المدينة → صنعاء (Wabr b. Yuḥannas). From صنعاء, thin lines out to همدان, نجران, and the chiefs of the highlands — held, not yet moving. What happened: Word of al-Aswad reached Medina, and the Prophet ﷺ wrote. A man named Wabr b. Yuḥannas brought the letters to Ṣan'ā' — to Fayrūz, to Dādhawayh, and to a third man, Jishnas al-Daylamī, who later told the story. The order was to fight al-Aswad, either in the open or by stealth, and to write to everyone who still held to religion. Jishnas says they looked at Qays and reasoned: Qays is afraid for his life; he will answer the first call. They went to him with the Prophet's ﷺ message, and it was, he says, as if they had come down to him out of the sky. Letters went to Najrān as well, and the people of Najrān answered him; the chiefs of the highlands wrote offering help, and the men in Ṣan'ā' told them to wait. And al-Aswad felt it closing. Ibn al-Athīr notes that Abū Bakr[ؓ], after him, fought the apostates the same way — with envoys. Beats: 1. Medina hears of al-Aswad — Word of al-Aswad reached Medina, and the Prophet ﷺ wrote. 2. Wabr brings the letters to Ṣan'ā' — Wabr b. Yuḥannas brought them to Fayrūz, to Dādhawayh, and to Jishnas al-Daylamī, who later told the story. 3. By open fight, or by stealth — The order: fight al-Aswad, in the open or by stealth, and write to all who still held to religion. 4. Qays will answer the first call — Jishnas says they reasoned: Qays is afraid for his life; he will answer the first call. 5. As if from the sky; Qays answers — They gave Qays the Prophet's ﷺ message; it was as if they had come down to him from the sky. 6. Najrān answers too — Letters went to Najrān as well, and the people of Najrān answered. 7. The highland chiefs are told to wait — The chiefs of the highlands wrote offering help; the men in Ṣan'ā' told them to wait. 8. Al-Aswad senses his ruin — Word of it reached al-Aswad, and he felt it closing: he sensed his ruin. 9. Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} would fight the same way — Ibn al-Athīr: after the Prophet ^ﷺ, Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} fought the apostates the same way, with envoys. Quote after beat: 3 The statement:

فَجَاءَنَا كُتُبُ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَأْمُرُنَا بِقِتَالِهِ، إِمَّا مُصَادِمَةً أَوْ غِيْلَةً

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/889>

English: "The letters of the Prophet ^ﷺ came to us, ordering us to fight him — either in open battle or by stealth."

عبرت: The claim that began on news of his illness was ended by the letters he sent. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

فَقُلْنَا: إِنَّ قَيْسًا يَخَافُ عَلَى دَمِهِ، فَهُوَ لِأَوَّلِ دَعْوَةٍ، فَدَعَوْنَاهُ وَأَبْلَغْنَاهُ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَكَأَنَّمَا نَزَلْنَا عَلَيْهِ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ، فَأَجَابَنَا

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/889>

English: "We said: Qays fears for his life, so he will answer the first call. We called him and gave him the message from the Prophet ^ﷺ — and it was as though we had come down to him from the sky.

He answered us."

وَكَتَبَ أَيْضًا إِلَى أَهْلِ نَجْرَانَ فَأَجَابُوهُ، وَبَلَغَ ذَلِكَ الْأَسْوَدُ، وَأَحَسَّ بِالْهَلَاكِ

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/889>

English: "He ^ﷺ also wrote to the people of Najrān, and they answered him. That reached al-Aswad, and he sensed his ruin."

فَحَارَبَهُمْ أَبُو بَكْرٍ بِمَا كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يُحَارِبُهُمْ؛ بِالرُّسُلِ

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٠١ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/892>

English: "So Abū Bakr fought them with what the Messenger of Allah ^ﷺ had fought them with — with envoys."

Framing, by name — Ibn Khaldūn, never alone:

وحاربهم رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم بالرسول والكتب إلى عماله ومن ثبت على إسلامه من قومهم أن يجذّوا في جهادهم، فأصيب الأسود قبل وفاته بيوم ولم يشغله ما كان فيه من الوجد عن أمر الله والذبّ عن دينه

— تاريخ ابن خلدون ج ٢ ص ٤٨٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/12320/1281>

English (Ibn Khaldūn): "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ fought them with envoys and with letters to his governors and to those of their people who held to Islam, to strive against them. Al-Aswad was struck down a day before his death — and the pain he was in did not distract him from the command of Allah and the defence of His religion."

Ibn Khaldūn's «قبل وفاته بيوم» is his reading of the timing, never the date (E-AW15).

11. "What does the angel say?"

Runsheet: △ Qays's and Fayrūz's words call al-Aswad a prophet (they said it to survive).

Keep that line off the slide face

Tier: GOOD · When: Ṣan'ā', the days before the killing [SOURCED] · Map: no movement — the map holds on صنعاء, and the slide carries the statement. What happened: Al-Aswad summoned Qays. He told him the one who spoke to him — he called it the angel; the books call it his shayṭān — had said: you raised Qays up until he went in by every door and stood as high as you, and now he leans toward your enemy and reaches for your kingdom. Qays swore he would never think such a thing — and Ibn Kathīr adds, flatly, that he lied — swearing by al-Aswad's own nickname. Al-Aswad said: the angel spoke the truth, and now it knows you have repented. Then he called in the other three: did I not raise you over your people? What is this I hear? They said: pardon us this once. They came out, Qays says, barely alive — al-Aswad still suspicious of them, and they in danger. Later al-Aswad called Qays in again; Qays went in with ten men of his tribe around him, and al-Aswad could not kill him in front of them. In al-Dhahabī's telling he said: I am 'Abhala — is it from me that you shelter behind men? Did I not tell you the truth, while you told me lies? You want to kill me! Qays offered him his life; al-Aswad softened, and let him go. Qays walked out, passed his companions without sitting down, and said three words. Beats: 1. Al-Aswad summons Qays — Al-Aswad told Qays his shayṭān, as the books call it, had said: Qays now reaches for your kingdom. 2. Qays swears, and lies — Qays swore he would never think such a thing; Ibn Kathīr adds, flatly, that he lied. 3. "Now you have repented" — Al-Aswad accepted the oath: Qays, he said, had now repented. 4. He calls in the other three — Did I not raise you over your people? What is this I hear? They said: pardon us this once. 5. Out barely alive — They came out, Qays says, barely alive: al-Aswad still suspicious of them, and they in danger. 6. Qays comes in with ten men — Called in again, Qays came with ten men around him; al-Aswad could not kill him before them. 7. "I am 'Abhala" — In al-Dhahabī's telling: is it from me that you shelter behind men? You want to kill me! 8. Qays offers his life; al-Aswad relents — Qays offered him his life; al-Aswad softened, and let him go. 9. "Do what you have to do" — Qays walked out, passed his companions without sitting down, and said: do what you have to do. Quote after beat: 9 The statement:

فَرَّقَ لَهُ وَتَرَكَهُ، وَخَرَجَ قَيْسٌ فَمَرَّ بِنَا وَقَالَ: اَعْمَلُوا عَمَلَكُمْ. وَلَمْ يَقْعُدْ عِنْدَنَا.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/889> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٨

English: "He softened towards him and let him be. Qays came out, passed by us, and said: 'Do what you have to do.' And he did not sit down with us."

عبرت: A man who needs an informer from the unseen to trust his own commanders has already lost them. Hands-up? no △ Qays's and Fayrūz's words to al-Aswad in these scenes address him as a prophet — men lying to survive. Keep those lines off the slide face. Al-Dhahabī reads «فاقتلكم» where Ibn Kathīr reads «فأقيلكم» — keep both. Also on the page:

فدعا قَيْسُ بن مكشوح، فقال له: يا قَيْسُ ما يقولُ هذا؟ قال: وما يقول؟ قال

يقول: عمدت إلى قيس فأكرمته حتى إذا دخل منه كلّ مدخل، وصار في العزّ

مثلك، مال ميلَ عدوّك، وحاول ملكك، وأضمرَ على الغدر

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٥ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3161>

English: "He summoned Qays b. Makshūḥ and said: Qays, what is this one saying? He said: and what does he say? He said: he says — you took up Qays and honoured him, until he had gone in by every door and stood in honour like you; and then he leaned the way your enemy leans, reached for your kingdom, and hid treachery."

فقال له قيس وحلف له فكذب: وذى الخمار لأنّ أعظم في نفسي وأجلّ عندي

من أن أحدث بك نفسي

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٥ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3161>

English: "Qays swore to him — and lied: 'By Dhū al-Khimār, you are too great in my soul and too exalted with me for me to think such a thing of you.'"

فقال: ألم أشرفكم على قومكم؟ قالوا: بلى، قال: فماذا يبلغني عنكم؟ فقالوا: أقلنا

مرّتنا هذه، فقال: لا يبلغني عنكم فأقبلكم، قال: فخرجنا من عنده ولم نكد، وهو

في ارتيابٍ من أمرنا، ونحنُ على خطرٍ

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٥ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3161>

English: "He said: did I not raise you above your people? They said: yes. He said: then what is this that reaches me about you? They said: pardon us this once. He said: let nothing reach me about you, and I will pardon you. We came out from him and barely did so — he suspicious of us, and we in danger."

فدخل في عشرة فلم يقدر على قتله معهم، وقال: أنا عبهلة أمني تتحصن بالرجال؟ ألم أخبرك الحق وتخبرني الكذب، تريد قتلي!

— (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء — <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1178> ص ٣٠

English: "He came in with ten, and he could not kill him with them there. He said: I am 'Abhala — is it from me you shelter behind men? Did I not tell you the truth while you told me lies? You want to kill me!"

The first two quotations are al-Aswad's "angel" speaking and Qays's lying oath «وذى الحمار» — notes only. Ibn al-Athīr has the ten as «فِي عَشْرَةٍ مِنْ مَذْحِجٍ وَهَمْدَانَ» (ج ٢ ص ١٩٨).

12. "Or kill him"

Tier: CORE · When: Ṣan‘ā’, the days before the killing [SOURCED] · Map: inside صنعاء, one mark: al-Aswad's palace. Nothing else moves. What happened: One of them went in to the widow. In Ibn Kathīr it is Qays; in Ibn al-Athīr and al-Dhahabī it is Jishnas. He said: cousin, you know what this man has done to your people. He killed your husband. He pressed the killing hard among your family, and he dishonoured the women. Will you stand with us against him? She said: to do what? He said: to put him out. She said: or to kill him. He said: or to kill him. She said: yes. By Allah, Allah has not made a person more hateful to me. He stands for no right of Allah, and he stops at nothing sacred. When you have made up your minds, tell me — and I will tell you how it can be done. Beats: 1. One of them goes in to the widow — Ibn Kathīr says it was Qays; Ibn al-Athīr and al-Dhahabī say Jishnas. The reports differ. 2. "He killed your husband" — Cousin, he killed your husband, pressed the killing among your family, dishonoured the women. Will you stand with us? 3. "Or to kill him" — She asked: to do what? To put him out, he said. She said: or to kill him. 4. She says yes — He said: or to kill him. She said: yes. By Allah, Allah has made no person more hateful to me. 5. "He stops at nothing sacred" — He stands for no right of Allah, and he stops at nothing sacred. 6. "I will tell you how" — When you have made up your minds, tell me, and I will tell you how it can be done. Quote after beat: 4 The statement:

قالت: على أي أمر، قلتُ إخراجَه، قالت: أو قتله، قلت: أو قتله، قالت: نعم،
والله ما خلقَ اللهُ شخصًا هو أبغضُ إليَّ منه

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ١٥ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3161>

English: "She said: to do what? I said: to put him out. She said: or to kill him. I said: or to kill him. She said: yes — by Allah, Allah has not created a person more hateful to me than he is."

عبرت: The men came to her with half a plan; she was the one who finished the sentence.

Hands-up? Before her answer: "Three men need someone inside the house. Who is the only person who can help them?" Also on the page:

فدخلت على امرأته زاذ، فقلت: يا ابنة عمي قد عرفت بلاءَ هذا الرجل عند
قومك، قتلَ زوجك، وطأطأ في قومك القتلَ، وفضحَ النساءَ، فهل عندك مملأةٌ عليه؟

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ١٥ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3161>

English: "I went in to his wife Zādh and said: cousin, you know what this man has done to your people — he killed your husband, pressed the killing hard among your people, and dishonoured the women. Will you side with us against him?"

فما يقومُ اللهُ على حقٍّ ولا ينتهي له عن حرمة، فإذا عزمتمُ أخبروني أعلمكم بما في هذا الأمر

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ١٥ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3161>

English: "He does not stand for any right of Allah, and he stops at nothing sacred. When you have decided, tell me, and I will tell you how the thing can be done."

قال: فَدَخَلْتُ عَلَى آزَادَ، وَهِيَ امْرَأَتُهُ الَّتِي تَزَوَّجَهَا بَعْدَ قَتْلِ زَوْجِهَا شَهْرٍ بَنٍ بَادَانَ

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٨ — <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/889>

English: "He said: I went in to Āzād — his wife, whom he had married after the killing of her husband Shahr b. Bādhān."

⚠ Who went in to her differs: Qays in البدايه («قال قيس»); the narrator Jishnas in الكامل and سير الراشدون ص ٣٠. Both agree on what she said. Say "one of them" aloud, or name the book.

13. A hundred beasts, and a spear

Tier: CORE · When: the last day before the killing [SOURCED] · Map: none — full-bleed statement slide. What happened: Then al-Aswad came out to them. He had a hundred head of cattle and camels brought. He drew a line on the ground, had the animals stood behind it, and stood on the other side — and slaughtered them, untethered and unhobbled, and not one of them crossed the line; they milled until they died. Qays said he never saw a thing more dreadful, nor a day more desolate. Then al-Aswad turned to Fayrūz: is what I hear about you true? I had a mind to slaughter you and send you after these beasts — and he showed him the spear. Fayrūz talked his way out, and was sent to divide the meat among the people of Ṣan‘ā’. When he hurried back, he found a man informing on him, and heard al-Aswad say: I will kill him tomorrow, and his companions.

Beats: 1. A hundred beasts behind a line — Al-Aswad had a hundred cattle and camels brought, drew a line on the ground, and stood them behind it. 2. Not one crossed the line — He slaughtered them untethered and unhobbled; not one crossed the line. They milled until they died. 3. "Nor a day more desolate" — Qays said he never saw a thing more dreadful, nor a day more desolate. 4. The spear shown to Fayrūz^{رض} — Al-Aswad turned to Fayrūz^{رض}: I had a mind to slaughter you after these beasts. He showed him the spear. 5. Sent to divide the meat — Fayrūz^{رض} talked his way out, and was sent to divide the meat among the people of Ṣan‘ā’. 6. A man informing on him — Hurrying back, Fayrūz^{رض} found a man informing on him. 7. "I will kill him tomorrow" — He heard al-Aswad say: I will kill him tomorrow, and his companions. Quote after beat: 7 The statement:

فإذا الأسود يقول: أنا قاتله غداً وأصحابه، فاعذ عليّ به

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٦ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3162>

English: "And al-Aswad was saying: I will kill him tomorrow, and his companions — bring him to me in the morning."

عبرت: Terror bought him one more day, and it told his enemies exactly how much time they had. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

إذ خرج الأسود عليهم وقد جمع له مئة ما بين بقرة وبعير، فقام وخطَّ خطاً وأقيمت
من ورائه، وقام دونها، فنحرها، غير مُحْبَسَةٍ ولا مُعَقَّلَةٍ، ما يقتحم الخطُّ منها شيء،
فجالت إلى أن زهقت أرواحها، قال قيس: فما رأيتُ أمراً كان أفظع منه، ولا يوماً أوحش منه

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٦ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3162>

English: "Al-Aswad came out on them, having gathered a hundred head, cattle and camels. He stood, drew a line, had them stood behind it, and stood on the near side — and slaughtered them, neither tethered nor hobbled, and not one of them crossed the line; they milled about until their lives went out. Qays said: I never saw a thing more dreadful, nor a day more desolate."

ثم قال الأسود: أحقُّ ما بلغني عنك يا فيروز؟ لقد هممت أن أنحرَّك فالحقُّ بهذه البهيمة، وأبدى له الحربة

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٦ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3162>

English: "Then al-Aswad said: is what reaches me about you true, Fayrūz? I had a mind to slaughter you and send you after these beasts — and he showed him the spear."

Qays's closing line «فما رأيتُ أمراً كان أفظع منه، ولا يوماً أوحش منه» is a strong second line if the slide has room. △ Fayrūz's reply to the spear addresses al-Aswad as a prophet in order to survive — notes only, never the face. Al-Dhahabī's narrator adds that he gave "a camel to each group and a cow to each household" when he divided the meat (الراشدون ص ٣١).

14. The one room without a guard

Tier: CORE · When: the evening before the killing [SOURCED] · Map: a floor-plan diagram, not a map — a house with guards drawn round every room but one, and that room's back wall on the road. What happened: They went back to the woman. She said: every room in this house has guards around it except this one. Its back wall is on the road. When it is evening, dig through from outside the guard — there is nothing between you and him — and I will leave a lamp and a weapon in the room. As her visitor came out, al-Aswad met him: what brought you in to my household? — and struck him on the head so hard that he fell. She screamed, and said: it is my cousin, come to visit me. He said: be quiet; I give him to you. The man ran to the others: we must go, now. They did not know what to do. Then a message came from her: do not turn back from what you decided. Fayrūz went in, loosened the lining of that wall from the inside so the digging would be quick, and sat with her openly like a guest. Al-Aswad walked in, and jealousy took him; she told him Fayrūz was her foster-brother and her cousin, and he threw him out. Beats: 1. The widow: every room guarded but one — Every room in this house has guards around it except this one. Its back wall is on the road. 2. A lamp and a weapon left ready — At evening, dig through from outside the guard. I will leave a lamp and a weapon in the room. 3. "What brought you in to my household?" — Al-Aswad met her visitor coming out and struck him down. Ibn Kathīr: Fayrūz^{رض}; Ibn al-Athīr and al-Dhahabī: Jishnas. 4. "My cousin, come to visit me" — She screamed: it is my cousin, come to visit me. He said: be quiet; I give him to you. 5. "We must go, now" — The struck man ran to the others: we must go, now. They did not know what to do. 6. "Do not turn back" — Then a message came from her: do not turn back from what you decided. 7. Fayrūz^{رض} loosens the wall — Fayrūz^{رض} went in, loosened the wall's lining from inside to speed the digging, and sat with her openly. 8. "My foster-brother, and my cousin" — Al-Aswad walked in and jealousy took him. She said Fayrūz^{رض} was her foster-brother and cousin; he threw him out. Quote after beat: 2 The statement:

إنه ليس من الدار بيت إلا والحرس محيطون به، غير هذا البيت، فإن ظهره إلى مكان كذا وكذا من الطريق، فإذا أمسيتُم فانقبوا عليه من دون الحرس

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ١٦ <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3162>

English: "There is no room in the house but the guards surround it — except this room. Its back is on such-and-such a place in the road. When evening comes, dig through to it from outside the guard."

عبرت: The house was guarded at every door, and undone through a wall by the one person he never thought to guard against. Hands-up? no Who was struck — Fayrūz in البدايه; Jishnas in الكامل and سير. Say "one of them" aloud. Also on the page:

فقال له: ما أدخلك على أهلي؟ ووجأ رأسه، وكان الأسود شديداً، فصاحت المرأة فأدهشته عنه، ولولا ذلك لقتله، وقالت: ابن عمي جاءني زائراً، فقال: اسكتي لا أباك لك، قد وهبته لك

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٦ <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3162>

English: "He said to him: what brought you in to my household? — and struck him on the head; al-Aswad was powerful. The woman screamed and startled him off him — had she not, he would have killed him — and she said: my cousin came to visit me. He said: be quiet, curse you; I give him to you."

فبعثت المرأة إليهم تقول لهم: لا تثنوا عما كنتم عازمين عليه

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٦ <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3162>

English: "The woman sent to them, saying: do not turn back from what you had resolved on."

فَدَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا الْأَسْوَدُ فَأَخَذَتْهُ غَيْرَةً، فَأَخْبَرَتْهُ بِرِضَاعٍ وَقَرَابَةٍ مِنْهَا عِنْدَهُ مُحَرَّمٌ، فَأَخْرَجَهُ

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٩ <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/890>

English: "Al-Aswad came in on her and jealousy seized him; she told him of a suckling-bond and a kinship with her that made him a mahram — and he put him out."

Ibn Kathīr's wording of her answer: «إنه أخي من الرضاعة، وهو ابن عمي» (ج ٧ ص ١٦).

15. The lamp under the bowl

Runsheet: Who struck the blow: the reports differ. Narrate, do not choose

Tier: CORE · When: [SOURCED, disputed] Rabī' al-Awwal 11 AH, some nights before the Prophet's ﷺ death, or one night · Map: the same floor-plan; a line through the back wall into the room. What happened: At night they dug through the wall and went in. There was a lamp in the room, covered by a bowl. Fayrūz went first — the strongest of them. Al-Aswad was asleep on a bed of silk, drunk, snoring, and the woman was sitting beside him. As Fayrūz reached the door, the sleeping man sat up, and a voice came out of him, still snoring: what have I to do with you, Fayrūz? Fayrūz knew that if he turned back now, he and the woman were both dead. He threw himself on him — a man, the books say, like a camel — took him by the head and broke his neck. The woman caught at his clothes, thinking it was not done. He said: I have killed him, and freed you of him. The others came in to finish it. The sound that came out of the body brought the guards running: what is this? And the woman said: the prophet is receiving revelation. And the guards went away.

Beats: 1. Through the wall by night — At night they dug through the wall and went in. A lamp was in the room, under a bowl. 2. Fayrūz goes first — Fayrūz went in first, the strongest of them. 3. Asleep on silk, drunk, snoring — Al-Aswad was asleep on a bed of silk, drunk and snoring; the woman sat beside him. 4. His shayṭān speaks, as Ibn Kathīr tells it — Fayrūz reached the door; al-Aswad sat up, still snoring; a voice said: what have I to do with you? 5. No turning back — Fayrūz knew that if he turned back now, he and the woman were both dead. 6. Fayrūz kills him — Fayrūz threw himself on him, a man like a camel, and killed him; the others were with him. 7. "I have killed him, and freed you" — She caught at his clothes, thinking it not done. He said: I have killed him, and freed you of him. 8. The guards sent away — The others came in to finish it; the noise brought the guards. The woman answered them, and they left. Quote after beat: 8 The statement:

فَقَالَتِ الْمَرْأَةُ: النَّبِيُّ يُوحَى إِلَيْهِ فَخَمَدُوا

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/890> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٩

English: "The woman said: the prophet is receiving revelation — and they fell quiet."

عبرت: The same claim that had frightened a country sent his own guards away from his door. Hands-up? no ⚠ NOT FOR THE SLIDE FACE: the statement is the widow telling al-Aswad's guards that "the prophet" is receiving revelation — words said to save lives. Keep the Arabic and its rendering in the notes. Also on the page:

فلما كان الليلُ نقبوا ذلك البيتَ فدخلوا فوجدوا فيه سراجًا تحتَ جفنةٍ فتقدّم إليه فيروز الديلمي والأسود نائِمٌ على فراشٍ من حرير، قد غرقَ رأسُه في جسده، وهو سكرانٌ يغطُّ، والمرأةُ جالسةٌ عنده، فلما قام فيروزُ على البابِ أجلسه شيطانهُ وتكلّم على لسانه - وهو مع ذلك يغطُّ - فقال: مالي ومالك يا فيروزُ؟

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٦ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3162>

English: "When night came they dug through into that room and went in, and found a lamp in it under a bowl. Fayrūz al-Daylamī went forward. Al-Aswad was asleep on a bed of silk, his head sunk into his body, drunk and snoring, and the woman sitting beside him. When Fayrūz stood at the door, his shayṭān sat him up and spoke on his tongue — while he still snored — and said: what have I to do with you, Fayrūz?"

فَحَشِيَ إِنْ رَجَعَ أَنْ يَهْلِكَ وَتَهْلِكَ الْمَرْأَةُ، فَعَاجَلَهُ وَخَالَطَهُ وَهُوَ مِثْلُ الْجَمَلِ، فَأَخَذَ بِرَأْسِهِ فَقَتَلَهُ وَدَقَّ عُنُقَهُ

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٩ — <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/890>

English: "He feared that if he turned back he would be killed and the woman with him; so he was on him at once and grappled him — and al-Aswad was like a camel — took him by the head, killed him and broke his neck."

فَأَخَذَتِ الْمَرْأَةُ بِثَوْبِهِ وَهِيَ تَرَى أَنَّهُ لَمْ يَقْتُلْهُ. فَقَالَ: قَدْ قَتَلْتُهُ وَأَرْحُتُكَ مِنْهُ

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٩ — <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/890>

English: "The woman caught hold of his garment, thinking he had not killed him. He said: I have killed him, and freed you of him."

Why Fayrūz went first: «كَانَ أَشَدَّنَا» — the strongest of us (الكامل ج ٢ ص ١٩٩) — «وكان أنجدنا» — the boldest of us (سير الراشدون ص ٣١). Who took the head is not agreed — "the other" (سير), Jishnas (الكامل), unnamed (سير). Say: Fayrūz killed him; the others were with him. That much is also in al-Bukhārī's text (البدايه ج ٥ ص ٢٢). Tell the physical detail once, plainly, and move on.

16. "And that 'Abhala is a liar"

Runsheet: The dawn adhān

Tier: CORE · When: the dawn after the killing [SOURCED] · Map: صنعاء turns from red to blue. Short red flickers leave it towards نجران and stay in between — his horsemen, not yet gone. What happened: They sat through the rest of the night deciding how to tell their own side, and agreed on a signal at first light. At dawn one of them climbed the wall of the fortress — Ibn Kathīr says Qays, or it is said Wabr; Jishnas says he did it himself — and called the adhān to a crowd of Muslims and unbelievers gathering below, with a new sentence in it. And he threw the head down to them. In al-Dhahabī's telling, Dādhawayh first called out their agreed signal, and Wabr gave the iqāma for the prayer. Al-Aswad's horsemen broke — but not before they raided the town, plundered, and snatched a great many children. The people of Ṣanʿāʾ held on to whichever of his men were in their houses, and when his riders counted, seventy of them were missing. So the two sides exchanged: yours for ours. His riders were left going back and forth between Ṣanʿāʾ and Najrān. The governors came back to their districts. The three men competed for the command, and settled on Muʿādh b. Jabal to lead the prayer. And they wrote the news to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Beats: 1. A signal agreed for first light — They sat the rest of the night deciding how to tell their own side, and agreed a signal for dawn. 2. The adhān from the fortress wall — At dawn the adhān was called from the wall: by Qays or Wabr, says Ibn Kathīr; by himself, says Jishnas. 3. A new sentence in the adhān — I bear witness that Muḥammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allah, and that 'Abhala is a liar. 4. The head thrown down — He threw al-Aswad's head down to the crowd of Muslims and unbelievers gathered below. 5. The signal and the iqāma — In al-Dhahabī's telling, Dādhawayh first called out the agreed signal, and Wabr gave the iqāma for the prayer. 6. His horsemen break, and raid — His horsemen broke, but first raided the town, plundered, and snatched a great many children. 7. Seventy missing: yours for ours — The people of Ṣanʿāʾ held his men in their houses; seventy were missing. The two sides exchanged: yours for ours. 8. Riders between Ṣanʿāʾ and Najrān — His riders were left going back and forth between Ṣanʿāʾ and Najrān. 9. The governors return — The Prophet's ﷺ governors came back to their districts. 10. The three settle on Muʿādh ^{رضي} — The three men competed for the command, then settled on Muʿādh b. Jabal ^{رضي} to lead the prayer. 11. News written to the Prophet ﷺ — And they wrote the news to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

فنادى قيسٌ ويقال: وبر بن يحنس، الأذان: أشهد أن محمدًا رسول الله، وأن عبهله
كذاب، وألقى إليهم رأسه فانهزم أصحابه

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٧ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3163>

English: "Qays — and it is said, Wabr b. Yuḥannas — called the adhān: 'I bear witness that Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allah, and that 'Abhala is a liar' — and threw his head down to them, and his followers broke."

عبرت: The rising was ended with the words of the adhān — and, the same morning, the victors were already competing for command. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

ثم ناديت بالأذان، وتوافت خيولهم إلى الحرس، فنادينهم: أشهد أن محمدا رسول الله، وأن عبهله كذاب، وألقينا إليهم الرأس، وأقام وبر الصلاة

— <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1180> · ص ٣٢ (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء —

English: "Then I called the adhān — their horsemen were gathering to the guard — and we called out to them: 'I bear witness that Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allah, and that 'Abhala is a liar,' and we threw the head down to them; and Wabr called the iqāma for the prayer."

وَأَحَاطَ بِنَا أَصْحَابُهُ وَحَرَسُهُ، وَشَنُّوا الْغَارَةَ، وَأَخَذُوا صَبِيَانًا كَثِيرَةً وَانْتَهَبُوا. فَنَادَيْنَا أَهْلَ صَنْعَاءَ مَنْ عِنْدَهُ مِنْهُمْ فَأَمْسِكُهُ، فَفَعَلُوا. فَلَمَّا خَرَجَ أَصْحَابُهُ فَقَدُوا سَبْعِينَ رَجُلًا، فَرَأَسَلُونَا، وَرَأَسَلْنَاهُمْ عَلَى أَنْ يَتْرُكُوا لَنَا مَا فِي أَيْدِيهِمْ، وَنَتْرِكَ مَا فِي أَيْدِينَا، فَفَعَلْنَا

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/890> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ١٩٩ —

English: "His companions and his guard surrounded us and raided, seized a great many children, and plundered. We called to the people of Ṣan'ā': whoever has one of them in his house, hold him — and they did. When his people got out, they found seventy men missing. They sent to us and we sent to them: they would leave us what was in their hands, and we would leave what was in ours. And we did."

وتنافسنا الإمارة، وتراجع أصحاب رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم، فاصطلحنا على معاذ بن جبل، فكان يصلي بنا

— <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1180> · ص ٣٢ (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء —

English: "We competed for the command; the Companions of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came back; and we made peace with one another on Mu'ādh b. Jabal, and he led us in prayer."

وتراجع نواب رسول الله ﷺ إلى أعمالهم وتنازع أولئك الثلاثة في الإمارة، ثم اتفقوا على معاذ بن جبل يصلي بالناس، وكتبوا بالخبر إلى رسول الله ﷺ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3163> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٧ —

English: "The deputies of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ went back to their districts. Those three disputed over the command, then agreed on Mu'ādh b. Jabal to lead the people in prayer, and wrote the news to the Messenger of Allah ﷺ."

⚠ Who called the adhān differs: Qays, or Wabr (البدايه); the narrator Jishnas (سير; الكامل), where Dādhawayh first calls the signal and Wabr gives the iqāma). The words of the call agree in every book. His riders "going back and forth between Ṣan'ā' and Najrān" (الكامل (ج ٢ ص ١٩٩) are the loose end the second Yemen rising picks up. Next: E-AW20 (how we know it was Fayrūz), then E-TB26 (the news from heaven) and E-TB27 (Fayrūz's three days). The seed of the second rising is here — (سير الراشدون ص ٣٢) «وتنافسنا الإمارة».

17. "Whom Fayrūz killed in Yemen"

Runsheets: The evening's "how do we know" line: say "in al-Bukhārī" — the detail around it comes through Sayf b. 'Umar

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH, the killing it names [SOURCED]; the dream itself is undated on the page · Map: none — a statement slide. If anything moves, it is a single mark on صنعاء.

What happened: How do we know it was Fayrūz? Nearly everything told tonight about that night reaches our books through one storyteller, Sayf b. 'Umar — so when three books agree, that is not three witnesses. One fact does not rest on him. Al-Bukhārī records the Prophet's ﷺ dream of two gold bracelets, which he took to mean the man of Ṣan'ā' and the man of al-Yamāma. In one version of it, told from Ibn 'Abbās, the narrator 'Ubayd Allāh b. 'Abd Allāh names the two: one was al-'Ansī, whom Fayrūz killed in Yemen; the other, Musaylima the liar. Ibn Kathīr quotes it from al-Bukhārī. So the long story of the tunnel and the lamp is what the chroniclers tell — and the name of the man who ended it is in al-Bukhārī. Beats: 1. How do we know it was Fayrūz? — Nearly all of that night reaches us through one storyteller, Sayf b. 'Umar: three books agreeing are not three witnesses. 2. One fact that does not rest on Sayf — Al-Bukhārī records the Prophet's ﷺ dream of two gold bracelets: the man of Ṣan'ā' and the man of al-Yamāma. 3. The name, in al-Bukhārī — From Ibn 'Abbās, the narrator 'Ubayd Allāh names them: al-'Ansī, whom Fayrūz killed in Yemen, and Musaylima. 4. What the chroniclers tell, what al-Bukhārī names — The tunnel and the lamp come from the chroniclers; the name of the man who ended it, from al-Bukhārī. Quote after beat: 3 The statement:

فقال عبيد الله: أحدهما العنسي الذي قتله فيروز باليمن، والآخر مسيلمة الكذاب.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٥ ص ٢٢ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/2206>

English: "Ubayd Allāh said: one of them was al-‘Ansī, whom Fayrūz killed in Yemen, and the other was Musaylima the liar."

عبرت: The chroniclers tell the long story; the one fact it hangs on is in al-Bukhārī. Hands-up? no △ Say "in al-Bukhārī", never "Ibn Kathīr says". The words from «يخرجان» to «قتله» are missing from the edition's two base texts, (أ) and (ط), and were restored by the دار ابن كثير editor from al-Bukhārī (his footnote 13). His reference for the passage is al-Bukhārī nos. 4378–4379 (footnote 5, same page). The dream itself, with «صاحب صنعاء، وصاحب اليمامة», is E-TB17 (the cold open) — this card closes the loop it opened. △ What this establishes, and what it does not. It establishes that Fayrūz killed al-‘Ansī. It does not establish the report that the Prophet ﷺ was told of the killing on the night itself (E-TB26), which Ibn Kathīr gives with Sayf b. ‘Umar's chain and no grading on any page read (§5.1, §8 item 6). Also on the page — how that other report is sourced:

وقد أطلعَه الله على الخبر من ليلته، كما قال سيف بن عمر التميمي

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٧ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3163>

English: "And Allāh had informed him of the news on that very night — as Sayf b. ‘Umar al-Tamīmī reported ..."

On the slide for E-TB26 it is "Ibn Kathīr and Ibn al-Athīr record"; it is not "authentic ḥadīth".

18. «قتل العنسي البارحة»

Runsheet: The report comes through Sayf, with no grading on any page we hold. Say "Ibn Kathīr reports"

Tier: CORE · When: before the Prophet's ﷺ death [SOURCED] · Map: صنعاء in red, and one line running not from the map at all but straight down onto المدينة. What happened: The first of the four claimants was killed inside Ṣan‘ā’, by three men of the city, while the Prophet ﷺ was still alive. And Ibn Kathīr says the news reached the Prophet ﷺ that same night, from above, before any rider could have carried it. He told them: al-‘Ansī was killed last night; a blessed man of a blessed household killed him. They asked who. He said: Fayrūz. Fayrūz. Beats: 1. The first claimant killed inside Ṣan‘ā’ — Three men of the city killed him there, while the Prophet ﷺ was still alive. 2. The news comes that same night — Ibn Kathīr reports it reached the Prophet ﷺ that night, from above, before any rider could carry it. 3. The Prophet ﷺ tells them — Al-‘Ansī was killed last night; a blessed man of a blessed household killed him. 4. They ask who — He named Fayrūz^{رضه}, and said the name twice. 5. The killing and the news: two dates — The killing came in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime; word reached Medina later, and the reports differ on when. Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

أتى الخبرُ إلى النبي ﷺ من السماء الليلة التي قُتل فيه العنسي لبشّرنا، فقال: قُتل العنسيُّ البارحة، قتله رجلٌ مباركٌ من أهل بيتٍ مباركين، قيل: ومن؟ قال: فيروزُ فيروزُ.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٧ <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3163>

English: "The news came to the Prophet ﷺ from heaven on the night al-‘Ansī was killed, to give us good tidings. He said: al-‘Ansī was killed last night — a blessed man of a blessed household killed him. It was said: and who? He said: Fayrūz. Fayrūz."

عبرت: The first of the four claims was already finished before the crisis that is named after it began. Hands-up? no ⚠️ Teach the distinction precisely, because the two dates are different things. The killing is before the Prophet's ﷺ death. The news reaching المدينة is at the end of ربيع الأول ١١هـ, after جيش أسامة marched — and Ibn Kathīr records a second report that the good news arrived on the morning the Prophet ﷺ died, then says «الأول». Do not adjudicate between the two on a slide. Cross-reference: the arrival of the news is already carded, as CUT, in the pool (ABU/E-U9, البدايه ج ٧ ص ١٢). This card is the killing itself, which is a different night.

19. Some nights before — or one night

Runsheet: Timing dispute. Do not adjudicate · SKIP BEATS 3

Tier: GOOD · When: Rabīʿ al-Awwal 11 AH (632 CE) [SOURCED] ; CE [STANDARD] · Map: the Line, not the map — two ticks almost touching: the killing in صنعاء, the Prophet's ﷺ death in المدينة; a third tick further on, end of Rabīʿ al-Awwal, for the news reaching Abū Bakr^{رضي}.

What happened: When Ibn Kathīr writes the notices for the dead of this year, he sums al-Aswad up in a paragraph. He came out of a town called Kahf Khubbān with seven hundred men. Within a month he held Ṣanʿāʾ, and all Yemen gathered to him in the shortest time. He had a shayṭān that served him cleverly — and it betrayed him when he needed it most. Three or four months later he was killed by true brothers and rightful commanders: Dādhawayh the Persian, Fayrūz al-Daylamī and Qays b. Makshūḥ. That was in Rabīʿ al-Awwal of the year eleven, some nights before the death of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ — and it is said, one night. And Allah knows best. The riders who carried the news reached Medina after the Prophet ﷺ had died; Ibn al-Athīr says it was the first good news Abū Bakr received as caliph. Beats: 1. Ibn Kathīr sums him up — From Kahf Khubbān with seven hundred men; within a month he held Ṣanʿāʾ, and all Yemen gathered to him. 2. A shayṭān that betrayed him — He had a shayṭān that served him cleverly, and it betrayed him when he needed it most. 3. Ibn Kathīr: true brothers, rightful commanders — Three or four months on, he was killed by Dādhawayh, Fayrūz al-Daylamī^{رضي} and Qays b. Makshūḥ. 4. Some nights before, or one night — Rabīʿ al-Awwal 11 AH: some nights before the Prophet's ﷺ death; and it is said, one night. Allah knows best. 5. The news reaches Medina — The riders with the news reached Medina after the Prophet ﷺ had died. 6. Abū Bakr's^{رضي} first good news — Ibn al-Athīr: it was the first good news Abū Bakr^{رضي} received as caliph. Quote after beat: 4 The statement:

وذلك في ربيع الأول من سنة إحدى عشرة، قبل وفاة رسول الله ﷺ بليال، وقيل بليلة، فإله أعلم.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٥٩ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3205>

English: "That was in Rabīʿ al-Awwal of the year eleven, some nights before the death of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ — and it is said, one night. And Allah knows best."

عبرت: The first of the claimants was dead before the Prophet ﷺ was — and the one who would have to answer Yemen's letter was already Abū Bakr[ؓ]. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

خرج أول مخرجه من بلدة باليمن يقال لها كهف خبان ومعه سبعمئة مقاتل، فما مضى شهر حتى تملك صنعاء ثم استوسقت له اليمن بحذافيرها في أقصر مدة، وكان معه شيطان يحدق له ولكن خانته أحوج ما كان إليه. ثم لم تمض له ثلاثة أشهر أو أربعة أشهر حتى قتله الله على يدي إخوان صدق، وأمرأء حق

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٥٩ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3205>

English: "He first came out from a town in Yemen called Kahf Khubbān with seven hundred fighting men.

A month had not passed before he held Ṣan‘ā’, and then Yemen gathered to him entire in the shortest time. He had a shayṭān that served him cleverly — but it betrayed him when he needed it most. Then three or four months had not passed before Allah killed him at the hands of true brothers and rightful commanders."

وَكَانَ قُدُومُ الْبَشِيرِ بِقَتْلِهِ فِي آخِرِ رَبِيعِ الْأَوَّلِ بَعْدَ مَوْتِ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَكَانَ أَوَّلَ بَشَارَةٍ أَتَتْ أَبَا بَكْرٍ وَهُوَ بِالْمَدِينَةِ.

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٠٠ — <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/891>

English: "The bearer of the good news of his killing arrived at the end of Rabī‘ al-Awwal, after the death of the Prophet ﷺ — and it was the first good news to reach Abū Bakr while he was in Medina."

فقدمت رسلنا، وقد قبض النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم صبيحتئذ فأجابنا أبو بكر رضي الله عنه.

— سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء — <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1180> ص ٣٢

English: "Our envoys arrived — and the Prophet ﷺ had been taken that morning — and Abū Bakr answered us."

△ Al-Dhahabī's «صبيحتئذ» ("that morning") is ambiguous — the morning the envoys arrived, or the morning after the killing. It is not a third dating (§5.2, §8 item 11). Ibn Kathīr calls the news the first «فتح» of Abū Bakr's ^{رضي} rule (E-U9); Ibn al-Athīr calls it the first «بشارة» — say which book you are reading. Ibn Khaldūn's «قبل وفاته بيوم» (ج ٢ ص ٤٨٤) may be mentioned by name as his reading, never as the date. With E-AW05, replaces E-TB28.

20. The first victory he never fought

Runsheets: The news reaches Medina · SKIP BEATS 2,4

Tier: CUT (recorded so it is not re-researched; it belongs to the الأسود العنسي strand) · When: آخر ربيع الأول ١١ هـ [SOURCED], with a competing report Ibn Kathīr records and does not adopt · Map: صنعاء lights up while المدينة is still counting its dead. What happened: Days after the column marched, word reached المدينة from اليمن that الأسود العنسي — the false prophet who had taken صنعاء in the Prophet's ^ﷺ own last months — had been killed inside the city. Ibn Kathīr calls it the first فتح of أبو بكر's ^{رضي} caliphate, and notes that he won it sitting in المدينة. Beats: 1. The army of Usāma ^{رضي} marches — Abū Bakr ^{رضي} sent it out at the end of Rabī' al-Awwal. 2. Word comes from Yemen — Days later, Medina heard that al-Aswad al-'Ansī, who had taken Ṣan'ā', had been killed inside the city. 3. The first victory of his caliphate — Ibn Kathīr calls it the first victory of Abū Bakr's ^{رضي} caliphate, won while he sat in Medina. 4. The reports differ on the day — Ibn Kathīr also records the good news reaching Medina on the morning the Prophet ^ﷺ died. Quote after beat: 3 The statement:

أمضى أبو بكر جيش أسامة بن زيد في آخر ربيع الأول، وأتى مقتل الأسود في آخر ربيع الأول بعد مخرج أسامة، فكان ذلك أول فتح فتح أبو بكر وهو بالمدينة

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3158>

English: "الأسود sent out زيد's army at the end of ربيع الأول, and news of الأسود's killing came at the end of ربيع الأول, after أسامة's departure — and that was the first victory

أبو بكر won, while he was in المدينة." عبرت: Some of what a man is credited with was decided before he sat down, by people he never met. Hands-up? no (A second report — البدايه ج ٧ ص ١٧ — is recorded at «بل جاءت البشارة إلى المدينة صبيحة توفي رسول الله ﷺ» — where Ibn Kathīr says «والأول أشهر». Do not adjudicate on a slide.)

21. Three days of prayer, and then the ground moved

Runsheet: Fayrūz^{رض} in his own words · [HANDS] 2: "How many days did Mu‘ādh^{رض} lead them in prayer before the news came?"

Tier: CORE · When: صنعاء, ربيع الأول ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: صنعاء turns from red back to blue — and then, three days later, the whole peninsula begins to change colour behind it. What happened: Fayrūz^{رض} tells it himself, and it is the best account in the sources of what the news of the Prophet's ﷺ death actually did. We killed al-Aswad, he says, and our affair in Ṣan‘ā’ went back to what it had been. They sent for Mu‘ādh b. Jabal^{رض} and agreed on him, and he led them in prayer in Ṣan‘ā’. And by Allah, he says, he had led us in prayer for no more than three days when the news came to us of the death of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Then everything came apart. We found ourselves refusing much of what we used to acknowledge. And the earth shook. Beats: 1. Fayrūz^{رض} tells it himself — We killed al-Aswad, he says, and our affair in Ṣan‘ā’ went back to what it had been. 2. They agree on Mu‘ādh^{رض} — They sent for Mu‘ādh b. Jabal^{رض}, agreed on him, and he led them in prayer in Ṣan‘ā’. 3. Three days of prayer — By Allah, he says, Mu‘ādh^{رض} had led them in prayer for no more than three days. 4. The news of the death arrives — Then word reached them of the death of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. 5. Everything comes apart — Matters came apart, they found themselves rejecting much of what they had known, and the earth shook. Quote after beat: 5 The statement:

قتلنا الأسود، وعاد أمرنا في صنعاء كما كان إلا أننا أرسلنا إلى معاذ بن جبل
فتراضينا عليه، فكان يُصلي بنا في صنعاء، فوالله ما صلى بنا إلا ثلاثة أيام حتى
أتانا الخبرُ بوفاة رسول الله ﷺ، فانتقضت الأمور، وأنكرنا كثيرًا مما كنا نعرف، واضطربت الأرض.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٧ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3163>

English: "We killed al-Aswad, and our affair in Ṣanʿāʾ returned to what it had been, except that we sent to Muʿādh b. Jabal and agreed on him, and he used to lead us in prayer in Ṣanʿāʾ. And by Allah, he led us in prayer for no more than three days before the news reached us of the death of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ — and matters came apart, and we found ourselves rejecting much of what we had known, and the earth shook."

عبرت: A man who had just put down a rebellion had three quiet days, and then heard the news that undid them. Hands-up? no This is the best single opening for the whole ردة block, because it is spoken by somebody who was standing in it, and because it says what the crisis was without naming a single tribe.

22. One of the three

Runsheet: Hand-off to Qays b. Makshūḥ · SKIP BEATS 2

Tier: CORE · When: after news of the Prophet's ﷺ death reached Yemen, 11 AH [SOURCED] · Map: صنعاء — blue, and a single red point appearing inside it. Freeze. This is the bookend image for the next segment. What happened: Ibn Kathīr had called the three killers true brothers and rightful commanders. Then the news of the Prophet's ﷺ death reached Yemen, and some of its people sank deeper into the doubt they had been in. And one of the three, Qays b. Makshūḥ — the man who had sworn by Dhū al-Khimār's name to save his life, and walked out saying "do what you have to do" — began to want Yemen for himself. Beats: 1. What Ibn Kathīr called the three — Ibn Kathīr had called the three who killed al-Aswad true brothers and rightful commanders. 2. Yemen hears of the Prophet's ﷺ death — The news of the Prophet's ﷺ death reached Yemen, and some of its people sank deeper into their doubt. 3. Qays wants Yemen for himself — One of the three, Qays b. Makshūh, began to want the command of Yemen for himself. Quote after beat: 3 The statement:

وطمَعَ قيس بن مكشوح في الإمرة باليمن، فعمل لذلك، وارتدَّ عن الإسلام وتابَعَهُ عوامُ أهل اليمن

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤٢ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3188>

English: "And Qays b. Makshūh coveted the command of Yemen, worked for it, apostatised from Islam — and the common people of Yemen followed him."

عبرت: The man who helped end one false claim wanted the throne it left empty. Hands-up? no Hand-off: continue with rida-campaign-the-conduct-of-the-wars.md §9.2 and card E-RC31.

Part II — Ṣan‘ā’ again: Qays b. Makshūḥ and the Abnā’ (11–12 AH)

23. Two letters to the same five men

Runsheet: SKIP BEATS 1,2

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH, after the news of the Prophet's ﷺ death reached the Yemen

[SOURCED] · Map: صنعاء in blue, with Fayrūz's marker. Five small chiefs' markers in the highlands around it, left grey. Two letter-lines reach them — one from المدينة, one from صنعاء. Neither line turns them. What happened: When the Prophet ﷺ died, Ṣan‘ā’ was held by three men who had killed al-Aswad together — Fayrūz^{رض}, Dādhawayh and Qays b. Makshūḥ — and until then the three had backed one another. Qays wanted the Yemen for himself. Abū Bakr^{رض} heard, and his first move was not an army. He wrote to five chiefs of the Yemen by name: hold to your religion, stand by the command of Allah, help the Abnā’ against whoever attacks them, and obey Fayrūz^{رض}. Qays wrote to the same five men: kill the Abnā’ and drive their families out of the Yemen. The five answered neither of them — they did not answer Qays, and they did not help the Abnā’ either. So Qays wrote secretly to al-Aswad's scattered men, who were still drifting through the country without a leader, and they came to him. And then he went to Fayrūz^{رض} and Dādhawayh and asked them for their advice about his affairs — and they were reassured. Beats: 1. When the Prophet ﷺ died — Ṣan‘ā’ was held by Fayrūz^{رض}, Dādhawayh and Qays b. Makshūḥ, who had killed al-Aswad together. 2. Qays wants the Yemen for himself — Until then the three had backed one another; now Qays wanted the Yemen for himself. 3. Abū Bakr^{رض} writes to five chiefs — His first move was not an army. Hold to your religion, help the Abnā’, obey Fayrūz^{رض}. 4. Qays writes to the same five men — Kill the Abnā’, and drive their families out of the Yemen. 5. The five answer neither of them — They did not answer Qays, and they did not help the Abnā’ either. 6. Qays calls in al-Aswad's scattered men — He wrote to them secretly; still drifting through the country without a leader, they came to him. 7. Qays comes asking for advice — He asked Fayrūz^{رض} and Dādhawayh for advice about his affairs, and they were reassured. Quote after beat: 7 The statement:

فَاسْتَشَارَهُمَا فِي أَمْرِهِ خَدِيعَةً مِنْهُ لِيُلَبِّسَ عَلَيْهِمَا، فَاطْمَأَنَّا إِلَيْهِ

— ٢٢٨ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919>

English: "He consulted the two of them about his affair — a deception on his part, to confuse them — and they felt secure with him."

عبرت: The man who comes to ask your advice has not always come for your advice. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وَكَتَبَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ إِلَى عُمَرَ ذِي مُرَّانَ، وَإِلَى سَعِيدِ ذِي زُودٍ، وَإِلَى الْكَلاَعِ، وَإِلَى
حَوْشَبِ ذِي ظُلَيْمٍ، وَإِلَى شَهْرِ ذِي نِيَّافٍ يَأْمُرُهُمْ بِالتَّمَسُّكِ بِدِينِهِمْ وَالْقِيَامِ بِأَمْرِ اللَّهِ،
وَيَأْمُرُهُمْ بِإِعَانَةِ الْأَبْنَاءِ عَلَى مَنْ نَاوَأَهُمْ، وَالسَّمْعِ لِفَيْرُوزَ

— ٢٢٨ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919>

English: "Abū Bakr wrote to 'Umar Dhū Murrān, to Sa'īd Dhū Zūd, to al-Kalā', to Hawshab Dhū

Zulaym and to Shahr Dhū Niyāf, ordering them to hold fast to their religion and to stand by the command of Allah, and ordering them to help the Abnā' against whoever opposed them, and to obey

Fayrūz."

△ The five names are read from the printed diacritics and are unverified against a page image (§X item 16) — say "five chiefs of the Yemen"; do not project the names. Qays's own letter and the silence of the five: «فَلَمْ يُجِيبُوهُ وَلَمْ يَنْصُرُوا الْأَبْنَاءَ» (ج ٢ ص ٢٢٨). Follow with RCT/E-RC31 (the dinner, and the two women in the street).

24. صنعاء — the two women in the street

Runsheet: △ its narrative also tells the deportation and rescue — now YK03/YK17: tell only the dinner and the two women · SKIP BEATS 1,2,7,8,9

Tier: GOOD · When: ١١ هـ، اليمن [SOURCED] · Map: صنعاء goes red. A thin blue line escapes it to جبل خَوْلَان. Two convoys leave — one overland, one by sea from عَدَن — and both are intercepted and turned back. What happened: Qays b. Makshūḥ had been one of the three men who killed al-Aswad al-'Anṣī. After the Prophet ﷺ died he wanted Yemen for himself, and turned. He made a meal and invited the other two separately. Dādhawayh came first and was killed. Fayrūz al-Daylamī^{رض} was walking to the same house when he passed two women talking. Then Qays took the families of the Abnā' and deported them — one party overland, one by ship from Aden — and Fayrūz^{رض} sent to 'Uqayl and to 'Akk for help, and both of them rode out and brought the families back. Beats: 1. One of the three who killed al-Aswad — Qays b. Makshūḥ had been one of the three men who killed al-Aswad al-'Ansī. 2. He wants Yemen for himself — After the Prophet ﷺ died, Qays wanted Yemen for himself, and turned. 3. A meal, and two separate invitations — He made a meal and invited the other two men, each on his own. 4. Dādhawayh comes first — Dādhawayh arrived first, and was killed. 5. Two women talking in the street — Fayrūz al-Daylamī^{رض}, walking to the same house, passed two women; one said he would be killed like Dādhawayh. 6. He gets out — Hearing it, Fayrūz^{رض} got out. 7. Qays deports the families of the Abnā' — One party was sent overland, and one by ship from Aden. 8. The families brought back — Fayrūz^{رض} sent to 'Uqayl and to 'Akk for help; both rode out and brought the families back. 9. Two letters to the same five chiefs — Abū Bakr^{رض} asked five Yemeni chiefs for support; Qays asked them to kill the Abnā'. They answered neither. Quote after beat: 6 The statement:

فَلَمَّا دَنَا مِنْهُ سَمِعَ امْرَأَتَيْنِ تَتَحَدَّثَانِ، فَقَالَتْ إِحْدَاهُمَا: هَذَا مَقْتُولٌ كَمَا قُتِلَ دَاذَوَيْهِ، فَخَرَجَ.

— الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢٢٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919>

English: "When he came near, he heard two women talking, and one of them said: this one will be killed just as Dādhawayh was killed — so he got out."

عبرت: He was saved by a sentence spoken by someone who was not talking to him. Hands-up? no Also on the page: Abū Bakr^{رض} wrote to five Yemeni chiefs by name asking for support; Qays wrote to the same men asking them to kill the Abnā'. «فَلَمْ يُجِيبُوهُ وَلَمْ يَنْصُرُوا». «الْأَبْنَاءُ» — they answered neither. Draw that neutral middle on the map.

25. Up the mountain of Khawlān

Tier: GOOD · When: 11 AH [SOURCED] · Map: A thin blue line runs out of صنعاء at speed and climbs جبل خَوْلَان. A red pursuit line follows it to the foot of the mountain and turns back. صنعاء goes red. What happened: Fayrūz^{رض} had turned back in the street and Qays's men were after him. He rode out at a gallop. On the way Jishnas — whom Qays had also invited — met him and turned round and rode with him. They made for the mountain of Khawlān — Khawlān were Fayrūz's^{رض} mother's people — and they climbed it. Qays's horsemen came back and told him. Qays rose in Ṣan'ā' and the country round it, and al-Aswad's old horsemen came in to him. A body of men gathered to Fayrūz^{رض}, and he wrote to Abū Bakr^{رض} to tell him. And in the very tribes whose chiefs Abū Bakr^{رض} had written to, the ordinary men went over to Qays — while the chiefs themselves stood aside. Beats: 1. Fayrūz^{رض} rides out at a gallop — He had turned back in the street, and Qays's men were after him. 2. Jishnas turns and rides with him — Qays had invited Jishnas too; he met Fayrūz^{رض} on the way and turned back with him. 3. Up the mountain of Khawlān — Khawlān were Fayrūz's^{رض} mother's people, and the two men climbed the mountain. 4. Qays's horsemen come back — They came back and told Qays. 5. Qays rises in Ṣan'ā' — He rose in the city and the country round it, and al-Aswad's old horsemen came in to him. 6. Men gather to Fayrūz^{رض} — A body of men gathered to him, and he wrote to Abū Bakr^{رض} to tell him. 7. The chiefs stand aside — In the tribes Abū Bakr^{رض} had written to, the ordinary men went over to Qays. Quote after beat: 3 The statement:

فَطَلَبَهُ أَصْحَابُ قَيْسٍ، فَخَرَجَ يَرْكُضُ، وَلَقِيَهُ جِشْنَسُ فَرَجَعَ مَعَهُ، فَتَوَجَّهَ نَحْوَ جَبَلِ
خَوْلَانٍ، وَهُمْ أَخْوَالُ فَيْرُوزَ، فَصَعِدَا الْجَبَلَ

— ٢٢٨ ص ٢٨٨ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919>

English: "Qays's men went after him; he rode out at a gallop. Jishnas met him and turned back with him, and the two made for the mountain of Khawlān — Khawlān were Fayrūz's maternal kin — and they climbed the mountain."

عبرت: When a man's own city turned on him, it was his mother's people who took him in.

Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وَاجْتَمَعَ إِلَى قَيْسٍ عَوَامٌ قَبَائِلُ مَنْ كَتَبَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ إِلَى رُؤَسَائِهِمْ، وَاعْتَزَلَ الرُّؤَسَاءُ

— ٢٢٨ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919>

English: "The common people of the tribes whose chiefs Abū Bakr had written to gathered to Qays — and the chiefs held aloof."

26. "Go back to your own land"

Runsheet: «الحقوا بأرضكم» · SKIP BEATS 1 (if #2 was dropped at the lectern, say it from the notes)

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH [SOURCED] · Map: From صنعاء, two convoys of families leave: one south towards عَدَن and the sea, one overland. Hold them there, still moving. What happened: The Abnā' were the descendants of the Persians who had come to the Yemen in the time of Sayf b. Dhī Yazan, helped him against the Abyssinians, and stayed — they settled there and married among the Arabs. What Qays had asked the five chiefs to do — drive the families of the Abnā' out of the Yemen — he now did himself. He divided the Abnā' three ways. The families of the men who had stayed behind, he left where they were. The families of the men who had gone with Fayrūz^{رض}, he split in two: one party he sent to Aden, to be carried away by sea; the other he sent off overland. And he said the same thing to all of them. Beats: 1. Who the Abnā' were — Descended from Persians who helped Sayf b. Dhī Yazan against the Abyssinians; they stayed and married among the Arabs. 2. Qays does it himself — He now did himself what he had asked the five chiefs to do: drive out the Abnā's families. 3. The Abnā' divided three ways — The families of the men who had stayed behind, he left where they were. 4. Two parties of families sent away — The families of the men with Fayrūz^{رض}: one party to Aden and the sea, one overland. 5. One sentence for all of them — And Qays said the same thing to all of them. Quote after beat: 5 The statement:

وَقَالَ لَهُمْ جَمِيعِهِمْ: الْحُقُوا بِأَرْضِكُمْ.

— ٢٢٨ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919>

English: "And he said to all of them: Go back to your own land."

عبرت: The man who had stood beside the Abnā' against al-Aswad now told their families that the Yemen was not their land. Hands-up? Before telling it: "Qays has Ṣan'ā' and he has the families of his enemies. What does he do with them?" Also on the page:

وَعَمَدَ قَيْسٌ إِلَى الْأَنْبَاءِ فَفَرَّقَهُمْ ثَلَاثَ فِرَقٍ: مَنْ أَقَامَ أَقَرَّ عِيَالَهُ، وَالَّذِينَ سَارُوا مَعَ
فَيْرُوزَ فَرَّقَ عِيَالَهُمْ فِرْقَتَيْنِ، فَوَجَّهَ إِحْدَاهَا إِلَى عَدَنَ لِيَحْمِلُوهَا فِي الْبَحْرِ، وَحَمَلَ الْأُخْرَى فِي الْبَرِّ، وَقَالَ لَهُمْ جَمِيعِهِمْ: الْحُقُّوا بِأَرْضِكُمْ.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٨

English: "Qays turned to the Abnā' and divided them three ways. Those who stayed, he left their households alone. The households of those who had gone with Fayrūz he split in two: one party he sent to Aden, to be carried by sea, the other he carried overland. And he said to all of them: Go back to your own land."

الأبناء: قوم من أبناء فارس أرسلهم كسرى مع سيف بن ذي يزن لما جاء
يستنجدهم على الحبشة فنصروه وملكوا اليمن وتديروها وتزوجوا من العرب

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3188> · (ed. fn.) · البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٤٢

English: "The Abnā': a people descended from the Persians whom Khusraw sent with Sayf b. Dhī Yazan when he came asking their help against the Abyssinians. They helped him, took the Yemen, settled there, and married among the Arabs."

⚠ The printed الكامل has «الأبناء» for «الأبناء» — read it as the Abnā'. The definition is the editor's footnote, not Ibn Kathīr's text: say "the editor explains". AAA/E-AW01 tells who the Abnā' were at length; if that card has been told, drop the first sentence here.

27. Fayrūz's ^{رض} war — the families brought back

Runsheet: Split out of YK03: the rescue and the battle short of Ṣan'ā'. No page says which tribe turned back which convoy

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH [SOURCED] · Map: The two convoys of families, still moving. Two blue lines come in — one from بنو عُقَيْل, one from عَكْ — and each meets a convoy (the page does not say which met which); both convoys turn back. Men from both tribes join Fayrūz's بنو عُقَيْل blue block. It moves out and meets Qays's red block just short of صنعاء; the red block breaks and drifts into the ground between صنعاء and نَجْرَان. What happened: When Fayrūz بنو عُقَيْل learned what Qays had done with the families, he gave himself wholly to the war. He sent to Banū 'Uqayl b. Rabī'a b. 'Āmir to ask for help, and to 'Akk to ask for help. 'Uqayl rode out and met Qays's horsemen escorting the families of the Abnā'; they freed the families and killed the escort. 'Akk went out and freed another party of the families. Then both tribes sent Fayrūz بنو عُقَيْل men. When they reached him he went out with them and with everyone who had gathered to him, and met Qays short of Ṣan'ā'. The fighting was hard. Qays and his men were routed; and what was left of al-Aswad's men — with Qays among them — were left wandering in the country between Ṣan'ā' and Najrān. Beats: 1. Fayrūz بنو عُقَيْل gives himself to the war — When he learned what Qays had done with the families, he threw himself wholly into the war. 2. He sends to 'Uqayl and to 'Akk — Fayrūz بنو عُقَيْل sent to Banū 'Uqayl b. Rabī'a b. 'Āmir for help, and to 'Akk for help. 3. 'Uqayl frees a convoy — They met Qays's horsemen escorting the families of the Abnā', freed the families, and killed the escort. 4. 'Akk frees another — 'Akk went out and freed another party of the families. 5. Both tribes send Fayrūz بنو عُقَيْل men — He went out with them, and with everyone who had gathered to him. 6. The battle short of Ṣan'ā' — He met Qays short of Ṣan'ā', and the fighting was hard. 7. Qays is routed — Qays's side broke; al-Aswad's remaining men, Qays with them, were left wandering between Ṣan'ā' and Najrān. 8. Ibn Kathīr tells it more briefly — In his telling no convoys are intercepted; 'Uqayl and 'Akk had already come to help Fayrūz بنو عُقَيْل among Khawlān. Quote after beat: 7 The statement:

فَلَقُوا قَيْسًا دُونَ صَنْعَاءَ، فَاقْتَتَلُوا قِتَالًا شَدِيدًا، وَانْهَزَمَ قَيْسٌ وَأَصْحَابُهُ، وَتَدَبَّدَبَ
أَصْحَابُ الْعَنْسِيِّ وَقَيْسٌ مَعَهُمْ فِيمَا بَيْنَ صَنْعَاءَ وَنَجْرَانَ.

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919>

English: "They met Qays short of Ṣan'ā' and fought hard; Qays's side was routed, and al-'Ansī's men, Qays with them, drifted between Ṣan'ā' and Najrān."

عبرت: He told families who had married among the Arabs to go back to their own land, and Arab tribes rode out and brought them home. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

فَلَمَّا عَلِمَ فَيْرُوزُ ذَلِكَ جَدَّ فِي حَرْبِهِ وَتَجَرَّدَ لَهَا، وَأَرْسَلَ إِلَى بَنِي عُقَيْلٍ بَنِي رَيْعَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ
يَسْتَمِدُّهُمْ، وَإِلَى عَكٍّ يَسْتَمِدُّهُمْ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/919> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٨

English: "When Fayrūz learned of that, he threw himself into his war and gave himself wholly to it, and sent to Banū 'Uqayl b. Rabī'a b. 'Āmir asking for help, and to 'Akk asking for help."

Ibn Kathīr's shorter telling — no convoys intercepted; in his order 'Uqayl and 'Akk had already come to help Fayrūz^{رض} among Khawlān («وساعدته عقيل، وعك وخلق» same page):

وعمد قيسٌ إلى ذراري فيروز ودادويه والأبناء فأجلاهم عن اليمن، وأرسل طائفة في
البر وطائفة في البحر، فاحتدَّ فيروزُ فخرج في خلقٍ كثيرٍ، فتصادفَ هو وقيسٌ
فاقتتلوا قتالاً شديداً فهزم قيساً وجنده من العوام، وبقيّة جند الأسود العنسي

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3189> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤٣

English: "Qays turned to the families of Fayrūz, of Dādhawayh and of the Abnā' and drove them out of the Yemen, sending one party by land and one by sea. Fayrūz was roused and went out with a great many men; he and Qays met and fought hard, and he routed Qays and his troops from the common people, and what was left of the troops of al-Aswad al-'Ansī."

Record both tellings side by side. ⚠ Neither الكامل nor البدايه says here that Fayrūz^{رض} re-entered Ṣan'ā'; الكامل has al-Muhājir^{رض} enter it (E-YK05). Do not turn صنعاء blue on this card.

28. Why al-Muhājir^{رض} had not gone

Runsheet: Tabūk, and Umm Salama^{رض}

Tier: CORE · When: the Tabūk campaign, then 11 AH [SOURCED] — no page here gives

Tabūk's year · Map: No movement. المدينة only, with a dotted line south to كِنْدَةَ in حضرموت that is drawn and not travelled. What happened: Al-Muhājir b. Abī Umayya^{رض} had stayed behind when the Prophet ﷺ marched to Tabūk, and the Prophet ﷺ came back displeased with him. His sister was Umm Salama^{رض}, the Prophet's ﷺ wife. One day she was washing the Prophet's ﷺ head, and she said one sentence. She saw him soften. She signed to her servant to bring her brother in, and al-Muhājir^{رضي} gave his excuse, and kept giving it, until the Prophet ﷺ was pleased with him — and appointed him governor of Kinda. He had not yet set out when the Prophet ﷺ died. While he was still in Medina he had left Ziyād b. Labīd^{رضي} in charge of his post. So Abū Bakr^{رضي} sent him south with a double order: first fight those in the Yemen, then go on to the post the Prophet ﷺ had given him. Ibn Kathīr's list of the commanders sent out from Dhū al-Qaṣṣa gives the Yemen half of that order in full: al-Muhājir^{رضي} was to go against the troops of al-‘Ansī, and to help the Abnā’ against Qays b. Makshūḥ. Beats: 1. He stayed behind from Tabūk — Al-Muhājir b. Abī Umayya^{رضي} did not march to Tabūk, and the Prophet ﷺ came back displeased with him. 2. His sister was Umm Salama^{رضي} — She was the wife of the Prophet ﷺ. 3. One sentence, while washing his head — One day, as she washed the Prophet's ﷺ head, she spoke of her brother. 4. She saw him soften — She signed to her servant, and her brother was called in. 5. The excuse, until he was pleased — Al-Muhājir^{رضي} kept setting out his excuse until the Prophet ﷺ was pleased, and made him governor of Kinda. 6. The Prophet ﷺ dies before he sets out — He was still in Medina, and had left Ziyād b. Labīd^{رضي} in charge of his post. 7. Abū Bakr^{رضي} gives a double order — First fight those in the Yemen; then go on to the post the Prophet ﷺ gave you. 8. The Yemen half of the order — Ibn Kathīr's list: go against al-‘Ansī's troops, and help the Abnā’ against Qays b. Makshūḥ. Quote after beat: 3 The statement:

بَيْنَمَا أُمُّ سَلَمَةَ تَغْسِلُ رَأْسَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَتْ: كَيْفَ يَنْفَعُنِي عَيْشٌ وَأَنْتَ عَاتِبٌ عَلَى أَخِي؟

— ٢٢٩ ص · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "While Umm Salama was washing the Prophet's ﷺ head, she said: How can life be any good to me while you are displeased with my brother?"

عبرت: Abū Bakr^{رضي} did not cancel the Prophet's ﷺ appointment. He sent the man to fight on the way to it. Hands-up? no △ The passage is in «» in the printed الكامل — check the page image before a slide. Ibn Khaldūn adds that he fell ill (ابن خلدون ج ٢ ص ٤٩١); that is his detail — if used at all, say "Ibn Khaldūn adds". Do not put "illness" on the slide. Also on the page:

وَالْمُهَاجِرُ بْنُ أَبِي أُمَيَّةَ عَلَى كِنْدَةَ، اسْتَعْمَلَهُ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَمْ يَخْرُجْ
إِلَيْهَا حَتَّى تُوَفِّيَ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَبَعَثَهُ أَبُو بَكْرٍ إِلَى قِتَالِ مَنْ بِالْيَمَنِ، ثُمَّ الْمَسِيرُ بَعْدُ إِلَى عَمَلِهِ

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "And al-Muhājir b. Abī Umayya over Kinda: the Prophet ﷺ appointed him, and he had not gone out to it when the Prophet ﷺ died. So Abū Bakr sent him to fight those in the Yemen, and then to go on afterwards to his post."

وَكَانَ قَدْ تَخَلَّفَ عَنِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - بِتَبُوكَ، فَرَجَعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ -
صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَهُوَ عَاتِبٌ عَلَيْهِ، فَبَيْنَمَا أُمُّ سَلَمَةَ تَغْسِلُ رَأْسَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى
اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَتْ: كَيْفَ يَنْفَعُنِي عَيْشٌ وَأَنْتَ عَاتِبٌ عَلَى أَخِي؟ فَرَأَتْ مِنْهُ
رِقَّةً، فَأَوْمَأَتْ إِلَى خَادِمِهَا فَدَعَتْهُ، فَلَمْ يَزَلْ بِالنَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَذْكُرُ عُذْرَهُ حَتَّى رَضِيَ عَنْهُ وَاسْتَعْمَلَهُ عَلَى كِنْدَةَ.

— ٢٣٠ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "He had stayed behind from the Messenger of Allah ﷺ at Tabūk, and the Messenger of Allah ﷺ came back displeased with him. Then, while Umm Salama was washing the Prophet's ﷺ head, she said: How can life be any good to me while you are displeased with my brother? She saw him soften, and signed to her servant, who called him in; and he kept setting out his excuse to the Prophet ﷺ until he was pleased with him, and appointed him over Kinda."

وللمهاجر بن أبي أمية، وأمره بجنود العنسي، ومعونة الأبناء على قيس بن مكشوح.

— ٢٣ ص ٧ · البدايه والنهايه ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3169>

English: "And to al-Muhājir b. Abī Umayya — and he ordered him against the troops of al-ʿAnsī, and to help the Abnāʾ against Qays b. Makshūḥ."

Ibn Khaldūn's telling — his wording, attributed to him, framing only; not for a slide:

وقد كان رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم غضب عليه في غزوة تبوك فاسترضته له أم سلمة وولاه على كندة، ومرض فلم يصل إليها، وأقام زياد بن لبید ينوب عنه

— ٤٩١ ص ٢ تاريخ ابن خلدون · <https://shamela.ws/book/12320/1288>

English: "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ had been angry with him over the Tabūk campaign; Umm Salama won his pardon, and he appointed him over Kinda — and he fell ill and did not reach it, and Ziyād b.

Labīd stayed on as his deputy."

The deputy, in the kamāl's own words: «وَكَانَ الْمُهَاجِرُ لَمَّا تَأَخَّرَ بِالْمَدِينَةِ قَدْ اسْتَحْلَفَ زِيَادًا عَلَى عَمَلِهِ» (ج ٢). The full commission roster is RCT/E-RC43 .

29. Two armies come down on the Yemen

Runsheet: al-Muhājir^{رض} and ʿIkrima^{رض}

Tier: GOOD · When: 11 AH [SOURCED] · Map: Two blue lines converge. ʿIkrima^{رض} from مَهْرَة west along the coast to أَيْبَن. Al-Muhājir^{رض} from مكة and الطائف south to نَجْرَان. At نَجْرَان a prisoner marker is made and sent north. Then al-Muhājir's^{رض} line runs from نَجْرَان to صنعاء, and صنعاء turns blue. What happened: Before either army arrived, two men had been holding each other in place. ʿAmr b. Maʿdī Karib had been with Khālid b. Saʿīd^{رض}, and when ʿAmr went over to al-Aswad, Khālid^{رض} rode after him, met him, and struck him on the shoulder; ʿAmr fled, and Khālid^{رض} took his sword, al-Ṣamṣāma, and his horse. Al-Aswad set ʿAmr opposite Farwa b. Musayk^{رض}, who had stayed loyal, and neither could move off his ground because of the other. Then ʿIkrima^{رض} came into Abyan from Mahra with a great many men, and al-Muhājir^{رض} came to Najrān with men from Mecca and al-Ṭāʾif and Jarīr^{رض} with Bajīla. Farwa^{رض} joined him. And ʿAmr came in by himself and walked into al-Muhājir's^{رض} camp without any safe-conduct. Al-Muhājir^{رض} bound him. He took Qays as well, bound him, and sent both to Abū Bakr^{رض}. Then he marched on the remnant of al-Aswad's army. They asked for safe-conduct and did not get it, and were killed wherever they were found. Al-Muhājir^{رض} entered Ṣan‘ā’ and wrote to Abū Bakr ^{رض}. Beats: 1. ‘Amr goes over to al-Aswad — ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib had been with Khālīd b. Sa‘īd ^{رض}, and then went over to al-Aswad. 2. Khālīd ^{رض} rides after him — He struck ‘Amr on the shoulder; ‘Amr fled, and Khālīd ^{رض} took his sword, al-Ṣamṣāma, and his horse. 3. Two men pinned in place — Al-Aswad set ‘Amr opposite the loyal Farwa b. Musayk ^{رض}; neither could leave his ground because of the other. 4. ‘Ikrima ^{رض} comes into Abyan — He came from Mahra with a great many men. 5. Al-Muhājir ^{رض} reaches Najrān — With men from Mecca and al-Ṭā‘if, and Jarīr ^{رض} with Bajīla; Farwa ^{رض} joined him. 6. ‘Amr walks in without safe-conduct — He came in by himself and walked into al-Muhājir's ^{رض} camp without any safe-conduct. 7. Both men sent to Abū Bakr ^{رض} — Al-Muhājir ^{رض} bound ‘Amr, took and bound Qays as well, and sent both to Abū Bakr ^{رض}. 8. Al-Muhājir ^{رض} marches on al-Aswad's men — They asked for safe-conduct, were refused, and were killed wherever found; the book gives no reason. 9. Al-Muhājir ^{رض} enters Ṣan‘ā’ — He entered the city and wrote to Abū Bakr ^{رض}. Quote after beat: 6 The statement:

فَأَقْبَلَ عَمْرُو بْنُ مَعْدِي كَرَبَ مُسْتَجِيبًا، حَتَّى دَخَلَ عَلَى الْمُهَاجِرِ مِنْ غَيْرِ أَمَانٍ،
فَأَوْثَقَهُ الْمُهَاجِرُ

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ في التاريخ الكامل · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib came in, answering the call, until he walked in on al-Muhājir without any safe-conduct — and al-Muhājir bound him."

عبرت: The chiefs went to Medina to be judged; the men who had followed al-Aswad to the end asked for terms on the field and were refused, and the book gives no reason for either.

Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وَكَانَ عَمْرُو مَعَ خَالِدِ بْنِ سَعِيدِ بْنِ الْعَاصِ، فَلَمَّا ارْتَدَّ سَارَ إِلَيْهِ خَالِدٌ فَلَقِيَهُ، فَضَرَبَهُ خَالِدٌ عَلَى عَاتِقِهِ فَهَرَبَ مِنْهُ، وَأَخَذَ خَالِدٌ سَيْفَهُ الصَّمْصَامَةَ وَفَرَسَهُ، فَلَمَّا ارْتَدَّ عَمْرُو جَعَلَهُ الْعَنْسِيُّ بِإِزَاءِ فَرَوَةَ، فَأَمْتَنَعَ كُلُّ وَاحِدٍ مِنْهُمَا مِنَ الْبَرَاكِ لِمَكَانٍ صَاحِبِهِ.

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "Amr had been with Khālid b. Sa'īd b. al-'Āṣ. When he apostatised, Khālid went after him and met him, struck him on the shoulder, and he fled from him — and Khālid took his sword, al-Ṣamṣāma, and his horse. When 'Amr apostatised, al-'Ansī set him opposite Farwa, and neither of the two could leave his ground because of the other."

فَبَيْنَمَا هُمْ كَذَلِكَ قَدِمَ عِكْرِمَةُ بْنُ أَبِي جَهْلٍ أَبَيْنَ مِنْ مَهْرَةَ، وَقَدْ تَقَدَّمَ ذِكْرُ قِتَالِ مَهْرَةَ، وَمَعَهُ بَشَرٌ كَثِيرٌ مِنْ مَهْرَةَ وَغَيْرِهِمْ

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "While they were in that state, 'Ikrima b. Abī Jahl came into Abyan from Mahra — the fighting in Mahra has been told already — with a great many men from Mahra and elsewhere."

وَقَدِمَ أَيْضًا الْمُهَاجِرُ بْنُ أَبِي أُمَيَّةَ فِي جَمْعٍ مِنْ مَكَّةَ وَالطَّائِفِ وَبَجِيلَةَ مَعَ جَرِيرٍ إِلَى نَجْرَانَ، فَأَنْضَمَّ إِلَيْهِ فَرَوَةُ بْنُ مُسَيْكٍ الْمُرَادِيُّ، فَأَقْبَلَ عَمْرُو بْنُ مَعْدِي كَرِبَ مُسْتَجِيبًا، حَتَّى دَخَلَ عَلَى الْمُهَاجِرِ مِنْ غَيْرِ أَمَانٍ، فَأَوْثَقَهُ الْمُهَاجِرُ، وَأَخَذَ قَيْسًا أَيْضًا فَأَوْثَقَهُ، وَسَيَّرَهُمَا إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "Al-Muhājir b. Abī Umayya also came, with a force from Mecca, al-Ṭā'if and Bajīla under Jarīr, to Najrān, and Farwa b. Musayk al-Murādī joined him. 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib came in, answering the call, until he walked in on al-Muhājir without any safe-conduct — and al-Muhājir bound him. He took Qays as well and bound him, and sent the two of them to Abū Bakr."

فَسَارَ الْمُهَاجِرُ مِنْ نَجْرَانَ وَالتَقَتِ الْخَيُْولُ عَلَى أَصْحَابِ الْعَنْسِيِّ، فَاسْتَأْمَنُوا فَلَمْ يُؤْمِنَهُمْ، وَقَتْلَهُمْ بِكُلِّ سَبِيلٍ، ثُمَّ سَارَ إِلَى صَنْعَاءَ فَدَخَلَهَا، وَكَتَبَ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ بِذَلِكَ.

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ ج ٢ التاريخ في الكامل · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "Al-Muhājir marched from Najrān, and the horsemen closed on the men of al-ʿAnsī. They asked for safe-conduct and he did not give it; he killed them by every road. Then he went on to Ṣanʿāʾ and entered it, and wrote to Abū Bakr of it."

⚠ Do not supply a reason for the refusal; the page gives none, and Ibn Khaldūn has only the same outcome (ج ٢ ص ٢٩٣).

30. "Qays — you killed the servants of Allah"

Runsheet: Pairs with #32 · [HANDS] 3: "What will Abū Bakr ^{رضي} do with them?" — ask at beat 1, before beat 5 answers it

Tier: CORE · When: 11–12 AH [SOURCED] · Map: Two prisoner markers arrive at المدينة — and then move back south to their own clans. What happened: Qays b. Makshūḥ and ʿAmr b. Maʿdī Karib were brought to Abū Bakr ^{رضي} in bonds. He spoke to Qays first, and he did not soften it. You killed the servants of Allah, he said, and you took the apostates as your close confidants instead of the believers. Qays denied it. He said he had had no hand at all in the matter of Dādhawayh — the man who had come to his meal and been killed there. And the book adds one plain clause: he had killed him in secret. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} let the blood go. Beats: 1. Two prisoners before Abū Bakr ^{رضي} — Qays b. Makshūḥ and ʿAmr b. Maʿdī Karib were brought to him in bonds. 2. He speaks to Qays first — And he did not soften what he said. 3. Qays denies it — He said he had no hand in the matter of Dādhawayh, killed after coming to his meal. 4. What the book adds — Ibn al-Athīr adds one plain clause: he had killed him in secret. 5. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} lets the blood go — He let the matter of Dādhawayh's blood pass. Quote after beat: 2 The statement:

يَا قَيْسُ، قَتَلْتَ عِبَادَ اللَّهِ، وَاتَّخَذْتَ الْمُرْتَدِّينَ وَلِيَجَةً مِنْ دُونِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ!

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ ج ٢ التاريخ في الكامل · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "Qays — you killed the servants of Allah, and took the apostates as your confidants instead of the believers!"

عبرت: A charge that could not be proved was not punished, and the man who made the charge said so to his face first. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

فَقَالَ: يَا قَيْسُ، قَتَلْتَ عِبَادَ اللَّهِ، وَاتَّخَذْتَ الْمُرْتَدِّينَ وَلِيَجَّةً مِنْ دُونِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ!
فَانْتَفَى قَيْسٌ مِنْ أَنْ يَكُونَ قَارِفَ مِنْ أَمْرِ دَاذَوَيْهِ شَيْئًا، وَكَانَ قَتْلُهُ سِرًّا، فَتَجَافَى لَهُ عَنْ دَمِهِ

— ٢٢٩ ص · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "He said: Qays — you killed the servants of Allah, and took the apostates as your close confidants instead of the believers! Qays denied having had any hand in the matter of Dādhawayh — he had killed him in secret — and so he let his blood pass."

⚠ «وَكَانَ قَتْلُهُ سِرًّا» is Ibn al-Athīr's narration, not Abū Bakr's ^{رض} finding — say "the book says".
«وَلِيَجَّةً مِنْ دُونِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ» echoes al-Tawba 9:16 [STANDARD] (to verify); no page here makes the link, so it is a spoken remark at most, never a slide. Then E-YK18 (the words to ‘Amr), then RCT/E-RC32, which carries Ibn Kathīr's summing-up of both men («فقبل منهما علانيتهما، ووكل»). Use one statement per slide.

31. "Every day routed or taken prisoner"

Runsheet: Abū Bakr ^{رض} to ‘Amr, and ‘Amr's answer. No honorific for ‘Amr while in revolt;
‘Amr ^{رض} after his return (Ibn Kathīr's «□», al-Bidāya vol. 7, p. 244) · SKIP BEATS 2,3,4,8

Tier: GOOD · When: 11–12 AH [SOURCED] · Map: المدينة only. One bound marker; its bonds come off, and it turns south, home. What happened: Then Abū Bakr ^{رض} turned to ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib. ‘Amr had been struck and put to flight by Khālīd b. Sa‘īd ^{رض}, who took his sword and his horse; he had been pinned in place facing Farwa ^{رض}; and in the end he had walked into al-Muhājir's ^{رض} camp with no safe-conduct and been tied up. Abū Bakr ^{رض} asked him whether he was not ashamed that every day he was either routed or taken prisoner — and told him that if he had helped this religion, Allah would have raised him. ‘Amr's answer was a few words: very well — I will turn to it, and I will not go back. And the two men, Qays and ‘Amr, went back to their clans. Beats: 1. Abū Bakr ^{رض} turns to ‘Amr — Then he turned to the second prisoner, ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib. 2. Routed by Khālīd ^{رض} — Khālīd b. Sa‘īd ^{رض} had struck him, put him to flight, and taken his sword and his horse. 3. Pinned facing Farwa ^{رض} — He had been set opposite Farwa^{رض} and held in place. 4. Tied up in al-Muhājir's^{رض} camp — In the end he had walked in with no safe-conduct and been bound. 5. Abū Bakr^{رض} asks about shame — Was he not ashamed that every day he was either routed or taken prisoner? 6. What this religion would have done — Had you helped this religion, Allah would have raised you. 7. 'Amr answers in a few words — Very well: I will turn to it, and I will not go back. 8. Two men go home — Qays and 'Amr went back to their clans. Quote after beat: 7 The statement:

أَمَّا تَسْتَحِي أُنْكَ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ مَهْزُومٌ أَوْ مَأْسُورٌ؟ ... فَقَالَ: لَا جَرَمَ، لَأُقْبِلَنَّ وَلَا أَعُودُ.

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "Are you not ashamed to be routed or captured every day? ... He said: Surely I will turn to it, and not go back."

عبرت^{رض}: Abū Bakr^{رض} set what the revolt had made of him beside what this religion would have made of him — and 'Amr did not go back. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وَقَالَ لِعَمْرٍو: أَمَّا تَسْتَحِي أُنْكَ كُلَّ يَوْمٍ مَهْزُومٌ أَوْ مَأْسُورٌ؟ لَوْ نَصَرْتَ هَذَا الدِّينَ لَرَفَعَكَ اللَّهُ، فَقَالَ: لَا جَرَمَ، لَأُقْبِلَنَّ وَلَا أَعُودُ. وَرَجَعَا إِلَى عَشَائِرِهِمَا.

— ٢٢٩ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/920>

English: "And he said to 'Amr: Are you not ashamed that every day you are either routed or taken prisoner? Had you helped this religion, Allah would have raised you. He said: So be it — I will turn to it, and I will not go back. And the two of them returned to their clans."

The elided clause — «لَوْ نَصَرْتَ هَذَا الدِّينَ لَرَفَعَكَ اللَّهُ» — is the line to say aloud between the two halves of the slide. No honorific for 'Amr on this card (§7 sets out when the sources warrant one). Pays off in E-YK16 — he was later in the embassy to Rustam and among the leading men at Nahāwand.

32. Abū Bakr ^{رض} judges two men who fought against him

Runsheet: Qays and ‘Amr b. Ma’dīkarib. Qays gets no honorific (no page states Companionship); ‘Amr none here, while still in revolt — ‘Amr ^{رض} after his return · SKIP BEATS 1,2,3,4,5

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢ هـ → ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: Two prisoner markers move from صنعاء to المدينة — and then back again to their own tribes. What happened: Qays b. Makshūḥ and ‘Amr b. Ma’dī Karib were taken and sent to Medina as prisoners. One had killed a Muslim officer and led a revolt; the other had followed a false prophet and been beaten and captured more than once. Abū Bakr ^{رض} rebuked them both. They made their excuses. And then he accepted what they said openly, left what was inside them to Allah, released them, and sent them home to their own people. Beats: 1. Two prisoners sent to Medina — Qays b. Makshūḥ and ‘Amr b. Ma’dī Karib were taken and sent to Medina as prisoners. 2. What Qays had done — The books say he had killed a Muslim officer and led a revolt. 3. What ‘Amr had done — He had followed a false claimant, and been beaten and captured more than once. 4. Abū Bakr ^{رض} rebukes them both — He rebuked and reproved the two of them. 5. His words to ‘Amr — Are you not ashamed, every day routed or taken prisoner? Had you helped this dīn, Allah would have raised you. 6. They make their excuses — Both men excused themselves to Abū Bakr ^{رض}. 7. He judges only what he can see — He accepted what they professed openly, and left what was inside them to Allah. 8. Released, and sent home — He set them free and sent them back to their own people. Quote after beat: 8 The statement:

فَعَنَّقَهُمَا وَأَتْبَهُمَا، فَاَعْتَذَرَا إِلَيْهِ فَقَبِلَ مِنْهُمَا عَلَانِيَتَهُمَا، وَوَكَّلَ سَرَائِرَهُمَا إِلَى اللَّهِ ﷻ، وَأَطْلَقَ سَرَاحَهُمَا وَرَدَّهُمَا إِلَى قَوْمِهِمَا.

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٤٣ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3189>

English: "He rebuked them and reproved them; they excused themselves to him, and he accepted their outward profession from them, entrusted their inward states to Allah, released them, and sent them back to their people."

عبرت: The state judged what it could see and left what it could not see to the One who sees it. Hands-up? Before telling it: "The men who fought you are standing in front of you and they say they have come back. What can you actually check?" The words to ‘Amr, from «أَمَا تَسْتَحْي أَنَّنَا كُلَّ يَوْمٍ مَهْزُومٌ أَوْ مَأْسُورٌ؟ لَوْ نَصَرْتَ هَذَا الدِّينَ لَرَفَعَكَ اللَّهُ» :الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢٢٩ — "Are you not ashamed that you are every day either routed or taken prisoner? Had you helped this dīn, Allah would have raised you." This is the settlement policy of the whole war in one card. Leaders were reintegrated; killers were not.

Part III — Ḥaḍramawt and Kinda: the zakāt, al-Nujayr, and al-Ash‘ath (11–12 AH)

33. The promise about the camels

Runsheet: The zakāt arrangement between Ḥaḍramawt and Kinda

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH [SOURCED] · Map: حَضْرَمَوْت and كِنْدَة as two neighbouring zones with a two-way arrow between them (the ṣadaqa that went each way). The arrow breaks in the middle. What happened: In the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime an arrangement had been made: part of Ḥaḍramawt's ṣadaqa went to Kinda, and part of Kinda's to Ḥaḍramawt. A clan of Kinda, Banū Walī‘a, had said to Ḥaḍramawt: we have no camels to carry it — send it to us loaded. And Ḥaḍramawt had said: we will look into it, and if you really have none, we will. Then the Prophet ﷺ died. Banū Walī‘a came and said: deliver it, the way you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. And Ḥaḍramawt said: you do have camels — carry it yourselves. And Kinda turned to Ziyād b. Labīd^{رض}, the governor, and said: you are with them against us. The men of Ḥaḍramawt would not carry it; the men of Kinda kept insisting, and went home with the matter still undecided. Ziyād^{رض} did nothing yet. He was waiting for al-Muhājir^{رض}.

Beats: 1. An arrangement from the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime — Part of Ḥaḍramawt's ṣadaqa went to Kinda, and part of Kinda's went to Ḥaḍramawt. 2. Banū Walī‘a have no camels — A clan of Kinda told Ḥaḍramawt: we have no camels to carry it; send it to us loaded. 3. Ḥaḍramawt promises to look into it — If you really have no camels, we will send it loaded. 4. After the Prophet ﷺ died — Banū Walī‘a came: deliver it, the way you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. 5. Ḥaḍramawt's answer — You do have camels: carry it yourselves. 6. Kinda turns on the governor — To Ziyād b. Labīd^{رض} they said: you are with them against us. 7. Home with nothing settled — Ḥaḍramawt would not carry it; Kinda kept insisting, and went home with the matter undecided. 8. Ziyād^{رض} does nothing yet — He was waiting for al-Muhājir^{رض} to arrive. Quote after beat: 5 The statement:

قَالَتْ بَنُو وَلَيْعَةَ: أْبْلِغُونَا كَمَا وَعَدْتُمْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -! فَقَالُوا:
إِنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرًا فَاحْتَمِلُوا

— ٢٣٠ ص في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921>

English: "Banū Walī‘a said: Deliver it to us, as you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ! They said:

You do have mounts — carry it yourselves."

عبرت: A small promise made in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime was tested the day after he died, and the province went to war over the answer. Hands-up? Before telling it: "Before the war there was a quarrel. What do you think it was about?" Also on the page:

فَقَالَ بَعْضُ بَنِي وَلَيْعَةَ: مِنْ كِنْدَةَ لِحَضْرَمَوْتَ لَيْسَ لَنَا ظَهْرٌ، فَإِنْ رَأَيْتُمْ أَنْ تَبْعَثُوا إِلَيْنَا
بِذَلِكَ عَلَى ظَهْرٍ. قَالُوا: فَإِنَّا نَنْظُرُ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرٌ فَعَلْنَا.

— ٢٣٠ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921>

English: "Some of Banū Walī'a of Kinda said to Ḥaḍramawt: We have no mounts — if you see fit, send it to us on mounts. They said: We shall look into it; if you have no mounts, we will do it."

فَلَمَّا تَوَفَّى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَتْ بَنُو وَلَيْعَةَ: أْبْلِغُونَا كَمَا وَعَدْتُمْ
رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -! فَقَالُوا: إِنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرٌ فَاحْتَمِلُوا، فَقَالُوا لِرِيَادٍ:
أَنْتَ مَعَهُمْ عَلَيْنَا.

— ٢٣٠ ص ٢ · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921>

English: "When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ died, Banū Walī'a said: Deliver it to us, as you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ! They said: You do have mounts — carry it yourselves. And they said to Ziyād: You are with them against us."

Ziyād's waiting: «وَأَمْسَكَ عَنْهُمْ زِيَادٌ أَنْتَظَرًا لِلْمُهَاجِرِ» (ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠) only الكامل — the Ḥaḍramawt campaign is not in البدايه. Follow with RCT/E-RC33 (the she-camel called Shadhra).

34. The she-camel called Shadhra

Runsheet: What set Kinda off, as the books report it · SKIP BEATS 1

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ, حضرموت [SOURCED] · Map: حضرموت, which has been quiet all evening, goes red — and the trigger is one animal. What happened: Ziyād b. Labīd^{رض} was collecting the zakāt in Kinda. A man handed over a young she-camel and Ziyād^{رض} branded her. Then it turned out the animal was not his to give — she belonged to his brother, her name was Shadhra, and he had brought her by mistake. The brother said so. The first man agreed and asked for her back. Ziyād^{رض} refused: she had already passed into the right of Allah. Then a third man rode up, told him to release her and take another, and when Ziyād^{رض} said he had no way to do that, said one sentence — and untied her hobble himself and stood in front of her. Beats: 1. The Prophet's ﷺ order — He had ordered part of Ḥaḍramawt's zakāt placed in Kinda, and part of Kinda's in Ḥaḍramawt. 2. A young she-camel is branded — Collecting the zakāt in Kinda, Ziyād b. Labīd^{رض} took a young she-camel from a man and branded her. 3. She was not his to give — She belonged to his brother, her name was Shadhra, and he had brought her by mistake. 4. The brothers ask for her back — The brother said so, and the first man agreed and asked for her back. 5. Ziyād^{رض} refuses — She had already passed into the right of Allah, he said. 6. A third man, Ḥāritha, rides up — Release her and take another, he said. Ziyād^{رض} answered that he had no way to do that. 7. Ḥāritha unties her — He said one sentence, untied her hobble himself, and stood in front of her. Quote after beat: 7 The statement:

فَقَالَ حَارِثَةُ: ذَاكَ إِذَا كُنْتَ يَهُودِيًّا، وَأَطْلَقَ عِقَالَهَا وَبَعَثَهَا وَقَامَ دُونَهَا.

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921>

English: "Ḥāritha said: That would be so if you were a Jew — and he untied her hobble and drove her off and stood in front of her."

عبرت: A province went to war over one animal, a naming mistake and a public insult, and every part of that is on one page. Hands-up? Before telling it: "How big does a quarrel have to be to start a war?" ⚠️ البدايه carries no Ḥaḍramawt campaign at all. Cite الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢٢٩-٢٣٢, البدايه never, for everything in this card and the next. The underlying grievance was administrative: the Prophet ﷺ had ordered some of Ḥaḍramawt's zakāt placed in Kinda and some of Kinda's in Ḥaḍramawt, and after his death nobody would carry it (الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠).

35. "The humbled man is the one devoured in his own home"

Runsheet: SKIP BEATS 3

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH [SOURCED] · Map: Inside كِنْدَة, two camps face each other — حضرموت and السَّكُون on Ziyād's ^{رض} side, بنو معاوية of Kinda on the other. A short blue night-arrow strikes the Kinda camp. Then the Kinda camp grows. What happened: When Ziyād ^{رض} refused to give the camel back, a warning was spoken over her: do not let Shadhra be for you what al-Basūs was. And the owner, al-‘Addā’, called out to his clan. Ḥāritha b. Surāqa raised the call too, came up to Ziyād ^{رض}, and untied her. Ziyād ^{رض} had young men of Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn tie Ḥāritha up, and his companions, and take the camel back. Kinda shouted. Banū Mu‘āwiya came out for Ḥāritha; Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn came out for Ziyād ^{رض}; two great camps faced each other. Kinda did not attack, because their men were prisoners. Ziyād ^{رض} told them to put down their weapons; they refused and demanded their men; he refused. He hit them by night, and they scattered. Then he let Ḥāritha and the others go — and the men he let go went straight back and roused their people against him. A large force gathered, and they called out that they would pay no ṣadaqa. Al-Ḥuṣayn b. Numayr was sent between the two sides, and for a little while they held off from each other. Beats: 1. A warning spoken over the camel — When Ziyād ^{رض} refused to give her back: do not let Shadhra be for you what al-Basūs was. 2. Al-‘Addā’ calls out to his clan — The camel's owner raised the cry to his own people. 3. Ḥāritha b. Surāqa unties her — He raised the call too, came up to Ziyād ^{رض}, and untied the camel. 4. Ziyād ^{رض} takes her back — Young men of Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn tied up Ḥāritha and his companions, and took the camel back. 5. Two great camps face each other — Banū Mu‘āwiya for Ḥāritha, Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn for Ziyād ^{رض}; Kinda held back, their men being prisoners. 6. Two demands, two refusals — Ziyād ^{رض} told them to put down their weapons; they refused and demanded their men; he refused. 7. A strike by night — Ziyād ^{رض} hit them in the dark, and they scattered. 8. The freed men rouse Kinda — Ziyād ^{رض} let Ḥāritha and the others go; they roused their people, and a large force called: no ṣadaqa. 9. Al-Ḥuṣayn b. Numayr steps between — He was sent between the two sides, and for a little while they held off. Quote after beat: 2 The statement:

فَنَادَى الْعَدَاءُ: يَا آلَ عَمْرِو، أُضَامُ وَأُضْطَهَدُ! إِنَّ الدَّلِيلَ مَنْ أَكَلَ فِي دَارِهِ!

— ٢٣٠ ص ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ - <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921>

English: "Al-'Addā' called out: O family of 'Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled? The humbled man is the one who is devoured in his own home!"

عبرت: Once the quarrel became a matter of honour, being right about the camel no longer decided anything. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

فَلَجَأَ فِي أَخَذِهَا، فَقَالَ لَهَا: لَا تَكُونَنَّ شَذْرَةً عَلَيْكُمْ كَالْبَسُوسِ. فَنَادَى الْعَدَاءُ: يَا آلَ عَمْرِو، أُضَامُ وَأُضْطَهَدُ! إِنَّ الدَّلِيلَ مَنْ أَكَلَ فِي دَارِهِ!

— ٢٣٠ ص ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ - <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921>

English: "He persisted in taking her, and it was said: Do not let Shadhra be to you what al-Basūs was. And al-'Addā' called out: O family of 'Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled? The humbled man is the one who is devoured in his own home!"

فَأَمَرَ زِيَادُ شَبَابًا مِنْ حَضْرَمَوْتَ وَالسَّكُونِ فَمَنَعُوهُ وَكَتَفُوهُ، وَكَتَفُوا أَصْحَابَهُ وَأَخَذُوا الْبَكْرَةَ، وَتَصَايَحَتْ كِنْدَةُ، وَغَضِبَتْ بَنُو مُعَاوِيَةَ لِحَارِثَةَ وَأَظْهَرُوا أَمْرَهُمْ، وَغَضِبَتْ حَضْرَمَوْتُ وَالسَّكُونُ لَزِيَادٍ، وَتَوَافَى عَسْكَرَانِ عَظِيمَانِ مِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ، وَلَمْ يُحْدِثْ بَنُو مُعَاوِيَةَ شَيْئًا لِمَكَانِ أَسْرَائِهِمْ

— ٢٣٠ ص ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ - <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921>

English: "Ziyād ordered some young men of Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn, and they stopped him and bound him, bound his companions, and took the young camel. Kinda raised a shout; Banū Mu'āwiya were angry on Ḥāritha's behalf and came out openly; Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn were angry on Ziyād's behalf; two great camps faced each other — and Banū Mu'āwiya did nothing, because their men were prisoners."

⚠ Who spoke the Basūs sentence is unclear in the printed wording (فَقَالَ هَآ) — say "a warning was spoken" (§X item 2). Al-Basūs is [STANDARD] (to verify) — the she-camel at the start of the long pre-Islamic war of Bakr and Taghlib; no page here says so. The release and the call to refuse ṣadaqa: «وَنَادَوْا بِمَنْعِ الصَّدَقَةِ» (ج ٢ ص ٢٣١).

36. Free men do not change sides

Runsheet: Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son (corrected)

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH [SOURCED] · Map: Inside كِنْدَة, a cluster of red pasture-markers (المحاجر). One small marker detaches from the red cluster and moves across to Ziyād's blue camp. What happened: The whole of Banū Mu'āwiya agreed to withhold the ṣadaqa, and each of their chiefs took up his own reserved pasture as a stronghold. All of them — except one man, Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ, and his son. The two of them told their own clan, Banū Mu'āwiya, why they would not come. Then they moved out, and camped with Ziyād^{رض}, and they gave him advice: strike tonight, before the men of al-Sakāsik, al-Sakūn and Ḥaḍramawt who are drifting toward the rebels get there — because if you wait, we are afraid people will drift away from us to them. Beats: 1. Banū Mu'āwiya withhold the ṣadaqa — The whole clan agreed, and each chief took up his own reserved pasture as a stronghold. 2. Except one man and his son — Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son would not go with their clan. 3. They tell their clan why — Before leaving, the two men told Banū Mu'āwiya why they would not come. 4. They move to Ziyād's^{رض} camp — Father and son moved out, and camped with Ziyād^{رض}. 5. Their advice: strike tonight — Before the men drifting toward the rebels from al-Sakāsik, al-Sakūn and Ḥaḍramawt get there. 6. The danger in waiting — If you wait, we are afraid people will drift away from us to them.

Quote after beat: 3 The statement:

إِنَّهُ لَقَبِيحٌ بِالْأَحْرَارِ التَّنَقُّلُ، إِنَّ الْكِرَامَ لَيَلْزِمُونَ الشُّبُهَةَ فَيَتَكَرَّمُونَ أَنْ يَنْتَقِلُوا إِلَى
أَوْضَحَ مِنْهَا مَخَافَةَ الْعَارِ، فَكَيْفَ الْإِنْتِقَالُ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ الْحَسَنِ الْجَمِيلِ وَالْحَقِّ إِلَى الْبَاطِلِ وَالْقَبِيحِ!

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922>

English: "It is an ugly thing in free men to change sides. Men of honour will stay with a doubtful position, and think it beneath them to move even to a clearer one, for fear of the disgrace — so how much worse to move from what is good, fair and true to what is false and ugly!"

عبرت: He used his tribe's own code of honour — never change sides — as the reason not to follow his tribe. Hands-up? Before telling it: "Your whole clan has decided. You think they are wrong. What do you say to them?" △ Quote only to «!وَالْقَبِيحِ» — the next clause reads against the sense. It was his son, not his father («وَابْنُهُ») — this corrects the campaign note §10.3.

37. Round their fires

Runsheet: "The four kings." The old Kinda kingship is not told tonight, and no source ties it to the ridda — say nothing that implies it

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH by الكامل's arrangement; سير files it under 12 AH

[SOURCED, the books differ] · Map: The red pasture-markers of معاوية بن عمرو. Five blue arrows close on them at once, from five sides. Five markers go out. Then a blue column heads home with captives — and a new red block under al-Ash'ath cuts across its path and takes them back. What happened: Ziyād^{رض} agreed. They gathered in the dark and ringed the pastures, and they found the men sitting round their fires. Banū 'Amr b. Mu'āwiya were the strongest of Kinda and had the numbers. The Muslims fell on them from five directions at once. Four brothers were killed that night — Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ, Jamad and Abḍa'a — with their sister, al-'Amarrada. These were "the four kings", the chiefs of Banū 'Amr. Many others were killed; whoever could run, ran. Ziyād^{رض} turned back with the property and the captives. And his road home passed al-Ash'ath b. Qays. Al-Ash'ath rose with his people, took the captives back, and began to gather every man he could. Beats: 1. Ziyād^{رض} agrees to a night attack — They gathered in the dark and ringed the pastures. 2.

Round their fires — They found the men sitting round their fires. 3. From five directions at once — Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya, the strongest of Kinda with the numbers, were attacked from five sides. 4. The four kings are killed — Four brothers, the chiefs of Banū ‘Amr: Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ, Jamad and Abḍa‘a. 5. Four, or four and a sister — Ibn al-Athīr adds their sister, al-‘Amarrada; al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Ishāq, names four kings and no sister. 6. Many killed, the rest run — Many others were killed that night; whoever could run, ran. 7. Home with the captives — Ziyād^{رضي} turned back with the property and the captives, and his road passed al-Ash‘ath b. Qays. 8. Al-Ash‘ath rises — He rose with his people, took the captives back, and began to gather every man he could. Quote after beat: 3 The statement:

فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ نِيرَانِهِمْ، فَأَكْبُوا عَلَى بَنِي عَمْرِو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ
وَالشُّوْكَةُ - مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجِهٍ

— ٢٣١ ص · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922>

English: "They found them sitting round their fires, and fell on Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya — who had the numbers and the strength — from five directions."

عبرت: The night attack ended the four kings and brought the fifth man into the war.

Hands-up? no Also on the page:

فَأَجَابَهُمْ إِلَى تَبَيُّتِ الْقَوْمِ، فَاجْتَمَعُوا وَطَوَّفُوهُمْ فِي مَحَاجِرِهِمْ، فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ
نِيرَانِهِمْ، فَأَكْبُوا عَلَى بَنِي عَمْرِو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ وَالشُّوْكَةُ - مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجُهٍ،
فَأَصَابُوا مِشْرَحًا وَمَخُوصًا وَجَمْدًا وَأَبْضَعَةً وَأُخْتَهُمُ الْعَمَرَدَةَ، وَأَذْرَكْتَهُمْ لَعْنَةُ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -

— ٢٣١ ص · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922>

English: "He agreed to the night attack. They gathered and ringed them in their pastures, and found them sitting round their fires. They fell on Banū 'Amr b. Mu'āwiya — who had the numbers and the strength — from five directions, and struck down Mishrah, Mikhwas, Jamad, Abda'a and their sister al-'Amarrada; and the curse of the Prophet ﷺ overtook them."

Al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Ishāq — four, and no sister:

أن زيادا بيتهم فقتل ملوكا أربعة: جمدا، ومخوصا ومشرحا، وأبضعة.

— سير أعلام النبلاء، ج الراشدون ص ٦٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1210>

English: "...that Ziyād fell on them by night and killed four kings: Jamad, Mikhwas, Mishrah and Abda'a."

Record both counts side by side; do not choose. The origin of the Prophet's ﷺ curse is the Kinda-delegation note; do not explain it from the floor. Ibn Khaldūn adds that the captive women cried out as they passed (ج ٢ ص ٤٩٢) — his detail, attributed to him.

38. The fort they had already repaired

Tier: GOOD · When: 11 AH by الكامل's arrangement; سير files it under 12 AH

[SOURCED, the books differ] · Map: Al-Muhājir's ^{رب} line, on the road from صنعاء, splits: a fast thin arrow races ahead to Ziyād ^{رب}; the main body follows under 'Ikrima ^{رب}. Blue meets red at مَحَجَرُ الرُّزْقَان; the red retreats into النُّجَيْر, a fort symbol. A ring closes round it. What happened: Ziyād^{رض} wrote to al-Muhājir^{رض} to hurry. The letter met him on the road. He handed the army to ‘Ikrima^{رض} and rode ahead with the fastest men, joined Ziyād^{رض}, and marched on Kinda. They met at Maḥjar al-Zurqān, and Kinda broke and ran for the fort of al-Nujayr. And the book adds one detail: they had already repaired it and put it in order. The Muslims camped round it. ‘Ikrima^{رض} came up with the main body, and the siege tightened. Raiding parties went out through the country after the rest. The garrison came out to fight, lost many men, and went back in. Beats: 1. A letter: hurry — Ziyād^{رض} wrote to al-Muhājir^{رض}, and the letter met him on the road. 2. Al-Muhājir^{رض} rides ahead — He handed the army to ‘Ikrima^{رض} and hurried on with the fastest men. 3. The battle at Maḥjar al-Zurqān — Al-Muhājir^{رض} joined Ziyād^{رض} and marched on Kinda; they met, and Kinda broke and ran. 4. A fort already repaired — Kinda took refuge in the fort of al-Nujayr, which they had already repaired and put in order. 5. The ring closes — The Muslims camped round it; ‘Ikrima^{رض} came up with the main body, and the siege tightened. 6. Raids through the country — Raiding parties went out through the country after the rest. 7. The garrison sallies out — They came out to fight, lost many men, and went back in. Quote after beat: 7 The statement:

فَرَجَعُوا إِلَىٰ حِصْنِهِمْ، وَخَشَعَتِ نَفُوسُهُمْ وَخَافُوا الْقَتْلَ

— ٢٣١ ص · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922>

English: "They went back into their fort; their spirits sank, and they feared death."

عبرت: They had prepared the place to retreat to before they fought, and it became the place they could not leave. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

وَكَتَبَ زِيَادٌ إِلَى الْمُهَاجِرِ يَسْتَحِثُّهُ، فَلَقِيَهُ الْكِتَابُ بِالطَّرِيقِ فَاسْتَحْلَفَ عَلَى الْجُنْدِ
عِكْرِمَةَ بْنَ أَبِي جَهْلٍ، وَتَعَجَّلَ فِي سَرْعَانِ النَّاسِ

— ٢٣١ ص ٢ · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922>

English: "Ziyād wrote to al-Muhājir urging him on; the letter met him on the road, and he left ‘Ikrima b. Abī Jahl in charge of the army and hurried ahead with the quickest of the men."

فَانْهَزَمَتْ كِنْدَةُ وَقُتِلَتْ، وَخَرَجُوا هَرَّابًا فَالْتَجَأُوا إِلَى النَّجِيرِ، وَقَدْ رَمَوْهُ وَأَصْلَحُوهُ.

— ٢٣١ ص ٢ · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922>

English: "Kinda was routed and cut down; they fled and took refuge in al-Nujayr — which they had already repaired and put in order."

Where the letter met him: الكامل says only «بالطريق»; Ibn Khaldūn says «بالمفازة بين مأرب»
«وَحَضَرَمَوْت» (ج ٢ ص ٤٩٤) — his detail, not for the map as fact. Pairs with RCT/E-RC34 's map line (‘Ikrima closing the last road).

39. The knife at the writing

Runsheets: Pairs with #40

Tier: CORE · When: 11 AH by الكامل's arrangement; سير files it under 12 AH

[SOURCED, the books differ] · Map: النُّجَيْر only. The gate opens. The ring moves inside. What happened: When the leaders inside began to fear for their own lives, al-Ash‘ath came out with nine men. They asked Ziyād for a guarantee for themselves and their families, in return for opening the gate. Ziyād said: write whatever you want, and bring it to me to seal. They wrote it. And while al-Ash‘ath was writing, a man called Jaḥdam jumped at him with a knife and said: you write me in, or I kill you. Al-Ash‘ath wrote him in — and forgot himself. The gate was opened. Every fighting man inside was killed. When it was over, al-Ash‘ath called the men and brought out the document, and everyone named in it was spared. Al-Ash‘ath's name was not there. Al-Muhājir had him bound. And someone said: hold him back — send him to Abū Bakr; he knows best what the ruling on this man is.

Beats: 1. Al-Ash‘ath comes out with nine men — The leaders inside had begun to fear for their own lives. 2. A guarantee in return for the gate — They asked Ziyād to guarantee them and their families, in return for opening the gate. 3. Write whatever you want —

Ziyād^{رض} agreed: write it, and bring it to me to seal. 4. Jaḥdam and the knife — As al-Ash‘ath wrote, Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife: write me in, or I kill you. 5. He forgets himself — Al-Ash‘ath wrote Jaḥdam in, and left his own name out. 6. The gate is opened — Every fighting man inside was killed. 7. The document comes out — Everyone named in it was spared, and al-Ash‘ath's own name was not there. 8. Al-Muhājir^{رض} has him bound — He praised Allah that al-Ash‘ath's mouth had erred, and had him bound tight. 9. Sent to Abū Bakr^{رض} with the captives — Someone said: send him to Abū Bakr^{رض}, who knows best the ruling on him. Quote after beat: 5 The statement:

وَنَسِيَ الْأَشْعَثُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ نَفْسَهُ لِأَنَّ جَحْدَمًا وَثَبَ عَلَيْهِ بِسِكِّينٍ، فَقَالَ: تَكْتُبُنِي أَوْ أَقْتُلُكَ؟ فَكَتَبَهُ وَنَسِيَ نَفْسَهُ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

English: "Al-Ash‘ath forgot to write himself in, because Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife and said:

Will you write me in, or shall I kill you? So he wrote him in, and forgot himself."

عبرت: The decision about al-Ash‘ath was not taken in anger at the gate; it was sent to the man whose job it was. Hands-up? no Also on the page:

فَخَرَجَ الْأَشْعَثُ وَمَعَهُ تِسْعَةُ نَفَرٍ، فَطَلَبُوا مِنْ زِيَادٍ أَنْ يُؤَمِّنَهُمْ وَأَهْلِيَهُمْ عَلَى أَنْ
يَفْتَحُوا لَهُ الْبَابَ. فَأَجَابَهُمْ إِلَى ذَلِكَ وَقَالَ: اكْتُبُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ ثُمَّ هَلُّمُوا الْكِتَابَ حَتَّى
أَخْتِمَهُ. فَفَعَلُوا، وَنَسِيَ الْأَشْعَثُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ نَفْسَهُ لِأَنَّ جَحْدَمًا وَثَبَ عَلَيْهِ بِسِكِّينٍ،
فَقَالَ: تَكْتُبُنِي أَوْ أَقْتُلُكَ؟ فَكَتَبَهُ وَنَسِيَ نَفْسَهُ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

English: "Al-Ash'ath came out with nine men, and they asked Ziyād to guarantee them and their households on condition that they opened the gate to him. He agreed and said: Write whatever you want, then bring me the document so that I can seal it. They did — and al-Ash'ath forgot to write himself in, because Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife and said: Will you write me in, or shall I kill you? So he wrote him in, and forgot himself."

فَقَالَ الْمُهَاجِرُ: الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي خَطَأَ فَاكَ يَا أَشْعَثُ يَا عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ! قَدْ كُنْتُ أَشْتَهِي
أَنْ يُخْزِيكَ اللَّهُ! وَشَدَّهُ كِتَافًا، فَقِيلَ لَهُ: أَخْرَهُ وَسِيرَهُ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ؛ فَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْحُكْمِ فِيهِ. فَسِيرَهُ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ مَعَ السَّبْيِ.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

English: "Al-Muhājir said: Praise be to Allah, who made your mouth err, Ash'ath — you enemy of Allah! I had been longing for Allah to disgrace you! And he bound him tight. Someone said to him:

Hold him back and send him to Abū Bakr — he knows best the ruling on him. So he sent him to Abū Bakr with the captives."

Pairs with RCT/E-RC34, whose statement opens al-Muhājir's ^{رض} sentence (الحمد لله الذي خطأ) («فاك يا عدو الله»). «يا عدو الله» is said to a man who is later a Companion — keep it in the notes, not on a slide. Jaḥdam is named once, with no lineage (§X item 5). The page also says the fighters were beheaded after capture — «وَصَرَّبُوا أَعْنَاقَهُمْ صَبْرًا». Narrate it plainly if asked; do not enlarge it.

40. النُّجَيْر — the name he forgot to write

Runsheet: Year: al-Kāmil puts it in 11 AH and Siyar in 12 AH. Say "11 or 12 AH" · SKIP BEATS 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9

Tier: CORE · When: the last siege of the war [SOURCED as sequence] — الكامل prints it immediately before «ثم دخلت سنة اثنتي عشرة» (ج ٢ ص ٢٣٣), i.e. still inside ١١ هـ by its own arrangement; no page fixes the month (§12.2, §X item 2); but سير files it under ١٢ هـ (ج ١٢ ص ٥٥ — see the-second-yemen-ridda-and-kinda-11-12ah.md), so the books differ on the year — say "11 or 12 AH" · Map: Ziyād^{رض} and al-Muhājir^{رض} converge and break Kinda at مَحْجَرُ الزُّرْقَان; the survivors run to النُّجَيْر, a strong hill fort. 'Ikrima's^{رض} long line — the one that started at اليمامة in E-RC15 — arrives here and closes the last road. The map's final arrow. What happened: Kinda was broken in the field and shut itself into the fort of al-Nujayr. The Muslims closed every road. When the siege bit, al-Ash'ath b. Qays came out with nine men and offered to open the gate in exchange for a written safe-conduct for himself, his household and them. He was told to write whatever he wanted and bring it to be sealed. He wrote it. He opened the gate. And when it was over and the document was produced, every man named in it was spared — and his own name was not in it. Beats: 1. Kinda shuts itself into al-Nujayr — Broken in the field, Kinda shut itself into the fort of al-Nujayr. 2. Every road is closed — The Muslims closed every road, and the siege began to bite. 3. Al-Ash'ath comes out with nine men — He offered to open the gate in return for a written safe-conduct for himself, his household and them. 4. He may write his own terms — He was told to write whatever he wanted and bring it to be sealed. 5. He writes, and opens the gate — He wrote the document, and he opened the gate. 6. His own name is not there — When the document was produced, every man named in it was spared, and his own name was missing. 7. Al-Muhājir^{رض} speaks to him — Praise be to Allah, who made your mouth err, Ash'ath. 8. The same page gives a second telling — Al-Kāmil records another version of these events. Both stand; neither is chosen. 9. Pardoned all the same — Abū Bakr^{رض} pardoned him anyway, and restored his wife to him. Quote after beat: 7 The statement:

فَأَجَارَ مَنْ فِي الْكِتَابِ، فَإِذَا الْأَشْعَثُ لَيْسَ مِنْهُمْ، فَقَالَ الْمُهَاجِرُ: الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي خَطَأَ فَاكَ يَا أَشْعَثُ.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

English: "Every man in the document was spared — and al-Ash'ath was not among them. Al-Muhājir said: Praise be to Allah, who made your mouth err, Ash'ath."

عبرت: He wrote a safe-conduct for everyone he was bargaining with and left himself off it.
Hands-up? Before telling it: "He is allowed to write his own terms. What is the one thing he must not forget?" And then Abū Bakr ^{رض} pardoned him anyway and restored his wife (الكامل) ^{رض} gives a second version on the same page in which he betrayed his companions deliberately, and his own tribeswomen named him for it.
Record both. Adjudicate neither.

41. The other telling

Runsheet: Speaker's discretion · its Arabic stays off the slide face

Tier: GOOD · When: 11 AH by الكامل's arrangement; سير files it under 12 AH

[SOURCED, the books differ] · Map: No movement. A single bound figure leaves النُّجَيْر ^{رض} northward, walking beside the line of captives. What happened: Ibn al-Athīr does not leave it at one account. On the same page he writes: and it is said. In this telling there was no knife and no forgetting. When the siege became unbearable, al-Ash'ath came down on his own to al-Muhājir ^{رض} and Ziyād ^{رض} and asked for safety for his own life and property until Abū Bakr ^{رض} could decide about him — and in exchange he would open al-Nujayr and hand over everyone inside. They accepted. The kings inside were brought down and killed. Al-Ash'ath was bound and sent to Medina with the captives. And the captive women of his own tribe gave him a name. Beats: 1. Ibn al-Athīr gives a second telling — He does not leave it at one account. He writes: and it is said. 2. No knife, and no forgetting — In this telling there is no knife at the writing, and no name left out. 3. Al-Ash'ath comes down alone — When the siege became unbearable, he came down on his own to al-Muhājir ^{رض} and Ziyād ^{رض}. 4. Safety until Abū Bakr ^{رض} decides — He asked for his life and property to be safe, until Abū Bakr ^{رض} could decide about him. 5. The price: the fort — In exchange he would open al-Nujayr and hand over everyone inside. They accepted. 6. The kings are brought down — The kings inside al-Nujayr were brought down and killed. 7. Bound, and sent to Medina — Al-Ash‘ath was bound and sent to Medina with the captives. 8. The captive women of his tribe — In this telling, the captive women of his own tribe gave him a name.

Quote after beat: 8 The statement:

وَسَمَّاهُ نِسَاءُ قَوْمِهِ عُرْفَ النَّارِ، وَهُوَ اسْمُ الْغَادِرِ عِنْدَهُمْ.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

English: "The women of his people called him ‘urf al-nār — which was their name for a traitor."

عبرت: The historian put both accounts on one page and did not choose between them, and neither do we. Hands-up? no ⚠ NOT FOR THE SLIDE FACE: the statement projects a name of disgrace («عُرْفَ النَّارِ», "a traitor") onto a man who is later a Companion, from the telling the historian introduces with «وَقِيلَ»; say it aloud beside the first telling, never on the screen. ⚠ SPEAKER'S DISCRETION. Al-Ash‘ath is later a Companion with صحبة (سير ج ٢ ص ٣٨). Tell both tellings or neither; never this one alone. Al-Dhahabī's report gives the safe-conduct as for seventy, not ten (سير ج ٢ ص ٣٩). Ibn Khaldūn has him approach through ‘Ikrima^{رض} (ج ٢ ص ٤٩٤) — his detail. Also on the page:

وَقِيلَ: إِنَّ الْحِصَارَ لَمَّا اشْتَدَّ عَلَى مَنْ بِالنُّجَيْرِ نَزَلَ الْأَشْعَثُ إِلَى الْمُهَاجِرِ وَزِيَادٍ
وَالْمُسْلِمِينَ، فَسَأَلَهُمُ الْأَمَانَ عَلَى دَمِهِ وَمَالِهِ حَتَّى يَقْدُمُوا بِهِ عَلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ، فَبَرَى فِيهِ
رَأْيَهُ، عَلَى أَنْ يَفْتَحَ لَهُمُ النُّجَيْرَ وَيُسَلِّمَ إِلَيْهِمْ مَنْ فِيهِ، وَغَدَرَ بِأَصْحَابِهِ

— ٢٣٢ ص ٢ الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923>

English: "And it is said: when the siege pressed hard on those in al-Nujayr, al-Ash'ath came down to al-Muhājir, Ziyād and the Muslims and asked them for safe-conduct for his life and his property until they brought him to Abū Bakr to decide about him — on condition that he opened al-Nujayr to them and handed over those inside. And he betrayed his companions."

فَكَانَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ يَلْعَنُونَهُ وَيَلْعَنُهُ سَبَايَا قَوْمِهِ، وَسَمَّاهُ نِسَاءُ قَوْمِهِ عُزْفَ النَّارِ، وَهُوَ اسْمُ الْعَادِرِ عِنْدَهُمْ.

— ٢٣٢ ص ٢ الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923>

English: "The Muslims cursed him, and the captive women of his own people cursed him; the women of his people called him 'urf al-nār — which was their name for a traitor."

Both quotations are notes only, for the same reason as the statement.

42. "What do you think I will do with you?"

Runsheet: Spare [HANDS]: ask the room the same question before the answer — use it in place of #30's if Part II ran short

Tier: CORE · When: 11–12 AH [SOURCED] · Map: المدينة only. The bound figure arrives. What happened: Al-Ash'ath was brought before Abū Bakr^{رضي}. Abū Bakr^{رضي} asked him what he thought would be done with him. He said he did not know. Abū Bakr^{رضي} said: then I will kill you. And al-Ash'ath argued the law. I am the man who negotiated that peace for ten, he said — my blood is not lawful. And Abū Bakr^{رضي} answered him on the law: the peace bound only the names in the document, once it was sealed; before the seal you were a negotiator, nothing more. And when he feared he would be killed, he stopped arguing and asked. Look for some good in me. Free me. Forgive my stumble. Treat me as you have treated others like me. And give me back my wife — when he had come to the Prophet ﷺ he had asked for Abū Bakr's ^{رضي} own sister, and put the wedding off until his next visit; then the Prophet ﷺ died, and he apostatised. Do that, he said, and you will find me the best man in my country for the religion of Allah. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} spared his life and gave him back his family. Beats: 1. Al-Ash'ath before Abū Bakr ^{رضي} — Asked what he thought would be done with him, he said he did not know. 2. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} gives the answer — Then I will kill you. 3. Al-Ash'ath argues the law — I negotiated that peace for ten, he said, so my blood is not lawful. 4. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} answers on the law — The answer turned on the document, and on the moment it was sealed. 5. Fearing death, he stops arguing — Look for some good in me. Free me. Forgive my stumble. Treat me as you treated others like me. 6. Give me back my wife — He had asked for Abū Bakr's ^{رضي} sister and delayed the wedding; then the Prophet ﷺ died, and he apostatised. 7. The best man in my country — Do that, he said, and you will find me the best in my country for the religion of Allah. 8. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} spares him — He spared al-Ash'ath's life and gave him back his family. 9. Al-Dhahabī's shorter version — We will kill you. Be gracious to me, and I accept Islam. He did, and married his sister to him. 10. Ten, or seventy — Ibn al-Athīr has the peace negotiated for ten; al-Dhahabī gives seventy. The books differ. Quote after beat: 4 The statement:

قَالَ: إِنَّمَا وَجَبَ الصُّلْحُ بَعْدَ خَتْمِ الصَّحِيفَةِ عَلَى مَنْ فِيهَا، وَإِنَّمَا كُنْتُ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُرَاوِضًا.

— ٢٣٢ ص · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923>

English: "He said: The peace became binding, once the document was sealed, only on those named in it; before that you were only negotiating."

عبرت: He won his life only after he stopped arguing that he was owed it. Hands-up? Before telling it: "He has lost the legal argument. He is standing in front of the caliph in chains. What does he say now?" Also on the page:

فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ قَالَ لَهُ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: مَا تَرَانِي أَصْنَعُ بِكَ؟ قَالَ: لَا أَعْلَمُ. قَالَ: فَإِنِّي أَقْتُلُكَ. قَالَ: فَأَنَا الَّذِي رَاوَضْتُ الْقَوْمَ فِي عَشْرَةِ فَمَا يَحِلُّ دَمِي. قَالَ: إِنَّمَا وَجَبَ الصُّلْحُ بَعْدَ خْتِمِ الصَّحِيفَةِ عَلَى مَنْ فِيهَا، وَإِنَّمَا كُنْتَ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُرَاوِضًا.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

English: "When he reached Medina, Abū Bakr said to him: What do you think I will do with you? He said: I do not know. He said: Then I will kill you. He said: But I am the one who negotiated with the people for ten — so my blood is not lawful. He said: The peace became binding, once the document was sealed, only on those named in it; before that you were only negotiating."

فَلَمَّا خَشِيَ الْقَتْلَ قَالَ: أَوْتَحَسَّبُ فِيَّ خَيْرًا، فَتُطْلَقُ إِسَارِي وَتُقِيلُنِي عَثْرَتِي، وَتَفْعَلُ بِي مِثْلَ مَا فَعَلْتَ بِأَمْثَالِي، وَتَرْدُّ عَلَيَّ زَوْجَتِي؟

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

English: "When he feared he would be killed, he said: Or will you look for some good in me — free me from my bonds, forgive my stumble, do with me what you have done with men like me, and give me back my wife?"

فَإِنْ فَعَلْتَ ذَلِكَ تَجِدُنِي خَيْرَ أَهْلِ بِلَادِي لِدِينِ اللَّهِ. فَحَقَّنَ دَمَهُ وَرَدَّ عَلَيْهِ أَهْلَهُ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

English: "If you do that, you will find me the best of the people of my country for the religion of Allah. So he spared his blood and gave him back his family."

Al-Dhahabī's shorter version (al-Nakha'ī, via Abū 'Ubayd's al-Amwāl) — a variant, kept beside the first, not in place of it:

فَأُتِيَ بِهِ الصِّدِّيقُ، فَقَالَ: إِنَّا قَاتِلُوكَ، لَا أَمَانَ لَكَ. فَقَالَ: تَمُنُّ عَلَيَّ وَأُسْلِمُ؟ قَالَ:
فَفَعَلَ، وَزَوَّجَهُ أُخْتَهُ.

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٣٩ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2019>

English: "He was brought to al-Ṣiddiq, who said: We are going to kill you; you have no safe-conduct. He said: Will you do me a kindness, and I become Muslim? He said: And he did so, and married his sister to him."

△ Her name differs: Umm Farwa in الكامل, Farwa bint Abī Quhāfa in سير ج ٢ ص ٣٩, where he asks for the marriage after the pardon rather than having it restored. Say "Abū Bakr's^{رضي} sister". △ The number differs: ten in الكامل («فِي عَشْرَةٍ»), seventy in سير — the card's narrative keeps الكامل's ten because it tells الكامل's exchange; do not reconcile them. Which "men like me" he meant is not on the page (§X item 12). Follow with POT/E-PG40 (the wedding feast in the camel market), which tells al-Dhahabī's version in its narrative.

43. The wedding feast in the camel market

Runsheet: Pardoned, and married to Abū Bakr's^{رضي} sister (the books differ on her name) · SKIP BEATS 1,2,3,4

Tier: CORE · When: 11–12 AH [SOURCED] · Map: Medina.

What happened: الأشعث^{رضي} had apostatised in the ردة with a number of كندة. He was besieged, and he took safe conduct — for seventy men, and not for himself. He was brought captive to أبو بكر^{رضي}, who told him plainly: we are going to kill you, you have no safe conduct. And he said: will you show me favour, and I become Muslim? أبو بكر^{رضي} did, and loosed his bonds, and married his own sister to him. So الأشعث^{رضي} drew his sword, walked into the camel market of Medina, and began hamstringing every camel and every bull he saw, while the people shouted that he had apostatised again. Then he threw the sword down and explained himself.

Beats: 1. He had joined the ridda — Al-Ash‘ath had apostatised in the ridda, with a number of Kinda. 2. Safe conduct, but not for himself — Besieged, he took safe conduct for seventy men, al-Dhahabī says, and not for himself. 3. Brought captive to Abū Bakr^{رضي} — We are going to kill you, Abū Bakr^{رضي} told him plainly; you have no safe conduct. 4. He asks for favour — Will you show me favour, he asked, and I become Muslim? 5. Released, and married into the family — Abū Bakr^{رضي} showed him favour, loosed his bonds, and married his own sister to him. 6. A sword in the camel market — He drew his sword, walked into the camel market of Medina, and began hamstringing every camel and bull he saw. 7. Medina thinks he has turned again — The people shouted that he had apostatised again. 8. He throws the sword down — Then he threw the sword down and explained himself. Quote after beat: 8

The statement:

وَاللّٰهُ مَا كَفَرْتُ؛ وَلَكِنَّ هَٰذَا الرَّجُلَ زَوَّجَنِي أُخْتَهُ؛ وَلَوْ كُنَّا فِي بِلَادِنَا لَكَانَتْ لَنَا وَلِيْمَةٌ غَيْرُ هَٰذِهِ، يَا أَهْلَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ، انْخَرُوا، وَكُلُّوا! وَيَا أَهْلَ الْإِبِلِ تَعَالَوْا خُذُوا شَرَوَاهَا!

— سيرة أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٣٩ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2019>

English: "By God, I have not disbelieved. This man has married his sister to me, and had we been in our own country we would have had a wedding feast other than this one. People of Medina — slaughter and eat! And owners of the camels, come and take the like of them!"

عبرت: A man newly forgiven will sometimes announce it in the loudest and least convenient way available to him.

Hands-up? no

44. "We suspected three men"

Runsheet: Via Sayf · ‘Amr, Qays and al-Ash‘ath side by side again, at al-Qādisiyya

Tier: CORE · When: al-Qādisiyya to Nahāwand; Ibn Kathīr files the saying in his notices for 21 AH [SOURCED] · Map: Pull back to the whole region. Three thin lines leave the south of the peninsula — from صنعاء, from حضرموت, from the country of مَذْحِج — and run north to اليرموك and القادسية, and on to نهاوند. What happened: Three of the men of this evening went north. Al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} and ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib^{رضي} were in the delegation Sa‘d^{رضي} sent to call

Rustam to Islam before al-Qādisiyya. Qays b. Makshūḥ fought at the Yarmūk, came east with the reinforcements from Syria, and commanded the left wing at al-Qādisiyya. Qays and al-Ash‘ath^{رض} each lost an eye at the Yarmūk. At Nahāwand, Ibn Kathīr lists ‘Amr^{رض}, Qays and Ṭulayḥa^{رض} side by side among the leading men of the army. And he records what Jābir^{رض} b. ‘Abd Allāh^{رض} swore about the army at al-Qādisiyya. He said they had suspected three men of wanting this world — and when they looked into those three, they found nothing to match their honesty and their indifference to it. The three names are Ṭulayḥa, who had claimed prophethood; ‘Amr^{رض}, who had followed al-Aswad; and Qays, who had turned on the Abnā’. Beats: 1. Three men of this evening go north — Qays, ‘Amr^{رض} and al-Ash‘ath^{رض} are met again at the Yarmūk, al-Qādisiyya and Nahāwand. 2. Sent to call Rustam to Islam — Al-Ash‘ath^{رض} and ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib^{رض} were among the men Sa‘d^{رض} sent before al-Qādisiyya. 3. Qays commands the left wing — He fought at the Yarmūk, came east with reinforcements from Syria, and commanded the left at al-Qādisiyya. 4. An eye each at the Yarmūk — Qays and al-Ash‘ath^{رض} each lost an eye at the Yarmūk. 5. Side by side at Nahāwand — Ibn Kathīr lists ‘Amr^{رض}, Qays and Ṭulayḥa^{رض} among the leading men of the army. 6. What Jābir^{رض} swore — Ibn Kathīr records that Jābir^{رض} swore: we found no one at al-Qādisiyya wanting this world with the next. 7. Three men were suspected — They had suspected three men of wanting this world. 8. They looked into the three — And when they looked, they found nothing to match their honesty and their indifference to this world. 9. Who the three were — Ṭulayḥa^{رض}, who had claimed prophethood; ‘Amr^{رض}, who had followed al-Aswad; Qays, who had turned on the Abnā’. 10. Two books on Qays — Ibn Kathīr says Qays left Islam; al-Dhahabī's notice of him, a commander known for courage, does not mention it. Quote after beat: 8 The statement:

ولقد اتهمنا ثلاثة نفر، فما رأينا كما هجمنا عليهم من أمانتهم وزهدهم: طليحة بن خويلد الأسدي، وعمرو بن معدي كرب، وقيس بن المكشوح.

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٢٤٣ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3389>

English: "We did suspect three men — and when we came upon them we found nothing to match their trustworthiness and their abstinence: Ṭulayḥa b. Khuwaylid al-Asadī, ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib, and Qays b. al-Makshūḥ."

عبرت: The army kept watching the men who had once turned, and the watching found nothing; both of those facts are in the record. Hands-up? Before telling it: "Last week it was Ṭulayḥa. Tonight we met ʿAmr[ؓ], Qays and al-Ashʿath. Where do you think we find them ten years later?" △ The saying comes through Sayf b. ʿUmar — say "Ibn Kathīr records that Jābir[ؓ] said". △ SPEAKER'S DISCRETION on Qays: no honorific — no page here states his Companionship. Stop at the Yarmūk and Nahāwand; both al-Ashʿath's and Qays's notices go on to Ṣiffīn, which is not this session. Close with POT/E-PG41 (إِنَّ هَذَا لَمْ يَرْتَدَّ، وَإِنِّي «arṭadḏu»). Hand-off: al-Ashʿath's later house is the third sister note. Also on the page:

ثم بعث سعدُ جماعةً من السادات منهم النعمان بن مُقَرَّرٍ، وفُرات بن حَيَّان،
وحَنْظَلَةُ بن الربيع التميمي، وعطارِد بن حاجب، والأشعث بن قيس، والمغيرة بن شعبة، وعمرو بن معد يكرب، يدعون رستم إلى الله

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3279>

English: "Then Sa'd sent a group of the leading men — among them al-Nu'mān b. Muqarrin, Furāt b.

Ḥayyān, Ḥanzala b. al-Rabī' al-Tamīmī, 'Uṭārid b. Ḥājib, al-Ash'ath b. Qays, al-Mughīra
b. Shu'ba

and 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib — to call Rustam to Allah."

وعلى الميسرة قيس بن مكشوح، وكان قيس والمغيرة بن شعبة قد قدما على سعد مدداً من عند أبي عبيدة من الشام بعدما شهدا وقعة اليرموك.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣٩ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3285>

English: "And over the left wing, Qays b. Makshūḥ. Qays and al-Mughīra b. Shu'ba had come to Sa'd as reinforcements from Abū 'Ubayda in Syria, after they had fought at the Yarmūk."

ما اطلعنا على أحدٍ من أهل القادسية يريد الدنيا مع الآخرة، ولقد اتهمنا ثلاثة نفرٍ،
فما رأينا كما هجمنا عليهم من أمانتهم وزهدهم: طليحة بن خويلد الأسدي،

وعَمْرُو بن معدي كرب، وقيس بن المكشوح.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٢٤٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3389>

English: "[Jābir b. 'Abd Allāh said, on oath:] We never came upon anyone among the men of al-Qādisiyya who wanted this world along with the next. We did suspect three men — and when we came upon them we found nothing to match their trustworthiness and their abstinence:

Ṭulayḥa b. Khuwaylid al-Asadī, 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib, and Qays b. al-Makshūḥ."

Al-Dhahabī's whole notice on Qays b. Makshūḥ — it does not mention the ridda at all:

الْأَمِيرُ، أَبُو حَسَّانٍ الْمُرَادِيُّ، مِنْ وُجُوهِ الْعَرَبِ الْمُؤَصُّوفِينَ بِالشَّجَاعَةِ. وَكَانَ مِنْ أَعَانَ
عَلَى قَتْلِ الْأَسْوَدِ الْعَنْسِيِّ، وَقُلِعَتْ عَيْنُهُ يَوْمَ الْيَرْمُوكِ.

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٣ ص ٥٢٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/3128>

English: "The commander, Abū Ḥassān al-Murādī, one of the notable Arabs known for courage. He was among those who helped kill al-Aswad al-ʿAnsī, and his eye was put out on the day of the Yarmūk."

△ The same notice goes on to say Qays was killed at Šiffīn among ʿAlī's commanders — that clause is not quoted here and does not go into this session. The books differ on Qays: «ارتدّ عن الإسلام» (البدايه ج ٧ ص ٤٢) against a notice that is silent on it (سير ج ٣ ص ٥٢٠). Record both; decide nothing.

45. This man did not apostatise, and I did

Runsheet: Closes on a man who came back

Tier: CORE · When: after 12 AH [SOURCED] · Map: No map.

What happened: At a funeral where both men were standing, الأشعث بن قيس stepped back and put جرير بن عبد الله forward to lead the prayer. Somebody asked him why, and he gave the reason in six words. He had been forgiven, married into the الصديق's own family, and made a commander; and he still said this about himself in public, years afterwards.

Beats: 1. He steps back at a funeral — At a funeral, al-Ash'ath stepped back and put Jarīr b. ʿAbd Allāh forward to lead the prayer. 2. Somebody asks him why — He gave the reason in six words. 3. Said in public, years afterwards — Forgiven, married into al-Šiddīq's family, made a commander, and he still said it of himself. Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

إِنَّ هَذَا لَمْ يَرْتَدَّ، وَإِنِّي ارْتَدَدْتُ.

— سيرة أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٠ - <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2020>

English: "This man did not apostatise. And I did."

عبرت: A man who will say the worst thing about himself out loud has taken its power away from everybody else.

Hands-up? no