

Evening 5 — what al-Yamāma cost

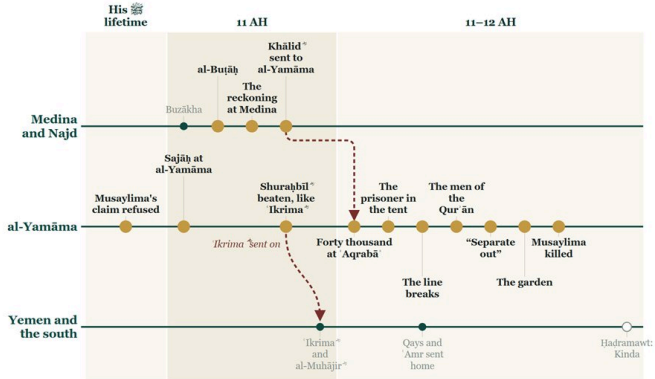

Every slide as the room will see it, and under it every word of its notes. On a moving map, each click's picture sits under its ► CLICK line. Read it twice; deliver from the deck.

Evening 5

What al-Yamāma cost

12 AH

Where we stopped

BOOKEND IN — last week's closing Line, unchanged.

SAY — Last week ended with al-Yamāma taken: the garden, the gate, Musaylima dead, and the treaty kept against the caliph's letter.

From last week

Where we stand

| al-Yamāma
taken

| Ḥadramawt
the last front

BOOKEND IN — last week's closing map, unchanged.

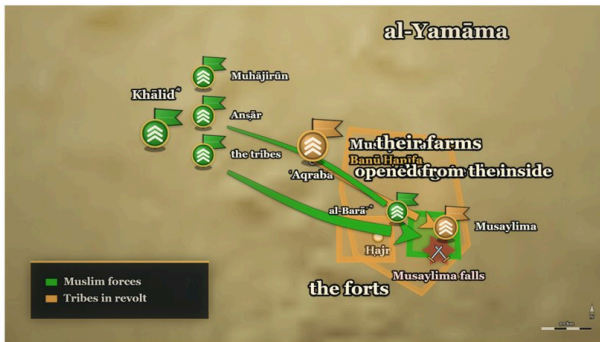

SAY — Tonight: what was signed at the forts, what that day cost — and where the man sent away from al-Yamāma before the battle had gone.

Part I

How the day ended (12 AH)

Last week, in one minute

The day at 'Aqrabā'

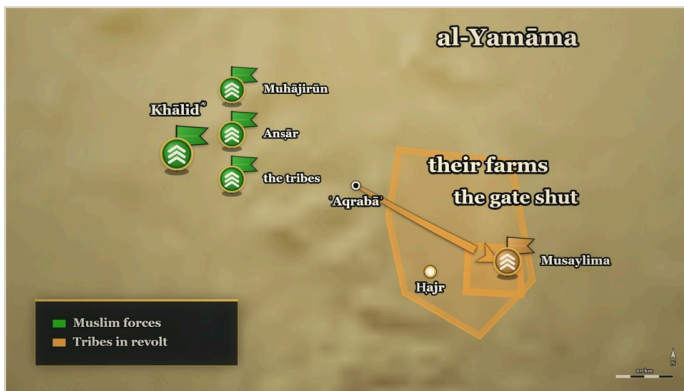

The garden
the gate shut, then opened

Musaylima falls

The forts
where the terms were made

SAY — Last week ended with al-Yamāma taken. Here is the end of that day again, in five moves — and then what was signed.

► CLICK 1 — Banū Ḥanīfa break, and fall back into a walled garden. The gate shuts behind them.

► CLICK 2 — al-Barā' b. Mālīk : throw me over — over the wall, on a shield raised on spears.

► CLICK 3 — He fights at the gate and opens it, and the army pours in.

► CLICK 4 — In a gap in the wall, Musaylima falls.

► CLICK 5 — The survivors reach the forts. And this is where tonight begins: what was signed there.

al-Yamāma

Khalid

'Aqraba

Hajr

Musaylima falls

the forts

- Muslim forces
- Tribes in revolt

The terms at the forts

... صالحه على الصفراء والبيضاء والحلقة والكراع، وعلى نصف الرقيق، وعلى

حائط من كل قرية

...made terms with him on the gold and the silver, the armour and the horses, half of the slaves, and a walled garden from every village

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala (al-Rashidun), p. 48

NOTE — Answers the question evening 4 left the speaker without. al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 218: first "everything except lives", then gold, silver, weapons and half the captives — «وقيل: ربعة». Siyar (al-Rashidun), p. 48 ('Urwa): gold and silver, armour and horses, half the slaves, and one walled garden from every village. Salama b. 'Umayr: fight on — the fort is strong, the food plentiful, winter has come; Mujjā'a: do not obey him. △ Do not retell the trick — it was told on evening 4

SAY —

1. Where we left them — Banū Ḥanīfa broken, the survivors in their forts, and the army worn out.
2. Mujjā'a's offer — "Only the first of them came at you; the forts are full. Make terms for what is behind me."
3. The first terms — Everything, except their lives.
4. The refusal you already know — The women on the walls: he came back saying his people would not accept it.
5. What was finally agreed — Gold and silver, armour and horses, half the captives — some say a quarter.
6. And a garden in every village — One walled garden from every village of al-Yamāma.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

7. The man who said no — Salama b. 'Umayr: fight on; the fort is strong, the food plentiful, winter has come.

8. Mujjā'a's answer — "Do not obey him — he is ill-omened." They obeyed Mujjā'a, and the terms were made.

QUOTE —

فلم يزل مجاعة حتى صالحه على الصفراء والبيضاء والحلقة والكراع، وعلى نصف الرقيق، وعلى حائط من كل قرية، فتقاضوا على ذلك.

"Mujjā'a kept at him until he made terms with him on the gold and the silver, the armour and the horses, half of the slaves, and a walled garden from every village — and they settled on that."

— سیر أعلام النبلاء (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) ص ٤٨ (from 'Urwa)

The terms took their weapons and their wealth, and left them their lives.

الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٨ — The first offer, and why he settled

(<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/909>): the first terms were «فَصَالَحَهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ دُونَ»

وَقَدْ «النُّفُوسِ» — everything except lives. After the refusal, Khālīd saw the forts full

«تَهَكَّتِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ الْحَرْبُ وَطَالَ اللَّقَاءُ، وَأَحْبَبُوا أَنْ يَرْجِعُوا عَلَى الظَّفَرِ» — the war had worn the Muslims down, the fighting had been long, and they wanted to go home with the victory. The final terms in Ibn al-Athīr's words: «وَصَالَحَهُ خَالِدٌ عَلَى الذَّهَبِ وَالْفِضَّةِ وَالسِّلَاحِ»

لَمَّا رَأَى «has Mujjā'a asking to go to his people» — البداية ج ٧ ص ٣٥

«بِالْمُسْلِمِينَ مِنَ الْجَهْدِ وَقَدْ كَلُّوا مِنْ كَثْرَةِ الْحُرُوبِ وَالْقِتَالِ» — because he saw how spent the Muslims were. Salama's objection, on the same سیر page: «يا بني حنيفة قاتلوا ولا تقاضوا»

— and Mujjā'a: «لا تطيعوه فإنه» — «خالدا على شيء، فإن الحصن حصين، والطعام كثير، وقد حضر الشتاء

«مشؤوم» — «فأطاعوا مجاعة، وقاضاهم

⚠ Do not retell the trick — E-RC22 told the women in armour on the walls on evening 4. This card is what was signed.

⚠ The books differ on the terms — half the captives or a quarter; al-Kāmil does not list the gardens. Give 'Urwa's list as سیر records it, and say "some say a quarter". ابن خلدون ج ٢ ص ٥٠٣ has half first, refused, then a quarter — framing only (DECISIONS.md #29), never cited alone. Why this card exists (#61): evening 4's E-RC22 said "he settles on terms" and never said what they were.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — When Banū Ḥanīfa broke, the survivors made for their forts, and Khālīd ^{بنو} meant to send the squadrons in after them. Mujjāʿa, still his prisoner, told him that only the first rush of his people had met him and that the forts were full, and offered to make terms for everything behind him. Khālīd ^{بنو} agreed first to everything except their lives. Then Mujjāʿa went in to consult them — the trick told on evening 4 — and came back saying they refused. Khālīd ^{بنو} looked at forts that seemed full, at an army worn out by a long war, and settled for less: the gold and the silver, the armour and the horses, half of the captives — and some say a quarter — and one walled garden from every village. One man of Banū Ḥanīfa, Salama b. ʿUmayr, told his people to refuse even that: the fort was strong, the food plentiful, and winter had come. Mujjāʿa told them not to listen to him, and they did as Mujjāʿa said.

To the last man

ودعاهم خالد إلى الإسلام فأسلموا عن آخرهم ورجعوا إلى الحق

And Khālīd called them to Islam, and they became Muslims to the last of them and returned to the truth

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 35

NOTE — al-Bidaya, vol. 7, p. 35: called to Islam — «فأسلموا عن آخرهم» — and some captives given back. Siyar (al-Rashidun), p. 48: al-Zuhri — the men in the fort came down on his judgement and were spared (△ say no number: the page misprints the number-word). △ The page goes on to ‘Alī^{عليه} and the mother of Muḥammad b. al-Ḥanafīyya — not from the platform. Last beat: begun in 11 AH, finished in 12 (Ibn Kathīr, vol. 7, pp. 35–36)

SAY —

1. The terms made — And then a second call: to Islam, and to renounce what they had followed.
2. To the last man — Ibn Kathīr: they became Muslims, every one of them, and came back to the truth.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
3. The captives — Some given back to them; the rest sent on to Abū Bakr^{رضي} at Medina.
4. The men in the fort — In al-Zuhri's report they came down on Khālīd's^{رضي} judgement, and he spared them.
5. When it happened — Begun at the end of 11 AH, finished at the start of 12: Ibn Kathīr and al-Dhahabī reconcile it the same way.

QUOTE —

ودعاهم خالد إلى الإسلام فأسلموا عن آخرهم ورجعوا إلى الحق. وردّ عليهم خالدٌ بعضَ ما كان أخذ من السبي، وساق الباقيين إلى الصّدّيق.

"And Khālid called them to Islam, and they became Muslims to the last of them and returned to the truth. And Khālid gave back to them some of the captives he had taken, and drove the rest on to al-Ṣiddīq."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٥

عبرت — The last thing offered to them was not a sword but a call, and every one of them answered it.

The same, from 'Urwa — سير (الراشدون) ص ٤٨ (<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1196>): «ثم إن خالدًا دعاهم إلى الإسلام والبراءة مما كانوا عليه، فأسلم سائرهم» فنزلوا على حكم» the fighting men of Banū Ḥanīfa who had shut themselves in their fort «خالد فاستحياهم». The printed page gives their number with a typographical slip in the number-word, so no figure is spoken from this report. The date — البدايه ج ٧ ص ٣٦-٣٥ (the sentence straddles the page break) and سير الراشدون ص ٤٩ reconcile the 11/12 AH disagreement the same way: begun in 11, finished in 12. The table is in §6.10 of this note.

⚠ Not for the platform: the same البدايه page goes on to say that 'Alī^{رضي} took a slave-woman from these captives, the mother of his son Muḥammad, "who is called Muḥammad b. al-Ḥanafiyya". It is a fact of the book and it opens a figure this course reaches much later. If a slip asks, say that the book records it, and no more.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Once the terms were made, Khālid^{رضي} called Banū Ḥanīfa to Islam and to renounce what they had followed, and they became Muslims — to the last man, Ibn Kathīr says — and came back to the truth. He gave back some of the captives he had taken and sent the rest on to Abū Bakr^{رضي}. In al-Zuhri's report the fighting men who had fortified themselves came down on Khālid's^{رضي} judgement, and he spared them. And the books, for once, agree on how to date it: the fighting began at the very end of 11 AH and was finished at the start of 12.

Part II

The man who opened the gate

'Umar's ﷺ caliphate, 13–23 AH
al-Barā' b. Mālīk

لَا تَسْتَعْمِلُوا الْبِرَاءَ عَلَى جَيْشٍ، فَإِنَّهُ مَهْلَكَةٌ مِنَ الْمَهَالِكِ يُقَدِّمُ بِهِمْ.

"Do not put al-Barā' in command of an army, for he is a destruction among destructions — he presses forward with them."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 196

NOTE — Answers evening 4's last question first: he lived. Beat 2 is the way into his brother's house. △ «قيل» — "it is reported that 'Umar ^{رضي} wrote". The eighty wounds were told on evening 4 — say "you heard he lived" and go on to what was said of him

SAY —

1. The man who went over the wall lived — al-Barā' b. Mālīk ^{رضي}, and this is what was said of him afterwards.
2. His house — Brother of Anas b. Mālīk ^{رضي}, who served the Prophet ﷺ ten years.
3. What is reported of 'Umar ^{رضي} — That he wrote to his army commanders about him.
4. The instruction — Do not put al-Barā' in command of an army.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
5. The reason — Not that he was unreliable: that he presses forward, and takes the men with him.

QUOTE —

لَا تَسْتَعْمِلُوا الْبِرَاءَ عَلَى جَيْشٍ، فَإِنَّهُ مَهْلَكَةٌ مِنَ الْمَهَالِكِ يُقَدِّمُ بِهِمْ.

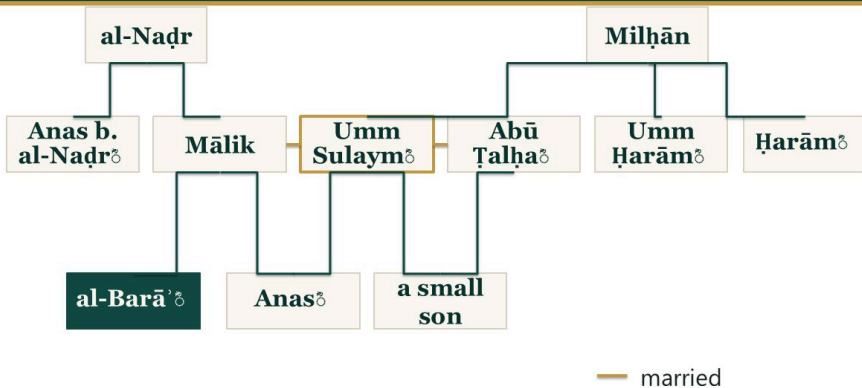

"Do not put al-Barā' in command of an army, for he is a destruction among destructions — he presses forward with them."

عبرت — Courage is not the same qualification as command, and a state has to know the difference.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Anas b. Mālik's elder brother al-Barā' was the kind of fighter other men lined up behind. It is reported that 'Umar wrote to his army commanders about him, and the instruction was not to give him a command. The reason given was not that he was unreliable. It was the opposite.

Banū al-Najjār, of Medina

The house of Umm Sulaymؓ

TREE — the house of Umm Sulaymؓ. Point as you go. (Every line is glued to its boxes: move a box and its lines follow.)

SAY — Before we go on with him, look at the house he came from: one house of Banū al-Najjār, in Medina.

1. Mālik b. al-Naḍrؓ — the father of al-Barā'ؓ and of Anasؓ. Al-Barā'ؓ is the elder.
2. Umm Sulaymؓ — Anas'sؓ mother, and Mālik's wife. When Mālik died, Abū Ṭalḥaؓ asked for her hand — the next slide is what she asked of him.
3. Anasؓ — she brought him to the Prophet ﷺ at ten, dressed in half her own head-covering, to serve him; ten years, and he was never once told off.
4. And their small son — the second slide from here.

IF THE ROOM IS WITH YOU — one line each, pointing:

5. Anas b. al-Naḍrؓ — their uncle, the man Anasؓ was named after. At Uḥud he said: I find the scent of Paradise, on this side of the mountain. He was found with more than eighty wounds, and only his sister knew him — by his fingertips. Nine years later his nephew al-Barā'ؓ came off the wall at al-Yamāma with eighty-odd wounds, and lived.

6. Ḥarām^{رضي} — her brother. Sent to Najd to teach, speared from behind under safe-conduct, he said: I have won, by the Lord of the Ka'ba. The Prophet ﷺ went into no house in Medina but hers, because her brother had been killed alongside him.

7. Umm Ḥarām^{رضي} — her sister, who asked to be among the first of this ummah to ride the sea, and was told she would be; years later, in a caliphate we have not reached, she was.

8. Abū Ṭalḥa^{رضي} — Bayruḥā', the palm-garden he loved most, he gave away. And at Ḥunayn, when the line was driven back, Umm Sulaym^{رضي} stood with a dagger: if any of them comes near me, I will use it on him.

△ Our pages name Umm Sulaym^{رضي} as Anas's^{رضي} mother; none names al-Barā'^{رضي}'s mother. Say "Anas's mother" and "his elder brother al-Barā'^{رضي}" — the tree draws only what the pages say.

△ Umm Ḥarām^{رضي} : do not name the fleet's commander. Ḥunayn: stop where the card stops.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — the house's stories in full: • The gift she had left: She brings her son to the Prophet ﷺ — Dressed in half her own head-covering.; What she asked — That he be taken into service, and prayed for.; How old he was — Ten. He stayed ten years. • Ten years, and not one rebuke: Ten years in that service — Anas^{رضي} served the Prophet ﷺ from the age of ten.; What he said afterwards, under oath — In ten years he was never once told off.; Not for what he did, and not for what he failed to do — And «uff» was never said to him. • «I find the scent of Paradise»: He had missed Badr — Anas b. al-Naḍr^{رضي}, and it weighed on him.; What he said about it — If Allah gives me a battle, He will see what I do.; At Uḥud, when the line broke — He walked forward with his sword and met Sa'd b. Mu'ādh^{رضي}.; What he said to him — I find the scent of Paradise, on this side of the mountain.; Then he went in — He fought until he was killed, and Sa'd^{رضي} said he could not have done what that man did. • Known by his fingertips: Afterwards they went out to identify the dead — More than eighty wounds on him: sword, spear and arrow.; His own family could not tell who he was — His sister came.; How she knew him — By his fingertips.; What his nephew said later — The āya of al-Aḥzāb was held to have come down about him and men like him. • «What will you do with life after him?»: The word goes round the field — That the Prophet ﷺ had been killed.; Men sat down where they were and let their hands fall — Among them ‘Umar ^{رضي} and Ṭalḥa ^{رضي} .; He asks what is keeping them there — And they tell him.;

 One sentence — And he walks past them into the fighting. • The water-carriers at Uḥud: He was a boy that day — Anas ^{رضي} remembered two things from Uḥud.;
 His stepfather in front of the Prophet ^ﷺ — Breaking bow after bow: my throat before your throat.; Two women running with waterskins — Skirts tucked up, emptying them into the men's mouths, going back to fill them.; Who they were — One was ‘Ā’isha ^{رضي} . The other was his mother. • «I have won»: A party sent out to Najd to teach — Umm Sulaym's ^{رضي} brother Ḥarām ^{رضي} carries the letter forward.; Safe conduct until the message is delivered — And he begins to speak to them.; What they did while he spoke — Signalled to a man, who came round behind him and ran a spear through him.; What he did with his own blood — Took it in his hand and threw it over his face and head. • The reason the Prophet ^ﷺ came to that house: People noticed — He went into no house in Medina except hers.; They asked him why — And the answer was not a compliment to the house.; The reason — Her brother had been killed alongside him. • Umm Ḥarām and the sea: He rested in her house one afternoon — And woke up laughing.; What he had been shown — People of his umma riding the sea like kings on thrones.; What she asked — That he pray she be one of them; he told her she was among the first.; Years later — A fleet went to Cyprus, and her husband ‘Ubāda b. al-Ṣāmit ^{رضي} carried her with it.; Coming ashore on the way back — A mule threw her, and she died there. • Bayruḥā’ : More date-palms than any man of the Anṣār — And the one he loved most was Bayruḥā’ .; He gave it away — And said plainly that he was giving the piece he loved most.;
 What he asked — That the Prophet ^ﷺ place it wherever he was shown.; Where it went — Among his own near kin. • The dagger at Ḥunayn: The Muslims driven back at the start of the day — Abū Ṭalḥa ^{رضي} finds his wife standing with a dagger.; He asks what it is for — If any of them comes near me, I will use it on him.; He turns to the Prophet ^ﷺ — Have you heard what she is saying?

Before the Hijra, at Medina

Abū Ṭalḥa ٱ and Umm Sulaym ٱ

وَلَكِنَّكَ كَافِرٌ، فَإِنْ تُسَلِّمَ فَذَلِكَ مَهْرِي، لَا أَسْأَلُكَ غَيْرَهُ.

...but you are a disbeliever. If you accept Islam, that is my dower — I ask you for nothing else.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 29

NOTE — Say it aloud: before the Hijra. Beat 1 is Abū Ṭalḥa's ٱ notice. △ His own name is Zayd b. Sahl — the evening has four Zayds. Always say the full name △ but ثابت's closing line is worth adding aloud: "We never heard of a nobler dower than Umm Sulaym's dower: Islam."

SAY —

1. Who he is — Abū Ṭalḥa ٱ of the Anṣār; his own name is Zayd b. Sahl. الذبي: a man of Badr, and one of the twelve naqībs of the night of al-'Aqaba.
2. He comes to ask for her in marriage — Still a pagan; she had already believed.
3. What she answered — She would not refuse a man like him, but he was a disbeliever.
4. Her price — If he accepted Islam, that would be her dower, and she would ask for nothing else.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
5. What happened — He accepted Islam, and he married her.

QUOTE —

أَمَّا إِنِّي فِينَا لَرَاغِبَةٌ، وَمَا مِثْلُكَ يُرَدُّ، وَلَكِنَّكَ كَافِرٌ، فَإِنْ تُسَلِّمَ فَذَلِكَ مَهْرِي، لَا أَسْأَلُكَ غَيْرَهُ.

"I am indeed willing in your case, and a man like you is not refused; but you are a disbeliever. If you accept Islam, that is my dower — I ask you for nothing else."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٢٩

عبرت — She set the terms of her own household before she entered it.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Abū Ṭalḥa came to ask for Umm Sulaym in marriage. He was still a pagan; she had already believed. She told him she would not refuse a man like him, but that he was a disbeliever. Then she named her price. If he accepted Islam, that would be her dower, and she would ask for nothing else. He accepted Islam, and he married her.

فَإِنَّ ابْنَكَ كَانَ عَارِيَةً مِنَ اللَّهِ، فَقَبَضَهُ.

"Your son was a loan from Allah, and He has taken him back."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 310

NOTE — △ The page does not name the child — do not name him. Tell it slowly; the strongest card in the house

△ (Delivery caution: the page does not name the child, and the exchange is at the end of the night, not at the door. Both details are usually got wrong in retelling.)

SAY —

1. Their small son is gravely ill — Abū Ṭalḥaؓ goes out to the mosque, and the boy dies.
2. She prepares the body herself — And tells the household to say nothing.
3. He comes home — She has his supper ready, and he eats it.
4. At the end of the night, a question — About neighbours who borrowed something and would not give it back.
5. He says they were not fair — And she tells him: your son was a loan, and He has taken him back.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

6. The morning after — He went to the Prophet ﷺ, who prayed for them both.

QUOTE —

فَإِنَّ ابْنَكَ كَانَ عَارِيَةً مِنَ اللَّهِ، فَقَبَضَهُ.

"Your son was a loan from Allah, and He has taken him back."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٣١٠

عبرت — She made him say the ruling before she told him it was his own case.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Their small son was gravely ill. Abū Ṭalḥa went out to the mosque, and while he was gone the boy died. Umm Sulaym prepared the body herself and told the household to say nothing. Her husband came home; she had his supper ready, and he ate it. At the end of the night she asked him a question about some neighbours who had borrowed something and then would not give it back. He said they had not been fair. She said: your son was a loan from Allah, and He has taken him back. He said the words of return to Allah, and praised Him. In the morning he went to the Prophet ﷺ, who saw him and prayed for them both.

Undated

al-Barā' and Anas

أَتَرَانِي أَمُوتُ عَلَى فِرَاشِي؟ وَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ قَتَلْتُ بِضْعاً وَتِسْعِينَ.

"Do you see me dying in my bed? By Allah, I have killed ninety-odd."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 198

NOTE — ↪ Back to al-Barā' — his brother comes in on him. The counts move — "the reports give ninety-odd"

⚠ (Delivery note: the counts move — ninety-nine in one chain, ninety-odd in another, a hundred in a third. Say "the reports give ninety-odd" and move on.)

SAY —

1. His brother comes in on him — Anas finds him singing over his bow, and asks how long that will go on.
2. The answer is a question — Do you see me dying in my bed?
^ read the Arabic on the face here
3. And then a number — The reports give ninety-odd killed in single combat, besides what he shared in with others.
4. He did not die in his bed — He was killed at Tustar, years later, in the assault he had prayed for.

QUOTE —

أَتَرَانِي أَمُوتُ عَلَى فِرَاشِي؟ وَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ قَتَلْتُ بِضْعاً وَتِسْعِينَ.

"Do you see me dying in my bed? By Allah, I have killed ninety-odd."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ١٩٨

عبرت — Two brothers in one house, and each thought the other needed correcting.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Anas came in on his brother and found him singing over his bow. He asked him how long that was going to go on. His brother answered with a question of his own, and then with a number: ninety-nine men killed in single combat, not counting what he had shared in with everyone else. In a second telling Anas puts the question the other way and asks him why he sings poetry when Allah has given him the Qur'ān instead.

Tustar, 17–20 AH

al-Barā' at Tustar

al-Yamāma
the gate, 12 AH

Tustar years later — a war not yet reached

NOTE — ➞ Forward, framed aloud: years later, in a war we have not reached.

«واستشهدني» is where the sources stop — add nothing

⚠ (Delivery note: «واستشهدني» is where the sources stop. Nothing may be added after it.)

SAY —

► CLICK 1 — Tustar, years later — in a war we have not reached.

1. Months of siege, and the assaults keep failing — The men know a ḥadīth about al-Barā' .

2. What it says — That if he swore an oath upon Allah, Allah would answer it.
3. What they asked him for — That he swear that oath for them.
4. What he added, unasked — And take me as a martyr.
5. That day — They broke the enemy, and he was killed inside the city. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — The siege had gone on for months and the assaults kept failing. The men knew there was a ḥadīth about al-Barā' — that if he swore an oath upon Allah, Allah would answer it. So in the last assault they asked him to swear that oath for them. He made the prayer they asked for, and then added something to it that they had not asked for. They broke the enemy that day. He was killed inside the city.

Tustar, 17–20 AH

al-Barā' at Tustar

اللَّهُمَّ اهْزِمْهُمْ لَنَا وَاسْتَشْهِدْنِي.

...O Allah, defeat them for us, and take me as a martyr.

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 368

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

قَالَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ: يَا بَرَاءُ أَقْسِمُ عَلَى رَبِّكَ لِيَهْزِمَنَّهُمْ لَنَا. قَالَ: اللَّهُمَّ اهْزِمْهُمْ لَنَا وَاسْتَشْهِدْنِي.

"The Muslims said: Barā', swear upon your Lord that He will defeat them for us. He said: O Allah, defeat them for us, and take me as a martyr."

(البداية ج ٧ ص ١٩٧) (al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 368)

عبرت — He was asked to pray for the army; he prayed for the army and put himself in the cost column.

Part III

The men beside them

12 AH, at al-Yamāma
Abū 'Aqīl

فنزعه، وتحزم وأخذ السيف وقاتل حتى قتل، فوجد به جراحات كثيرة.

...he pulled it out, bound himself up, took his sword and fought until he was killed — and many wounds were found on him.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala (al-Rashidun), p. 60

NOTE — Abū 'Aqīl^{رضي}, a chief of the Anṣār and a man of Badr. △△ The long famous version is in NO approved source — tell only the card's sentence △ ٥٧ ج ٧ البدايه gives the same sentence. △△ The long famous version of this account — the night wound, the dead arm, the severed arm, the fourteen wounds, "who won?" — is NOT in any approved source ($X.2). Tell only what is above.

SAY —

1. Who he was — Abū 'Aqīl^{رضي}, one of the chiefs of the Anṣār and a man of Badr.
2. The arrow — It struck him at al-Yamāma, and he pulled it out himself.
3. What he did next — Bound himself up, took his sword, and went back into the fighting.
4. Afterwards — He fought until he was killed, and many wounds were found on him.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

QUOTE —

أصابه سهم يوم اليمامة فنزعه، وتحزم وأخذ السيف وقاتل حتى قتل، فوجد به جراحات كثيرة.

"An arrow struck him on the day of al-Yamāma and he pulled it out, bound himself up, took his sword and fought until he was killed — and many wounds were found on him."

— سير أعلام النبلاء (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) ص ٦٠

عبرت — Nobody carried him out and nobody was asked to.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Abū ‘Aqīl^{رضي} was one of the chiefs of the Anṣār and a man of Badr. At al-Yamāma an arrow hit him. He pulled it out himself. Then he bound himself up, took his sword, and went back to fighting. He fought until he was killed. When they came to him afterwards, they found many wounds on him.

11–12 AH

Ḥabīb b. Zayd^{رضي}, and Umm ‘Umāra^{رضي}

أَتَشْهَدُ أَنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ؟ فَيَقُولُ: لَا أَسْمَعُ

Do you testify that I am the Messenger of Allah? And he would say: I do not hear.

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 3, p. 428

NOTE — ⚠ SPEAKER'S DISCRETION — the most severe card of the evening.

What was done to Ḥabīb b. Zayd^{رضي}, and what his mother did after it. Tell it plainly and without dwelling; skip it if the room is heavy. ⚠ The books differ on her wounds — "covered in wounds"

⚠ The wounds: سِير ج ٢ ص ٢٨١ — hand cut off at al-Yamāma and eleven wounds besides. ⚠ البدايه ج ٣ ص ٤٢٨ says twelve wounds; give one figure with its caption, or say only "covered in wounds". ⚠ سِير ج ٢ ص ٢٨٢ names her other son ‘Abd Allāh b. Zayd^{رضي} as the man who killed Musaylima with his sword —

SAY —

1. A man in Musaylima's hands — Ḥabīb b. Zayd^{رضي}, asked whether he testified that Muḥammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allah.
2. He said yes — Then he was asked to testify the same of Musaylima, and said: I do not hear.
3. He was cut apart, limb by limb — And he never gave more than that one answer, until he died.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

4. His mother — Umm ‘Umāra Nusayba bint Ka‘b رضي الله عنها al-‘Aqaba, Uḥud, al-Ḥudaybiya, Ḥunayn.

5. What al-Dhahabī رحمه الله records of her — She fought, and she did great things; twelve wounds at Uḥud.
6. She went out with the army — Her hand was cut off at al-Yamāma, and she came back covered in wounds.
7. Abū Bakr ^{رضي}, while he was caliph — Was seen coming to her to ask after her.

QUOTE —

فيقول: أَتَشْهَدُ أَنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ؟ فيقول: لَا أَسْمَعُ، فَجَعَلَ يَقْطَعُهُ عَضْوًا عَضْوًا حَتَّى مَاتَ فِي يَدَيْهِ، لَا يَزِيدُهُ عَلَى ذَلِكَ.

"Then he would say: Do you testify that I am the Messenger of Allah? And he would say: I do not hear. So he began to cut him apart limb by limb until he died in his hands — and he never gave him more than that."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٣ ص ٤٢٨

عبرت — He was not asked to say anything; he was asked to hear something, and he would not.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Musaylima had a man named Ḥabīb b. Zayd ^{رضي} in his hands. He asked him whether he testified that Muḥammad ^ﷺ was the Messenger of Allah, and Ḥabīb ^{رضي} said yes. Then he asked whether he testified that he, Musaylima, was a messenger of Allah — and Ḥabīb ^{رضي} said: I do not hear. So he began to cut him apart, one limb at a time, and Ḥabīb ^{رضي} never gave him more than that answer, until he died in his hands. Ḥabīb's ^{رضي} mother was Umm 'Umāra Nusayba bint Ka'b رضي الله عنها, who had been at al-'Aqaba, at Uḥud, at al-Ḥudaybiya and at Hunayn. When the army marched to al-Yamāma, she went with it. Her hand was cut off there. She came back to Medina covered in wounds, and Abū Bakr ^{رضي}, while he was caliph, was seen coming to her to ask after her.

one of four accounts in the safe list; do not settle it (§9.3).

12 AH, at al-Yamāma

‘Abd Allāh b. Zayd

وَابْنُهَا الْآخَرُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ زَيْدٍ الْمَازِينِيُّ ... وَهُوَ الَّذِي قَتَلَ مُسَيْلِمَةَ الْكَذَّابَ بِسَيْفِهِ.

Her other son, ‘Abd Allāh b. Zayd al-Māzinī ... and he is the one who killed Musaylima the liar with his sword.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 282

NOTE — △ One of FOUR names for the man who killed Musaylima — say the other three exist, in the same breath. △ Do not open al-Ḥarra. If the card before is skipped, give Umm ‘Umāra’s ^{رحمه} notice here △ NEVER state a single killer (QA_BANK.md §5.3). The four: عبد الواقدي names سيف · أبو دجانة ^{رحمه} finishing and وحشي ^{رحمه} striking first and ابن كثير · الله بن زيد ^{رحمه} names الذهبى ^{رحمه} himself: «فَرَيْتُكَ أَعْلَمُ أَيُّنَا قَتَلَهُ». Say the sentence as the ذهبى ^{رحمه} writes it, and say in the same breath that three other names are given.

△ The same page says he was killed on the day of الحرة. Do not say it and do not open it — it is 63 AH and it is not this course's ground yet.

SAY —

1. She had another son — ‘Abd Allāh b. Zayd ^{رحمه}, the brother of Ḥabīb ^{رحمه}.
2. What the ummah knows him for — He is the Companion who described the Prophet's ^ﷺ wuḍū’.
3. What al-Dhahabī ^{رحمه} adds, in her notice — That he is the one who killed Musaylima with his sword.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

4. One of four names — The books give four, and they do not choose between them.

5. And the man best placed to know refused the claim — Your Lord knows better which of us killed him.

QUOTE —

وَابْنُهَا الْآخَرُ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ زَيْدِ الْمَازِينِيِّ الَّذِي حَكَى وَضُوءَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ -صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ- ... وَهُوَ الَّذِي قَتَلَ مُسَيْلِمَةَ الْكَذَّابَ بِسَيْفِهِ.

"Her other son, 'Abd Allāh b. Zayd al-Māzinī — the one who described the Messenger of Allah's ﷺ wuḍū' — ... and he is the one who killed Musaylima the liar with his sword."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٢٨٢

عبرت — The same notice records what that house lost and what one account says it did, and the books still decline to say whose hand it was.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Umm 'Umāra^{رضي} had another son besides Ḥabīb^{رضي}. He is 'Abd Allāh b. Zayd^{رضي}, and the ummah knows him for something entirely separate: he is the Companion who described the Prophet's ﷺ wuḍū'. In her own notice, al-Dhahabī رحمه الله adds one more sentence about him — that he is the man who killed Musaylima with his sword. That is one of four names the approved books give for Musaylima's killer, and they do not choose between them.

The people: the men who had fought against it

Source note: the-men-who-had-fought-against-it.md — read it for the pages behind these cards.

Part IV

The banner and the reciters

12 AH, at al-Yamāma

The banner

Last week

Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb رضى الله عنه at the line, and his vow of silence

Now

what happened to the banner he held

And after the men who carried the Qur'ān

BRIDGE — say: Last week you saw the banner at the line, and Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb رضى الله عنه 's vow not to speak until it was over. Here is what happened to that banner.

12 AH, at al-Yamāma

Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb ۞ — the banner

... ثُمَّ قَاتَلَ حَتَّى قُتِلَ، فَوَقَعَتِ الرَّايَةُ، فَأَخَذَهَا سَالِمٌ مَوْلَى أَبِي حُذَيْفَةَ

...and then fought until he was killed. The banner fell — and Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa, took it up.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 298

NOTE — Zayd ۞ falls; Sālim ۞ takes the banner. △ Three books, three arrangements — never a diagram

△ Three books give three different banner arrangements at al-Yamāma. Do not draw a diagram — say only that the banner changed hands because the man holding it was killed.

SAY —

1. Zayd ۞ carries it forward — The Muslims' banner was with him, and he kept pressing forward into the enemy.
2. Until he was killed — He fought on with it until he was killed, and the banner fell.
3. Sālim ۞ takes it up — The freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa ۞ picks it off the ground.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

4. How we know — al-Dhahabī رحمه الله records it once; Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله twice, on consecutive pages.

QUOTE —

وَكَاثَتْ رَايَةُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ مَعَهُ يَوْمَ الْيَمَامَةِ، فَلَمْ يَزَلْ يَقْدُمُ بِهَا فِي نَحْرِ الْعَدُوِّ، ثُمَّ قَاتَلَ حَتَّى قُتِلَ،
فَوَقَعَتِ الرَّايَةُ، فَأَخَذَهَا سَالِمٌ مَوْلَى أَبِي حُذَيْفَةَ

"The Muslims' banner was with him on the day of al-Yamāma, and he kept pressing forward with it into the enemy's throat, and then fought until he was killed. The banner fell — and Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa, took it up."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٢٩٨

عبرت — Every man who took it knew what had happened to the man before him.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رضي} — the elder brother of 'Umar^{رضي} — carried the banner forward into the enemy until he was killed. The banner fell. Sālim^{رضي} picked it up. Al-Dhahabī رحمه الله records it in one sentence in Zayd's own notice, and Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله records it twice, in two separate death notices on consecutive pages (ج ٧ ص ٤٩ and ج ٥٠ ص ٧).

12 AH, and after it at...

‘Umar^{رضي}, and the man who killed Zayd^{رضي}

وقال لعمر: يا أَمِيرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ أَكْرَمَ زَيْدًا بِيَدِي وَلَمْ يُهَيِّ عَلَى يَدِهِ.

...said to ‘Umar: Commander of the Faithful — Allah honoured Zayd at my hand, and did not disgrace me at his.

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 49

NOTE — [HANDS] 1: "The man who killed your brother is standing in front of you, and he is now a Muslim. What is there to say?" △ The sources record no answer from ‘Umar^{رضي} — do not supply one

△ The sources record no answer from ‘Umar^{رضي}. Do not supply one. △ Give Ibn Kathīr's own handling of the competing report — it is the "how do we know?" beat of this act (§2.7).

SAY —

1. Who killed Zayd^{رضي} — A man called Abū Maryam al-Ḥanafī, fighting that day on the other side.
2. Afterwards — He became a Muslim.
3. He stands in front of ‘Umar^{رضي} — The dead man's younger brother, now Commander of the Faithful.
4. What he said — Allah honoured Zayd^{رضي} at my hand, and did not disgrace me at his.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

5. What the sources do not give — Any answer from ‘Umar^{رضي}. We do not supply one. He later made him a judge.
6. A competing report, handled on the page — Ibn Kathīr names another killer, says Ibn ‘Abd al-Barr preferred it, then says it does not disprove the first.

QUOTE —

ثم قتلَ زيدًا رجلٌ يقال له: أبو مريم الحنفي، وقد أسلم بعد ذلك وقال لعمر: يا أميرَ المؤمنين إن الله أكرمَ زيدًا بيدي ولم يُهَيِّ على يده.

"Then Zayd was killed by a man called Abū Maryam al-Ḥanafī, who afterwards became a Muslim and said to 'Umar: Commander of the Faithful — Allah honoured Zayd at my hand, and did not disgrace me at his."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤٩

عبرت — He did not ask to be forgiven; he told the brother what he thought Allah had done with both of them.

HANDS UP — Before telling it: "The man who killed your brother is standing in front of you, and he is now a Muslim. What is there to say?"

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — The man who killed Zayd^{رضي} was called Abū Maryam al-Ḥanafī. He fought that day on the other side. Afterwards he became a Muslim. And at some point after that he stood in front of 'Umar^{رضي} — the dead man's younger brother, now the Commander of the Faithful — and said this to him. 'Umar^{رضي} later appointed him a judge. Ibn Kathīr records a second report naming a different killer, and records that Ibn 'Abd al-Barr preferred it, and then says the second report does not disprove the first.

Medina, and 12 AH

Zayd ^{رضي} and Ma'n b. 'Adī ^{رضي}

وقد آخى رسول الله ﷺ بينه وبين معن بن عديّ الأنصاري وقد قُتلا جميعًا باليمامة.

"The Messenger of Allah ﷺ made him and Ma'n b. 'Adī al-Anṣārī brothers, and the two of them were killed together at al-Yamāma."

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 49

NOTE — A pair with the next card — both or neither. ⚠ The mu'ākhāt's year is an estimate: "when the Muhājirūn arrived"

SAY —

1. The Muhājirūn arrive with nothing — The Prophet ﷺ pairs each of them with a man of the Anṣār, as brothers.
2. Zayd's ^{رضي} brother by appointment — Ma'n b. 'Adī ^{رضي}, of Banū al-'Ajlān, an ally of the Anṣār.
3. Years later, one field — Both were at al-Yamāma, and both were killed there.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
4. And not the only such pair — Abū Ḥudhayfa ^{رضي} and 'Abbād b. Bishr ^{رضي} were paired the same way, and died there too.

QUOTE —

وقد آخى رسول الله ﷺ بينه وبين معن بن عديّ الأنصاري وقد قُتلا جميعًا باليمامة.

"The Messenger of Allah ﷺ made him and Ma'n b. 'Adī al-Anṣārī brothers, and the two of them were killed together at al-Yamāma."

عبرت — The tie was made in a year when they owned nothing, and it was still holding on the day they died.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — When the Muhājirūn arrived in Medina with nothing, the Prophet ﷺ paired each of them with a man of the Anṣār and made the two of them brothers. Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رضي}, of Quraysh, was paired with Ma‘n b. ‘Adī^{رضي} of Banū al-‘Ajlān, an ally of the Anṣār. Years later, both of them were on the field at al-Yamāma. Both of them were killed there, on the same day. And they were not the only such pair: Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} and ‘Abbād b. Bishr^{رضي} had been paired the same way, and they died there too.

11 AH Medina → 12 AH...

Ma'n b. 'Adī

مَا أَحِبُّ إِلَيَّ مِثُّ قَبْلِهِ حَتَّى أَصَدِّقَهُ مَيِّتًا، كَمَا صَدَّقْتُهُ حَيًّا

...do not wish that I had died before him — so that I may confirm him dead as I confirmed him alive.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 321

NOTE — Ma'n — one of the two men on the road to the Saqifa, evening 1. △ If challenged: مرسل from 'Urwa △ Chain honesty ($4.2): البدايه ج ٧ ص ٥٤ gives it with a connected chain through ابن عمر; the سیر editor notes that the preserved form is mursal from عروة. Say so if challenged. This card is the bookend for E-ZY8 — tell them together or not at all.

SAY —

1. The day the Prophet ﷺ died — Medina wept, and men said they wished they had died before him.
2. One man said the opposite — Ma'n b. 'Adī, Zayd's brother by appointment.
3. What he said — I do not wish I had died first: let me confirm him dead as I confirmed him alive.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
4. Where else he stood — He was one of the two men who met Abū Bakr and 'Umar on the road to the Saqifa.
5. The year after — He was killed at al-Yamāma, in the war fought to hold what he said he would confirm.

QUOTE —

فَقَالَ مَعْنٌ: لِكَيْي - وَاللَّهِ - مَا أُحِبُّ أَنْي مُتُّ قَبْلَهُ حَتَّى أُصَدِّقَهُ مَيِّتاً، كَمَا صَدَّقْتُهُ حَيّاً.

"But I, by Allah, do not wish that I had died before him — so that I may confirm him dead as I confirmed him alive."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٣٢١

عبرت — He did not want to be spared what came next; he wanted to be there for it.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — When the Prophet ﷺ died, the people in Medina wept and said they wished they had died before him, because they were afraid of what would happen to them after him. One man said the opposite. He said he did not want to have died first — he wanted to be alive afterwards, so that he could confirm the Prophet ﷺ dead the same way he had confirmed him alive. His name was Ma'n b. 'Adī^{رضي}. He was one of the two men who met Abū Bakr^{رضي} and 'Umar^{رضي} on the road to the Saqifa. And in the following year he was killed at al-Yamāma, in the war fought to hold what he had said he would confirm.

Medina, after al-Ḥujurāt Thābit b. Qaysؓ

فَقَالَ: (يَا ثَابِتُ! أَمَا تَرْضَى أَنْ تَعِيشَ حَمِيداً، وَتُقْتَلَ شَهِيداً، وَتَدْخُلَ الْجَنَّةَ)

"He said: Thābit — are you not content to live praised, to be killed a martyr, and to enter the Garden?"

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 310

NOTE — ← Thābitؓ at Medina, after al-Ḥujurāt. The room saw his shroud on evening 4 — the second of the three things has already happened

△ The verse-and-house incident is in صحيح البخاري ٣٦١٣ and صحيح مسلم ١١٩ ed. fn., ٣١٠ ص ١ ج and ٣١١ ص ١ ج; ٤٨ ص ٧ ج; البدييه ج ٧ ص ٤٨ carries both this and the earlier لقمان ١٨ incident in sequence.

SAY —

1. Who he was — Thābit b. Qaysؓ, the orator of the Anṣār, with a very loud voice.
2. The āya forbidding raised voices above the Prophet's ﷺ — He concluded he was of the people of the Fire.
3. He shut himself in his house — And stopped coming.
4. The Prophet ﷺ noticed he was missing and sent to ask — And said: he is of the people of the Garden.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

5. In another report — He is told he will live praised, be killed a martyr, and enter the Garden.

QUOTE —

فَقَالَ: (يَا ثَابِتُ! أَمَا تَرْضَى أَنْ تَعِيشَ حَمِيداً، وَتُقْتَلَ شَهِيداً، وَتَدْخُلَ الْجَنَّةَ)

"He said: Thābit — are you not content to live praised, to be killed a martyr, and to enter the Garden?"

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٣١٠

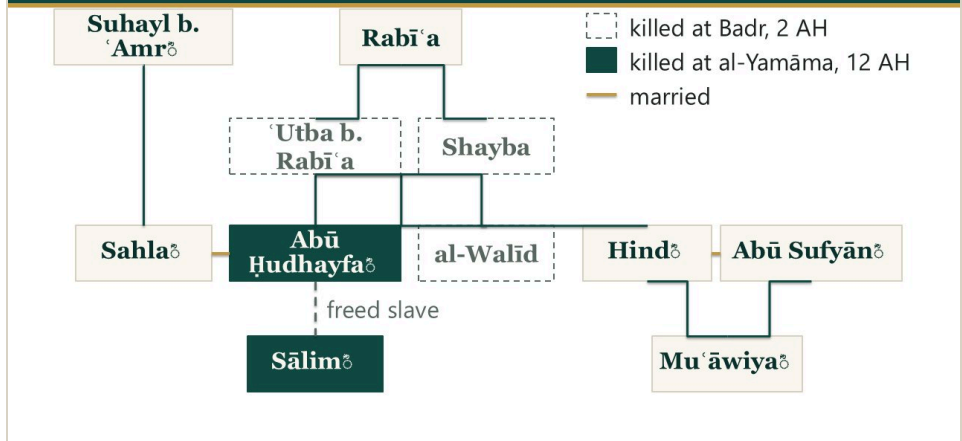

عبرت — He was told the end of his own life years before it happened, and then he lived as though he believed it.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Thābit b. Qays^{رضي} was the orator of the Anṣār and he had a very loud voice. When the verse came down forbidding the believers to raise their voices above the Prophet's ﷺ, he concluded that he was of the people of the Fire, and he shut himself in his house and stopped coming. The Prophet ﷺ noticed he was missing and sent for the reason. When he heard it, he said Thābit was of the people of the Garden. And in another report he told him what would happen to him: that he would live praised, be killed a martyr, and enter the Garden.

Play this card immediately before RCT/E-RC18 — it is what makes the shroud land.

Quraysh — Badr, 2 AH · al-Yamāma, 12 AH

The house of ‘Utba b. Rabī‘a TREE — the house of ‘Utba b. Rabī‘a, and who married into it. Point as you go.

(Every line is glued to its boxes: move a box and its lines follow.)

SAY — One family, on two battlefields — and some names you know.

1. ‘Utba b. Rabī‘a — al-Dhahabī calls him the elder of the Jāhiliyya — his brother Shayba, and his son al-Walīd: the three who came out for the single combat that opened Badr. All three were killed.
2. Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي}, ‘Utba's son, stood with the Muslims that day: his father and his brother on one side, himself on the other.
3. His sister: Hind bint ‘Utba^{رضي} — al-Dhahabī names her as Umm Mu‘āwiya. Her husband, Abū Sufyān: the head of Quraysh, their commander at Uḥud and at the Trench — until, in al-Dhahabī's words, Allah rescued him with Islam on the day of the Conquest. Their son, Mu‘āwiya^{رضي} — a name for evenings we have not reached.
4. His wife: Sahla^{رضي}, the daughter of Suhayl b. ‘Amr^{رضي} — the orator of Quraysh, the man who held Mecca for Islam when the Prophet ﷺ died. She went with Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} on the first ship to Abyssinia — hired, it is reported, for half a dīnār.
5. Sālim^{رضي} — the freed slave the household kept. His origin was Iṣṭakhr, in Persia.
6. Ten years after Badr, Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} and Sālim^{رضي} fell at al-Yamāma, side by side.

IF THE ROOM IS WITH YOU — one line each:

7. Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} married Sālim^{رضي} to his own brother al-Walīd's daughter — into the family itself. Ibn Kathīr alone carries it.

8. Another brother, Abū Hāshim b. 'Utba^{رضي} — a Muslim on the day of the Conquest, "and his Islam was good"; Mu'āwiya^{رضي} came to his bedside in his last illness.

9. The Prophet ﷺ went out one night with his cloak to listen to Sālim^{رضي} recite in the mosque; al-Dhahabī marks the chain good.

△ Abū Sufyān^{رضي} and Mu'āwiya^{رضي} are forward references: say "names for evenings we have not reached", and nothing of what came later.

△ The verses Hind is said to have spoken against her brother at Badr are not to be read out.

△ Abū Ḥudhayfa's^{رضي} son Muḥammad, born in Abyssinia, is not on the tree: his later life belongs to the مشاجرات and is not for the platform.

△ The tree says "freed slave", not "adopted": the adoption, and what the law did with it, is not for the platform.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — the house's stories in full: • Badr — the father and the brother: Badr opens with single combat — Quraysh call for their equals to come out.; Whom the Prophet ﷺ sent — 'Ubayda b. al-Ḥārith^{رضي}, Ḥamza^{رضي} and 'Alī^{رضي}.; Who came out against them — 'Utba b. Rabī'a, his brother Shayba, and 'Utba's son al-Walīd.; All three of the Meccans were killed — And Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} was standing with the Muslims.; What that is — His father and his brother on one side, and himself on the other. • The ship they hired for half a dinar: The persecution in Mecca got past bearing — A small party left for Abyssinia.; Why there — The Prophet ﷺ had said there was a king there under whom no one was wronged.; Who went — Eleven men and four women, down to the sea.; The ship — Hired for half a dinar.; Who was on it — 'Uthmān^{رضي} and Ruqayya^{رضي}; and Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} with his wife Sahla^{رضي}. • The night the Prophet ﷺ took his cloak and went out to listen: 'Ā'isha^{رضي} comes in late — The Prophet ﷺ asks what kept her.; What she said — A voice reciting in the mosque, finer than any she had heard.; What he did — He took his cloak and went out to listen.; Who it was — Sālim^{رضي}, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي}.; The chain — al-Dhahabī رحمه الله records it and marks it good. • The sentence he was afraid of for ten years — △ SPEAKER'S DISCRETION: Before the fighting at Badr — The Prophet ﷺ names men brought out against their will, not to be killed.; Among them, his own uncle — al-‘Abbās^{رضي}.; What Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} said out loud — Are we to kill our fathers and sons and brothers, and leave al-‘Abbās?; Word of it reached the Prophet ﷺ — And he never forgave himself for it.; What he said afterwards — He would not stop fearing that word unless martyrdom wiped it away.; Where three books end the sentence — And he was killed a martyr at al-Yamāma.

Mecca, before the house of al-Arqam

Abū Ḥudhayfa b. ‘Utba

السَّيِّدُ الْكَبِيرُ، الشَّهِيدُ، أَبُو حُذَيْفَةَ ابْنُ شَيْخِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ: عُتْبَةُ بْنُ رَبِيعَةَ ...
الْبَدْرِيُّ

The great chief, the martyr, Abū Ḥudhayfa — son of the elder of the Jāhiliyya, ‘Utba b. Rabī‘a — ... the man of Badr.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 164

NOTE — ↔ Mecca, before the house of al-Arqam

SAY —

1. Whose son he was — ‘Utba b. Rabī‘a, one of the great men of Quraysh before Islam.
2. How al-Dhahabī رحمه الله opens his notice — He does not soften the position at all.
3. Three things in one sentence — A martyr; the son of the elder of the Jāhiliyya; a man of Badr.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

4. How early he was — A Muslim before the Companions were even meeting in the house of al-Arqam.

QUOTE —

السَّيِّدُ الْكَبِيرُ، الشَّهِيدُ، أَبُو حُذَيْفَةَ ابْنُ شَيْخِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ: عُتْبَةُ بْنُ رَبِيعَةَ ... الْفَرَشِيُّ، الْعَبْشَمِيُّ،
الْبَدْرِيُّ

"The great chief, the martyr, Abū Ḥudhayfa — son of the elder of the Jāhiliyya, ‘Utba b. Rabī‘a — al-Qurashī, al-‘Abshamī, the man of Badr."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ١٦٤

عبرت — A man's descent is recorded honestly, and it is not what he is judged by.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Abū Ḥudhayfa ^{رضي} was the son of 'Utba b. Rabī'a — one of the great men of Quraysh before Islam. Al-Dhahabī رحمه الله, opening his notice, does not soften the position at all. In one sentence he calls him a martyr, calls his father the elder of the Jāhiliyya, and calls him a man of Badr. He had accepted Islam before the Companions were even meeting in the house of al-Arqam.

Before the Hijra

Sālim ﷺ — from IṣṭakhrMecca

Abū Ḥudhayfa's ﷺ house

Iṣṭakhr

in Persia — where Sālim ﷺ came from

NOTE — [HANDS] spare: "where do you think the man who led the Muhājirūn in prayer came from?" △ The books give his origin, not his road

SAY —

► CLICK 1 — Iṣṭakhr, in Persia: where he came from. The books give his origin, not his road.

1. He was a slave — His origin was Iṣṭakhr, in Persia.
2. The household freed him — And Abū Ḥudhayfa ﷺ took him as his own.
3. How al-Dhahabī رحمه الله opens his notice — Four descriptions in a row. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Sālim^{رضي} was a slave. His origin was Iṣṭakhr, in Persia. The woman of Abū Ḥudhayfa's^{رضي} household freed him, and Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} took him as his own — adopted him outright. Al-Dhahabī رحمه الله opens his notice on him with four descriptions in a row, and not one of them is about where he came from.

Before the Hijra

Sālim — from Iṣṭakhr

مِنَ السَّابِقِينَ الْأَوَّلِينَ، الْبَدْرِيِّينَ، الْمُقَرَّبِينَ، الْعَالِمِينَ ... أَصْلُهُ مِنْ إِصْطَحَرَ

"Of the first forerunners, of the men of Badr, of those brought near, of the learned ... his origin is from Iṣṭakhr."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 167

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

مِنَ السَّابِقِينَ الْأَوَّلِينَ، الْبَدْرِيِّينَ، الْمُقَرَّبِينَ، الْعَالِمِينَ ... أَصْلُهُ مِنْ إِصْطَحَرَ

"Of the first forerunners, of the men of Badr, of those brought near, of the learned ... his origin is from Iṣṭakhr."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ١٦٧

عبرت — The books record where he came from in four words and what he became in four titles.

Before the Prophet ﷺ reached Medina
Sālim ُ at Qubā'

فَأَمَّهُمْ سَالِمٌ مَوْلَى أَبِي حُدَيْفَةَ، لِأَنَّهُ كَانَ ... أَكْثَرُهُمْ قُرْآنًا، فِيهِمْ عُمَرُ

Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa, led them in prayer, because he had the most Qur'ān of them — among them 'Umar.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, pp. 168–169

NOTE — Told on evening 4 — a callback only. What is new is why him, and that 'Umar was praying behind him

SAY —

1. Why him — Because he carried more of the Qur'ān than any of them.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

2. Who prayed behind him — 'Umar b. al-Khaṭṭāb among them.

QUOTE —

أَنَّ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ تَرَلُّوا بِالْعُصْبَةِ إِلَى جَنْبِ قُبَاءَ، فَأَمَّهُمْ سَالِمٌ مَوْلَى أَبِي حُدَيْفَةَ، لِأَنَّهُ كَانَ ... أَكْثَرُهُمْ
 قُرْآنًا، فِيهِمْ عُمَرُ، وَأَبُو سَلَمَةَ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْأَسَدِ

"The Muhājirūn camped at al-'Uṣba beside Qubā', and Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa, led them in prayer, because he had the most Qur'ān of them — among them 'Umar and Abū Salama b. 'Abd al-Asad."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ١٦٨–١٦٩ و (the ellipsis marks the page turn — nothing is omitted)

عبرت — The first thing the Muhājirūn did on arriving was to put the best reciter in front, whoever he was.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — The Muhājirūn reached Medina before the Prophet ﷺ did. They camped at al-‘Uṣba, beside Qubā’, and they had to pray. Someone had to lead. They put forward a freed slave, because he had more of the Qur’ān than any of them. Among the men praying behind him was ‘Umar b. al-Khaṭṭāb .

Badr, 2 AH

Abū Ḥudhayfa ʿ at Badr

لعلك قد دخلك من شأن أبيك شيء ... ما شككت في أبي

ولا في مصرعه

Perhaps something has entered you about the matter of your father? ... I have not doubted my father nor where he fell.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala (Siyar), p. 312

NOTE — Not a denial of grief. The single combat that killed his father, uncle and brother was told on the family tree — do not retell it

SAY —

1. After the battle — The dead of Quraysh are put into the well.
2. The Prophet ﷺ looks at the son's face — And sees that it has gone pale.
3. What he asked him — Has something entered you about your father?
4. The answer — I never doubted his fate; I had known a judgement and a forbearance in him, and hoped it would bring him to Islam.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

5. And then — The Prophet ﷺ prayed for him, and spoke kindly to him.

QUOTE —

لما سحب عتبة بن ربيعة إلى القليب نظر رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في وجه أبي حذيفة ابنه، فإذا هو كئيب متغير. فقال: "لعلك قد دخلك من شأن أبيك شيء؟". قال: لا والله ما شككت في أبي ولا في مصرعه، ولكنني كنت أعرف منه رأيا وحلما، فكنت أرجو أن يسلم، فلما رأيت ما أصابه وما مات عليه أحزنني ذلك. فدعا له النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم وقال له

خيروا

"When 'Utba b. Rabī'a was dragged to the well, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ looked into the face of his son Abū Ḥudhayfa, and there he was, downcast and changed. He said: 'Perhaps something has entered you about the matter of your father?' He said: No, by Allah, I have not doubted my father nor where he fell. But I knew in him a judgement and a forbearance, and I used to hope he would accept Islam; and when I saw what befell him and what he died upon, that grieved me. So the Prophet ﷺ prayed for him and spoke kindly to him."

— سير أعلام النبلاء (السيرة النبوية) ص ٣١٢ (the page spells the honorific out in full, and is quoted as it stands)

عبرت — He was not told that grief was a fault, and he did not pretend he had none.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — After the battle the dead of Quraysh were put into the well. 'Utba b. Rabī'a was taken and dragged to it. The Prophet ﷺ looked at the face of his son, and saw it had gone pale. So he asked him whether something had entered him about his father. The answer was not a denial of grief. He said he had never doubted his father's fate, but that he had known a judgement and a forbearance in the man and had hoped it would bring him to Islam — and it had not. The Prophet ﷺ prayed for him, and spoke kindly to him.

12 AH

Back to the field

That was the house

a chief's son of Quraysh, and a freed slave from Persia

Now

the banner, in Sālim's ﷺ hands

BRIDGE — say: That was their house. And so, back to the field — where the banner Zayd ^{زيد} dropped is in Sālim's ^{زيد} hands.

In the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime

Sālim — one of the four

قال فيهم رسول الله ﷺ: "استقرئوا القرآن من أربعة" فذكر منهم سالمًا مولى أبي حذيفة

...of whom the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: 'Take the Qur'ān from four' — and he mentioned Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa.

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 50

NOTE — ↪ Back on the field. ⚠ The four names do not go on the slide ⚠ Slide rule: Ibn Kathīr's own text quotes only the opening clause. If the four names go on screen they must be captioned to صحيح مسلم ٢٤٦٤ as given in the editor's note on البدایه ج ٧ ص ٥٠ — never to ابن كثير. See §5.3.

SAY —

1. Who has just picked up the banner — Sālim[ؓ], the freed slave of Abū Ḥudhayfa[ؓ], of the household that kept him.
2. Why the ummah remembers Sālim[ؓ] — The Prophet ﷺ named four men to take the Qur'ān from, and he was one of them.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
3. What that means on this field — The man now holding the banner is one of the four.

QUOTE —

وهو أحد الأربعة الذين قال فيهم رسول الله ﷺ: "استقرئوا القرآن من أربعة" فذكر منهم سالمًا مولى أبي حذيفة

"And he is one of the four of whom the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: 'Take the Qur'ān from four' — and he mentioned Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa, among them."

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٥٠

عبرت — Standing in this matter was decided by what a man carried, and by nothing else about him.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله, writing Sālim's^{رحمه} death notice, gives the reason the ummah remembered him. He was one of four men the Prophet ﷺ named when he told the Companions from whom to take the Qur' ān. One of the four was a freed slave of the house of Abū Ḥudhayfah^{رحمه} .

... فاحتضنها وهو يقول: ﴿وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ

قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ﴾

...so he clasped it to his chest, saying: ﴿Muḥammad is no more than a Messenger; messengers have passed away before him﴾.

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 50

NOTE — Make the link aloud: the āya Abū Bakr^{رضي} read the day the Prophet ﷺ died — evening 1

SAY —

1. The right hand — He is holding the banner when his right hand is severed.
2. The left hand — He takes the banner in his left, and that hand is cut too.
3. He holds it with what is left — He clasps the banner to his chest, and he recites.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
4. The āya — The same āya Abū Bakr^{رضي} read out to Medina the day the Prophet ﷺ died, the year before.
5. And the āya after it — And how many a prophet fought, and with him many devoted men.

QUOTE —

انقطعت يده اليمنى فأخذها بيساره، فقطعت فاحتضنها وهو يقول: ﴿وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ﴾ [آل عمران: ١٤٤] ﴿وَكَايْنٍ مِنْ نَبِيِّ قَاتِلٍ مَعَهُ رَبِّيُونَ كَثِيرٌ﴾ [آل عمران: ١٤٦]

"His right hand was severed, so he took the banner in his left; that was cut off, so he clasped it to his chest, saying: ﴿Muḥammad is no more than a Messenger; messengers have passed away before him﴾ ﴿And how many a prophet fought, and with him many devoted men﴾."

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٥٠

عبرت — The verse that steadied Medina in the year eleven is the verse a man recited on the ground in the year twelve.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Sālim^{رضي} was holding the banner when his right hand was severed. He took the banner in his left. That hand was cut too. So he clasped the banner to his chest, and he recited. The verse he recited was the one Abū Bakr^{رضي} had recited to the people of Medina the day the Prophet ﷺ died, the year before: Muḥammad is no more than a Messenger; messengers have passed away before him. Then he recited the verse that follows it: and how many a prophet fought, and with him many devoted men.

12 AH, at al-Yamāma

Sālim ̣ and Abū Ḥudhayfa ̣

ما فعل أبو حذيفة؟ قالوا: قُتل ... قال: فأضجعوني بينهما

What has become of Abū Ḥudhayfa? They said: He has been killed ... He said: Then lay me down between the two of them.

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 50

NOTE — △ The second man is «فلان» — do not name him. △ No approved source says they share one grave

△ The second man is «فلان» in the source. Do not name him. And no approved source says they were buried in one grave — see §10.3.

SAY —

1. Struck down — He asks the men near him one question: what has become of Abū Ḥudhayfa ̣?
2. The answer — He has been killed.
3. He asks about one more man — The source says only "so-and-so", and we do not name him either.
4. The last thing he asked for — Then lay me down between the two of them.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

QUOTE —

فلما صرع قال لأصحابه: ما فعل أبو حذيفة؟ قالوا: قُتل، قال: فما فعل فلان؟ قالوا: قُتل،

قال: فأضجعوني بينهما

"When he was struck down he said to his companions: What has become of Abū Ḥudhayfa? They said: He has been killed. He said: And what has become of so-and-so? They said: He has been killed. He said: Then lay me down between the two of them."

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٥٠

عبرت — The freed slave's last request was to be put back beside the household that had taken him in.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Struck down, Sālim^{رضي} asked the men near him a question. What had become of Abū Ḥudhayfa? They told him he had been killed. He asked about one other man. They told him he was dead too. Then he asked them for one thing, and it was the last thing he asked for.

قال لما احتُضر: لو كانَ سالمٌ حيًّا لما جعلتها شُورى

...when death was upon him: Had Sālim been alive I would not have made it a shūrā.

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 50

NOTE — ➔ Forward to 23 AH — ‘Umar ^{رضي} dying, an evening not reached; frame it. "It is related that..." ⚠ Do not merge the Abū ‘Ubayda ^{رضي} version ⚠ Say "it is related that..." — Ibn Kathīr's own passive. A second, differently worded report in سير ج ١ ص ١٧٠ names both سالم ^{رضي} and أبو عبيدة ^{رضي}, and الذهبي weakens its chain on the page. Do not merge the two.

SAY —

1. Eleven years later — ‘Umar ^{رضي} is dying of the assassin's wound, and the succession will not wait.
2. What he did — He refused to name one man, and made it a council of six instead.
3. What is related of him — Had Sālim ^{رضي} been alive, I would not have made it a council.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

4. What that means — Ibn ‘Abd al-Barr رحمه الله: he would have gone by Sālim's ^{رضي} judgement on whom to appoint.
5. Say it as Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله writes it — "It is related that...", and nothing stronger.

QUOTE —

وروي عن عمر أنه قال لما احتُضِر: لو كانَ سالمٌ حيًّا لما جعلتها شُورى

"And it is related of 'Umar that he said, when death was upon him: Had Sālim been alive I would not have made it a shūrā."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٥٠

عبرت — Eleven years later, the man the Commander of the Faithful wished were still in the room was a freed slave who had died holding a banner.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Eleven years after al-Yamāma, 'Umar[ؓ] was dying of the assassin's wound, and the question of who would follow him would not wait. He refused to name one man and set up a council of six instead. And it is related that he said that had Sālim[ؓ] been alive, he would not have made it a council at all. Ibn 'Abd al-Barr رحمه الله explains what that means: he would have gone by Sālim's[ؓ] judgement about whom to appoint.

Part V

Medina: the Qur'ān gathered

12 AH

The news reaches Medina

al-Yamāma

the field counted, the dead buried

Medina

the news arrives —
‘Umar^{رضي الله عنه}’s own brother among the dead

Then

the order that is why you can hold a muṣḥaf

BRIDGE — say: The field is counted and the dead are buried. Now the news reaches Medina — and ‘Umar^{رضي الله عنه}’s own brother is among the dead.

12 AH, Medina

Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb ُ and his brother

وَكَانَ يَقُولُ: أَسْلَمَ قَبْلِي، وَاسْتُشْهِدَ قَبْلِي ... وَكَانَ يَقُولُ: مَا هَبَّتِ الصَّبَا إِلَّا وَأَنَا أَجِدُ رِيحَ زَيْدٍ.

"He used to say: He became Muslim before me and was martyred before me ... And he used to say: The east wind never blows but I find in it the scent of Zayd."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 298

NOTE — The loop from evening 4's vow of silence closes here — 'Umar's ُ grief, and his son's reply

SAY —

1. The elder brother — Older than 'Umar ُ, and a Muslim before him.
2. At Badr, the mail coat — 'Umar ُ offered him his own; he refused it, wanting from martyrdom what his brother wanted.
3. At al-Yamāma — He carried a banner, would not speak until it was over, and was killed.
4. The army comes home — 'Umar ُ turns on his own son 'Abdullāh ُ for coming back alive.
5. The son's answer — He asked Allah for martyrdom and was given it; I strove for it and was not.
6. "He became Muslim before me, and was martyred before me" — And: the east wind never blows but I find in it the scent of Zayd.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

QUOTE —

وَكَانَ يَقُولُ: أَسْلَمَ قَبْلِي، وَاسْتَشْهَدَ قَبْلِي ... وَكَانَ يَقُولُ: مَا هَبَّتِ الصَّبَا إِلَّا وَأَنَا أَجِدُ رِيحَ زَيْدٍ.

"He used to say: He became Muslim before me and was martyred before me ... And he used to say: The east wind never blows but I find in it the scent of Zayd."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٢٩٨

عبرت — The Companions' grief is recorded as carefully as their victories, and by the same men.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — He was older than 'Umar^{رضي} and he had become a Muslim before him. At Badr, 'Umar^{رضي} offered him his own mail coat and he refused it — he said he wanted from martyrdom what his brother wanted. At al-Yamāma he carried a banner and would not speak until it was over, and he was killed. When the army came home, 'Umar^{رضي} turned on his own son 'Abdullāh^{رضي} for coming back alive.

The son's answer, on the page — «سَأَلَ اللَّهَ الشَّهَادَةَ فَأُعْطِيَهَا، وَجَهِدْتُ أَنْ — «سَأَقَ إِلَيَّ فَلَمْ أُعْطَهَا الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٩: "He asked Allah for martyrdom and was given it; I strove for it to be driven to me and I was not given it."

12 AH, Medina

Musaylima's words, at Medina

فيقال: إن الصّدِّيق قال لهم: ويحكم، أينَ كانَ يذهبُ بقولكم؟ إن هذا الكلام لم يخرج من إلٍّ

"And it is said that al-Ṣiddīq said to them: Woe to you — where were your minds being taken? This speech never came out of anything divine."

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 36

NOTE — al-Bidaya, vol. 7, p. 36. △ Ibn Kathīr hedges Abū Bakr's ^رreply —

«فيقال»: "it is said that he answered". △ Recite none of the rhymed prose, or one line at most; Ibn Kathīr's own verdict carries it: words children would be ashamed to say at play

△ Ibn Kathīr hedges the reply — «فيقال», it is said — and the delivery keeps the hedge: "it is said that he answered them..."

△ The rhymed prose itself stays off the face and out of the delivery, or one line at most. The page prints several pieces, and Ibn Kathīr's own verdict is the line to use: «وذكروا أشياء من هذه الخرافات التي يأنف من قولها الصبيان وهم يلعبون». Recited in full, they turn a grave evening comic. The word إلٍّ — the editor glosses it from البداية ^ر: divine lordship, or the sound root the Qur'ān came from (ed. fn., ^رالبداية). ابن خلدون ج ٢ ص ٥٠٣ has ج ٧ ص ٣٦). — framing only.

SAY —

1. Banū Ḥanīfa at Medina — Their delegations come to Abū Bakr ^ر, Muslims now.
2. His request — "Let us hear something of Musaylima's 'Qur'ān'."
3. "Excuse us" — They asked to be spared it; he said they must.
4. What they recited — Ibn Kathīr's own word for it: fables that children would be ashamed to say at play.

5. His answer, as it is reported — "Where were your minds being taken? This speech never came out of anything divine."

^ read the Arabic on the face here

QUOTE —

فيقال: إن الصّدِّيق قال لهم: ويحكم، أينَ كانَ يذهبُ بقولكم؟ إن هذا الكلام لم يخرج من إلّ

"And it is said that al-Ṣiddiq said to them: Woe to you — where were your minds being taken? This speech never came out of anything divine."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٦

عبرت — He did not argue with it; he asked for it to be said aloud in front of him, and that was the argument.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — When the delegations of Banū Ḥanīfa came to Abū Bakr ^{رضي} at Medina, he asked them to let him hear something of what Musaylima used to recite as his "Qur'ān". They asked to be excused, and he said they must. So they recited some of it — and Ibn Kathīr, who records it, calls it fables that children would be ashamed to say at play. It is said that Abū Bakr ^{رضي} answered them: woe to you — where were your minds being taken? This speech never came out of anything divine.

12 AH, after the battle

The number nobody can give وذلك بعد ما استَحَرَّ القتلُ في القُرَّاء يوم اليمامة كما ثبت به الحديث في صحيح البخاري.

"...and that was after the killing had run hot among the reciters on the day of al-Yamāma, as the ḥadīth in Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī establishes."

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 79 — Sahih al-Bukhari 4986

NOTE — [HANDS] 2: "How many men who had the whole Qur'ān by heart died that day?" — the honest answer: the books do not give one. Every number with its book

△ This is the card that stops a wrong number being said. The figures the safe list does give run from 58 to more than 1,080 (ṢY), and none of them is a count of reciters. △ Anyone who says "450 reciters" has misread ٥٥٧ ص البداية ج ٧. Ibn al-Athīr's count, beside Ibn Kathīr's (added 2026-09-27, DECISIONS.md #61 — the room's next question after the terms is "and how many of them died?") — وَقَدْ قُتِلَ مِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ > الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٨ (https://shamela.ws/book/21712/909): > وَالْأَنْصَارِ مِنْ أَهْلِ الْمَدِينَةِ ثَلَاثُمِائَةٍ وَسِتُّونَ، وَمِنَ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ مِنْ غَيْرِ الْمَدِينَةِ ثَلَاثُمِائَةِ رَجُلٍ الكامل — > https://shamela.ws/book/21712/909 > English: "There had been killed, of the Muhājirūn and the Anṣār of the people of Medina, three hundred > and sixty; and of the Muhājirūn not of Medina, three hundred men."

SAY —

1. The question the room is already asking — How many men who carried the Qur'ān died that day?
2. What the books do say — The killing ran hot among the reciters on the day of al-Yamāma.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

3. What none of them gives — A number for the reciters.
4. Ibn Kathīr's figures are approximate, and he says so — Six hundred Muslim dead, or five hundred: «and Allah knows best».
5. And twenty pages later — Four hundred and fifty, counting reciters, Companions and others together.
6. Ibn al-Athīr counts differently — 360 of the Muhājirūn and Anṣār of Medina, and 300 Muhājirūn from elsewhere.
7. And Banū Ḥanīfa's dead, in his count — Seven thousand at 'Aqrabā', as many in the garden, and about as many in the pursuit.
8. So we say it plainly — We know why the Qur'ān was collected. We do not know how many were lost. Only that it was enough.

QUOTE —

وذلك بعد ما استَحَرَّ القتلُ في القراء يوم اليمامة كما ثبت به الحديث في صحيح البخاري.

"...and that was after the killing had run hot among the reciters on the day of al-Yamāma, as the ḥadīth in Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī establishes."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٧٩ — صحيح البخاري ٤٩٨٦

عبرت — They did not wait to find out how much had been lost before they secured what was left.

HANDS UP — Before telling it: "How many men who had the whole Qur'ān by heart died that day? What would you guess?" — then give the honest answer: the books do not say.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — After al-Yamāma, Abū Bakr^{رضي} ordered the Qur'ān collected, and the reason the books give is that the killing had run hot among the reciters. That is the phrase all three of them use. What none of them gives is a number. Ibn Kathīr's own summary of the Muslim dead is four hundred and fifty — and he says in the same breath that he is counting bearers of the Qur'ān, Companions and others together in that one figure. So we know why the Qur'ān was collected. We do not know how many reciters died. We only know that it was enough.

الكامل في التاريخ — > وَقُتِلَ مِنْ بَنِي حَنِيفَةَ بِعُقْرَبَاءَ سَبْعَةُ آلَافٍ، وَبِالْحَدِيقَةِ مِثْلُهَا، وَفِي الطَّلَبِ نَحْوُ مِئَتِهَا >

٢١٨ ص ٢٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/909> > English: "And of Banū Ḥanīfa there were killed at 'Aqrabā' seven thousand, in the garden as many, > and in the pursuit about as many."

Every number is said with its book. None of them is a count of reciters, and the two books' Muslim totals do not agree — which is the card's point, not a problem for it.

12 AH, and 1 AH

The man he sent for

The dead

the reciters among them — and no number

The order

gather the Qur'ān

Now

the man he sent for, as a boy

BRIDGE — say: Abū Bakr^{رضي الله عنه} decided the Qur'ān must be gathered, and he sent for one man. Before we hear what he told him — who was he? Go back with me to the year the Prophet ﷺ came to Medina.

1 AH, Medina

Zayd b. Thābitؓ, as a boy

يَا زَيْدُ! تَعَلَّمْ لِي كِتَابَ يَهُودٍ، فَإِنِّي -وَاللَّهِ- مَا آمَنْهُمْ عَلَى كِتَابِي

"زيد! Learn for me the writing of the Jews, for by Allah I do not trust them with my correspondence."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, pp. 428–429

NOTE — ↔ 1 AH — the man Abū Bakrؓ sent for, as a boy. △ The evening's fourth Zayd — always "Zayd b. Thābitؓ". △ His age at the collection is on no page — if said: "about twenty-one, by our own arithmetic"

SAY —

1. The man Abū Bakrؓ sent for — Zayd b. Thābitؓ, of Banū al-Najjār of the Khazraj; al-Dhahabī calls him the scribe of the revelation.
2. An orphan of Bu'āth — His father was killed before the Hijra, on the day of Bu'āth, and he grew up an orphan.
3. Eleven, and seventeen sūras — When the Prophet ﷺ came to Medina the boy was brought forward: he already knew seventeen sūras.
4. A task on the spot — Zayd, learn for me the writing of the Jews; by Allah, I do not trust them with my letters.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
5. Half a month — He had mastered it inside half a month, and wrote the Prophet's ﷺ letters to them.
6. When revelation came — The Prophet ﷺ would send for him, and he would write it down.

7. What he was remembered for — al-Sha'bī: Zayd surpassed the people in two things, inheritance-law and the Qur'ān.

QUOTE —

يَا زَيْدُ! تَعَلَّمْ لِي كِتَابَ يَهُودٍ، فَإِنِّي -وَاللَّهِ- مَا آمَنْتُهُمْ عَلَى كِتَابِي

"Learn for me the writing of the Jews, for by Allah I do not trust them with my correspondence."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٢٨-٤٢٩ (the last word falls on ص ٤٢٩)

The people who end up carrying something were given small jobs first, and did them.

The same page as the fortnight (ج ٢ ص ٤٢٩) records that he learned Syriac too, at the Prophet's ﷺ instruction, in seventeen days — background, not a beat.

△ The evening's fourth Zayd. Say the full name every time: Zayd b. Thābit .

سير ج ٢ ص ٤٢٩: «فَتَعَلَّمْتُهُ، فَمَا مَضَى لِي نِصْفُ شَهْرٍ حَتَّى

«حَدَّثْتُهُ» — "I learned it, and half a month had not passed before I had mastered it." His age at the جمع is not stated in any source we hold; the arithmetic gives about twenty-one, and must be labelled [CONVENTIONAL-ESTIMATE] if used.)

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — زيد بن ثابت رضى was eleven when the Prophet ﷺ came to المدينه. His father had already been killed at بُعَاث, so he grew up an orphan. They brought him forward and said: this boy of بنو النجار has already memorised seventeen of the سور that came down to you. He recited, and the Prophet ﷺ was pleased, and gave him a task on the spot.

The notice, line by line (added 2026-09-27 from $5.3 — on no card until now).
الذبيبي's heading ends:

· سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٢٧ — > الخَزْرَجِيُّ، النَّجَّارِيُّ، الْأَنْصَارِيُّ، كَاتِبُ الْوَحْيِ >

<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2407> > English: "...the Khazrajī, of Banū al-Najjār, the Anṣārī, the scribe of the revelation."

· سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٢٧ — > وَقَدْ قُتِلَ أَبُوهُ قَبْلَ الْهِجْرَةِ يَوْمَ بُعَاثٍ، فَرُيِّ زَيْدٌ يَتِيمًا >

<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2407> > English: "His father had been killed before the Hijra, on the day of Bu'āth, so Zayd was raised an orphan."

سير أعلام النبلاء — > يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ! هَذَا غُلَامٌ مِنْ بَنِي النَّجَّارِ، وَقَدْ قَرَأَ مِمَّا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْكَ سَبْعَ عَشْرَةَ سُورَةً > https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2408 > English: "Messenger of Allah!
This is a boy of Banū al-Najjār, and he has already recited seventeen of the > sūras sent down to you."

سير أعلام النبلاء — > كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ -صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ- إِذَا تَزَلَّ عَلَيْهِ الْوَحْيُ، بَعَثَ إِلَيَّ، فَكَتَبْتُهُ > https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2409 > English: "When revelation came down upon the Messenger of Allah ﷺ he would send for me, and I would > write it."

سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٣٢ — > غَلَبَ زَيْدُ النَّاسِ عَلَى اثْنَتَيْنِ: الْفَرَائِضِ، وَالْقُرْآنِ > https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2412 (al-Sha'bī) > English: "Zayd surpassed the people in two things: the inheritance-law, and the Qur'ān."

12 AH, Medina

«A thing the Prophet ﷺ did not do»

فَتَتَّبِعِ الْقُرْآنَ، فَاجْمَعْهُ. فَقُلْتُ: كَيْفَ تَفْعَلُونَ شَيْئاً أَمْ يَفْعَلُهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ... قَالَ:
هُوَ -وَاللَّهِ- خَيْرٌ.

...so follow the Qur'ān up and gather it. I said: How do you do a thing the Messenger of Allah ﷺ did not do? ... He said: By Allah, it is good.

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 431

NOTE — ^{رضي} 'Umar is named inside Zayd's ^{رضي} sentence — the page's wording, not a claim about who proposed it — if a slip asks, the report in al-Bukhārī says so; tonight's page is Zayd's ^{رضي} own account △ ^{رضي} 'Umar is named inside Zayd's ^{رضي} own sentence (شَرَحَ اللَّهُ صَدْرِي لِلَّذِي شَرَحَ لَهُ صَدْرُ) («أَيُّ بَكْرٍ وَعُمَرُ»). That is the page's wording, not a claim about who proposed it. Do not build the "^{رضي} 'Umar proposed it" account on this card — it is not on this page.

△ This page adds الرقاع and الأكتاف to the materials RCT/E-RC37 lists. Say all four, or say the two the next card says; do not say "only".

SAY —

1. Why him — A young man, of sound judgement, not suspected; and he had written the revelation for the Prophet ﷺ.
2. The order — Follow the Qur'ān up, and gather it.
3. He did not say yes — How do you do a thing the Messenger of Allah ﷺ did not do?
4. The answer, in three words — By Allah, it is good.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

5. What changed it — Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} kept coming back to him, until Allah opened his breast to what He had opened theirs to.

QUOTE —

إِنَّكَ رَجُلٌ شَابٌّ عَاقِلٌ لَا نَتَّهِمُكَ، قَدْ كُنْتَ تَكْتُبُ الْوَحْيَ لِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - فَسَبَّحَ الْقُرْآنَ، فَاجْمَعُهُ. فَقُلْتُ: كَيْفَ تَفْعَلُونَ شَيْئاً أَمْ يَفْعَلُهُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -.
قَالَ: هُوَ - وَاللَّهِ - خَيْرٌ.

"You are a young man, of sound judgement, and we do not suspect you; you used to write the revelation for the Messenger of Allah ^ﷺ — so follow the Qur'an up and gather it. I said: How do you do a thing the Messenger of Allah ^ﷺ did not do? He said: By Allah, it is good."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٣١

عبرت — The man who did it first had to be argued into it, and he is the one who told us so.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} sent for Zayd b. Thābit ^{رضي الله عنه} and told him plainly why it was him: a young man, of sound judgement, not suspected — and he had written the revelation for the Prophet ^ﷺ. Then he told him to follow the Qur'an up and gather it. Zayd ^{رضي الله عنه} did not say yes. He asked how they could do a thing the Messenger of Allah ^ﷺ had not done. Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} answered him in three words: by Allah, it is good. And he kept coming back to him — these are Zayd's own words — until Allah opened his breast to what He had opened the breast of Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} and 'Umar ^{رضي الله عنه} to. Then he went and gathered it: from the parchments, the shoulder-blades, the palm-stalks, and the breasts of men.

12 AH, Medina

What it was gathered from فَكُنْتُ أَتَّبِعُ الْقُرْآنَ، أَجْمَعُهُ مِنَ الرِّقَاعِ، وَالْأَكْتَفِ، وَالْعُسْبِ، وَصُدُورِ الرِّجَالِ.

"So I began to track down the Qur'an, gathering it from the parchments, the shoulder-blades, the palm-stalks, and the breasts of men."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 431

NOTE — [HANDS] 3: after saying the four once, ask the room to name them. Siyar names parchment where Ibn Kathīr names the thin white stones — the card says both

SAY —

1. Nothing to copy from — There was no single written volume; the Qur'an had to be tracked down.
2. His own word for it — Tatabba'a: to follow a thing up, piece by piece.
3. Parchment and shoulder-blades — Strips of parchment, and the flat shoulder-blades of animals.
4. Palm-stalks and white stones — The bare stalks of palm branches; Ibn Kathīr names thin white stones too.
5. And the breasts of men — The memories of the men who had it by heart.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
6. One set of ṣuḥuf — Until Zayd[ؓ] had gathered it into ṣuḥuf: in one place, for the first time.

QUOTE —

فَكُنْتُ أَتَّبِعُ الْقُرْآنَ، أَجْمَعُهُ مِنَ الرِّقَاعِ، وَالْأَكْتَفِ، وَالْعُسْبِ، وَصُدُورِ الرِّجَالِ.

"So I began to track down the Qur'an, gathering it from the parchments, the shoulder-blades, the palm-stalks, and the breasts of men."

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٣١

عبرت — Preservation is not one heroic act; it is somebody doing a careful, unglamorous job properly.

HANDS UP — Ask the room to name the four things after you have said them once. It is the one line in the evening everybody will remember.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — There was no volume to copy from. ^{زيد} had to go and track it down — the verb in his own account is تَتَبَعَ, to follow a thing up piece by piece — and gather it off whatever the Companions had written it on: strips of parchment, the flat shoulder-blades of animals, the bare stalks of palm branches, thin white stones — and out of the memories of the men who had it by heart. Then it was one set of صحف, in one place, for the first time.

One set of ṣuḥuf (beat 6) — الذبجى's year-by-year notice:

• سير أعلام النبلاء، سير الخلفاء الراشدين ص ٦٣ — > حتى جمعه زيد في صحف >

<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1211> > English: "...until Zayd gathered it into ṣuḥuf."

(Ibn Kathir's own wording at ج ٧ ص ٧٩ — اللّخاف names البدايه — the thin white stones — where الذبجى names الرقاع. If both are wanted, say so and cite both.)

'Alī[ؑ], on the collection

علي[ؑ] on who deserves the credit

أعظم الناس أجرا في المصاحف أبو بكر، كان أول من جمع القرآن بين اللوحين

"The greatest of men in reward in the matter of the مصاحف أبو بكر — he was the first to gather the Qur'an between two boards."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala Siyar, p. 15

NOTE — The strongest line in the part for this room: 'Alī[ؑ] crediting Abū Bakr[ؑ] — say al-Dhahabī's grading of the chain. ⚠ Undated: "'Alī[ؑ] said", never "said at the time"

SAY —

1. Whose judgement this is — Not ours, and not a later historian's: 'Alī b. Abī Ṭālib[ؑ].
2. How it is recorded — al-Dhahabī gives its chain, and grades the chain good.
3. What 'Alī[ؑ] said — The greatest of men in reward for the maṣāḥif is Abū Bakr[ؑ].
4. The reason he gave — He was the first to gather the Qur'ān between two boards.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

QUOTE —

أعظم الناس أجرا في المصاحف أبو بكر، كان أول من جمع القرآن بين اللوحين

"The greatest of men in reward in the matter of the مصاحف أبو بكر — he was the first to gather the Qur'an between two boards."

— سير أعلام النبلاء، سير الخلفاء الراشدين ص ١٥

عبرت — When a man's rival in nothing and his equal in much says the thing for you, you do not need to say it yourself.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — The judgement on this decision does not have to come from us, and it does not have to come from a later historian. It comes from ^هعلي بن أبي طالب, and الذبيبي records his chain and grades it good.

Years later, Medina

Where the صحف went

فأرسل إلى حفصة أم المؤمنين: أن أرسلني بالصحف التي جمع فيها القرآن، فأرسلت إليه بها ... ثم رد عثمان الصحف إلى حفصة

"So he sent to حفصة, mother of the believers: 'Send us the صحف in which the Qur'an was gathered.' And she sent them to him ... then حفصة returned the صحف to عثمان."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala Siyar, p. 157

NOTE — ↪ A look ahead, framed by beat 1 — ‘Uthmān رضى is session 3’s subject.

⚠ Do not name the Companion who brought the report — the page’s Ḥudhayfa; the evening has two already. ⚠ Not “Abū Bakr رضى → ‘Umar رضى → Ḥafṣa رضى” as a chain: what is on the page is with Ḥafṣa رضى, borrowed, returned ⚠ Corrected 2026-09-27: the prose said twenty-odd years later; no page gives an interval, and الكامل files the copying under the year thirty (RCT/E-RC37). Say a caliphate and a half later, or years later.

⚠ Do not name the Companion who brought the report on evening 5 — the page names him حذيفة رضى, and the evening already carries حذيفة رضى and أبو حذيفة رضى. Say a Companion, back from the front. The report, on the page: محسن.

SAY —

1. A look ahead, and say so — This is in a caliphate the course has not reached; note only where the ṣuḥuḥ went.
2. Where they stayed — Not in a library or a treasury: in the household.
3. A report from the front — A Companion campaigning toward Armenia heard the men of al-Shām and al-‘Irāq disputing over the Qur’ān.
4. "Reach this ummah" — Before they differ over the Qur’ān as the Jews and the Christians differed over their books.

5. 'Uthmān ^{رضي} sends to Ḥafṣa ^{رضي} — Mother of the believers: send us the ṣuḥuf in which the Qur'ān was gathered.
6. Copied — Zayd b. Thābit ^{رضي} was one of the four men who copied them into the maṣāḥif.
7. And given back — Then 'Uthmān ^{رضي} returned the ṣuḥuf to Ḥafṣa ^{رضي}.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

QUOTE —

فأرسل إلى حفصة أم المؤمنين: أن أرسلي بالصحف التي جمع فيها القرآن، فأرسلت إليه بها ...
ثم رد عثمان الصحف إلى حفصة

"So he sent to حفصة, mother of the believers: 'Send us the صحف in which the Qur'an was gathered.' And she sent them to him ... then عثمان returned the صحف to حفصة."

— سير أعلام النبلاء، سير الخلفاء الراشدين ص ١٥٧

عبرت — What is entrusted is returned. The whole transmission of this book is a chain of things handed back intact.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — The زيد ^{رضي} gathered did not go into a library or a treasury. They stayed in the household. A caliphate and a half later, when حذيفة ^{رضي} came back from the Armenian front alarmed at how differently the men of الشام and the men of العراق were reciting, عثمان ^{رضي} sent for them — and he sent to حفصة بنت عمر ^{رضي}, a wife of the Prophet ﷺ and the daughter of the second caliph. She sent them. They were copied. Then he sent them back to her.

وقال أنس: إن حذيفة قدم على عثمان، وكان يغزو مع أهل العراق قبل أرمينية، فاجتمع في ذلك الغزو أهل الشام وأهل العراق، فتنازعوا في القرآن حتى سمع حذيفة من اختلافهم ما يكره، فركب حتى أتى عثمان فقال: سير — > يا أمير المؤمنين أدرك هذه الأمة قبل أن يختلفوا في القرآن اختلاف اليهود والنصارى في الكتب

سير أعلام النبلاء، سير الخلفاء الراشدين ص ١٥٧ > English: <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1299>

"Anas said: Ḥudhayfa came to 'Uthmān — he had been campaigning with the people of Iraq toward > Armenia, and the people of al-Shām and of Iraq met in that campaign and disputed over the Qur'ān, until > Ḥudhayfa heard in their differences what he disliked. He rode to 'Uthmān and said: Commander of the > Faithful, reach this ummah before they differ over the Qur'ān as the Jews and the Christians differed over > the books." (Do not recite "حفصة → عمر → أبو بكر" as a three-step chain on the slide. The middle step is البخاري's and is not on any page we hold. What is sourced is: they were with حفصة^{رض}, borrowed, and returned.)

12 AH, Medina

The Qur'ān was collected because of this

أَمَرَ الصَّدِيقُ زَيْدَ بْنَ ثَابِتٍ أَنْ يَجْمَعَ الْقُرْآنَ مِنَ اللَّخَافِ وَالْعُسْبِ وَصُدُورِ الرِّجَالِ

...al-Ṣiddīq ordered Zayd b. Thābit to gather the Qur'ān from the flat stones and the palm-stalks and the breasts of men.

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 79 — Sahih al-Bukhari 4986

NOTE — The ending of the al-Yamāma story. Say nothing after it but the checkpoint

SAY —

1. Count this day's dead differently — So many of the reciters were killed at al-Yamāma.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

2. Why then — So that it would not go with the men who carried it.

3. Two books, two places — Ibn Kathīr under the year twelve, pointing to al-Bukhārī; Ibn al-Athīr inside the battle: so that the Qur'ān would not be lost.

4. The muṣḥaf in this room — It was gathered because of the men who were killed in that garden.

QUOTE —

فِيهَا أَمَرَ الصَّدِيقُ زَيْدَ بْنَ ثَابِتٍ أَنْ يَجْمَعَ الْقُرْآنَ مِنَ اللَّخَافِ وَالْعُسْبِ وَصُدُورِ الرِّجَالِ، وَذَلِكَ بَعْدَ مَا اسْتَحَرَّ الْقَتْلُ فِي الْقُرَاءِ يَوْمَ الْيَمَامَةِ كَمَا ثَبَتَ بِهِ الْحَدِيثُ فِي صَحِيحِ الْبُخَارِيِّ.

"In it, al-Ṣiddīq ordered Zayd b. Thābit to gather the Qur'ān from the flat stones and the palm-stalks and the breasts of men — and that was after killing had grown severe among the reciters on the day of al-Yamāma, as the ḥadīth in Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī establishes."

عبرت — The mushaf the room reads from was gathered because of the men who were killed in the garden.

أَمَرَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ يَجْمَعُ الْقُرْآنَ لِمَا رَأَى مِنْ كَثْرَةِ مَنْ قُتِلَ مِنْ: «الکامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٩ in the same place: «لَقَدْ يَذْهَبُ الْقُرْآنُ الصَّحَافَةِ؛ لِأَنَّ يَذْهَبُ الْقُرْآنُ».

△ Corrected 2026-09-27. Until today beat 6 and the prose above said that both books point at al-Bukhārī. ٢١٩ ص ٢ الکامل does not: it gives the order and its reason, and sends the reader forward —

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — So many of the reciters were killed at al-Yamāma that Abū Bakr ^{رضي} ordered the Qur'ān gathered — from the flat stones and the palm-stalks and the memories of men — so that it would not go with them. Two of our books say it: Ibn Kathīr under the year twelve, pointing to al-Bukhārī for it, and Ibn al-Athīr inside his account of the battle itself — so that the Qur'ān would not be lost.

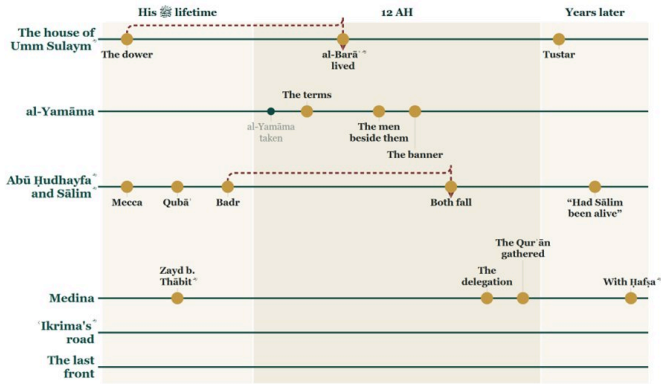

الکامل فی التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢١٩ — > وَسَيَرُدُّ مُبَيَّنًا سَنَةَ ثَلَاثِينَ >

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/910> > English: "And it will come, set out in full, under the year thirty."

That is his placement of the later copying, not a date for this order. It also corrects abu-bakr-usama-and-the-jam-of-the-quran.md §5.1, which says الکامل does not narrate the جمع.

So far tonight

Where we stand

CHECKPOINT 1 — the Line.

SAY — Tonight so far: the terms at the forts; the two houses and the men beside them; the reciters — and the order at Medina that they are the reason for.

(Next slide: the map. The time check is there.)

So far tonight

Where we stand

al-Yamāma taken — and its dead

The east still fighting

CHECKPOINT 1 — the map.

SAY — When you came in, al-Yamāma had just been taken. Now you know what it cost. And look at the east: still fighting.

⌚ Past 0:40 here → close here. 'Ikrima's ^{road} — Oman, Mahra and the last front — opens evening 6, whole.

CARRYING ON → say: "While all of this was happening, one commander had been sent away from al-Yamāma, and told not to come back." — and click on.

OUT OF TIME → this is your ending. Stay on this map and say:

1. The terms took their weapons and their wealth, and left them their lives.
2. She made him say the ruling before she told him it was his own case.
3. The mushaf the room reads from was gathered because of the men who were killed in the garden.

Then next week: "One commander was sent away from al-Yamāma before the battle and told not to come back. Next week: where his road went — all the way to the last front of the war."

Then a loud السلام عليكم, and the dua. Next week opens on these two slides.

Part VI

Ikrima's ّ road: Oman and Mahra (11→12 AH)

11–12 AH

Meanwhile: the man sent away

Evening 3

'Ikrima ربيع came into Abyan from Mahra'

Last week

sent on from al-Yamāma: 'do not come back'

Tonight

how he got there — and who he was

BRIDGE — say: On evening 3 you heard one line: 'Ikrima ربيع came into Abyan from Mahra, with a great many men. Last week you heard why he was sent on from al-Yamāma: do not come back — go on to Oman and Mahra. Tonight, how he got to Mahra. But first, who he was.

8 AH, the Conquest of Mecca

The ship, and the vow

Mecca

the Conquest, 8 AH

The coast

a ship, and a storm

NOTE — ↻ 8 AH, the Conquest. [HANDS] 4 (spare): "Whose son was 'Ikrima?"
— the room knows it from evening 4

HANDS UP FIRST — ask it before the first click. "Whose son was 'Ikrima?" Let them say it. Then tell the card.

SAY —

1. Whose son he was — 'Ikrima, son of Abū Jahl: the man who led Quraysh against the Prophet ﷺ at Badr, and was killed there.
2. The Conquest of Mecca, 8 AH — He was one of the few whose blood the amnesty did not cover.

► CLICK 1 — He runs for the coast, and takes a ship.

3. He ran for the sea — He rode for the coast and took a ship.
4. The squall — The people on board said: be sincere to God alone; your gods are no use out here.
5. What he said in the storm — If nothing saves at sea but sincerity, then nothing else saves on land either.
6. The vow — If God brings him through, he will go to Muḥammad ﷺ and put his hand in his hand. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — When Mecca fell, ‘Ikrima b. Abī Jahl was one of the few whose blood was not covered by the amnesty. He rode for the coast and took ship. A squall struck. The people on board told one another to be sincere to God alone, because their gods would be no use out there. ‘Ikrima heard it. What he said next he said there, in the storm.

8 AH, the Conquest of Mecca

The ship, and the vow

وَاللّٰهُ لَئِنْ لَمْ يُنَجِّ فِي الْبَحْرِ إِلَّا الْإِحْلَاصُ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُنَجِّي فِي الْبَرِّ غَيْرُهُ ... أَنْ آتِيَ
مُحَمَّدًا حَتَّى أَضَعَ يَدِي فِي يَدِهِ

By God, if nothing saves at sea but sincerity, then nothing else saves on land either ... I will go to Muhammad and put my hand in his hand

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 4, p. 550

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

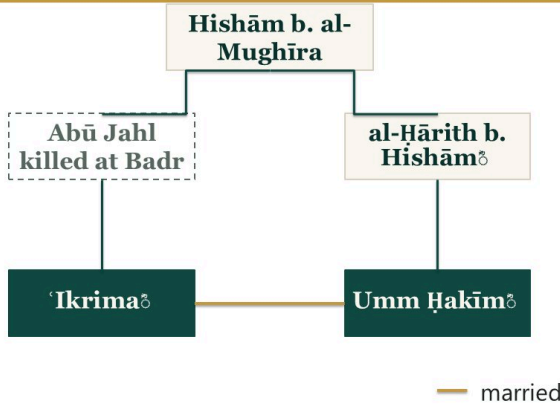

وَاللّٰهُ لَئِنْ لَمْ يُنَجِّ فِي الْبَحْرِ إِلَّا الْإِحْلَاصُ فَإِنَّهُ لَا يُنَجِّي فِي الْبَرِّ غَيْرُهُ، اللَّهُمَّ إِنَّ لَكَ عَلَيَّ عَهْدًا إِنَّ
أَنْتَ عَافِيَتَنِي مِمَّا أَنَا فِيهِ، أَنْ آتِيَ مُحَمَّدًا حَتَّى أَضَعَ يَدِي فِي يَدِهِ فَلَأَجِدَنَّهُ عَفُوًّا كَرِيمًا

"By God, if nothing saves at sea but sincerity, then nothing else saves on land either. O Allah, I owe You a covenant: if You bring me safe out of what I am in, I will go to Muhammad and put my hand in his hand — and I shall surely find him forgiving and generous."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٤ ص ٥٥٠

عبرت — He worked out the whole matter from one thing the people on the ship said, and he was right about what he would find.

Banū Makhzūm, of Mecca

‘Ikrima [ؓ] and Umm Ḥakīm [ؓ]

TREE — whose son, and whose daughter. Point as you go. (Every line is glued to its boxes: move a box and its lines follow.)

SAY — Whose son he was, and whose daughter his wife was.

1. Abū Jahl — who led Quraysh against the Prophet ﷺ at Badr, and was killed there.
2. His brother, al-Ḥārith b. Hishām [ؓ] — in al-Dhahabī's words, one of the noble Companions.
3. So Umm Ḥakīm [ؓ] — al-Ḥārith's daughter, and 'Ikrima's [ؓ] wife — was his cousin: his father's brother's daughter. On the day of the Conquest she became a Muslim. He ran.

8 AH, the Conquest of Mecca

Umm Ḥakīm ؓ goes after her husband

Umm Ḥakīm ؓ his wife, with the safe-conduct

Mecca
she brings him back

NOTE — A real journey; the map draws it

SAY —

1. His wife — Umm Ḥakīm bint al-Ḥārith b. Hishām ؓ became a Muslim on the day of the Conquest.
2. She went to the Prophet ﷺ herself — And asked leave to go after her husband, and safe-conduct for him. He gave her both.

► CLICK 1 — She goes after him, down the coast road.

3. The road — A servant travelling with her turned on her; she held him off until people on the way bound him for her.

► CLICK 2 — She reaches him at the shore — and brings him back.

4. At the shore — She reached him in Tihāma, already aboard the ship — and she brought him back. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Umm Ḥakīm bint al-Ḥārith b. Hishām accepted Islam on the day of the Conquest. Her husband had fled. She went to the Prophet ﷺ herself and asked leave to go after him, and asked safe-conduct for him. He gave her both. She travelled with a servant who tried to force himself on her; she put him off until she reached some people who bound him for her. She caught her husband somewhere in Tihāma, with him already aboard the ship. She brought him back.

Whose daughter she was (added 2026-09-27 for evening 5's family tree — on $1's household list, on no card until now). She is «أم حكيم بنت الحارث بن هشام» on the card's own page; and al-Ḥārith b. Hishām^{رضي} was Abū Jahl's brother, so she was 'Ikrima's^{رضي} cousin — his father's brother's daughter:

> — وَالْحَارِثُ بْنُ هِشَامِ بْنِ الْمُعَبَّرَةِ الْمُخَزُومِيِّ أَبُو عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ مِنَ الصَّحَابَةِ الْأَشْرَافِ، وَهُوَ أَخُو أَبِي جَهْلٍ > سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٣٣٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1756> > English: "And al-Ḥārith b. Hishām b. al-Mughīra al-Makhzūmī, Abū 'Abd al-Raḥmān, one of the noble Companions — and he > is Abū Jahl's brother."

8 AH, the Conquest of Mecca

Umm Ḥakīm ؓ goes after her husband

فاستأذنت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في طلب زوجها، فأذن لها وآمنه

"She asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ leave to go after her husband, and he gave her leave and granted him safe-conduct."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala Siyar 2, p. 164

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

فاستأذنت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم في طلب زوجها، فأذن لها وآمنه

"She asked the Messenger of Allah ﷺ leave to go after her husband, and he gave her leave and granted him safe-conduct."

— سير أعلام النبلاء، ج السيرة ٢ ص ١٦٤

عبرت — The safe-conduct that brought 'Ikrima^{رضي} back was asked for by his wife, in person.

8 AH

The cloak

فَلَمَّا رَأَاهُ وَثَبَ فَرَحًا بِهِ، وَرَمَى عَلَيْهِ رِدَاءَهُ حَتَّى بَايَعَهُ

"When he saw him he sprang up in joy at him and threw his cloak over him, until he pledged allegiance to him."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala Siyar 2, p. 185

NOTE — ⚠ Do not say "nothing was said to him about his father" — an argument from silence

⚠ Do not say "nothing was said to him about his father." That is an argument from silence, and it is the door back into the story §X.2 deletes — the page records the welcome, and nothing about what was or was not said.

SAY —

1. The two of them come in — 'Ikrima, with his wife, to the Prophet ﷺ.
2. Whose son this is — The son of the man who led Quraysh against him at Badr, and was killed there.
3. What the Prophet ﷺ did — He did not wait for him to come close: he sprang up in joy and threw his cloak over him.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
4. The pledge — The cloak was over him until he had pledged his allegiance.

QUOTE —

فَلَمَّا رَأَاهُ وَثَبَ فَرَحًا بِهِ، وَرَمَى عَلَيْهِ رِدَاءَهُ حَتَّى بَايَعَهُ

"When he saw him he sprang up in joy at him and threw his cloak over him, until he pledged allegiance to him."

عبرت — He was met by the man himself standing up, and the marriage he had come back to was left as it was.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — ‘Ikrima came in to the Prophet ﷺ with his wife. This is the son of the man who had led Quraysh against him at Badr, and who had been killed there. The books record what the Prophet ﷺ did when he saw him. He did not wait for him to reach the front. He got up.

11–12 AH, Oman

Oman asked for help

Oman

Laqīṭ, 'the one with the crown'

Jayfar

asks Medina for help

'Ikrima

joins them from al-Yamāma

NOTE — The claimant who called himself the one with the crown (△ the books differ on how plainly he claimed prophethood), the lawful ruler's letter to Medina, the commanders each in charge in his own theatre, and the letters to the rebel's own chiefs at Rijām

SAY —

1. The claimant with the crown — Laqīṭ b. Mālīk al-Azdī, "Dhū al-Tāj", called al-Julandā before Islam: he claimed prophethood too, the ignorant of Oman followed him, and he took the country.

► CLICK 1 — The two lawful rulers, driven to the edges of their own country.

2. The lawful rulers — Jayfar and ‘Abbād, driven to the edges of their own country: the mountains and the sea.

► CLICK 2 — Jayfar writes to Abū Bakr ^{رضي}, and asks for help.

3. A request, not an invasion — Jayfar wrote to Abū Bakr ^{رضي} and asked for help.

► CLICK 3 — Two commanders come from Medina.

4. Two commanders, one arrangement — Ḥudhayfa in command in Oman, ‘Arfaja in Mahra; each under the other in the other's country.

► CLICK 4 — And ‘Ikrima's ^{رضي} line from al-Yamāma — they join at Rijām, near Oman.

5. And the man sent on from al-Yamāma — ‘Ikrima^{رضي} joins them, and Abū Bakr^{رضي} writes that they are to defer to his judgement.

► CLICK 5 — Letters before swords: to the rebel's own chiefs.

6. Letters before swords — Near Oman they wrote to Jayfar — and to the rebel's own chiefs, and some of them left him. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

Who he was, on the same page: «ذو التاج لَقِيْطُ بن مالِك الأَزْدِي، وكان يُسَمَّى في الجاهلية:»

(الجلَنْدِي، فَادَعَى النُّبُوَّةَ أَيضًا، وَتَابَعَهُ الْجَهْلَةُ مِنْ أَهْلِ عُثْمَانَ) (البداية ج ٧ ص ٤١). The arrangement — «وقد كتب 'Ikrima^{رضي}: إلهما الصديق إن ينتهيا إلى رأي عكرمة» (البداية ج ٧ ص ٤١). الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢٢٥: «وَكُلُّ مِنْهُمَا أَمِيرٌ (قَرِيبٌ مِنْ عُثْمَانَ» (ج ٢ ص ٢٢٥-٢٢٦); and the joining at Rijām, «عَلَى صَاحِبِهِ فِي وَجْهِهِ (وَكَاثَبُوا رُؤَسَاءَ مِنْ لَقِيْطٍ وَارْفَضُوا عَنْهُ» (ج ٢ ص ٢٢٦).

△ Ḥudhayfa b. Miḥṣan is NOT Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي}, whose death the room hears earlier tonight. Say the full name, or "the commander in Oman". △ No page we hold states the Companionship of Ḥudhayfa b. Miḥṣan or of ‘Arfaja — no honorific.

△ How plainly the claimant claimed prophethood differs between the books — Ibn Kathīr says it outright; الكامل is more guarded (see E-RC29's △). The ruler's name is ‘Abbād in البدايه, ‘Iyādh in الكامل.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — In Oman a man named Laqīṭ b. Mālik al-Azdī — who called himself Dhū al-Tāj, "the one with the crown" — claimed prophethood too, and the ignorant of Oman followed him. He took the country and drove its two rulers, Jayfar and ‘Abbād, to its edges, towards the mountains and the sea. Jayfar wrote to Abū Bakr^{رضي}, told him what had happened, and asked for troops. Abū Bakr^{رضي} sent two commanders — Ḥudhayfa b. Miḥṣan to Oman and ‘Arfaja to Mahra, each in command in his own theatre — and then ‘Ikrima^{رضي} to join them, with a letter telling the two to defer to his judgement. The columns joined before they reached Oman, and wrote to Jayfar — and to the rebel's own chiefs.

11–12 AH, Oman

Oman asked for help

فتغلَّب عليها وقهر جيفراً وعباداً وألجأهما إلى أطرافها، من نواحي الجبال
والبحر، فبعثَ جيفر إلى الصديق فأخبره الخبر واستجاشه

"He prevailed over it, overpowered Jayfar and 'Abbād and drove them to its edges, towards the mountains and the sea..."

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 41

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

فتغلَّب عليها وقهر جيفراً وعباداً وألجأهما إلى أطرافها، من نواحي الجبال والبحر، فبعثَ جيفر إلى الصديق فأخبره الخبر واستجاشه

"He prevailed over it, overpowered Jayfar and 'Abbād and drove them to its edges, towards the mountains and the sea. So Jayfar sent to al-Şiddīq, told him the news, and asked him for an army."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤١

عبرت — This front began with a letter from inside the country asking for help, not with an army from outside it.

11–12 AH, Oman

Dabā: the relief from inside

Dabā
the great market town

Ṣuḥār
the lawful rulers

The relief from inside the region

NOTE — The Muslims very nearly lost it. Short arrows from inside the region, not one from Medina. [HANDS] spare: "The column from Medina is losing. Who is close enough to help?" △ "ten thousand" is al-Kamil's figure — say it as his △ Ibn Kathīr ج ٧ ص ٤١ says the Oman claimant claimed prophethood; الكامل is more guarded. Oman is not a clean case of purely political secession. Also on the page — ج ٧ ص ٤١ البدایہ (https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3187): Laqīṭ at Dabā «وجعل الذراري والأموال وراء ظهورهم ليكون أقوى لحربهم» — the same ground Musaylima chose at 'Aqrabā' (E-RC54). الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢٢٦: the count, «فَقُتِلَ مِنْهُمْ» — his figure; say it as his — and afterwards the fifth went to Medina with 'Arfaja while Ḥudhayfa stayed «يُسَكِّنُ النَّاسَ». Ibn Kathīr's own telling of the crisis (added 2026-09-27 — on §8.1, on no card until now). The fight:

SAY —

1. Where he chose to fight — Laqīṭ camped at Dabā, the country's great market town, with the families and the property behind his lines.
2. The same thing Musaylima did — Put everything you have behind your own army, so that nobody runs.

► CLICK 1 — The Muslims advance from Ṣuḥār.

3. The lawful rulers — Jayfar and ‘Abbād camped at Ṣuḥār, and sent to the commanders.

► CLICK 2 — Laqīṭ gets the upper hand, and the line gives way. (Spare hands-up before the next click: the column from Medina is losing — who is close enough to help?)

4. The fight — Hard; Laqīṭ got the upper hand, and in Ibn Kathīr's words the Muslims were tried and very nearly turned their backs.

► CLICK 3 — The relief: Banū Nājiya and ‘Abd al-Qays — men of that region, not an army from Medina.

5. The relief — Not from Medina: Banū Nājiya and 'Abd al-Qays, men of that region — Ibn Kathīr: at that very hour.

► CLICK 4 — The rebels broken.

6. The end at Dabā — The rebels broke; Ibn al-Athīr gives ten thousand of them killed — his figure.

7. Afterwards — The fifth went back to Medina with 'Arfaja; Ḥudhayfa stayed to settle the country. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

The relief's two commanders, in الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢٢٦ (the statement above, in full at §8.1): al-Khirrīt b. Rāshid over Banū Nājiya, and Sayḥān b. Wuṣḥān over 'Abd al-Qays. △ Neither has a notice on our pages — name them only if asked.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Oman had gone to a man who called himself Dhū al-Tāj and claimed prophethood, and he had pushed the two lawful rulers to the edges of the country. One of them wrote to Abū Bakr ^{رشد} and asked for help — so this front began with a request, not an invasion. Three Muslim columns joined before they arrived, wrote to the rulers, and also wrote to the rebel's own chiefs, some of whom left him. Then they fought at Dabā, the country's great market town. And they very nearly lost it.

· البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤١ — > وتقاتلوا قتالاً شديداً، وابْتُلي المسلمون وكادوا أن يُؤلُّوا >

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3187> > English: "And they fought hard; the Muslims were tried, and very nearly turned their backs."

And the relief, over the page:

· البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤٢ — > أن بعثَ إليهم مددًا، في الساعة الراهنة من بني ناجية وعبد القيس >

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3188> > English: "...that He sent them reinforcement, at that very hour, from Banū Nājiya and 'Abd al-Qays."

11–12 AH, Oman

Dabā: the relief from inside

وَاسْتَعْلَى لَقِيْطٌ، وَرَأَى الْمُسْلِمُونَ الْحُلَلَ، وَرَأَى الْمُشْرِكُونَ الظَّفَرَ. فَبَيَّنَمَا هُمْ كَذَلِكَ جَاءَتِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ مَوَادُّهُمْ الْعُظْمَى مِنْ بَنِي نَاجِيَّةَ ... وَمِنْ عَبْدِ الْقَيْسِ.

"Laqīṭ got the upper hand; the Muslims saw the breach and the mushrikūn saw victory..."

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 226

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

وَاسْتَعْلَى لَقِيْطٌ، وَرَأَى الْمُسْلِمُونَ الْحُلَلَ، وَرَأَى الْمُشْرِكُونَ الظَّفَرَ. فَبَيَّنَمَا هُمْ كَذَلِكَ جَاءَتِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ مَوَادُّهُمْ الْعُظْمَى مِنْ بَنِي نَاجِيَّةَ ... وَمِنْ عَبْدِ الْقَيْسِ.

"Laqīṭ got the upper hand; the Muslims saw the breach and the mushrikūn saw victory. And while they were in that state, the Muslims' great relief came in — from Banū Nājiya ... and from 'Abd al-Qays."

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٦

عبرت — The men who saved that day were from the same country as the men they were fighting.

11–12 AH, Mahra

Mahra: won with a letter

Mahra

two chiefs at odds

The letter

half the enemy comes over

The fifth to Medina

NOTE — The fifth went to Medina carried by the man who had led half the rebellion. Δ No page gives an interval

SAY —

► CLICK 1 — ‘Ikrima^١ comes into Mahra.

1. ‘Ikrima^١ goes on to Mahra — With the men he had gathered on the way: Nājiya, ‘Abd al-Qays, Rāsib and Sa’d.
2. Not one enemy but two — Two forces under two chiefs who would not work together: al-Muṣabbah of Banū Muḥārib, with the greater part, and Shikhrīṭ.
3. "That discord was a mercy" — Ibn Kathīr's own words for it.

► CLICK 2 — The letter — and Shikhriṭ comes over.

4. The letter — ^{نذر} 'Ikrima wrote to the smaller chief, Shikhriṭ; he answered, came over, and became a Muslim.

► CLICK 3 — al-Muṣabbah refuses: the fighting is harder than Dabā.

5. The other one — al-Muṣabbah was called and refused; the fighting was harder than Dabā, and he was killed.

► CLICK 4 — And the fifth goes to Medina, carried by Shikhriṭ himself.

6. The fifth — Sent to Abū Bakr ^{رضي}, carried by Shikhrīt himself — the man who had led half the rebellion. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

Also on the page — الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢٢٦ (https://shamela.ws/book/21712/917): Shikhrīt «فَأَجَابَهُ وَأَسْلَمَ». البدايه ج ٧ ص ٤٢: «فاقتتلوا مع المصبح أشدَّ من قتال دبا المتقدم» to Abū Bakr ^{رضي} with Shikhrīt. △ No page gives an interval between his coming over and the fifth going north — say no span of time. The two forces, in Ibn Kathīr's words (added 2026-09-27 — on §8.2, on no card until now):

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — 'Ikrima ^{رضي} came into Mahra and found not one enemy but two — two forces under two chiefs who would not work together. So he wrote to the smaller one. That man answered, came over, and became a Muslim; and with him the Muslims were strengthened and the other man's nerve failed. Then 'Ikrima ^{رضي} called that one too, and he refused, and the fighting that followed was harder than Dabā had been. Afterwards, the fifth of the spoils was sent to Abū Bakr ^{رضي} — carried to Medina by the man who had been leading half the rebellion.

فوجدهم جندين؛ على أحدهما - وهم الأكثر - أميرٌ يُقالُ له: المصبح، أحد بني محارب، وعلى الجند الآخر >

البدايه والنهبايه ج ٧ ص ٤٢ — > أمير يُقال له: شخريت https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3188

> English: "He found them in two forces: over one of them — the greater — a commander called al-Muṣabbaḥ, > one of Banū Muḥārib; and over the other a commander called Shikhrīt."

11–12 AH, Mahra

Mahra: won with a letter

وهما مختلفان، وكان هذا الاختلاف رحمة على المؤمنين، فراسل عكرمة شخريت فأجابه وانضاف إلى عكرمة فقوي بذلك المسلمون، وضعف جأش المصبح.

"The two were at odds, and that discord was a mercy upon the believers..."

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 42

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

وهما مختلفان، وكان هذا الاختلاف رحمة على المؤمنين، فراسل عكرمة شخريت فأجابه وانضاف إلى عكرمة فقوي بذلك المسلمون، وضعف جأش المصبح.

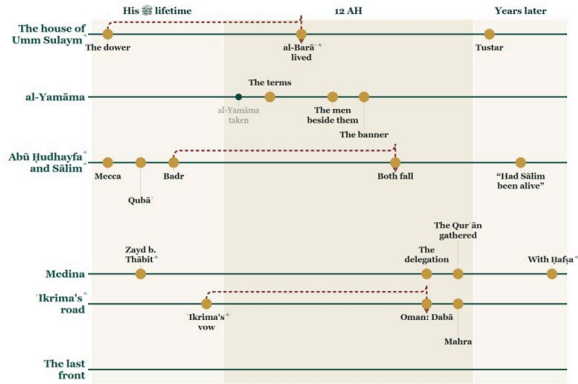

"The two were at odds, and that discord was a mercy upon the believers. 'Ikrima wrote to Shikhrīṭ, and he answered him and joined 'Ikrima — and by that the Muslims were strengthened, and al-Muṣabbaḥ's nerve weakened."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤٢

عبرت — He wrote before he marched, and half the enemy stopped being the enemy.

So far tonight

Where we stand

CHECKPOINT 2 — the Line.

SAY — Tonight: what al-Yamāma cost, the Qur'ān gathered — and 'Ikrima's road, through Oman and Mahra.

(Next slide: the map. The time check is there.)

So far tonight

Where we stand

Oman, Mahra settled

Ḥaḍramawt
still to come

CHECKPOINT 2 — the map.

SAY — When you came in, the east was burning. Oman and Mahra are settled. One front is left: Ḥaḍramawt.

🕒 Past 0:40 here → close here. Ḥaḍramawt opens evening 6.

CARRYING ON → say: "One front was left — and it began with a quarrel about camels." — and click on.

OUT OF TIME → this is your ending. Stay on this map and say:

1. The mushaf the room reads from was gathered because of the men who were killed in the garden.

2. The men who saved that day were from the same country as the men they were fighting.

3. He wrote before he marched, and half the enemy stopped being the enemy.

Then next week: "One front was left, and the books say it began with one she-camel.

Next week: how."

Then a loud السلام عليكم, and the dua. Next week opens on these two slides.

Part VII

Ḥaḍramawt and Kinda: the last front (11→12 AH)

11→12 AH

From Abyan to the last front

Evening 3

al-Muhājir ربه in Ṣan‘ā’
— then 'your own post'

Tonight

‘Ikrima ربه , from Mahra to Abyan

Now

Ḥaḍramawt and Kinda
— the last front

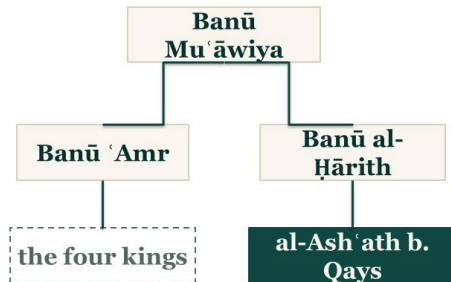

BRIDGE — say: On evening 3 you left al-Muhājir ربه in Ṣan‘ā’ , with Abū Bakr's ربه double order: first the Yemen, then go on to your own post — Kinda. ‘Ikrima ربه had come into Abyan from Mahra; now you know the road he came by. From here the two of them go east, to the last front of the war. First: who were Kinda?

kings once — and two branches in 11 AH

Kinda

Ākil al-Murār

kings of the north, before Islam

TREE — Kinda. Point as you go.

SAY — Who were Kinda?

1. A tribe of the south, of Qaḥṭān, that had once given kings to the northern Arabs: the tribes of Bakr, tired of the strong eating the weak, asked a Tubba' of Yemen for a king, and he gave them a man of Kinda — Ḥujr b. 'Amr, Ākil al-Murār.
2. Its height: al-Ḥārith b. 'Amr, given al-Ḥīra by one Persian king and hunted out of it by the next; forty-eight men of the house were put to death. Ibn al-Athīr says openly that some of this looks like Kinda praising itself.
3. In 11 AH, Kinda's Banū Mu'āwiya had two branches: Banū 'Amr, whose four brothers the books call the four kings — and Banū al-Ḥārith, the branch of al-Ash'ath b. Qays.
4. Side by side, with no line between them: the books show the royal past and the royal title, and do not say that one caused the other. Nor do we.

IF THE ROOM IS WITH YOU: one of al-Ḥārith's sons, another Ḥujr, ruled Banū Asad harshly — and they killed him in his tent.

⚠ No date before Islam is on this slide, and none is to be said: they are estimates.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — the house's stories in full: • A Yemeni house made kings over the northern tribes: Kinda was a southern tribe — Of Qaḥṭān, not of the northern Arabs it came to rule.; The north had a problem — Among Bakr the reckless had overpowered the wise; the strong ate the weak.; They wanted a king from outside — Not one of their own, whom half would obey and half defy.; So they went to a Tubbaʿ of Yemen — And he gave them a man of Kinda: Ḥujr b. ʿAmr, Ākil al-Murār.; What he did with it — He settled at Baṭn ʿĀqil and took back Bakr's lands from al-Ḥīra.; Ibn Khaldūn tells it differently — A Ḥimyarite king set Ḥujr over all of Maʿadd. Say both; resolve neither. • al-Ḥārith b. ʿAmr — al-Ḥīra given, al-Ḥīra taken back: Ḥujr's grandson al-Ḥārith — A king of great power and far-reaching name, in Ibn al-Athīr's words.; A Persian quarrel reaches the Arabs — Qubādh adopted the teaching of Mazdak; his governor at al-Ḥīra refused.; al-Ḥārith accepted, and was given al-Ḥīra — The high point of the house.; The next Persian king undid it — Anūshirwān killed Mazdak, restored the old governor, and hunted al-Ḥārith.; What it cost the house — Forty-eight men of it were caught and put to death, two of them his sons.; The historian's own caution — Ibn al-Athīr says openly that some of this looks like Kinda praising itself. • Ḥujr and Banū Asad — "far from us in lineage": The northern chiefs come to him — The killing between us will wipe us out; send your sons to hold us apart.; Four sons set as kings — One over each of the tribes.; Ḥujr goes to Banū Asad — And takes a yearly levy from them.; They throw out his collectors — He came with an army, killed their leading men, drove the rest to Tihāma.; He relented and called them back — And a day's march from him, they turned.; They reached his tent and killed him — The man who struck him was one whose father Ḥujr had killed. • "The four kings" — side by side, no arrow between: A year or so later, Kinda broke away — The same tribe, the same men, the other side of the line.; "The four kings" — Four brothers of one Kinda clan, with their sister, taking to their strongholds.; al-Ashʿath was not one of them — He was of a different branch of the tribe.; What Ibn al-Athīr says the cause was — An arrangement for carrying zakāt between Kinda and Ḥaḍramawt.; Not the kingship — The books show the royal past, the royal claim and the royal title, and draw no line between them.; And neither do we — The question is left open, because the sources leave it open.

10 AH, Medina

"We are the sons of Ākil al-Murār"

لا، نحن بنو النَّضْر بن كنانة، لا نَقْفُو أُمَّنَا، ولا ننتفي من أبينا

"No. We are the sons of al-Naḍr b. Kināna. We do not trace ourselves through our mother, and we do not disown our father."

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 5, p. 56

NOTE — ↔ The delegation, 10 AH — a flashback, say so (the date is standard, not page-cited: "in the year of the delegations"). The room meets al-Ash'ath b. Qays here, at the head of his people. Spare [HANDS]: "Someone offers to make you a descendant of kings. What does it cost you to say no?"

SAY —

1. Kinda comes to Medina — A large delegation, al-Ash'ath b. Qays at its head.
2. How they came in — Hair combed, kohl on their eyes, Yemeni cloaks edged with silk.
3. "What is this silk on your necks?" — Asked after they had said they had accepted Islam. They tore it off.
4. Then the claim of kinship — We are the sons of Ākil al-Murār, and so are you.
5. The Prophet ﷺ smiled, and refused it — We are the sons of al-Naḍr b. Kināna; we do not trace ourselves through our mother.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
6. And al-Ash'ath closed it himself — Any man I hear say it again gets eighty lashes.

QUOTE —

لا، نحن بنو النَّضْر بن كنانة، لا نَقْفُو أُمَّنَا، ولا ننتفي من أبينا

"No. We are the sons of al-Naḍr b. Kināna. We do not trace ourselves through our mother, and we do not disown our father."

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٥ ص ٥٦

عبرت — They offered him a royal ancestry as a gift, and he declined it with a smile.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Kinda came to Medina in a large delegation — eighty riders in one report, seventy in another, ten-odd in a third — with al-Ash‘ath b. Qays at their head. They walked into the Prophet’s ﷺ mosque with their hair combed and kohl on their eyes, in Yemeni cloaks edged with silk. He asked: have you not accepted Islam? — yes — then what is this silk on your necks? They tore it off. Then al-Ash‘ath said: we are the sons of Ākil al-Murār, and so are you. The Prophet ﷺ smiled. Traders of Quraysh used to claim that lineage abroad for the honour of it, the report explains, because Kinda had been kings. He answered: no — we are the sons of al-Naḍr b. Kināna; we do not trace ourselves through our mother, nor disown our father. al-Ash‘ath turned to his people: any man I hear say it again gets eighty lashes.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The promise about the camels

Ḥaḍramawt

Ziyād b. Labīd, the Prophet's ﷺ governor

Kinda

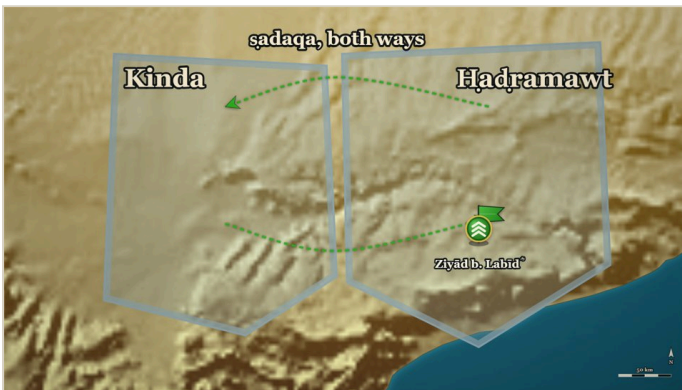

its neighbour

NOTE — Give Ziyād b. Labīd's ^{رسول} notice in one breath first — the room heard his name once, in a clause, on evening 3

SAY —

1. Who Ziyād b. Labīd ^{رسول} is — Of the Anṣār, of Banū Bayāḍa of the Khazraj; the Prophet's ﷺ own appointee over Ḥaḍramawt, and he held the post through the whole war.

► CLICK 1 — The arrangement: ṣadaqa carried both ways.

2. An arrangement from the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime — Part of Ḥaḍramawt's ṣadaqa went to Kinda, and part of Kinda's went to Ḥaḍramawt.
3. Banū Walī'a have no camels — A clan of Kinda told Ḥaḍramawt: we have no camels to carry it; send it to us loaded.
4. Ḥaḍramawt promises to look into it — If you really have no camels, we will send it loaded.
5. After the Prophet ﷺ died — Banū Walī'a came: deliver it, the way you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.

► CLICK 2 — 'Carry it yourselves' — and it was not carried.

6. Ḥaḍramawt's answer — You do have camels: carry it yourselves.
7. Kinda turns on the governor — To Ziyād b. Labid^{رضي الله عنه} they said: you are with them against us.
8. Home with nothing settled — Ḥaḍramawt would not carry it; Kinda kept insisting, and went home with the matter undecided.
9. Ziyād^{رضي الله عنه} does nothing yet — He was waiting for al-Muhājir^{رضي الله عنه} to arrive. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

Ziyād's^{رضي الله عنه} waiting: «(ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠) (وَأَمْسَكَ عَنْهُمْ زِيَادٌ أَنْتَظَرًا لِلْمُهَاجِرِ)» — the Ḥaḍramawt campaign is not in البدايه. Follow with RCT/E-RC33 (the she-camel called Shadhra).

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — In the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime an arrangement had been made: part of Ḥaḍramawt's ṣadaqa went to Kinda, and part of Kinda's to Ḥaḍramawt. A clan of Kinda, Banū Walī'a, had said to Ḥaḍramawt: we have no camels to carry it — send it to us loaded. And Ḥaḍramawt had said: we will look into it, and if you really have none, we will. Then the Prophet ﷺ died. Banū Walī'a came and said: deliver it, the way you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. And Ḥaḍramawt said: you do have camels — carry it yourselves. And Kinda turned to Ziyād b. Labīd^ر, the governor, and said: you are with them against us. The men of Ḥaḍramawt would not carry it; the men of Kinda kept insisting, and went home with the matter still undecided. Ziyād^ر did nothing yet. He was waiting for al-Muhājir^ر.

Ziyād b. Labīd^ر, page-cited, for the one breath: of the Anṣār, of بنو بياضة of the خزرج ٤٦٦ (البدايه ج ٣ ص ٤٦٦) — see medina-ansar-structure.md); the Prophet's ﷺ appointee over ٤١ (البدايه ج ٧ ص ٤١); and he held that post through the whole ردة and ran the campaign there (٢٣٢-٢٢٩ ص الكامل ج ٢ — where ٢٢٩ ص ج ٢ spells him زياد بن أبي زيد) (زيد بن لبيد and the following pages لبيد الأنصاري). The room last heard his name in one clause of TSY/E-YK04 on evening 3. Also on the page:

فَقَالَ بَعْضُ بَنِي وَلَيْعَةَ: مِنْ كِنْدَةَ لِحَضْرَمَوْتَ لَيْسَ لَنَا ظَهْرٌ، فَإِنْ رَأَيْتُمْ أَنْ تَبْعَثُوا إِلَيْنَا بِذَلِكَ عَلَى ظَهْرٍ. قَالُوا: > . الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠ — > . فَإِنَّا نَنْتَظِرُ، فَإِنْ لَمْ يَكُنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرٌ فَعَلْنَا

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921> > English: "Some of Banū Walī'a of Kinda said to Ḥaḍramawt: We have no mounts — if you see fit, send > it to us on mounts. They said: We shall look into it; if you have no mounts, we will do it."

فَلَمَّا تَوَفَّى رَسُولُ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - قَالَتْ بَنُو وَلَيْعَةَ: أَتُبْعَثُونَا كَمَا وَعَدْتُمْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -! فَقَالُوا: إِنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرٌ فَاحْتَمِلُوا، فَقَالُوا لِرِيَادٍ: أَنْتَ مَعَهُمْ عَلَيْنَا

٢٣٠ ص > <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921> > English: "When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ died, Banū Walī'a said: Deliver it to us, as you promised > the Messenger of Allah ﷺ! They said: You do have mounts — carry it yourselves. And they said to > Ziyād: You are with them against us."

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The promise about the camels

قَالَتْ بَنُو وَلَيْعَةَ: أَبْلَعُونَا كَمَا وَعَدْتُمْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -!
فَقَالُوا: إِنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرًا فَاحْتَمِلُوا

"Banū Walī'a said: Deliver it to us, as you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ! They said: You do have mounts — carry it yourselves."

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 230

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

قَالَتْ بَنُو وَلَيْعَةَ: أَبْلَعُونَا كَمَا وَعَدْتُمْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -! فَقَالُوا: إِنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرًا فَاحْتَمِلُوا

"Banū Walī'a said: Deliver it to us, as you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ! They said: You do have mounts — carry it yourselves."

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠

عبرت — A small promise made in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime was tested the day after he died, and the province went to war over the answer.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The she-camel called Shadhra

فَقَالَ حَارِثَةُ: ذَاكَ إِذَا كُنْتُ يَهُودِيًّا، وَأَطْلَقَ عِقْلَهَا وَبَعَثَهَا وَقَامَ دُونَهَا.

"Ḥāritha said: That would be so if you were a Jew — and he untied her hobble and drove her off and stood in front of her."

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 230

NOTE — What set Kinda off, as the books report it ⚠️ البدايه carries no Ḥaḍramawt campaign at all. Cite ٢٣٢–٢٢٩ ص ٢ الكامل, never البدايه, for everything in this card and the next. The underlying grievance was administrative: the Prophet ﷺ had ordered some of Ḥaḍramawt's zakāt placed in Kinda and some of Kinda's in Ḥaḍramawt, and after his death nobody would carry it (٢٣٠ ص ٢ الكامل).

SAY —

1. A young she-camel is branded — Collecting the zakāt in Kinda, Ziyād b. Labīd^{رضي} took a young she-camel from a man and branded her.
2. She was not his to give — She belonged to his brother, her name was Shadhra, and he had brought her by mistake.
3. The brothers ask for her back — The brother said so, and the first man agreed and asked for her back.
4. Ziyād^{رضي} refuses — She had already passed into the right of Allah, he said.
5. A third man, Ḥāritha, rides up — Release her and take another, he said. Ziyād^{رضي} answered that he had no way to do that.
6. Ḥāritha unties her — He said one sentence, untied her hobble himself, and stood in front of her.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

QUOTE —

فَقَالَ حَارِثَةُ: ذَاكَ إِذَا كُنْتَ يَهُودِيًّا، وَأَطْلَقَ عِقَالَهَا وَبَعَثَهَا وَقَامَ دُونَهَا.

"Ḥāritha said: That would be so if you were a Jew — and he untied her hobble and drove her off and stood in front of her."

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠

عبرت — A province went to war over one animal, a naming mistake and a public insult, and every part of that is on one page.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Ziyād b. Labīd^{رَبِّهِ} was collecting the zakāt in Kinda. A man handed over a young she-camel and Ziyād^{رَبِّهِ} branded her. Then it turned out the animal was not his to give — she belonged to his brother, her name was Shadhra, and he had brought her by mistake. The brother said so. The first man agreed and asked for her back. Ziyād^{رَبِّهِ} refused: she had already passed into the right of Allah. Then a third man rode up, told him to release her and take another, and when Ziyād^{رَبِّهِ} said he had no way to do that, said one sentence — and untied her hobble himself and stood in front of her.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The humbled man

Ziyād's ٱ camp

Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn

Banū of Kinda Mu'awiya

NOTE — ٱ البسوس carries the whole warning and we have no page for it — say only "an old war that had started the same way"

ٱ Who spoke the Basūs sentence is unclear in the printed wording («فَقَالَ لَهَا») — say "a warning was spoken" (§X item 2). Al-Basūs is [STANDARD] (to verify) — the she-camel at the start of the long pre-Islamic war of Bakr and Taghlib; no page here says so. The release and the call to refuse ṣadaqa: «وَنَادَوْا بِمَنْعِ (الْصَّدَقَةِ)» (ج ٢ ص ٢٣١).

SAY —

1. A warning spoken over the camel — When Ziyād^{رض} refused to give her back: do not let Shadhra be for you what al-Basūs was.
2. Al-‘Addā’ calls out to his clan — The camel's owner raised the cry to his own people.
3. Ḥāritha b. Surāqa unties her — He raised the call too, came up to Ziyād^{رض}, and untied the camel.
4. Ziyād^{رض} takes her back — Young men of Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn tied up Ḥāritha and his companions, and took the camel back.

► CLICK 1 — Two great camps face each other.

5. Two great camps face each other — Banū Mu‘āwiya for Ḥāritha, Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn for Ziyād^ج; Kinda held back, their men being prisoners.

6. Two demands, two refusals — Ziyād^ج told them to put down their weapons; they refused and demanded their men; he refused.

► CLICK 2 — A strike by night.

7. A strike by night — Ziyād^ج hit them in the dark, and they scattered.

► CLICK 3 — Kinda roused: no ṣadaqa.

8. The freed men rouse Kinda — Ziyād^{رضي} let Ḥāritha and the others go; they roused their people, and a large force called: no ṣadaqa.

9. Al-Ḥuṣayn b. Numayr steps between — He was sent between the two sides, and for a little while they held off. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — When Ziyād^{رضي} refused to give the camel back, a warning was spoken over her: do not let Shadhra be for you what al-Basūs was. And the owner, al-‘Addā’, called out to his clan. Ḥāritha b. Surāqa raised the call too, came up to Ziyād^{رضي}, and untied her. Ziyād^{رضي} had young men of Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn tie Ḥāritha up, and his companions, and take the camel back. Kinda shouted. Banū Mu‘āwiya came out for Ḥāritha; Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn came out for Ziyād^{رضي}; two great camps faced each other. Kinda did not attack, because their men were prisoners. Ziyād^{رضي} told them to put down their weapons; they refused and demanded their men; he refused. He hit them by night, and they scattered. Then he let Ḥāritha and the others go — and the men he let go went straight back and roused their people against him. A large force gathered, and they called out that they would pay no ṣadaqa. Al-Ḥuṣayn b. Numayr was sent between the two sides, and for a little while they held off from each other.

Also on the page:

فَلَجَأَ فِي أَحْذِيهَا، فَقَالَ لَهَا: لَا تَكُونَنَّ شَذْرَةً عَلَيْكُمْ كَالْبَسُوسِ. فَنَادَى الْعَدَاءُ: يَا آلَ عَمْرِو، أَضَامَ >
الکامل فی التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠ — > !وَأُضْطَهْدُ! إِنَّ الدَّلِيلَ مَنْ أَكَلَ فِي دَارِهِ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921> > English: "He persisted in taking her, and it was said: Do not let Shadhra be to you what al-Basūs > was. And al-‘Addā’ called out: O family of 'Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled? The humbled man > is the one who is devoured in his own home!"

فَأَمَرَ زِيَادُ شَبَابًا مِنْ حَضْرَمَوْتَ وَالسَّكُونِ فَمَنَعُوهُ وَكَتَفُوهُ، وَكَتَفُوا أَصْحَابَهُ وَأَخَذُوا الْبَكْرَةَ، وَتَصَايَحَتْ كِنْدَةُ، > وَغَضِبَتْ بَنُو مُعَاوِيَةَ لِحَارِثَةَ وَأَظْهَرُوا أَمْرَهُمْ، وَغَضِبَتْ حَضْرَمَوْتُ وَالسَّكُونُ لَزِيَادٍ، وَتَوَافَى عَسْكَرَانِ عَظِيمَانِ مِنَ الْكَامِلِ فِي التَّارِيخِ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠ — > هَؤُلَاءِ، وَلَمْ يُحْدِثْ بَنُو مُعَاوِيَةَ شَيْئًا لِمَكَانِ أُسْرَائِهِمْ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921> > English: "Ziyād ordered some young men of Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn, and they stopped him and bound > him, bound his companions, and took the young camel. Kinda raised a shout; Banū Mu'āwiya were angry > on Ḥāritha's behalf and came out openly; Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn were angry on Ziyād's behalf; two > great camps faced each other — and Banū Mu'āwiya did nothing, because their men were prisoners."

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The humbled man

فَنَادَى الْعَدَاءُ: يَا آلَ عَمْرٍو، أَضَامُ وَأُضْطَهَدُ! إِنَّ الدَّلِيلَ مَنْ أَكَلَ فِي دَارِهِ!

"Al-‘Addā’ called out: O family of ‘Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled? The humbled man is the one who is devoured in his own home!"

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 230

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

فَنَادَى الْعَدَاءُ: يَا آلَ عَمْرٍو، أَضَامُ وَأُضْطَهَدُ! إِنَّ الدَّلِيلَ مَنْ أَكَلَ فِي دَارِهِ!

"Al-‘Addā’ called out: O family of ‘Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled? The humbled man is the one who is devoured in his own home!"

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠

عبرت — Once the quarrel became a matter of honour, being right about the camel no longer decided anything. البسوس needs a gloss, and we do not have one on a page we hold. The warning only works if the room knows what al-Basūs was — a pre-Islamic war between Bakr and Taghlib said to have started over a she-camel and run for decades. That is [STANDARD] and is NOT page-cited in this repo: it carries (to verify) and must be checked before it is spoken as fact. The safe spoken form, which claims nothing we cannot show, is in the beats: a warning was spoken over her that named an old war which had started the same way. If Daniyal wants the story itself, it needs one verification pass first.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Free men do not change sides

The pastures each chief's, held as a stronghold

Shuraḥbīl and his son, to Ziyād

NOTE — Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son

△ Quote only to «إِوَالْفَيْحِ» — the next clause reads against the sense. It was his son, not his father («وَابْنُهُ») — this corrects the campaign note §10.3.

SAY —

► CLICK 1 — Each chief takes his own pasture as a stronghold.

1. Banū Mu'āwiya withhold the ṣadaqa — The whole clan agreed, and each chief took up his own reserved pasture as a stronghold.

2. Except one man and his son — Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son would not go with their clan.

3. They tell their clan why — Before leaving, the two men told Banū Mu‘āwiya why they would not come.

► CLICK 2 — One man and his son walk out, to Ziyād's ^{بنو} camp.

4. They move to Ziyād's ^{بنو} camp — Father and son moved out, and camped with Ziyād ^{بنو}.

5. Their advice: strike tonight — Before the men drifting toward the rebels from al-Sakāsik, al-Sakūn and Ḥaḍramawt get there.

6. The danger in waiting — If you wait, we are afraid people will drift away from us to them. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — The whole of Banū Mu‘āwiya agreed to withhold the ṣadaqa, and each of their chiefs took up his own reserved pasture as a stronghold. All of them — except one man, Shurahbīl b. al-Simṭ, and his son. The two of them told their own clan, Banū Mu‘āwiya, why they would not come. Then they moved out, and camped with Ziyād ^{بنو}, and they gave him advice: strike tonight, before the men of al-Sakāsik, al-Sakūn and Ḥaḍramawt who are drifting toward the rebels get there — because if you wait, we are afraid people will drift away from us to them.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Free men do not change sides

إِنَّهُ لَقَبِيحٌ بِالْأَحْرَارِ التَّنَقُّلُ، إِنَّ الْكِرَامَ لَيَلْزِمُونَ الشُّبُهَةَ فَيَتَكَرَّمُونَ أَنْ يَنْتَقِلُوا إِلَى
أَوْضَحَ مِنْهَا مَخَافَةَ الْعَارِ، فَكَيْفَ الْإِنْتِقَالُ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ الْحَسَنِ الْجَمِيلِ وَالْحَقِّ إِلَى الْبَاطِلِ وَالْقَبِيحِ!

"It is an ugly thing in free men to change sides. Men of honour will stay with a doubtful position, and..."

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

إِنَّهُ لَقَبِيحٌ بِالْأَحْرَارِ التَّنَقُّلُ، إِنَّ الْكِرَامَ لَيَلْزِمُونَ الشُّبُهَةَ فَيَتَكَرَّمُونَ أَنْ يَنْتَقِلُوا إِلَى أَوْضَحَ مِنْهَا مَخَافَةَ الْعَارِ، فَكَيْفَ الْإِنْتِقَالُ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ الْحَسَنِ الْجَمِيلِ وَالْحَقِّ إِلَى الْبَاطِلِ وَالْقَبِيحِ!

"It is an ugly thing in free men to change sides. Men of honour will stay with a doubtful position, and think it beneath them to move even to a clearer one, for fear of the disgrace — so how much worse to move from what is good, fair and true to what is false and ugly!"

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١

عبرت — He used his tribe's own code of honour — never change sides — as the reason not to follow his tribe.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Round their fires

Banū ‘Amr
the strongest of Kinda

The four kings killed at their fires

NOTE — "The four kings." No source ties the old kingship to the ridda — say nothing that implies it

SAY —

► CLICK 1 — They ring the pastures in the dark — from five sides.

1. Ziyād ^{زِيَاد} agrees to a night attack — They gathered in the dark and ringed the pastures.
2. Round their fires — They found the men sitting round their fires.
3. From five directions at once — Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya, the strongest of Kinda with the numbers, were attacked from five sides.

► CLICK 2 — The four kings are killed.

4. The four kings are killed — Four brothers, the chiefs of Banū ‘Amr: Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ, Jamad and Abḍa‘a.

5. Four, or four and a sister — Ibn al-Athīr adds their sister, al-‘Amarrada; al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Ishāq, names four kings and no sister.

6. Many killed, the rest run — Many others were killed that night; whoever could run, ran. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Ziyād ^{رضي الله عنه} agreed. They gathered in the dark and ringed the pastures, and they found the men sitting round their fires. Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya were the strongest of Kinda and had the numbers. The Muslims fell on them from five directions at once. Four brothers were killed that night — Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ, Jamad and Abḍa‘a — with their sister, al-‘Amarrada. These were "the four kings", the chiefs of Banū ‘Amr. Many others were killed; whoever could run, ran. Ziyād ^{رضي الله عنه} turned back with the property and the captives. And his road home passed al-Ash‘ath b. Qays. Al-Ash‘ath rose with his people, took the captives back, and began to gather every man he could.

Also on the page:

فَأَجَابَهُمْ إِلَى تَبَيُّتِ الْقَوْمِ، فَاجْتَمَعُوا وَطَوَّقُوهُمْ فِي مَحَارِجِهِمْ، فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ نِيرَانِهِمْ، فَأَكْبَرُوا عَلَى بَنِي > عَمْرِو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ وَالشُّوْكَةُ - مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجِهٍ، فَأَصَابُوا مِشْرَحًا وَمَخْوصًا وَجَمْدًا وَأَبْضَعَةً وَأُخْتَهُمْ > الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١ — > - الْعَمْرَدَةُ، وَأَذْرَكَتْهُمْ لَعْنَةُ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922> > English: "He agreed to the night attack. They gathered and ringed them in their pastures, and found > them sitting round their fires. They fell on Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya — who had the numbers and the > strength — from five directions, and struck down Mishraḥ, Mikhwaṣ, Jamad, Abḍa'a and their sister > al-'Amarrada; and the curse of the Prophet ﷺ overtook them."

Al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Isḥāq — four, and no sister:

سير أعلام النبلاء، ج الراشدون — > أن زيادا بينهم فقتل ملوكا أربعة: جمدا، ومخوصا ومشرحا، وأبضعة >
٦٢ ص · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1210> > English: "...that Ziyād fell on them by night and killed four kings: Jamad, Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ and > Abḍa'a."

Record both counts side by side; do not choose. The origin of the Prophet's ﷺ curse is the Kinda-delegation note; do not explain it from the floor. Ibn Khaldūn adds that the captive women cried out as they passed (ج ٢ ص ٤٩٢) — his detail, attributed to him.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Round their fires

فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ نِيرَانِهِمْ، فَأَكْبُوا عَلَى بَنِي عَمْرٍو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ وَالشَّوْكَةُ - مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجِهٍ

*"They found them sitting round their fires, and fell on Banū
'Amr b. Mu'āwiya — who had the numbers and the strength — from five directions."*

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ نِيرَانِهِمْ، فَأَكْبُوا عَلَى بَنِي عَمْرٍو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ وَالشَّوْكَةُ - مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجِهٍ

"They found them sitting round their fires, and fell on Banū 'Amr b. Mu'āwiya — who had the numbers and the strength — from five directions."

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١

عبرت — The night attack ended the four kings and brought the fifth man into the war.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-Ash‘ath b. Qays comes into it

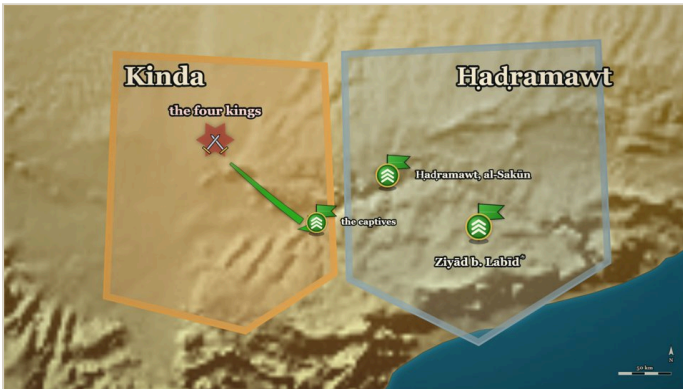

The column
the property and the captives

al-Ash‘ath b.
Qays
of the other branch

NOTE — Never cut, even if the rest of the part is. The room met him with the delegation; this is where the war becomes his

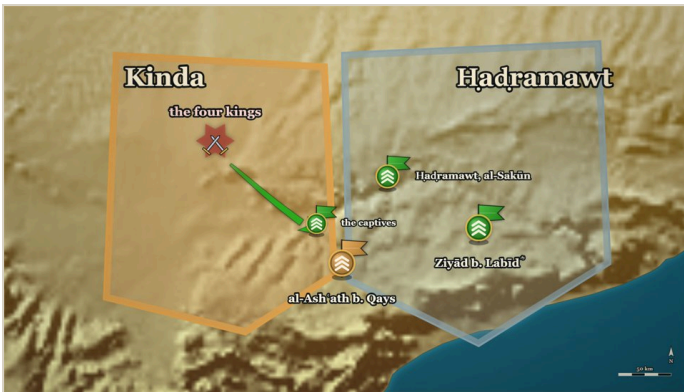

SAY —

► CLICK 1 — The column turns for home.

1. The column turns for home — Ziyād ^{زيد} with the property and the captives of the four kings.

► CLICK 2 — Its road passes one man: al-Ash‘ath b. Qays.

2. And its road passes one man — al-Ash‘ath b. Qays, who had not been in the fighting at all.

3. Who he is — Of Kinda, but not of Banū ‘Amr: a different branch from the four brothers just killed.

4. The room has met him before — He led Kinda's delegation into the Prophet's ﷺ mosque, at their head.

► CLICK 3 — He takes the captives back.

5. He rises with his people — And takes the captives back out of the column.

6. And gathers everyone he can — From here, this war is his. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

Who he is, page-cited: he led the Kinda delegation to Medina (KTK/E-KD05, and the Kinda note's pages behind it); and Ibn al-Athīr's "four kings" are of بنو عمرو بن معاوية, a different branch of Kinda from his (KTK/E-KD06). No source ties the old Kinda kingship to this ردة — say nothing that implies it (DECISIONS.md, the Kinda note §"the four kings").

⚠ This card exists because KTK/E-KD05 sits in an optional block. Without it, al-Ash‘ath walks onto the stage as a bare name and then carries seven cards. If the Kinda flashback is cut, this card is not cut.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Ziyād b. Labīd^{رضي} turned for home with the property and the captives, and the road passed al-Ash‘ath b. Qays. Up to that night he had not been in it. He is of Kinda but not of Banū ‘Amr — a different branch of the tribe from the four brothers just killed — and the room has a reason to know his name already: he is the man who had led Kinda’s own delegation into the Prophet’s ﷺ mosque, at their head, a year or so before. He rose with his people, took the captives back out of the column, and began gathering every man he could. From here the war in Ḥaḍramawt is his.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-Ash‘ath b. Qays comes into it

وَعَادَ زِيَادُ بْنُ لَبِيدٍ بِالْأَمْوَالِ وَالسَّبْيِ، وَاجْتَاوُوا بِالْأَشْعَثِ، فَتَنَارَ فِي قَوْمِهِ، فَاسْتَنْقَذَهُمْ وَجَمَعَ الْجُمُوعَ.

"Ziyād b. Labīd returned with the property and the captives, and they passed by al-Ash‘ath..."

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

وَعَادَ زِيَادُ بْنُ لَبِيدٍ بِالْأَمْوَالِ وَالسَّبْيِ، وَاجْتَاوُوا بِالْأَشْعَثِ، فَتَنَارَ فِي قَوْمِهِ، فَاسْتَنْقَذَهُمْ وَجَمَعَ الْجُمُوعَ.

"Ziyād b. Labīd returned with the property and the captives, and they passed by al-Ash‘ath; so he rose with his people, recovered them, and gathered the gatherings."

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١

عبرت — The man who had brought his tribe to the Prophet ﷺ himself is the man who now raises it against Medina — and that is not a contradiction the books explain.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The fort they had already repaired

al-Muhājir from Ṣan'ā', ahead of his army

'Ikrima
with the main body

al-Nujayr
the fort

NOTE — The march from Ṣan'ā' — al-Muhājir ahead, 'Ikrima with the main body: the road that began at al-Yamāma ends here

SAY —

1. A letter: hurry — Ziyād wrote to al-Muhājir, and the letter met him on the road.

► CLICK 1 — al-Muhājir rides ahead with the fastest men.

2. Al-Muhājir rides ahead — He handed the army to 'Ikrima and hurried on with the fastest men.

► CLICK 2 — Maḥjar al-Zurqān: Kinda breaks, and runs.

3. The battle at Maḥjar al-Zurqān — Al-Muhājir ^{ره} joined Ziyād ^{ره} and marched on Kinda; they met, and Kinda broke and ran.

► CLICK 3 — Into al-Nujayr — and ‘Ikrima ^{ره} brings up the main body. The ring closes.

4. A fort already repaired — Kinda took refuge in the fort of al-Nujayr, which they had already repaired and put in order.

5. The ring closes — The Muslims camped round it; ‘Ikrima ^{ره} came up with the main body, and the siege tightened.

6. Raids through the country — Raiding parties went out through the country after the rest.

7. The garrison sallies out — They came out to fight, lost many men, and went back in. ► NEXT SLIDE — the words: read the Arabic, then its English.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Ziyād^{رضه} wrote to al-Muhājir^{رضه} to hurry. The letter met him on the road. He handed the army to 'Ikrima^{رضه} and rode ahead with the fastest men, joined Ziyād^{رضه}, and marched on Kinda. They met at Maḥjar al-Zurqān, and Kinda broke and ran for the fort of al-Nujayr. And the book adds one detail: they had already repaired it and put it in order. The Muslims camped round it. 'Ikrima^{رضه} came up with the main body, and the siege tightened. Raiding parties went out through the country after the rest. The garrison came out to fight, lost many men, and went back in.

Also on the page:

وَكَتَبَ زِيَادٌ إِلَى الْمُهَاجِرِ يَسْتَحِثُّهُ، فَلَقِيَهُ الْكِتَابُ بِالطَّرِيقِ فَاسْتَحْلَفَ عَلَى الْجُنْدِ عِكْرِمَةَ بْنِ أَبِي جَهْلٍ، > الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١ — > وَتَعَجَّلَ فِي سَرْعَانِ النَّاسِ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922> > English: "Ziyād wrote to al-Muhājir urging him on; the letter met him on the road, and he left > 'Ikrima b. Abī Jahl in charge of the army and hurried ahead with the quickest of the men."

الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ — > فَاهْزَمَتْ كِنْدَةُ وَقُتِلَتْ، وَخَرَجُوا هُرَّابًا فَالْتَجَأُوا إِلَى التَّجِيرِ، وَقَدْ رَمَوْهُ وَأَصْلَحُوهُ > <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922> > English: "Kinda was routed and cut down; they fled and took refuge in al-Nujayr — which they had > already repaired and put in order."

Where the letter met him: الكامل says only «بالطريق»; Ibn Khaldūn says «بالمفازة بين مأرب» (ج ٢ ص ٤٩٤) — his detail, not for the map as fact. Pairs with RCT/E-RC34's map line ('Ikrima^{رضه} closing the last road).

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The fort they had already repaired

فَرَجَعُوا إِلَىٰ حِصْنِهِمْ، وَخَشَعَتِ نُفُوسُهُمْ وَخَافُوا الْقَتْلَ

"They went back into their fort; their spirits sank, and they feared death."

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

THE WORDS — the story was told on the map. Read the Arabic, then its English — and the one line.

QUOTE —

فَرَجَعُوا إِلَىٰ حِصْنِهِمْ، وَخَشَعَتِ نُفُوسُهُمْ وَخَافُوا الْقَتْلَ

"They went back into their fort; their spirits sank, and they feared death."

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١

عبرت — They had prepared the place to retreat to before they fought, and it became the place they could not leave.

11 or 12 AH, al-Nujayr

The knife at the writing

وَنَسِيَ الْأَشْعَثُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ نَفْسَهُ لِأَنَّ جَاهِدًا وَثَبَ عَلَيْهِ بِسِكِّينٍ، فَقَالَ:
تَكْتُبُنِي أَوْ أَقْتُلُكَ؟ فَكَتَبَهُ وَنَسِيَ نَفْسَهُ

"Al-Ash'ath forgot to write himself in, because Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife and said: Will you write me in, or shall I kill you?..."

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 232

NOTE — al-Kamil puts al-Nujayr in 11 AH, the Siyar in 12 — say "11 or 12 AH".

△ Ibn al-Athir gives a second telling — no knife; al-Ash'ath came down alone : say that it exists if a slip asks. Checkpoint 3 follows

SAY —

1. Al-Ash'ath comes out with nine men — The leaders inside had begun to fear for their own lives.

2. A guarantee in return for the gate — They asked Ziyād^{رضي} to guarantee them and their families, in return for opening the gate.

3. Write whatever you want — Ziyād^{رضي} agreed: write it, and bring it to me to seal.

4. Jaḥdam and the knife — As al-Ash'ath wrote, Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife: write me in, or I kill you.

5. He forgets himself — Al-Ash'ath wrote Jaḥdam in, and left his own name out.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

6. The gate is opened — Every fighting man inside was killed.

7. The document comes out — Everyone named in it was spared, and al-Ash'ath's own name was not there.

8. Al-Muhājir^{رضي} has him bound — He praised Allah that al-Ash'ath's mouth had erred, and had him bound tight.

9. Sent to Abū Bakr^{رضي} with the captives — Someone said: send him to Abū Bakr^{رضي}, who knows best the ruling on him.

QUOTE —

وَنَسِيَ الْأَشْعَثُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ نَفْسَهُ لِأَنَّ جَاهِدَمًا وَثَبَ عَلَيْهِ بِسِكِّينٍ، فَقَالَ: تَكْتُبُنِي أَوْ أَقْتُلُكَ؟ فَكَتَبَهُ وَنَسِيَ نَفْسَهُ

"Al-Ash'ath forgot to write himself in, because Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife and said: Will you write me in, or shall I kill you? So he wrote him in, and forgot himself."

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

عبرت — The decision about al-Ash'ath was not taken in anger at the gate; it was sent to the man whose job it was.

Pairs with RCT/E-RC34, whose statement opens al-Muhājir's^{رضي} sentence (الحمد لله الذي) («خطأ فاك»).

⚠ «يَا عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ» is said to a man who is later a Companion — keep it in the notes, not on a slide. Jaḥdam is named once, with no lineage (§X item 5). The page also says the fighters were beheaded after capture — «وَصَرُّوْا أَعْنَاقَهُمْ صَبْرًا».

Narrate it plainly if asked; do not enlarge it.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — When the leaders inside began to fear for their own lives, al-Ash'ath came out with nine men. They asked Ziyād^{رضي} for a guarantee for themselves and their families, in return for opening the gate. Ziyād^{رضي} said: write whatever you want, and bring it to me to seal. They wrote it. And while al-Ash'ath was writing, a man called Jaḥdam jumped at him with a knife and said: you write me in, or I kill you. Al-Ash'ath wrote him in — and forgot himself. The gate was opened. Every fighting man inside was killed. When it was over, al-Ash'ath called the men and brought out the document, and everyone named in it was spared. Al-Ash'ath's name was not there. Al-Muhājir^{رضي} had him bound. And someone said: hold him back — send him to Abū Bakr^{رضي}; he knows best what the ruling on this man is.

Also on the page:

فَخَرَجَ الْأَشْعَثُ وَمَعَهُ تِسْعَةُ تَقَرٍّ، فَطَلَبُوا مِنْ زِيَادٍ أَنْ يُؤَمِّنَهُمْ وَأَهْلِيَهُمْ عَلَى أَنْ يَفْتَحُوا لَهُ الْبَابَ. فَأَجَابَهُمْ إِلَى >
ذَلِكَ وَقَالَ: اكْتُبُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ ثُمَّ هَلُمُّوا الْكِتَابَ حَتَّى أَخْتِمَهُ. فَفَعَلُوا، وَنَسِيَ الْأَشْعَثُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ نَفْسَهُ لِأَنَّ

الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ — > جَحَدَمَا وَتَبَّ عَلَيْهِ بِسِكِّينٍ، فَقَالَ: تَكْتُبْنِي أَوْ أَقْتُلْكَ؟ فَكَتَبَهُ وَنَسِيَ نَفْسَهُ

٢٣٢ ص · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> > English: "Al-Ash'ath came out with nine men, and they asked Ziyād to guarantee them and their > households on condition that they opened the gate to him. He agreed and said: Write whatever you > want, then bring me the document so that I can seal it. They did — and al-Ash'ath forgot to write > himself in, because Jahdam leapt at him with a knife and said: Will you write me in, or shall I kill > you? So he wrote him in, and forgot himself."

فَقَالَ الْمُهَاجِرُ: الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي خَطَأَ فَأَكَّ يَا أَشْعَثُ يَا عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ! قَدْ كُنْتُ أَشْتَهِي أَنْ يُخْزِيكَ اللَّهُ! وَشَدَّهُ > الكامل — > . كِتَافًا، فَقِيلَ لَهُ: أَجْرُهُ وَسَيَرُهُ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ؛ فَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْحُكْمِ فِيهِ. فَسَيَرَهُ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ مَعَ السَّيِّ

٢٣٢ ص · فى التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> > English: "Al-Muhājir said: Praise be to Allah, who made your mouth err, Ash'ath — you enemy of > Allah! I had been longing for Allah to disgrace you! And he bound him tight. Someone said to him: > Hold him back and send him to Abū Bakr — he knows best the ruling on him. So he sent him to Abū Bakr > with the captives."

SAY — Tonight: al-Yamāma's cost, the Qur'ān, Oman and Mahra — and now Kinda, from a camel to a fort.

So far tonight

Where we stand

al-Nujayr
opened

al-Ash‘ath in bonds, for Medina

CHECKPOINT 3 — the map.

SAY — When you came in, the east was burning. Now every front we have told is settled — and one man is on his way to Medina in bonds.

🕒 Past 0:42 here → close here. The judgement at Medina opens evening 6.

CARRYING ON → say: "He had left his own name off the paper. Now he stood in front of Abū Bakr ^ﷺ ." — and click on.

OUT OF TIME → this is your ending. Stay on this map and say:

1. The mushaf the room reads from was gathered because of the men who were killed in the garden.
2. He wrote before he marched, and half the enemy stopped being the enemy.
3. The decision about al-Ash‘ath was not taken in anger at the gate; it was sent to the man whose job it was.

Then next week: "A man who had led a whole tribe out of Islam stood in front of Abū Bakr ^ﷺ , in bonds. Next week: what Abū Bakr ^ﷺ did with him."

Then a loud ^{عليكم السلام} , and the dua. Next week opens on these two slides.

12 AH, Medina

"What do you think I will do with you?"

قَالَ: إِنَّمَا وَجِبَ الصُّلْحُ بَعْدَ خْتَمِ الصَّحِيفَةِ عَلَى مَنْ فِيهَا، وَإِنَّمَا كُنْتُ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُرَاوِضًا.

"He said: The peace became binding, once the document was sealed, only on those named in it; before that you were only negotiating."

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 232

NOTE — Spare [HANDS]: ask the room the same question before the answer. △ Ten or seventy — the books differ (beat 10)

△ Her name differs: Umm Farwa in الكامل, Farwa bint Abī Quḥāfa in سير ج ٢, where he asks for the marriage after the pardon rather than having it restored. Say "Abū Bakr's ^{رب}sister". △ The number differs: ten in (في) الكامل, seventy in (عَشْرَةَ) سير — the card's narrative keeps الكامل's ten because it tells الكامل's exchange; do not reconcile them. Which "men like me" he meant is not on the page (§X item 12). Follow with POT/E-PG40 (the wedding feast in the camel market), which tells al-Dhahabī's version in its narrative.

SAY —

1. Al-Ash'ath before Abū Bakr ^{رب} — Asked what he thought would be done with him, he said he did not know.
2. Abū Bakr ^{رب} gives the answer — Then I will kill you.
3. Al-Ash'ath argues the law — I negotiated that peace for ten, he said, so my blood is not lawful.
4. Abū Bakr ^{رب} answers on the law — The answer turned on the document, and on the moment it was sealed.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

5. Fearing death, he stops arguing — Look for some good in me. Free me. Forgive my stumble. Treat me as you treated others like me.
6. Give me back my wife — He had asked for Abū Bakr's ^{رضي} sister and delayed the wedding; then the Prophet ﷺ died, and he apostatised.
7. The best man in my country — Do that, he said, and you will find me the best in my country for the religion of Allah.
8. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} spares him — He spared al-Ash'ath's life and gave him back his family.
9. Al-Dhahabī's shorter version — We will kill you. Be gracious to me, and I accept Islam. He did, and married his sister to him.
10. Ten, or seventy — Ibn al-Athīr has the peace negotiated for ten; al-Dhahabī gives seventy. The books differ.

QUOTE —

قَالَ: إِنَّمَا وَجِبَ الصُّلْحُ بَعْدَ خْتِمِ الصَّحِيفَةِ عَلَى مَنْ فِيهَا، وَإِنَّمَا كُنْتُ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُرَاوِضًا.

"He said: The peace became binding, once the document was sealed, only on those named in it; before that you were only negotiating."

— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢

عبرت — He won his life only after he stopped arguing that he was owed it.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Al-Ash'ath was brought before Abū Bakr ^{رضي}. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} asked him what he thought would be done with him. He said he did not know. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} said: then I will kill you. And al-Ash'ath argued the law. I am the man who negotiated that peace for ten, he said — my blood is not lawful. And Abū Bakr ^{رضي} answered him on the law: the peace bound only the names in the document, once it was sealed; before the seal you were a negotiator, nothing more. And when he feared he would be killed, he stopped arguing and asked. Look for some good in me. Free me. Forgive my stumble. Treat me as you have treated others like me. And give me back my wife — when he had come to the Prophet ﷺ he had asked for Abū Bakr's ^{رضي} own sister, and put the wedding off until his next visit; then the Prophet ﷺ died, and he apostatised. Do that, he said, and you will find me the best man in my country for the religion of Allah. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} spared his life and gave him back his family.

Also on the page:

فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ قَالَ لَهُ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: مَا تَرَانِي أَصْنَعُ بِكَ؟ قَالَ: لَا أَعْلَمُ. قَالَ: فَإِنِّي أَقْتُلُكَ. قَالَ: فَأَنَا الَّذِي > رَاوَضْتُ الْقَوْمَ فِي عَشْرَةِ فَمَا يَحِلُّ دَمِي. قَالَ: إِنَّمَا وَجِبَ الصُّلْحُ بَعْدَ خَتْمِ الصَّحِيفَةِ عَلَى مَنْ فِيهَا، وَإِنَّمَا كُنْتُ > <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢ — > قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُرَاوَضًا

> English: "When he reached Medina, Abū Bakr said to him: What do you think I will do with you? He > said: I do not know. He said: Then I will kill you. He said: But I am the one who negotiated with the > people for ten — so my blood is not lawful. He said: The peace became binding, once the document was > sealed, only on those named in it; before that you were only negotiating."

فَلَمَّا خَشِيَ الْقَتْلَ قَالَ: أَوْتَحَسِّبُ وَيَّ خَيْرًا، فَتُطْلَقُ إِسَارِيَّ وَتُقِيلُنِي عَثْرَتِي، وَتَفْعَلُنِي مِثْلَ مَا فَعَلْتَ بِأَمْثَالِي، > > <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢ — > وَتَرُدُّ عَلَيَّ زَوْجَتِي؟

> English: "When he feared he would be killed, he said: Or will you look for some good in me — free > me from my bonds, forgive my stumble, do with me what you have done with men like me, and give me > back my wife?"

الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ — > فَإِنْ فَعَلْتَ ذَلِكَ تَجِدُنِي خَيْرَ أَهْلِ بِلَادِي لِدِينِ اللَّهِ. فَحَقَّنَ دَمَهُ وَرَدَّ عَلَيْهِ أَهْلَهُ > > <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> · ص ٢٣٢ > English: "If you do that, you will find me the best of the people of my country for the religion > of Allah. So he spared his blood and gave him back his family."

Al-Dhahabī's shorter version (al-Nakha'ī, via Abū 'Ubayd's al-Amwāl) — a variant, kept beside the first, not in place of it:

— > فَأُتِيَ بِهِ الصِّدِّيقُ، فَقَالَ: إِنَّا قَاتِلُوكَ، لَا أَمَانَ لَكَ. فَقَالَ: مَنْ عَلَى وَأُسْلِمَ؟ قَالَ: فَفَعَلَ، وَزَوَّجَهُ أُخْتَهُ >

٣٩ ص · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2019> > English: "He was brought to al-Ṣiddīq, who said: We are going to kill you; you have no > safe-conduct. He said: Will you do me a kindness, and I become Muslim? He said: And he did so, and > married his sister to him."

12 AH, Medina

The wedding feast in the camel market

وَاللّٰهُ مَا كَفَرْتُ؛ وَلَكِنَّ هَٰذَا الرَّجُلَ زَوَّجَنِي أُخْتَهُ؛ وَلَوْ كُنَّا فِي بِلَادِنَا لَكَانَتْ لَنَا وَلِيْمَةٌ غَيْرُ هَٰذِهِ، يَا أَهْلَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ، انْحَرُوا، وَكُلُّوا! وَيَا أَهْلَ الْإِبِلِ تَعَالَوْا حُدُّوا شُرَّوَاهَا!

"By God, I have not disbelieved. This man has married his sister to me, and had we been in our own..."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 39

NOTE — Pardoned, and married to Abū Bakr's [ؓ] sister (the books differ on her name)

SAY —

1. Released, and married into the family — Abū Bakr [ؓ] showed him favour, loosed his bonds, and married his own sister to him.
2. A sword in the camel market — He drew his sword, walked into the camel market of Medina, and began hamstringing every camel and bull he saw.
3. Medina thinks he has turned again — The people shouted that he had apostatised again.
4. He throws the sword down — Then he threw the sword down and explained himself.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

QUOTE —

وَاللّٰهُ مَا كَفَرْتُ؛ وَلَكِنَّ هَٰذَا الرَّجُلَ زَوَّجَنِي أُخْتَهُ؛ وَلَوْ كُنَّا فِي بِلَادِنَا لَكَانَتْ لَنَا وَلِيْمَةٌ غَيْرُ هَٰذِهِ، يَا
أَهْلَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ، انْحَرُوا، وَكُلُّوا! وَيَا أَهْلَ الْإِبِلِ تَعَالَوْا حُدُّوا شُرَّوَاهَا!

"By God, I have not disbelieved. This man has married his sister to me, and had we been in our own country we would have had a wedding feast other than this one.

People of Medina — slaughter and eat! And owners of the camels, come and take the like of them!"

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٣٩

عبرت — A man newly forgiven will sometimes announce it in the loudest and least convenient way available to him.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — al-Ash‘ath^{رضه} had apostatised in the ridda with a number of Kinda. He was besieged, and he took safe conduct — for seventy men, and not for himself. He was brought captive to Abū Bakr^{رضه}, who told him plainly: we are going to kill you, you have no safe conduct. And he said: will you show me favour, and I become Muslim? Abū Bakr^{رضه} did, and loosed his bonds, and married his own sister to him. So al-Ash‘ath^{رضه} drew his sword, walked into the camel market of Medina, and began hamstringing every camel and every bull he saw, while the people shouted that he had apostatised again. Then he threw the sword down and explained himself.

Years later: al-Qādisiyya, Nahāwand

"We suspected three men"

ولقد اتهمنا ثلاثة نفر، فما رأينا كما هجمنا عليهم من أمانتهم وزهدهم:
طليحة بن خويلد الأسدي، وعَمْرُو بن معدي كرب، وقيس بن المكشوح.

"We did suspect three men — and when we came upon them we found nothing to match their trustworthiness..."

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 243

NOTE — Beat 1 frames the forward reference — al-Qādisiyya and Nahāwand are evenings still ahead

△ The saying comes through Sayf b. 'Umar — say "Ibn Kathīr records that Jābir ^{رضي} said". △ SPEAKER'S DISCRETION on Qays: no honorific — no page here states his Companionship. Stop at the Yarmūk and Nahāwand; both al-Ash'ath's and Qays's notices go on to Şiffin, which is not this session. Close with POT/E-PG41 («إِنَّ هَذَا لَمْ يَرْتَدَّ، وَإِنِّي ارْتَدَدْتُ»). Hand-off: al-Ash'ath's later house is the third sister note. Also on the page:

△ The same notice goes on to say Qays was killed at Şiffin among 'Ali's ^{رضي} commanders — that clause is not quoted here and does not go into this session. The books differ on Qays: «(ارتدَّ عن الإسلام) (البدايه ج ٧ ص ٤٢)» against a notice that is silent on it (سير ج ٣ ص ٥٢٠). Record both; decide nothing.

SAY —

1. A look ahead, and say so — The next four names are battles this course reaches in later evenings; note only that these men are in them.
2. Three men of this evening go north — Qays, 'Amr ^{رضي} and al-Ash'ath ^{رضي} are met again at the Yarmūk, al-Qādisiyya and Nahāwand.

3. Sent to call Rustam to Islam — Al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} and ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib^{رضي} were among the men Sa‘d^{رضي} sent before al-Qādisiyya.

4. Qays commands the left wing — He fought at the Yarmūk, came east with reinforcements from Syria, and commanded the left at al-Qādisiyya.

5. An eye each at the Yarmūk — Qays and al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} each lost an eye at the Yarmūk.

6. Side by side at Nahāwand — Ibn Kathīr lists ‘Amr^{رضي}, Qays and Ṭulayḥa^{رضي} among the leading men of the army.

7. What Jābir^{رضي} swore — Ibn Kathīr records that Jābir^{رضي} swore: we found no one at al-Qādisiyya wanting this world with the next.

8. Three men were suspected — They had suspected three men of wanting this world.

9. They looked into the three — And when they looked, they found nothing to match their honesty and their indifference to this world.

^ read the Arabic on the face here

10. Who the three were — Ṭulayḥa^{رضي}, who had claimed prophethood; ‘Amr^{رضي}, who had followed al-Aswad; Qays, who had turned on the Abnā’.

11. Two books on Qays — Ibn Kathīr says Qays left Islam; al-Dhahabī’s notice of him, a commander known for courage, does not mention it.

QUOTE —

ولقد اتهمنا ثلاثة نفر، فما رأينا كما هجمنا عليهم من أمانتهم وزهدهم: طليحة بن خويلد الأسدي، وعُمرو بن معدي كرب، وقيس بن المكشوح.

"We did suspect three men — and when we came upon them we found nothing to match their trustworthiness and their abstinence: Ṭulayḥa b. Khuwaylid al-Asadi, ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib, and Qays b. al-Makshūḥ."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٢٤٣

عبرت — The army kept watching the men who had once turned, and the watching found nothing; both of those facts are in the record.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — Three of the men of this evening went north. Al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} and ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib^{رضي} were in the delegation Sa‘d^{رضي} sent to call Rustam to Islam before al-Qādisiyya. Qays b. Makshūḥ fought at the Yarmūk, came east with the reinforcements from Syria, and commanded the left wing at al-Qādisiyya. Qays and al-Ash‘ath[ؓ] each lost an eye at the Yarmūk. At Nahāwand, Ibn Kathīr lists ‘Amr[ؓ], Qays and Ṭulayḥa[ؓ] side by side among the leading men of the army. And he records what Jābir b. ‘Abd Allāh[ؓ] swore about the army at al-Qādisiyya. He said they had suspected three men of wanting this world — and when they looked into those three, they found nothing to match their honesty and their indifference to it. The three names are Ṭulayḥa, who had claimed prophethood; ‘Amr[ؓ], who had followed al-Aswad; and Qays, who had turned on the Abnā’.

ثم بعث سعد جماعة من السادات منهم النعمان بن مقرن، وفرات بن حثان، وحظلة بن الربيع التميمي، > وعطار بن حاجب، والأشعث بن قيس، والمغيرة بن شعبة، وعمرو بن معد يكرب، يدعون رستم إلى الله > — البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣٣ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3279> > English: "Then Sa’d sent a group of the leading men — among them al-Nu’mān b. Muqarrin, Furāt b. > Ḥayyān, Ḥanzala b. al-Rabī‘ al-Tamīmī, Uṭārid b. Ḥājib, al-Ash‘ath b. Qays, al-Mughīra b. Shu‘ba > and ‘Amr b. Ma’dī Karib — to call Rustam to Allah."

وعلى الميسرة قيس بن مكشوح، وكان قيس والمغيرة بن شعبة قد قدما على سعد مدداً من عند أبي عبيدة > البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ١٣٩ — > من الشام بعدما شهدا وقعة اليرموك ·

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3285> > English: "And over the left wing, Qays b. Makshūḥ. Qays and al-Mughīra b. Shu‘ba had come to Sa’d as > reinforcements from Abū ‘Ubayda in Syria, after they had fought at the Yarmūk."

ما اطلعنا على أحدٍ من أهل القادسية يريد الدنيا مع الآخرة، ولقد اتهمنا ثلاثة نفرٍ، فما رأينا كما هجمنا > — > عليهم من أمانتهم وزهدهم: طليحة بن خويلد الأسدي، وعمر بن معد يكرب، وقيس بن المكشوح > — البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٢٤٣ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3389> > English: "[Jābir b.

‘Abd Allāh said, on oath:] We never came upon anyone among the men of > al-Qādisiyya who wanted this world along with the next. We did suspect three men — and when we came > upon them we found nothing to match their trustworthiness and their abstinence: Ṭulayḥa b. Khuwaylid > al-Asadī, ‘Amr b. Ma’dī Karib, and Qays b. al-Makshūḥ."

Al-Dhahabi's whole notice on Qays b. Makshūḥ — it does not mention the ridda at all:

الأمير، أبو حسان المرادي، من وُجوه العرب الموصوفين بالشجاعة. وكان ممن أعان على قتل الأسود > · سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٣ ص ٥٢٠ — > العنسي، وقُلت عيشة يوم اليرموك ·

<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/3128> > English: "The commander, Abū Ḥassān al-Murādī, one of the notable Arabs known for courage. He was > among those who helped kill al-Aswad al-'Ansī, and his eye was put out on the day of the Yarmūk."

Kinda: the kingdom before Islam, and the house of al-Ash'ath

Source note: [kinda-the-kingdom-before-islam-and-the-house-of-al-ashath.md] (../docs/research/kinda-the-kingdom-before-islam-and-the-house-of-al-ashath.md) — read it for the pages behind these cards.

Years later

This man did not apostatise, and I did

إِنَّ هَذَا لَمْ يَرْتَدَّ، وَإِنِّي ارْتَدَدْتُ.

"This man did not apostatise. And I did."

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 40

NOTE — Closes on a man who came back. The close follows

SAY —

1. He steps back at a funeral — At a funeral, al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} stepped back and put Jarīr b. ‘Abd Allāh^{رضي} forward to lead the prayer.
2. Somebody asks him why — He gave the reason in six words.
^ read the Arabic on the face here
3. Said in public, years afterwards — Forgiven, married into al-Ṣiddīq's^{رضي} family, made a commander, and he still said it of himself.

QUOTE —

إِنَّ هَذَا لَمْ يَرْتَدَّ، وَإِنِّي ارْتَدَدْتُ.

"This man did not apostatise. And I did."

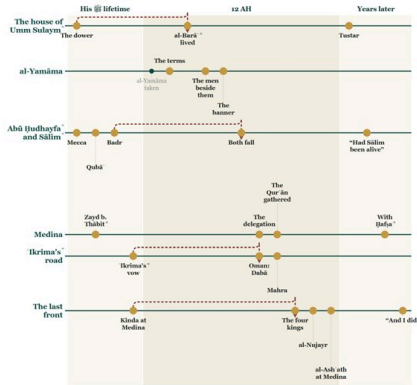

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٠

عبرت — A man who will say the worst thing about himself out loud has taken its power away from everybody else.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — At a funeral where both men were standing, al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} b. Qays stepped back and put Jarīr b. ‘Abd Allāh^{رضي} forward to lead the prayer. Somebody asked him why, and he gave the reason in six words. He had been forgiven, married into the Şiddîq 's own family, and made a commander; and he still said this about himself in public, years afterwards.

Tonight on the Line

THE CLOSE — the Line.

SAY — Tonight began at the forts of al-Yamāma, with what was signed. We went into two houses — Umm Sulaym's , and Abū Ḥudhayfa's and Sālim's — and came out on the field where their men fell, and at Medina, where their deaths became the reason the Qur'an was gathered. And then one man's road: 'Ikrima , through Oman and Mahra to the last front.

12 AH

Where we stand

Tonight

Oman, Mahra, and the last front

Next week

Bahrayn, told as
'meanwhile'

SAY — When you came in, al-Yamāma had just been taken, and the east was burning.

► CLICK 1 — Oman and Mahra, settled.

► CLICK 2 — Ḥaḍramawt — the last front — settled.

► CLICK 3 — And the road one man rode through all of it: ‘Ikrima^١, from al-Yamāma to al-Nujayr.

Tonight

- | How the day ended
- | The house of Umm Sulaym[ؓ]
- | The Qur'ān gathered
- | 'Ikrima's [ؓ] road
- | The last front

TONIGHT — say each heading, then its line:

1. How the day ended — The terms took their weapons and their wealth, and left them their lives.
2. The house of Umm Sulaym[ؓ] — She made him say the ruling before she told him it was his own case.
3. The Qur'ān gathered — The mushaf the room reads from was gathered because of the men who were killed in the garden.
4. 'Ikrima's [ؓ] road — He wrote before he marched, and half the enemy stopped being the enemy.
5. The last front — A man who will say the worst thing about himself out loud has taken its power away from everybody else.

Next week

Sixteen riders left Medina for Bahrayn. By the time they reached it they were an army. How?

Ask it, and pause. Then a loud السلام عليكم — and the dua. The room must know it has ended.