

Yemen

10–12 AH

1 · WHERE IT HAPPENED

Mark Ṣan‘ā’, Najrān and Ḥaḍramawt as they are named, and write the name beside each.

2 · WHEN IT HAPPENED

Write the event above its date, in order, as we reach it: Ḥajjat al-Wadā‘ · al-Aswad killed · the Prophet ﷺ dies · al-Nujayr.

10 AH	Rabī‘ I 11 AH	Rabī‘ I 11 AH	11 or 12 AH
-------	---------------	---------------	-------------

3 · WHO

Three lines are printed. The fourth is yours — write the one incident you want to remember about each man.

al-Aswad al-‘Ansī

Rose after Ḥajjat al-Wadā‘, 10 AH · killed in Ṣan‘ā‘, Rabī‘ I 11 AH
‘Abhala b. Ka‘b of ‘Ans, called Dhū al-Khimār. He came out with seven hundred men, took Najrān in ten nights and Ṣan‘ā‘ in twenty-five, and was killed in his own house three or four months later.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

Fayrūz al-Daylamī

Of the Abnā‘, the Persians of Ṣan‘ā‘ · Rabī‘ I 11 AH
He went first through the wall into the room where al-Aswad slept. When Qays b. Makshūḥ turned on the Abnā‘, he escaped to his mother’s people in Khawlān.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

al-Muhājir b. Abī Umayya

Brother of Umm Salama · sent to the Yemen, 11 AH
He had stayed behind from Tabūk and was forgiven when his sister spoke for him. Abū Bakr sent him down through Najrān to Ṣan‘ā‘, and the Yemen was restored. Then he went on to his own post over Kinda, and with Ziyād b. Labīd besieged al-Nujayr.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

4 · TONIGHT'S LESSONS

Write each one in your own words as it is said.
