

Evening 4 — al-Buṭāḥ and al-Yamāma: speaker briefing

Read this twice at home. Never at the lectern — the lectern carries CUE.pdf.

The evening. Parts I–IV of `RUNSHEET.md`, 55 cards, ending at STOP C (Daniyal's cut, 2026-09-22). It opens on evening 3's STOP B closing pair, unchanged — the Line at 11–12 AH with Yemen settled, and the map with Ṣan'ā' blue and Ḥaḍramawt still grey — and turns back north to Khālīd^{رضي}, last seen at Buzākha. Ḥaḍramawt stays grey tonight. Part I introduces the two claimants still standing, Musaylima and Sajāḥ, so that nothing later has to refer forward. Part II is al-Buṭāḥ and the reckoning at Medina. Part III is the road to al-Yamāma, and ends with a prisoner in irons in Khālīd's^{رضي} own tent. Part IV is the day at 'Aqrabā', up to the order to separate out: the line has re-formed, every clan under its own banner, and the day is not yet decided. That is where the evening is planned to end, and its two closing slides open evening 5.

And behind that close, Part V (#47): the rest of the day — the garden, the end of Musaylima, the terms at the forts, Zayd^{رضي}, and the order at Medina that gathered the Qur'ān. It is spoken only if there is time. The STOP C closing set stays in the deck where it is, so stopping needs no jump; going on is one typed slide number, and the cue sheet prints it.

Size and pace. About 96 minutes as budgeted, for 34 story minutes. Evening 3 spoke 32 cards in the slot, so this is sized to the room's real pace, not the budget. The clock on the cue sheet is the budget scaled to that pace. If the clock runs ahead of the cards, drop GOOD cards in this order: #5, #4, #18, #21, #30, and #2 last — #26 closes the loop #2 opens. Part II is all or nothing — #7 to #15, or none of it.

The bridges. Five slides are not cards: they close the seams where the story jumps in time, place or thread. Each shows three steps; say the line, then click on.

- Before #1 — Tonight: back to the north: While the south was being settled, the war in the north had never stopped. Two claimants were still standing: Musaylima of Banū Ḥanīfa at al-Yamāma, and Sajāḥ, coming down from al-Jazīra. We meet them first, before the armies reach them.

- Before #7 — After Buzākha: We left Khālīd^{رض} at Buzākha. His orders, tied at Dhū al-Qaṣṣa, were Ṭulayḥa first — and when he had finished, Mālīk b. Nuwayra^{رض} at al-Buṭāḥ, if he held out against him. Buzākha was done. So the army turns towards al-Buṭāḥ.
- Before #16 — Back to the mosque, 11 AH: That consolation came years later, in ‘Umar’s^{رض} own caliphate. Now back to 11 AH, and to the mosque at Medina where we left Khālīd^{رض} being answered for — and then sent straight out again.
- Before #17 — Meanwhile, at al-Yamāma: Khālīd^{رض} was not the first to be sent against Musaylima. Back at Dhū al-Qaṣṣa one of the eleven banners had gone to ‘Ikrima^{رض}, with Shuraḥbīl^{رض} sent after him — and both reached al-Yamāma before Khālīd^{رض} did. Here is what happened to them.
- Before #32 — Past the close: the day is decided: We have just closed, and we are going on. Where we left it: the line had re-formed, every clan under its own banner, and the day was not decided. Now it is decided — and what comes out of it is the reason you can hold a muṣḥaf tonight.
- Before #37 — The men who did not come back: We met these three at the line: Sālīm^{رض} with the banner of the Muhājirūn, and on the wings Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رض} and Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض}. All three were killed on that field. Now we go back to the banner itself — because what the books put next to the order given at Medina is what happened to the man holding it.
- Before #44 — The same field, the men beside them: That is the banner. But the banner is not the whole line. The books go through that field name by name, and what they record is not a casualty list — it is households. Here are some of them.
- Before #52 — And one man who lived: One more, and he is the one who lived. The man who asked to be thrown over the wall of the garden came out of it with eighty-odd wounds, and Khālīd^{رض} stayed a month treating him. Here is what was said about him afterwards.
- Before #21 — Where we are: After the worksheet — and for anyone who has just come in. Khālīd^{رض} was called to Medina over al-Buṭāḥ and kept in command. The two commanders sent ahead of him were both beaten. Forty thousand men of Banū Ḥanīfa wait at ‘Aqrabā’, with their farms behind them — and there is a prisoner in Khālīd’s^{رض} own tent. Morning comes.

The early closes. STOP A falls after #15 (‘Umar^{رض} and Mutammim); STOP B after #20 (the prisoner in the tent). Their closing sets are hidden at the end of the deck: in the slide show, type 94 and Enter for STOP A, 98 and Enter for STOP B. If the clock is past 0:36 at #20, close at STOP B. On the room's pace STOP B is also where the worksheet falls: take the 90 silent seconds there, then open Part IV. If instead the clock is kind, type 56 at the STOP C close and go on into Parts V–VIII, which end at STOP D. You are not expected to reach the end of them. If time runs out anywhere in there, do not hurry: type 89, take the muṣḥaf card and the close, and whatever was not reached opens evening 5.

Parts VI–VIII — the dead of al-Yamāma (#36–#55). This is what makes the ending land, and it is built to be stopped in the middle. The books give one reason for the جمع القرآن — that the killing ran hot among the reciters — and until the room has met a reciter that is a sentence, not a loss. Part IV has already put three of these men at the line (#28–#30).

- Part VI, the banner (#36–#43): it falls from Zayd^{رض} and Sālim^{رض} picks it up (#36); Sālim^{رض} is one of four the Prophet ﷺ named to take the Qurʾān from (#37); the pit (#38); both hands, and the āya Abū Bakr^{رض} read to Medina the year before (#39); lay me down between them (#40); how they were found (#41); ‘Umar^{رض} eleven years later (#42); the estate sent back (#43).
- Part VII, the men beside them (#44–#51): the مؤاخاة pairs who died together, Ma‘n^{رض}, the man who killed Zayd^{رض} and became a Muslim, Abū ‘Aqīl^{رض}, the son of the head of the hypocrites, four men of one Meccan household, Ḥabīb b. Zayd^{رض} and his mother, and al-Ṭufayl^{رض} and his son.
- Part VIII, what was left (#52–#55): the man who went over the wall and lived, the number nobody can give, and the order at Medina. #55 is the last word in every version of the evening.

Nothing here is compressed to fit. Whatever is not reached rolls into evening 5 (DECISIONS.md #20, #33), which still owes the room Ḥaḍramawt and Kinda.

Part II — how it is told. al-Buṭāḥ and the reckoning at Medina (#7–#15) sits next to the disputes among the Companions. It is told straight, and it is told as a disagreement between books, never as a verdict. The guardrail installed in session 1 is what makes it tellable: a report of history is neither a ruling nor a creed, and we do not judge between Companions. The only verdicts on the page are Abū Bakr's^{رض}, that Khālīd^{رض} interpreted and was mistaken (#13), and Ibn Kathīr's own sentence (#14) — neither is the speaker's. Close the part on consolation, not on blame (#15). No questions from the floor. Slips go into the box; the prepared answers are in docs/catalogue/QA_BANK.md §6.1, §6.2 and §6.9, the last being the entry on the woman in Khālīd's^{رض} tent at al-Yamāma (DECISIONS.md #41): the books give the same name in both places, and the connection is not made from the platform.

Say once, inside the story — at #10, as the patrol falls out. This is where a listener asks "how do we know?", and the answer is the card itself: the disagreement is not between later historians, it is between the men who were standing there. Abū Qatāda^{رضي} testified that they had established the prayer; others in the same patrol said they had neither given the adhān nor prayed; and the books record both. So at #11 the four accounts go side by side, and we say what the card says: the books do not agree, and where they do not agree we record and we stop.

Things never to do.

- Do not choose one of the four accounts of the night at al-Buṭāḥ and tell it as what happened, and do not offer a defence or a charge that the books do not make.
- Never speak the cooking-pot detail (al-Bidāya, vol. 7 p. 31). Graphic, adds nothing, turns an evening.
- Never read, paraphrase or allude to the narrative of the two claimants' meeting (al-Bidāya, vol. 7 pp. 29–30). End Sajāḥ on her Islam in 'Umar's^{رضي} days.
- Do not connect the widow at al-Buṭāḥ with the woman in Khālīd's^{رضي} tent at 'Aqrabā'. The books give the same name; the connection is not made from the platform (`DECISIONS.md` #41).
- At #15, do not say where Zayd^{رضي} fell. #28 tells it, later the same evening.
- At #20, say "forty to sixty riders". Do not fix a number.
- At #22, say "one of their leaders". Three books name three men; do not pick.
- At #24, do not use the ḥadīth attached to al-Rajjāl b. 'Unfuwa — the editor marks its chain very weak.
- At #21, no banner diagram. Three books arrange the same men three ways: name the men.
- At #5, say "the price he paid", not "dowry" (`QA_BANK.md` §6.10). The face quotation ends before «إلى زمان معاوية» and beat 5 says "for many years": the room has not met him. Never "a later caliph" — it calls him caliph, which takes a side on khilāfa and mulk evenings before it is handled.
- At #30, the watchword «يا محمداه» is off the face and off the cue: say it only as the army's battle-cry, recorded as history, or not at all (`QA_BANK.md` §6.11).
- Four hands-up are asked BEFORE the click: #10 (the face shows both testimonies), and the maps before #6, #17 and #31, which show the answer. The notes say so on each slide.

- The cards give Mujjā' a b. Murāra, Mutammim and Sajāh no honorific. Do not add one.
- Part V, #32: al-Barā' ^{رضي} LIVED — eighty-odd wounds, and Khālid ^{رضي} stayed a month treating them. Ibn Khaldūn seems to list him among the killed; the Siyar contradicts it. Never say he died there.
- Part V, #33: say "a second man came up" — the books name different men (QA_BANK.md §5.3) — and do not use the Siyar line about "the best of the people of the earth and the worst".
- Part V, #33: naming Waḥshī ^{رضي} as the man who killed Ḥamza ^{رضي} invites the obvious question. The prepared answer is QA_BANK.md §7.10: he was not a Muslim then, the Prophet ﷺ accepted his Islam, and the same spear killed Musaylima. Do not weigh or rank.
- What is still held for evening 5, and is in this deck nowhere — not even in Part V: Ḥaḍramawt and Kinda; Thumāma's ^{رضي} own story (one sentence of him at #6, no more); Bahrayn and Dārīn; and Ibn Kathīr's summing up of the whole war, which belongs after the last front, not before it.

Part I — The two claimants still standing (10–12 AH)

1. Musaylima's letter, and the reply

Runsheets: The note's own judgement: the best pair in the strand. [HANDS] 1: "A man writes to the Prophet ﷺ proposing terms. What do you think he asks for?" — ask at beat 1

Tier: CORE — the note's own judgement is that this is the best pair in the strand ·

When: آخر سنة عشر [SOURCED] · Map: One line from اليمامة to المدينة and one back. Two documents side by side on the screen, nothing else.

What happened: Musaylima wrote to the Prophet ﷺ. The letter does not argue about revelation at all. It proposes a partition: I have been given a share in the matter with you, half the matter is ours and half is Quraysh's — but Quraysh are a people who transgress. The reply is on the same page, and it refuses the premise rather than the arithmetic. The earth belongs to Allah; He gives it in inheritance to whom He wills of His servants; and the outcome is for those who fear Him. The book dates the exchange to the end of the year 10.

Beats:

1. A letter comes from al-Yamāma — He writes as if to an equal: from Musaylima, 'messenger of Allah', to Muḥammad ﷺ.
2. What it actually proposes — Not a revelation: a partition. Half the matter ours, half Quraysh's.
3. "But Quraysh are a people who transgress" — The complaint is about a tribe, not about a religion.
4. The reply refuses the premise — Not the arithmetic: the earth belongs to Allah.
5. "He gives it in inheritance to whom He wills" — And the outcome is for those who fear Him.
6. The date — The book puts the exchange at the end of the year 10.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

من مُسَيَّلَمَةَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ إِلَى مُحَمَّدٍ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ، سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكَ، أَمَا بَعْدُ، فَإِنِّي قَدْ أَشْرَكْتُ فِي الْأَمْرِ مَعَكَ، فَإِنَّ لَنَا نِصْفَ الْأَمْرِ، وَلِقُرَيْشٍ نِصْفَ الْأَمْرِ، وَلَكِنْ قُرَيْشًا قَوْمٌ يَعْتَدُونَ.

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٥ ص ٢٤ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/2208>

English: "From Musaylima the Messenger of Allah, to Muḥammad the Messenger of Allah. Peace be upon you. To proceed: I have been given a share in the matter with you. Half the matter is ours and half the matter is Quraysh's — but Quraysh are a people who transgress."

And the reply, same page:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ، مِنْ مُحَمَّدٍ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ، إِلَى مُسَيَّلِمَةَ الْكَذَّابِ، سَلَامٌ عَلَى مَنْ اتَّبَعَ الْهُدَى، أَمَّا بَعْدُ، فَإِنَّ الْأَرْضَ لِلَّهِ يُورِثُهَا مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ وَالْعَاقِبَةُ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ.

— البدایہ والنہایہ ج ۵ ص ۲۴ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/2208>

English: "In the name of Allah, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate. From Muḥammad the Messenger of Allah, to Musaylima the liar. Peace be upon whoever follows the guidance. To proceed:

the earth belongs to Allah; He gives it in inheritance to whomever He wills of His servants; and the outcome is for those who fear Him."

عبرت: One document divides the country between two tribes, and the other answers that the country belongs to neither of them.

Hands-up? Before telling it: "A man writes to the Prophet ﷺ proposing terms. What do you think he asks for?" $\triangle$ The editor footnotes a variant wording of the letter — «الأرض نصف» (مجموعة الوثائق السياسية ٢٠٥). Note both; never merge them into one.

2. Musaylima at Medina, and the piece of palm-branch

Runsheet: ٤٣٧٣ صحيح البخاري. Thābit b. Qays ^{رضي} is standing beside the Prophet ﷺ here — name him, and say nothing more. He comes back at #26

Tier: GOOD · When: in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime [SOURCED] — صحيح البخاري ٤٣٧٣ ·

Map: n/a.

What happened: Musaylima came to Medina while the Prophet ﷺ was alive, with a large number of his own people, and kept saying that if Muḥammad ﷺ would make the succession his, he would follow him. The Prophet ﷺ came out to him with Thābit b. Qays b. Shammās ^{رضي}, and there was a piece of a palm-branch in his hand. And what he said to him was about that piece.

Beats:

1. He came to Medina himself — While the Prophet ﷺ was alive, with a large number of his own people.

2. What he kept saying — Make the succession mine, and I will follow you.
3. The Prophet ﷺ came out to him — With Thābit b. Qays b. Shammās^{رض} beside him.
4. There was a piece of palm-branch in his hand — And what he said to him was about that piece.
5. "If you asked me for this, I would not give it to you" — The claim was refused while it was still a request.
6. Remember the man standing beside him — Thābit b. Qays^{رض}. The room will meet him again.

Quote after beat: 5

The statement:

لو سألتني هذه القطعة ما أعطيتها، ولن تعدو أمر الله فيك، ولن أدبر ليعقرنك الله

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٥ ص ٢١ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/2205> — صحيح البخاري ٤٣٧٣ via

ابن عباس^{رض}

English: "If you asked me for this piece, I would not give it to you. You will not pass beyond Allah's decree concerning you. And if you turn away, Allah will surely destroy you."

عبرت: The claim was refused while it was still only a request, years before it had to be fought.

Hands-up? no

Cross-reference: the Companion standing beside the Prophet ﷺ in this scene, ثابت بن قيس, is the man killed carrying the banner of the Anṣār at اليمامة against this same claimant (٣٣-٣٤ ج ٧ ص ٣٣) — carded in rida-campaign-the-conduct-of-the-wars.md. If both cards are used, put this one first and let the room make the connection.

3. The man who followed Musaylima knowing he was lying Runsheet: Rabī'a and Muḍar. The most efficient sentence in the strand

Tier: CORE · When: اليمامة, ١٢هـ–١١هـ [SOURCED] · Map: not a map — two trunk names on the screen, ربيعة and مُضَر, with the fork shown one level below عدنان, so the room can see that both sides of this sentence are northern Arabs.

What happened: A bedouin said to Musaylima's face that he bore witness Musaylima was a liar and that Muḥammad ﷺ was truthful. And then he said the rest of it. But a liar of Rabī'a, he said, is dearer to us than a truthful man of Muḍar. He followed him, and he was killed with him at 'Aqrabā'. Banū Ḥanīfa are of Rabī'a and Quraysh are of Muḍar, and both trunks are 'Adnānī. So the fault line is not only north against south. It forks again, one level down.

Beats:

1. A bedouin speaks to Musaylima's face — And tells him what he actually thinks of the claim.
2. "I bear witness that you are a liar" — And that Muḥammad ﷺ is truthful.
3. And then the rest of it — But a liar of Rabī'a is dearer to us than a truthful man of Muḍar.
4. Both trunks are northern Arabs — Banū Ḥanīfa of Rabī'a, Quraysh of Muḍar, and both of 'Adnān.
5. He followed him anyway — Knowing, by his own words, that he was following a liar.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

فقال أشهد أنك كذاب وأن محمدًا صادق، ولكن كذاب ربيعة أحبُّ إلينا من صادق مُضَر

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٧ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3183>

English: "He said: I bear witness that you are a liar and that Muḥammad is truthful — but a liar of Rabī'a is dearer to us than a truthful man of Muḍar."

عبرت: A man can know which of two claims is true and still act on which of two families is his.

Hands-up? no

Note: the clause that follows on the page carries Ibn Kathīr's own imprecation against the man; the quotation stands complete without it. This is the most efficient sentence in the whole strand — the tribal principle stated by a man who admits the religious claim is false.

4. Sajāḥ — who she actually was Runsheet: △ she is Taghlibī, not Tamīmī. She deals with Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رض} here — that is what #8 picks up

Tier: GOOD · When: ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: An arrow from الجزيرة in the far north, down into نجد, on to اليمامة, and then back north again. It never reaches Medina.

What happened: Sajāḥ bint al-Ḥārith came down from al-Jazīra with troops of her own people and whoever had joined them, having claimed prophethood — and, the book says, they had resolved on making war on Abū Bakr^{رض}. She was of Taghlib, and she was of the Christians of the Arabs. She was not of Tamīm, which is only the tribe she gathered on the way. When she passed through the country of Banū Tamīm she called them to her cause and most of them answered — Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رض} among them, and ‘Uṭārid b. Ḥājib, and a number of the chiefs of Tamīm. Others of them held back.

Beats:

1. She comes down from al-Jazīra — With troops of her own people and whoever had joined them.
2. She had claimed prophethood — And, the book says, they had resolved on making war on Abū Bakr^{رض}.
3. Who she actually was — Of Taghlib, and of the Christians of the Arabs.
4. Not of Tamīm — Tamīm is only the tribe she gathered on the way.
5. Most of Tamīm answered her — Including Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رض}, ‘Uṭārid b. Ḥājib and a number of chiefs.
6. Others held back — The tribe split, as tribes did all through this war.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

إذ أقبلت سجاح بنت الحارث بن سويد بن عقفان التغلبية من الجزيرة، وهي من نصارى العرب، وقد ادّعت النبوة

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٢٨ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3174>

English: "...when Sajāḥ bint al-Ḥārith b. Suwayd b. 'Aqfān al-Taghlibiyya came forward from al-Jazīra — and she was of the Christians of the Arabs — having claimed prophethood."

عبرت: The tribe that supplied her following was not the tribe she came from, and the book is careful to say so.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page — a verse said about it by 'Uṭārid b. Ḥājib, one of the men who had answered her: «وَأَصْبَحَتْ أَنْبِيَاءُ النَّاسِ ذُكْرَانًا ... أَمَسْتُ نَبِيَّتَنَا أَنْثَى نُطِيفُ بِهَا» — "our prophetess has become a woman we circle around, while the prophets of other people are men." [⚠]

Correction recorded, because two existing artifacts have it wrong: she is Taghlibī, not Tamīmī. It is مالك بن نويرة ^{رضي} who is التميمي اليربوعي ($6.2 item 3). [⚠] مالك بن نويرة is named here only as one of the men who answered her call, which is what the page says. What happened to him afterwards at البطح is مشاجرات-adjacent, is carded separately in rida-campaign-the-conduct-of-the-wars.md under [⚠] SPEAKER'S DISCRETION, and must not be opened from this card.

5. What her claim was worth to the other claimant

Runsheet: [⚠] the narrative at ج ٧ ص ٢٩-٣٠ is obscene and must not be read, paraphrased or alluded to. Say "the price he paid", not "dowry". End on her Islam in 'Umar's ^{رضي} days. Prepared answer: QA_BANK.md $6.10

Tier: GOOD · When: ١١ هـ, at اليمامة, and afterwards [\[SOURCED\]](#) · Map: her arrow reaches الجزيرة, turns, and goes back north to اليمامة.

What happened: The two claimants met at al-Yamāma, and he bought her off. She took half the kharāj of his land and turned back to her own country, and she stayed among her people, Banū Taghlib, until the time of Mu'āwiya ^{رضي}. The dowry he paid her was the remission of two of the five prayers — the dawn prayer and the night prayer. That is what one claim to prophethood was worth to the other. And al-Suhaylī, whom Ibn Kathīr quotes, records that she became Muslim in the days of ‘Umar b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رضي}, and that her Islam was good.

Beats:

1. The two claimants meet at al-Yamāma — The northern claim and the Yamāma claim, in one place.
2. He bought her off — She took half the kharāj of his land.
3. The price he paid — The remission of two of the five prayers: the dawn and the night prayer.
4. What that tells you — That is what one claim to prophethood was worth to the other.
5. She went home — Back north to al-Jazīra, and stayed among Banū Taghlib for many years.
6. And afterwards — She became Muslim in ‘Umar's^{رضي} days, and her Islam was good. End the card here.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

ثم انشئت سَجَاحَ راجعةً إلى بلادها ... فكرّرت راجعةً إلى الجزيرة بعدما قبضت من
مسيلمة نصفَ خراج أرضه، فأقامت في قومها بني تَغْلِب، إلى زمان معاوية

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٣٠ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3176>

English: "Then Sajāḥ turned back to her own country ... she went back to al-Jazīra after she had taken from Musaylima half the kharāj of his land, and she stayed among her people, Banū Taghlib, until the time of Mu‘āwiya."

عبرت: A claim that could be settled for half a land-tax was priced by the man who bought it.

Hands-up? no

And afterwards — البداية ج ٥ ص ٢٤ (<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/2208>), Ibn Kathīr quoting السهيلي: «وقد أسلمت هي أيضاً أيام عُمر بن الخطاب، فحسن إسلامها» — "and she too became Muslim in the days of 'Umar b. al-Khaṭṭāb, and her Islam was good." End the card here, not on the withdrawal — the note flags this as the resolution the room should be given. ⚠ The narrative of that meeting at ج ٧ ص ٢٩ contains explicitly obscene material. It must not be read, paraphrased, or alluded to in the hall. The usable fact is exactly the one clean sentence above: he bought her off, and the dowry he paid was two of the five prayers.

6. There were Muslims inside al-Yamāma already Runsheets: Thumāma رثمة, of Banū Ḥanīfa itself. Answers the question the room is about to ask · [HANDS] spare

Tier: CORE · When: ١ هـ, before Khālid رثمة arrived [SOURCED] · Map: Inside the al-Yamāma country, a second, small blue marker beside the large red one — Thumāma رثمة and the men with him, and Shuraḥbīl رثمة on the road outside.

What happened: Musaylima was not facing one army. Thumāma b. Uthāl al-Ḥanafī رثمة — of Banū Ḥanīfa itself, Musaylima's own tribe — had been fighting him, with reinforcements reaching him from Tamīm, until 'Ikrima b. Abī Jahl رثمة came up to him. And when Sajāḥ turned toward al-Yamāma, what Musaylima feared was not her: it was that if she tied him up, Thumāma رثمة and Shuraḥbīl b. Ḥasana رثمة and the tribes around them would take Ḥajr — which is the town of al-Yamāma — out from under him. So the question a listener is about to ask is already answered: there were Muslims of Banū Ḥanīfa fighting Musaylima before any army arrived from Medina.

Beats:

1. Musaylima was not facing one army — He had a war inside his own country before Khālid رثمة set out.
2. Thumāma b. Uthāl رثمة — Of Banū Ḥanīfa itself, Musaylima's own tribe, and fighting him.
3. Reinforcements from Tamīm — They reached Thumāma رثمة until 'Ikrima رثمة came up to him.
4. What Musaylima actually feared from Sajāḥ — Not her army: being tied up while the town was taken.
5. Ḥajr, which is al-Yamāma — Thumāma رثمة, Shuraḥbīl رثمة and the tribes around them could have taken it.

6. So the answer is on the page — Men of Banū Ḥanīfa were fighting Musaylima before Medina's army arrived.

Quote after beat: 5

The statement:

فَخَافَ إِنْ هُوَ شُغِلَ بِهَا أَنْ يَغْلِبَ ثُمَامَةُ وَشُرَحْبِيلُ بْنُ حَسَنَةَ وَالْقَبَائِلُ الَّتِي حَوْلَهُمْ عَلَى حَجْرٍ، وَهِيَ الْيَمَامَةُ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/901> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢١٠

English: "He feared that if he were occupied with her, Thumāma and Shurahbīl b. Ḥasana and the tribes around them would overcome Ḥajr — which is al-Yamāma."

عبرت: The men who held out against him were of his own tribe, and they were holding out before any help came.

Hands-up? Before beat 1: "Forty thousand men followed him. Do you think anybody in that country refused?"

Also on the page:

وَكَانَ ثُمَامَةُ بْنُ أَثَالٍ الْحَنْفِيُّ تَأْتِيهِ أَمْدَادُ تَمِيمٍ ... وَكَانَ مُقَاتِلًا لِمُسَيْلِمَةَ الْكَذَّابِ،
حَتَّى قَدِمَ عَلَيْهِ عِكْرِمَةُ بْنُ أَبِي جَهْلٍ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/901> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢١٠

English: "Thumāma b. Uthāl al-Ḥanafī used to receive reinforcements from Tamīm ... and he was fighting Musaylima the liar, until 'Ikrima b. Abī Jahl came up to him."

The same page also carries Sajāḥ's dealing with Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رض} — she sent to him asking for a truce, he answered her and turned her away from marching on Abū Bakr^{رض}. That is the page-cited basis for what E-RC45 says about him. ثُمَامَةُ's own story — the captive tied to the pillar of the mosque, and the grain of al-Yamāma — is RCT/E-RC28, held for a later evening. One sentence at most here.

Part II — al-Buṭāḥ, and the reckoning at Medina (11 AH)

7. The third stop in the orders, and the Anṣār who would not march

Runsheet: Opens the part. Khālīd^{رضي} comes here straight from Buzākha, where evening 2 stopped

Tier: CORE · When: ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: Khālīd's^{رضي} arrow continues from بُرَاخَة south-east to البُطَاح, in the Tamīm country. Draw the Anṣār contingent detached from it for two days, then rejoining.

What happened: Khālīd's^{رضي} written orders had named al-Buṭāḥ as his third stop. The Anṣār with him refused to march: they said they had already done what the Ṣiddīq^{رضي} ordered them to do, and their part was finished. Khālīd^{رضي} did not argue it as a point of obedience. He said this was a thing that had to be done and an opening that had to be taken; that no letter had come to him about it; that he was the commander and the reports came to him; that he would not force any man onto the road — and that he was going to al-Buṭāḥ. He marched. Two days out, their messenger caught him and asked him to wait, and they rejoined him.

Beats:

1. The orders named a third stop — al-Buṭāḥ, in the Tamīm country, was written into Khālīd's^{رضي} instructions.
2. The Anṣār refuse to march — They said they had done what they were ordered to do, and their part was finished.
3. "I am the commander" — No letter had come; the reports came to him; the decision was his to take.
4. And he would not compel them — He told them plainly he would not force any man onto the road.
5. He marched without them — Two days later their messenger caught him and asked him to wait.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

قَدْ عَهَدَ إِلَيَّ أَنْ أَمْضِيَ، وَأَنَا الْأَمِيرُ ... فَأَنَا قَاصِدٌ إِلَى مَالِكٍ وَمَنْ مَعِيَ، وَلَسْتُ
أُكْرِهُهُمْ.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/903> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢١٢ —

English: "He instructed me to go on, and I am the commander ... So I am making for Mālik, with whoever is with me — and I do not compel them."

عبرت: A commander who could not be argued out of a decision also would not force a single man to share it.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page:

فقال لهم خالد: إن هذا أمرٌ لا بدَّ من فعله، وفرصةٌ لا بدَّ من انتهازها، وإنه لم يأتيني
فيها كتابٌ، وأنا الأمير وإليّ تردُّ الأخبارُ، ولست بالذي أجبركم على المسير، وأنا قاصدُ البطاحِ

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3176> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٠ —

English: "Khālīd said to them: This is a thing that must be done and an opening that must be taken, and no letter has come to me about it. I am the commander and the reports come to me. I am not the man to force you onto the road — and I am making for al-Buṭāḥ."

فسارَ يومين ثم لحقه رسول الأنصار يطلبون منه الانتظار، فلاحقوا به

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3176> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٠ —

English: "He marched two days, and then the messenger of the Anṣār caught him asking him to wait; and they rejoined him."

8. Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رض}, standing apart

Runsheets: The ^{رض} notice in one breath (#28). Honorific throughout. Sajāḥ is already known from #4

Tier: CORE · When: ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: Hold still on البُطاح. One dot for the camp of Banū Yarbū', and the Tamīm chiefs' arrows coming in to Khālīd^{رض} from every side except that one.

What happened: Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رض} of Banū Yarbū' of Tamīm had made terms with Sajāḥ when she came into the Tamīm country. When she attached herself to Musaylima and then went back north, he regretted what he had done and could not settle on what to do next. He was camped at a place called al-Buṭāḥ. Khālīd^{رض} spread his patrols through al-Buṭāḥ calling people in, and the chiefs of Banū Tamīm came to him with hearing and obedience and paid their zakāt — every one of them except Mālik^{رض}, who stayed where he was, perplexed about his own affair and keeping away from people.

Beats:

1. Who he was — A chief of Banū Yarbū' of Tamīm, at a place called al-Buṭāḥ.
2. He had made terms with Sajāḥ — When she came into the Tamīm country, he had dealt with her.
3. And then regretted it — When she attached herself to Musaylima and went back north, he regretted it.
4. The patrols go out — Khālīd^{رض} spread his patrols through al-Buṭāḥ, calling people in.
5. The chiefs of Tamīm come in and pay — Every one of them, with hearing and obedience.
6. Except one — Mālik^{رض} stayed where he was, perplexed, keeping apart from people.

Quote after beat: 6

The statement:

إِلَّا مَا كَانَ مِنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ نُوَيْرَةَ فَإِنَّهُ مُتَحِيرٌ فِي أَمْرِهِ، مُتَنَحٍّ عَنِ النَّاسِ

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3176>

English: "— except for what was from Mālik b. Nuwayra, for he was perplexed about his own affair, keeping apart from the people."

عبرت: The men who came in and paid are a line in a book; the one who could not decide is the whole chapter.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: ٢١٢ ص ٢ الكامل ج ٢ says the same of him in three words — «قَدْ تَرَدَّدَ عَلَيْهِ» — «أَمْرُهُ», his affair had gone back and forth on him.

9. "Disperse, and enter into this matter"

Runsheet: His own last recorded counsel. State it; build nothing on it

Tier: CORE · When: ١١٥ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: No movement. Hold on البُطاح.

What happened: Before any of it, Mālik^{رضي} had gathered Banū Yarbū' and told them what he had concluded. They had been called to this matter, he said, and they had been slow to it, and they had not prospered. He had looked into it, and he could see the affair coming to the people of Medina without contrivance. So: do not set yourselves against a people for whom things are being made. Disperse, and enter into this matter. He told his own tribe to submit — and then he was killed. That is on the page in al-Kāmil, and it is the single fact that makes the matter painful. State it, and build nothing on it.

Beats:

1. He gathers Banū Yarbū' — Before the patrols came, he told his own tribe what he had concluded.
2. "We were slow, and we did not prosper" — They had been called to this matter and had hung back.
3. What he had looked into — He could see the affair coming to Medina's people without contrivance.
4. His counsel — Do not oppose a people for whom things are being made.
5. "Disperse, and enter into this matter" — His last recorded word to his tribe was: submit.
6. And then he was killed — Say it plainly, and build nothing on it.

Quote after beat: 5

The statement:

يَا بَنِي يَرْبُوعَ، إِنَّا دُعِينَا إِلَى هَذَا الْأَمْرِ فَأَبْطَأْنَا عَنْهُ فَلَمْ نُفْلِحْ، وَقَدْ نَظَرْتُ فِيهِ فَرَأَيْتُ
الْأَمْرَ يَتَأْتِي لَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ سِيَاسَةٍ... فَإِيَّاكُمْ وَمُنَاوَأَةَ قَوْمٍ صُنِعَ لَهُمْ، فَتَفَرَّقُوا وَادْخُلُوا فِي
هَذَا الْأَمْرِ.

— ٢١٢ ص ٢١٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/903> · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/904>

English: "Banū Yarbū' — we were called to this matter and we were slow to it and did not prosper. I have looked into it and I see the affair coming to them without contrivance ... so beware of opposing a people for whom things are being made. Disperse, and enter into this matter."

عبرت: The last thing he is recorded saying to his own tribe was: submit.

Hands-up? no

10. The patrol could not agree on what it had seen

Runsheet: Give Abū Qatāda's ^{رض} notice in one breath before the testimony — فارس رسول
الله ﷺ. [HANDS] 2 — ask it before you click to this slide: its face shows both testimonies

Tier: CORE · When: ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: No movement. One arrow in, and the prisoners brought back to Khālid's ^{رض} camp.

What happened: The patrols came on Mālik ^{رض} and took him prisoner, and his companions with him. Then the patrol itself fell out over what it had seen. Abū Qatāda al-Anṣārī ^{رض} — al-Ḥārith b. Rib'ī, whom al-Dhahabī's notice titles the Prophet's ﷺ horseman, and who was at Uḥud and al-Ḥudaybiya — testified that the men had established the prayer. Others in the same patrol said they had neither given the adhān nor prayed. The disagreement is not between later historians. It is between the men who were standing there.

Beats:

1. The patrols take him — Mālik ^{رض} was taken prisoner, and his companions with him.
2. And then the patrol fell out — Over what it had just seen with its own eyes.
3. Who Abū Qatāda ^{رض} was — al-Ḥārith b. Rib'ī of the Anṣār, at Uḥud and al-Ḥudaybiya; the books title him the Prophet's ﷺ horseman.

4. He testified — That the men had established the prayer.
5. Others in the same patrol denied it — They said they neither gave the adhān nor prayed.
6. Where the disagreement sits — Not between later historians, but between the men who were there.

Quote after beat: 5

The statement:

واختلفت السرية فيهم، فشهد أبو قتادة - الحارث بن ربي الأنصاري - أنهم أقاموا الصلاة، وقال آخرون: إنهم لم يؤدّوا ولا صلّوا

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٣٠ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3176>

English: "The patrol disagreed about them: Abū Qatāda al-Anṣārī — al-Ḥārith b. Rib'ī — testified that they had established the prayer, and others said they had neither given the adhān nor prayed."

عبرت: Two men can stand in the same place at the same hour and carry away two different nights.

Hands-up? Before the answer: "Two men from the same patrol. Do you think they told the same story?"

His تراجم notice, for the one breath:

٨٧ - أَبُو قَتَادَةَ الْأَنْصَارِيِّ السُّلَمِيُّ الْحَارِثُ بْنُ رَبِيعٍ ... فَارِسُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - شَهِدَ أُحُدًا وَالْحُدَيْبِيَّةَ، وَلَهُ عِدَّةُ أَحَادِيثَ.

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ٢ ص ٤٤٩ — <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2429>

English: "Abū Qatāda al-Anṣārī al-Sulamī, al-Ḥārith b. Rib'ī ... the Prophet's ﷺ horseman. He witnessed Uḥud and al-Ḥudaybiya, and a number of ḥadīth are from him."

Why it matters: the man the rest of the patrol contradicted is not an unknown in the ranks. Give the notice in one breath before the testimony and the weight of the disagreement lands.

11. One night, and four accounts of it

Runsheet: The centre of the part. Lay the accounts side by side and stop. Do not use the cooking-pot detail

Tier: CORE · When: ١١ هـ [SOURCED, the books disagree] · Map: No movement. Hold on البطحاح and let the screen stay still while this is told.

What happened: What happened that night is the part the books do not agree on, and the honest thing is to lay the accounts side by side and stop there. Ibn Kathīr's first version: the prisoners were held through a bitterly cold night, and Khālīd's ^{رض}crier called out two words which, on their face, mean warm your prisoners. The men took it for an order to kill, and killed them; ʿDirār b. al-Azwar killed Mālīk ^{رض}. Khālīd ^{رض} came out when he heard the noise, and it was already done. Ibn al-Athīr gives the same words with an explanation attached: in the dialect of Kināna that phrase means killing, so the men understood killing, and nothing but warmth had been meant. Ibn Kathīr then gives a second version — «ويقال» — in which Khālīd ^{رض} summoned him and reproached him over Sajāḥ and over the zakāt, and the exchange ended in an order to strike. The Siyar carries two more, one of them al-Zuhri's, in which the men had already laid down their arms and Abū Qatāda ^{رض} told Khālīd ^{رض} they had been given quarter, and the rest of the patrol told him they had not. Four accounts, and we do not choose between them.

Beats:

1. Here the books stop agreeing — What happened that night is told four different ways.
2. The cold night, and the crier — Two words called through the camp which, on their face, mean warm your prisoners.
3. Taken for an order to kill — The men killed them, Mālīk ^{رض} among them.
4. Ibn al-Athīr's explanation — In the dialect of Kināna that phrase means killing; only warmth was meant.
5. The second version — Khālīd ^{رض} summoned him, reproached him over Sajāḥ and the zakāt, and it ended in an order to strike.

6. The Siyar's two — Including al-Zuhri's: the men had laid down their arms, and the patrol split over whether quarter had been given.
7. What we say — The books do not agree, and where they do not agree we record and we stop.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

وَهِيَ فِي لُغَةِ كِنَانَةَ الْقَتْلِ، فَظَنَّ الْقَوْمُ أَنَّهُ أَرَادَ الْقَتْلَ، وَلَمْ يُرِدْ إِلَّا الدَّفْعَ

— ٢١٣ ص ٢ في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/904>

English: "— and in the dialect of Kināna that word means killing. So the people supposed he meant killing, and he had meant nothing but warmth."

عبرت: Where four books tell one night four ways, the honest thing is to say so and stop.

Hands-up? no — and take no questions on it from the floor.

Also on the page:

فيقال: إن الأسارى باتوا في كبولهم في ليلة شديدة البرد، فنادى منادي خالد: أن أدفنوا أسراكم، فظنّ القوم أنه أراد القتل، فقتلوهم، وقتل ضرار بن الأزور مالك بن نؤيرة

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٠ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3176>

English: "It is said that the prisoners passed the night in their irons on a bitterly cold night, and Khālīd's crier called out: warm your prisoners! And the people supposed he meant killing, and killed them; and Ḍirār b. al-Azwar killed Mālik b. Nuwayra."

ويقال: بل استدعى خالد مالك بن نؤيرة، فأنبه على ما صدر منه من متابعة

سجّاح، وعلى منعه الزكاة وقال: ألم تعلم أنها قرينة الصلاة؟ فقال مالك: إن

صاحبكم كان يزعم ذلك

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٠ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3176>

English: "And it is said: rather Khālīd summoned Mālik b. Nuwayra and reproached him for what he had done in following Sajāḥ and for withholding the zakāt, and said: did you not know that it is the companion of the prayer? Mālik said: your companion used to claim that."

The reply, and the order to strike, are overleaf at — البدايه ج ٧ ص ٣١ — "Is he our companion and not yours?" Both halves of the exchange must be cited to their own page; it straddles the break.

⚠ HOW TO DELIVER. Show the disagreement, not a verdict. What is not in dispute, in all four books: the Anṣār refused and then followed; Mālīk^{رض} was undecided; the patrol was divided; Abū Qatāda^{رض} testified they had prayed; they were killed; Ḍirār killed Mālīk^{رض}; Khālīd^{رض} married the widow; ‘Umar^{رض} demanding his removal; Abū Bakr^{رض} paid the blood-money and kept him in command.

*Disputed: how they died. Say: "The books do not agree, and where they do not agree we record and we stop."

Do not use the cooking-pot detail (البدايه ج ٧ ص ٣١) — it is graphic, it adds nothing the room needs, and it is exactly the kind of detail that turns an evening. Do not adjudicate.

Defer

everything else to the session that handles the مشاجرات with اصول.

12. ‘Umar^{رض} in the mosque

Runsheet: The map runs backwards to Medina for the first time in the campaign

Tier: CORE · When: ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: The arrow returns to المدينة. This is the first time in the campaign the map runs backwards.

What happened: ‘Umar^{رض} kept pressing the Ṣiddīq^{رض} to remove Khālīd^{رض} from command — there was recklessness in that sword, he said — until Abū Bakr^{رض} sent for him and he came to Medina. He came in his iron mail, rusted with blood, with arrows stuck into his turban. When he walked into the mosque, ‘Umar^{رض} stood up, pulled the arrows out of his turban and broke them, and said it to his face. Khālīd^{رض} did not answer him a word, because he assumed the Ṣiddīq's^{رض} view was ‘Umar's^{رض} view.

Beats:

1. ‘Umar^{رض} keeps pressing — Remove him: there is recklessness in that sword.
2. Khālīd^{رض} is sent for — And came to Medina in rusted mail, arrows stuck in his turban.
3. In the mosque — ‘Umar^{رض} stood, pulled the arrows out of his turban and broke them.

4. And said it to his face — You killed a Muslim man, and then you took his wife.
5. Khālīd^{رض} says nothing — He assumed the caliph's view was 'Umar's^{رض} view.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

أرياء قتلتم امرأً مسلماً ثم نزوت على امرأته، والله لأرجمنك بالجنادل

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٣١ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3177>

English: "Was it for show? You killed a Muslim man, then you leapt upon his wife. By Allah, I will stone you with stones!"

عبرت: The objection was not whispered. It was made in the mosque, to the man's face, by the man who would be caliph next.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: ٢١٣ ص ٢ الكامل ج ٢ has 'Umar's^{رض} words as « قَتَلْتُ امْرَأً مُسْلِمًا، ثُمَّ نَزَوْتُ عَلَى » — "I will stone you with your own stones" (<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/904>).

13. "He interpreted, and he was mistaken"

Runsheet: No hands-up here (review, 2026-09-22): the card's spare one asks the room to choose between 'Umar's^{رض} position and Abū Bakr's^{رض}, in the part that is never a verdict.

`build.py` drops it (`NO_HANDS`)

Tier: CORE · When: ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: Hold on المدينة.

What happened: Abū Bakr^{رض} did not accept the demand and did not dismiss him. He said Khālīd^{رض} had made an interpretation and had got it wrong; that 'Umar^{رض} was to lift his tongue off him; and that he would not sheathe a sword Allah had drawn against the disbelievers. Then he did the three things that are in all four books: he accepted Khālīd's^{رض} excuse and passed over what had been done, he paid the blood-money for Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رض} out of his own side, and he left him in command.

Beats:

1. The demand is refused — Abū Bakr^{رض} would not remove him.

2. "He interpreted and was mistaken" — Not: he was right. The caliph says plainly that he erred.
3. "Lift your tongue off Khālīd" — And: I do not sheathe a sword Allah has drawn against the disbelievers.
4. The blood-money is paid — For Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رضي}, from the caliph's own side.
5. And he stays in command — The error is named, the price is paid, the commander is kept.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

هَيْه يَا عُمَرُ! تَأْوَلْ فَأَخْطَأُ، فَارْفَعْ لِسَانَكَ عَنْ خَالِدٍ، فَإِنِّي لَا أَشِيْمُ سَيْفًا سَلَّهَ اللَّهُ
عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ.

— ٢١٣ ص · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/904>

English: "Enough, 'Umar! He interpreted and was mistaken. Lift your tongue off Khālīd — for I do not sheathe a sword Allah has drawn against the disbelievers."

عبرت: The caliph said out loud that his commander had got it wrong, paid for it, and kept him. Those three are one decision, not three.

Hands-up? Before the answer: "He has heard the objection. What do you think he does with the commander?"

Also on the page:

اعزله فإن في سيفه رهقًا، فقال أبو بكر: لا أشيم سيفًا سلّه الله على الكفار

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣١ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3177>

English: "Dismiss him, for there is recklessness in his sword. Abū Bakr said: I do not sheathe a sword Allah has drawn against the disbelievers."

ليس على خالد ما تقول، هبه تأول فأخطأ

— سير الخلفاء الراشدين سير أعلام النبلاء ص ٤٦ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1194>

English: "Khālid does not bear what you say. Grant that he interpreted and was mistaken."

The blood-money is at البدايه ج ٧ ص ٣٢ — «وودی مالک بن نويرة» (<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3178>).

14. Ibn Kathīr's own verdict, and the precedent he sets beside it

Runsheet: The safest sentence available on the whole matter. Banū Jadhīma, in the Prophet's ﷺ own hand

Tier: CORE · When: the historian's own comment [SOURCED] · Map: No map. This is the evening's one large-statement slide.

What happened: Ibn Kathīr writes his own sentence over the whole matter, and it is the safest sentence available on it: Abū Bakr ^{رض} continued with Khālid ^{رض} in command, even though he had exercised his judgement in the killing of Mālik b. Nuwayra and was mistaken in killing him. And then he puts a precedent beside it, from the Prophet's ﷺ own lifetime: when Khālid ^{رض} was sent to Banū Jadhīma and killed prisoners who had said ṣaba' nā, ṣaba' nā because they did not know how to say we have accepted Islam, the Prophet ﷺ paid their blood-money down to the dog's bowl, raised his hands and said "O Allah, I dissociate myself from what Khālid has done" — and, with that, did not remove him from command either.

Beats:

1. The historian writes his own verdict — And it is the safest sentence available on the whole matter.
2. "He exercised judgement, and he was mistaken" — Ibn Kathīr says the error plainly, and keeps the man in command.

3. He sets a precedent beside it — Banū Jadhīma, in the Prophet's ﷺ own lifetime.
4. The prisoners who said the wrong word — They said ṣaba' nā, not knowing how to say we have accepted Islam.
5. What the Prophet ﷺ did — Paid the blood-money down to the dog's bowl, and dissociated himself from the act.
6. And what he did not do — He did not remove him from command.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

واستمَرَ أبو بكر بخالدٍ على الإمرة، وإن كان قد اجتهد في قتل مالك بن نويرة وأخطأ في قتله

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٢ - <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3178>

English: "Abū Bakr continued with Khālīd in command, even though he had exercised his judgement in the killing of Mālīk b. Nuwayra and was mistaken in killing him."

عبرت: A mistake can be named as a mistake, paid for, and still not end a man — and the precedent for that is from the Prophet's ﷺ own hand.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page:

فوداهم رسول الله ﷺ حتى ردَّ إليهم مِبلغَ الكلب، ورفع يديه وقال: اللهم إني أبرأ إليك مما صنع خالد، ومع هذا لم يعزل خالدًا عن الإمرة

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٢ - <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3178>

English: "So the Messenger of Allah ﷺ paid their blood-money, until he returned to them even the dog's bowl, and raised his hands and said: O Allah, I dissociate myself from what Khālīd has done — and with all that, he did not remove Khālīd from command."

15. 'Umar and Mutammim

Runsheet: Closes on consolation, not blame. ⚠ do not say where Zayd fell — that is #28's to tell, later tonight

Tier: CORE · When: ١٣٥ onwards, in 'Umar's caliphate [SOURCED] · Map: No map. Close the block on two men sitting down.

What happened: Mutammim b. Nuwayra came to Medina complaining of Khālīd to the Ṣiddīq, with 'Umar helping him and reciting to the caliph the elegies he had made for his brother; and Abū Bakr paid him the blood-money from his own side. Years later, with 'Umar himself caliph, the two men sat together — each of them had lost a brother in this war, in two different places. 'Umar said that if he were a man who made verse he would have elegised his brother Zayd. Mutammim said: they are not alike, Commander of the Believers — had my brother fallen where your brother fell, I would not have wept for him. And 'Umar said: no one has ever consoled me better than you have consoled me.

Beats:

1. Mutammim comes to Medina — Complaining of Khālīd, with 'Umar helping him.
2. The elegies are recited to the caliph — And Abū Bakr paid him the blood-money from his own side.
3. Years later, 'Umar is caliph — And the two men sit together: each had lost a brother in this war.
4. "I would have elegised my brother Zayd" — If I were a man who made verse. Do not say yet where Zayd fell.
5. Mutammim's answer — Had my brother fallen where yours fell, I would not have wept for him.
6. "No one has ever consoled me better" — And that is where this block ends.

Quote after beat: 5

The statement:

فَقَالَ عُمَرُ: لَوْ كُنْتُ أَقُولُ الشَّعْرَ لَرَثَيْتُ أَخِي زَيْدًا. فَقَالَ مُتَمِّمٌ: وَلَا سَوَاءَ يَا أَمِيرَ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ، لَوْ كَانَ أَخِي صُرِعَ مَصْرَعًا أَخِيكَ لَمَّا بَكَيْتُهُ. فَقَالَ عُمَرُ: مَا عَزَّانِي أَحَدٌ
بِأَحْسَنَ مِمَّا عَزَّيْتَنِي بِهِ.

— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢١٤ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/905>

English: "Umar said: Were I a man who made verse, I would have elegised my brother Zayd. Mutammim said: They are not alike, Commander of the Believers — had my brother fallen where your brother fell, I would not have wept for him. 'Umar said: No one has ever consoled me better than you have consoled me."

عبرت: The quarrel is not closed by a verdict. It is closed by two bereaved men consoling each other.

Hands-up? no ⚠ Do not name al-Yamāma as the place Zayd ^{رضي} fell, unless that evening has already been given. On a chronological running order this card comes before al-Yamāma, and naming it here spends the death of 'Umar's ^{رضي} brother — one of the most affecting moments of the war — a week early. Say "each of them had lost a brother in this war". The room closes the loop itself when RCT/E-RC60 is told.

Also on the page:

وجاء مُتَمِّمُ بْنُ نُوَيْرَةَ فَجَعَلَ يَشْكُو إِلَى الصَّدِيقِ خَالِدًا، وَعَمَرُ يُسَاعِدُهُ وَيُنْشِدُ
الصَّدِيقَ مَا قَالَ فِي أَخِيهِ مِنَ الْمَرَاثِي، فَوَدَّاهُ الصَّدِيقُ مِنْ عِنْدِهِ

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣١ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3177>

English: "Mutammim b. Nuwayra came and began to complain of Khālīd to the Ṣiddīq, with 'Umar helping him and reciting to the Ṣiddīq the elegies he had made for his brother; and the Ṣiddīq paid him the blood-money from his own side."

في هذه» also records that two of Khālīd's own nephews were killed في هذه. The antecedent is not unambiguous on the page. Do not use.

Part III — The road to al-Yamāma (11–12 AH)

16. Excused in the mosque, and sent straight to al-Yamāma

Runsheet: The hinge. Without it the room is left standing in the mosque and the next card opens on an army

Tier: CORE · When: ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: The arrow leaves المدينة again and runs east to اليمامة. A second, thinner arrow follows behind it — the reserve detachment. On the way, Sajāḥ's horsemen scatter off the map to the north.

What happened: The moment the Ṣiddīq^{رضي} was satisfied with him and had accepted his excuse, he sent him out again — to fight Banū Ḥanīfa at al-Yamāma. The Muslims turned out with him in force. Thābit b. Qays b. Shammās^{رضي} was put over the Anṣār. Abū Bakr^{رضي} sent a detachment out behind him to be a reserve at his back. And Khālīd^{رضي} marched: he did not pass a single one of those who had broken away without dealing with them, and when he came across horsemen belonging to Sajāḥ's following he scattered them and ordered them put out of the Arabian peninsula altogether.

Beats:

1. Excused, and immediately employed — The same audience that cleared him ended with new orders.
2. To fight Banū Ḥanīfa at al-Yamāma — The last claimant still standing, and the largest force in Arabia.
3. The Muslims turned out in force — Thābit b. Qays b. Shammās^{رضي} over the Anṣār.
4. A reserve sent out behind him — Abū Bakr^{رضي} put a second detachment at his back.
5. He cleared the road as he went — He passed no group that had broken away without dealing with it.
6. Sajāḥ's horsemen scattered — And ordered out of the Arabian peninsula altogether.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

لما رضي الصديق عن خالد بن الوليد وعذره بما اعتذر به، بعثه إلى قتال بني حنيفة باليمامة، وأوعب معه المسلمون، وعلى الأنصار ثابت بن قيس بن شماس

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٢ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3178>

English: "When the Ṣiddīq was satisfied with Khālīd b. al-Walīd and accepted the excuse he made, he sent him to fight Banū Ḥanīfa at al-Yamāma. The Muslims turned out with him in force, and Thābit

b. Qays b. Shammās was over the Anṣār."

عبرت: The reckoning ended and the orders began in the same room, on the same day.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page:

وأردف الصديق خالدًا بسرية لتكون ردة له من ورائه

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٢ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3178>

English: "And the Ṣiddīq sent a detachment after Khālīd, to be a reserve for him at his back."

فسار لا يمر بأحد من المرتدين إلا نكل بهم، وقد اجتاز بخيول لأصحاب سجاح فشردهم وأمر بإخراجهم من جزيرة العرب

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٢ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3178>

English: "He marched, passing no one of those who had broken away without dealing with them; and he came upon horsemen belonging to Sajāḥ's following, and scattered them, and ordered them put out of the Arabian peninsula."

This card is the hinge between al-Buṭāḥ and al-Yamāma. Without it the room is left standing in the mosque at Medina and the next card opens on an army outside al-Yamāma.

17. 'Ikrima goes too early, and the letter that follows him

Runsheet: Callback: the room already met him at the far end of this road, arriving in Yemen on evening 3. Beats 1–2 are the one-breath notices for 'Ikrima and Shuraḥbīl (added 2026-09-22, #43). Ask the card's hands-up before you click to the map, which shows the answer

Tier: CORE · When: ١١ هـ, at اليمامة [SOURCED] · Map: 'Ikrima's arrow reaches اليمامة and recoils. Shuraḥbīl's arrow halts short of it on the road. Then a new, very long line starts from that point and runs east to عمان, then west along the southern edge — أَيْبَن, مَهْرَة, حضرموت. That line is one man, and it ends only in Ḥaḍramawt.

What happened: 'Ikrima had the banner for Musaylima, and Shuraḥbīl was sent behind him. 'Ikrima attacked before Shuraḥbīl came up — Ibn al-Athīr says he wanted to carry off the fame of it alone. He was beaten. He wrote to Medina and reported it, and waited for his recall. What came back was not a recall. He was not to come home and demoralise people. He was to keep going: join Ḥudhayfa and 'Arfaja, fight in Oman and Mahra, and keep marching after that until he met al-Muhājir in Yemen and Ḥaḍramawt.

Beats:

1. Who 'Ikrima was — 'Ikrima b. Abī Jahl of Banū Makhzūm, "the noble, the chief, the martyr": he led his clan after his father fell at Badr, then accepted Islam; he died a martyr in Syria, 13 or 15 AH (634 or 636 CE).
2. And Shuraḥbīl b. Ḥasana — Ḥasana was his mother, and the name stuck; an early Muslim who emigrated to Abyssinia, later a commander in Syria, dead in the plague of 18 AH (639 CE).
3. Two commanders sent ahead — 'Ikrima had the banner for Musaylima; Shuraḥbīl was sent behind him.
4. He attacked before the second came up — To carry off the fame of it alone.
5. And was beaten — The first Muslim force to reach al-Yamāma was thrown back.
6. He reported it and waited for recall — What came back was not a recall.
7. "Do not come back and weaken the people" — Go on to Oman, then Mahra, then keep marching.
8. The longest march of the war — One man's line crosses the whole southern edge of the map.

Quote after beat: 7

The statement:

لَا أَرِيَنَّكَ وَلَا تَرَانِي، لَا تَرْجِعَنَّ فَتُوهِنَ النَّاسَ، امْضِ إِلَى حُذَيْفَةَ وَعَرْفَجَةَ فَقَاتِلْ أَهْلَ
عُمَانَ وَمَهْرَةَ، ثُمَّ تَسِيرُ أَنْتَ وَجُنْدُكَ تَسْتَبْرُونَ النَّاسَ، حَتَّى تَلْقَى مُهَاجِرَ بْنَ أَبِي أُمَيَّةَ
بَالِيَمَنَ وَحَضْرَمَوْتَ.

— ٢١٤ ص ٢ في التاريخ الكامل ٢١٥ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/905> · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/906> · straddles
the page break

English: "Let me not see you and do not you see me. Do not come back and weaken the people. Go on to Hudhayfa and 'Arfaja and fight the people of 'Umān and Mahra; then you and your troops march on, testing the people, until you meet Muhājir b. Abī Umayya in Yemen and Ḥaḍramawt."

عبرت: He was not dismissed for the defeat; he was given more ground to cross.

Hands-up? Before telling it: "A commander loses a battle by moving too soon. What should the letter from the capital say?"

The two notices, for the one breath (DECISIONS.md #28, #43 — added 2026-09-22 after the evening-4 review found both men carrying cards with no تراجع notice):

الشَّرِيفُ، الرَّئِيسُ، الشَّهِيدُ، أَبُو عُثْمَانَ الْقُرَشِيُّ، الْمُخْزُومِيُّ، الْمَكِّيُّ. لَمَّا قُتِلَ أَبُوهُ،
تَحَوَّلَتْ رِئَاسَةُ بَنِي مَخْزُومٍ إِلَى عِكْرِمَةَ، ثُمَّ إِنَّهُ أَسْلَمَ، وَحَسُنَ إِسْلَامُهُ بِالْمَرَّةِ

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٣٢٣ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1749>

English: "The noble, the chief, the martyr, Abū 'Uthmān al-Qurashī al-Makhzūmī al-Makkī. When his father was killed, the leadership of Banū Makhzūm passed to 'Ikrima; then he accepted Islam, and his Islam was excellent — completely."

وَحَسَنَةُ أُمِّهِ، نَسَبَ إِلَيْهَا وَغَلَبَ عَلَيْهِ ذَلِكَ. أَسْلَمَ قَدِيمًا وَهَاجَرَ إِلَى الْحَبَشَةِ وَجَهَزَهُ الصَّدِّيقُ إِلَى الشَّامِ، فَكَانَ أَمِيرًا عَلَى رُبْعِ الْجَيْشِ

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٢٠٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3354>

English: "Hasana was his mother; he was named after her, and the name stuck. He accepted Islam early, emigrated to Abyssinia, and the Ṣiddīq equipped him for Syria, where he commanded a quarter of the army."

— «وطعن هو وأبو عبيدة وأبو مالك الأشعري في يوم واحد سنة ثمان عشرة» — he, Abū 'Ubayda^{رضي} and Abū Mālik al-Ash'arī^{رضي} were struck by the plague on one day, in 18 AH. 'Ikrima's^{رضي} death is 13 or 15 AH, the books differing on Ajnādayn or al-Yarmūk (the-men-who-had-fought-against-it.md §3.5).

18. And then the second commander did the same thing

Runsheet: Beaten, reproached — and then given the vanguard

Tier: GOOD · When: ١١هـ، at اليمامة [SOURCED] · Map: Shuraḥbīl's^{رضي} halted arrow starts again, reaches اليمامة and recoils in its turn. Then, when Khālid's^{رضي} arrow arrives, Shuraḥbīl's^{رضي} reforms in front of it as the vanguard.

What happened: Shuraḥbīl b. Ḥasana^{رضي} had been written to with an order to stay where he was until Khālid^{رضي} came up, and then, once Musaylima was finished with, to go and help 'Amr b. al-Āṣ^{رضي} against Quḍā'a. He did not wait. He got ahead of Khālid^{رضي} in engaging Musaylima, and he was beaten too, and Khālid^{رضي} reproached him for it. Both of the advance commanders were beaten in detail before the main army ever arrived — which is the military shape of al-Yamāma and the reason it was the hardest fighting of the war. And then, at 'Aqrabā', the man who had just been beaten and reproached was given the vanguard.

Beats:

1. His orders were to wait — Stay until Khālīd^{رضي} comes up, and afterwards go and help 'Amr b. al-Āṣ^{رضي} against Quḍā'a.
2. He did not wait — He got ahead of Khālīd^{رضي} in engaging Musaylima.
3. Beaten, and reproached — Khālīd^{رضي} blamed him for it, as Medina had blamed 'Ikrima^{رضي}.
4. Both advance forces beaten separately — That is why the day ahead would be so hard.
5. And then he was given the vanguard — At 'Aqrabā', the man who had just failed led the front of the army.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

وَعَجَّلَ شُرْحَبِيلُ بْنُ حَسَنَةَ، وَبَادَرَ خَالِدًا بِقِتَالِ مُسَيْلِمَةَ، فَتُكِبَ، فَلَامَهُ خَالِدٌ.

— ٢١٥ ص ٢ في التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/906>

English: "Shurahbīl b. Ḥasana hurried, and got ahead of Khālīd in fighting Musaylima, and was struck down; and Khālīd reproached him."

عبرت: The same mistake twice in one month, and neither man was thrown away for it.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: ٣٣ ص ٧ البدايه ج ٧ puts him at the head of the army days later — «وقد جعل» (<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>). «المقدمة شرحبيل بن حسنة على

19. Forty thousand, and the ground he chose

Runsheet: [HANDS] 3: "Why would a commander put his own villages behind his army?" — ask at beat 4

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١٣هـ [SOURCED] · Map: The enemy camp at عَقْرَبَاء, on the edge of the cultivated country, with the farmland and the households behind it. Draw the red block with no line of retreat. Name the town of اليمامة on the map: حَجْر.

What happened: Banū Ḥanīfa were about forty thousand fighting men — the figure is the same in three books. When Musaylima heard Khālīd^{رضي} was coming he camped at a place called 'Aqrabā' on the edge of al-Yamāma, and he put the cultivated country behind his back: the farms, the property and the families. Ibn al-Athīr says it in one line — he left the property behind him. That is a decision about his own men, not about the enemy. A man in that line could not fall back without running through his own household. It is the reason the battle was fought to the finish.

Beats:

1. Forty thousand fighting men — Three books, one figure.
2. Musaylima hears Khālīd^{رضي} is coming — And chooses his ground before the army arrives.
3. 'Aqrabā', on the edge of al-Yamāma — The town itself is Ḥajr; put it on the map.
4. The farmland behind his back — The property and the families were left behind his own line.
5. What that decision means — No man in his line could retreat except through his own household.
6. Why neither line could give ground — Neither army had anywhere to go.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

فلما سمع مسيلمةُ بقدوم خالدٍ عسكر بمكانٍ يقال له: (عقربا) في طرف اليمامة والريف وراء ظهورهم

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3178>

English: "When Musaylima heard of Khālīd's coming, he encamped at a place called 'Aqrabā', at the edge of al-Yamāma, with the cultivated country behind their backs."

عبرت: He put his own people's homes behind his line so that no one could run.

Held for the end of the battle: the note's own second sentence — "It worked, and it cost more lives than any other day of the war" — gives away a day the room has not yet seen decided. Say it with the dead of al-Yamāma, not here (evening-4 review, 2026-09-22).

Hands-up? Before beat 5: "Why would a commander put his own villages behind his army?"

Also on the page: «لأنهم نحو أربعين ألفاً من المقاتلة» (البداية ج ٧ ص ٣٢) <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3178>; «وترك مسيلمة» الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٦ gives the same count, and «الأموال وراء ظهره» (الأموال وراء ظهره) <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/907>.

20. The tent and the prisoner — عَقْرَبَاء

Runsheet: Say "forty to sixty riders" and do not fix a number. This decision settles evening 5

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢ هـ → ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: Khālīd's ^{رض} arrow, out of Medina again (the hinge card), runs east to اليمامة, and halts on a ridge overlooking it. One marker for Khālīd's ^{رض} own tent, behind the line.

What happened: The night before the battle Khālīd's ^{رض} vanguard picked up a mounted party coming home — the books say between forty and sixty riders — under Mujjā' a b. Murāra, a chief of Banū Ḥanīfa, who had been away settling a blood feud. They were brought in and made their excuses; he did not believe them, and ordered the whole party executed. One of them spoke up first: if you mean anything at all for the people of Yamāma tomorrow, good or ill, keep this one man alive. So Khālīd ^{رض} kept him, in irons, and put him in his own tent with his wife Umm Tamīm, and told her to treat him well.

Beats:

1. The night before the battle — The vanguard picked up a mounted party coming home.
2. Who they were — Between forty and sixty riders under Mujjā' a b. Murāra, a chief of Banū Ḥanīfa.
3. Their excuses were not believed — Khālīd ^{رض} ordered the whole party executed.
4. One man spoke first — If you mean anything for the people of Yamāma tomorrow, keep this one alive.

5. Kept in irons, in the commander's own tent — With Khālīd's ^{رء}wife Umm Tamīm, and: treat him well.
6. Remember where he is sitting — That decision settles the end of the battle before it has begun.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

أيها الرجل إن كنتَ تريد بأهل اليمامة غدًا خيرًا أو شرًا فاستبق هذا الرجل ...
فاستبقاه خالد مقيّدًا، وجعله في الخيمة مع امرأته، وقال: استوصي به خيرًا.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>

English: "Man — if you intend anything tomorrow for the people of Yamāma, good or ill, keep this man alive ... So Khālīd kept him, in irons, and put him in the tent with his wife, and said: treat him well."

عبرت: He kept one prisoner alive on a stranger's advice, and that decision settled the end of the battle before it started.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: the numbers differ — ^٧ص ٣٣ — الكامل; «نحو من أربعين وقيل ستين فارسًا» البدايه ج ٧ ص ٣٣ — ^٢ص ٢١٦ — «مَا بَيْنَ أَرْبَعِينَ إِلَى سِتِّينَ» ج ٢ ص ٢١٦ — ٤٣ (الراشدون) سير; says twenty-three. Say "forty to sixty riders" and do not fix a number.

Part IV — The day begins (11–12 AH)

21. The order of battle, and why there is no diagram of it

Runsheet: Do not print a banner diagram. Three books, three arrangements

Tier: GOOD · When: ١١هـ → ١٢هـ, at عَقْرَبَاء [SOURCED, the books disagree] · Map: The blue block forms up on the ridge: vanguard forward, two wings, the Muhājirūn's banner and the Anṣār's banner, and the tribes each under their own. No labelled diagram of who held which banner.

What happened: Khālīd^{رض} put Shuraḥbīl b. Ḥasana^{رض} at the head of the army and Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رض} and Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض} on the two wings. The Muhājirūn's banner went to Sālim^{رض}, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض}, and the Anṣār's to Thābit b. Qays b. Shammās^{رض}, and the tribes were each under their own banners. That is Ibn Kathīr. Ibn al-Athīr has Sālim^{رض} carrying it after the man who had it before him was killed, and puts Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض} and Zayd^{رض} over the Muhājirūn; al-Dhahabī has Zayd^{رض} carrying the Muslims' banner and Sālim^{رض} taking it up when Zayd^{رض} fell. Three books, three arrangements of the same three men. Name the men; do not draw the chart.

Beats:

1. The vanguard — Shuraḥbīl b. Ḥasana^{رض}, at the head of the army.
2. The two wings — Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رض} and Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض}.
3. The two banners — The Muhājirūn's with Sālim^{رض}, the Anṣār's with Thābit b. Qays^{رض}.
4. The tribes under their own — Each clan behind its own banner.
5. And the books do not agree — Three books arrange the same three men three ways.
6. So: name the men, not the chart — Remember these four names; they all come back within the hour.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

وراية المهاجرين مع سالم مولى أبي حذيفة، وراية الأنصار مع ثابت بن قيس بن شماس، والعرب على راياتها

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٣ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>

English: "The Muhājirūn's banner was with Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa; the Anṣār's banner with Thābit b. Qays b. Shammās; and the Arabs each under their own banners."

عبرت: Where three books arrange the same men three ways, name the men and leave the diagram unbuilt.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: «وقد جعل على المقدمة شرحبيل بن حسنة، وعلى المجنبتين زيدًا وأبا حذيفة» (البدايه ج ٧) سير ج ١ ص ٢٩٨ and ٢١٦-الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٥. <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>. ص ٣٣ give the two other arrangements — do not print a banner diagram (§6.3).

22. "Today is the day of honour"

Runsheet: Say "one of their leaders" — three books name three men

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ، at عَقْرَبَاء [SOURCED, the attribution is disputed] · Map: The two blocks face each other. Nothing moves yet.

What happened: As the two armies came into each other's sight, a call went along the enemy line: today is the day of honour; if you are routed, your women will be taken as captives and married without being asked for; so fight for your own honour, and protect your women. Ibn Kathīr puts those words in Musaylima's own mouth. Ibn al-Athīr gives them to Shuraḥbīl b. Musaylima, and al-Dhahabī to Shuraḥbīl b. Salama. On the slide, say "one of their leaders".

Beats:

1. The armies come into sight — And a call goes along the enemy line.
2. "Today is the day of honour" — If you are routed, your women are taken.
3. "Fight for your own honour" — And protect your women.
4. Who said it — Three books name three different men.
5. What we say — One of their leaders. We do not pick between the three.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

اليوم يوم الغيرة، اليوم إن هُزمتُم تُستنكح النساء سبياتٍ، ويُنكحن غيرَ حظياتٍ،
فقاتلوا عن أحسابكم، وامنعوا نساءكم.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>

English: "Today is the day of honour. Today, if you are routed, the women will be taken as captives and married without being cherished. So fight for your own standing, and protect your women."

عبرت: Both sides that day were fighting with their families behind them. That is the whole reason the ground did not give.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: شرحبيل بن مسيلمه attributes the same words to الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٦ (<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/907>); سير (الراشدون) ص ٤٧ to سلمة بن شرحبيل (<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1195>).

23. The line breaks, and the two protections

Runsheet: Neither book softens the rout. Tell both halves of the protection

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ, at عَقْرَبَاء [SOURCED] · Map: The blue block at عَقْرَبَاء is pushed backwards. A red spike reaches the marker for Khālīd's ^{رض} own tent, behind the line.

What happened: The two armies collided, and the Muslim line broke. The bedouin contingents ran, and Banū Ḥanīfa came through them and into Khālīd's ^{رض} own tent, and were going to kill his wife. The prisoner in irons in that tent stood up and gave her his protection: this is a fine free woman. Later in the same day, Muslims came into the same tent meaning to kill him, and Umm Tamīm ^{رض} said: by Allah, he will not be killed — and gave him hers. Each of them saved the other's life on the same day, and the books keep both halves.

Beats:

1. The armies collide — And the Muslim line gives way.
2. The bedouin contingents break — The rout is in the books plainly; neither book softens it.
3. Into the commander's own tent — Banū Ḥanīfa came through, and were minded to kill Umm Tamīm .
4. The prisoner stands up — Mujjā'a, still in irons, gave her his protection: this is a fine free woman.
5. Later the same day, the mirror — Muslims entered the same tent to kill him, and she gave him hers.
6. Both halves are in the books — On the worst day of the war, each saved the other.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

فكانت جولة وانهمزت الأعرابُ حتى دخلت بنو حنيفة خيمةَ خالد بن الوليد وهموا
بقتل أم تميم، حتى أجارها جماعة وقال: نعمتِ الحرّةُ هذه.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٣

English: "There was a rout: the bedouin broke, until Banū Ḥanīfa entered Khālīd b. al-Walīd's own tent and were minded to kill Umm Tamīm — until Mujjā'a gave her his protection and said: This is a fine free woman."

عبرت: Each of them saved the other's life on the same day, and the book keeps both halves.

Hands-up? no

The mirror, from سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء — «وَاللَّهِ لَا يُقْتَلُ، وَأَجَارَتْهُ: فَقَالَتْ أُمُّ تَمِيمٍ»: سير
<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1195> · ص ٤٧

24. الرَّجَالُ بْنُ عُنْفُوَةٍ — the man who made the lie believable

Runsheet: ⚠ do not use the ḥadīth attached to him — the editor marks it «ضعيف جداً»

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ, at عَمْرَبَاء [SOURCED] · Map: No movement. Hold on the broken line.

What happened: In that same rout, Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رضي} killed a man named al-Rajjāl b. ‘Unfuwa. He was not a man of Banū Ḥanīfa's making. He had come to the Prophet ﷺ, he had recited the Qur’ān, and Abū Bakr^{رضي} had sent him to al-Yamāma precisely to hold the people to Islam. Instead he testified that the Prophet ﷺ had said Musaylima was made a partner with him in the matter — and because it was he who said it, they believed him. Ibn al-Athīr's verdict: he was a greater fitna upon Banū Ḥanīfa than Musaylima was. Ibn Kathīr says the same in his own words.

Beats:

1. Killed in the rout — Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رضي} killed a man named al-Rajjāl b. ‘Unfuwa.
2. Who he was — He had come to the Prophet ﷺ and had recited the Qur’ān.
3. What he was sent to do — Abū Bakr^{رضي} sent him to al-Yamāma to hold the people to Islam.
4. What he did instead — He testified that the Prophet ﷺ had made Musaylima a partner in the matter.
5. And they believed him — Because of who was saying it, not because of what was said.
6. The historians' verdict — He was a greater fitna upon Banū Ḥanīfa than Musaylima himself.

Quote after beat: 5

The statement:

فَكَانَ أَكْثَرُ فِتْنَةٍ عَلَى بَنِي حَنِيفَةَ مِنْ مُسَيْلِمَةَ، شَهِدَ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَقُولُ: إِنَّ مُسَيْلِمَةَ قَدْ أَشْرَكَ مَعَهُ، فَصَدَّقُوهُ وَاسْتَجَابُوا لَهُ

— ٢١٥ ص · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/906> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢

English: "He was a greater fitna upon Banū Ḥanīfa than Musaylima. He testified that Muḥammad ﷺ said that Musaylima had been made a partner with him — and they believed him and answered him."

عبرت: The false prophet needed someone with the Qur'ān to vouch for him, and that man did more damage than he did.

Hands-up? Before beat 5: "Why would a whole tribe believe it from him?"

Also on the page: «فكانت فتنة» and «في هذه الجولة، قتله زيد بن الخطاب ... وقد قُتل الرَّجَالُ بن عفوة» البدايه <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>. البدايه <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>. وإسناده ضعيف «٣٣-ج ٧ ص ٣٣ attaches a ḥadīth to him which the editor there marks «إسناده ضعيف» ٣٢-ج ٧ ص ٣٢ attaches a ḥadīth to him which the editor there marks «إسناده ضعيف». Do not use the ḥadīth. The bare fact is in both books and is enough.

25. "People of Sūrat al-Baqara"

Runsheet: What re-formed the line was what the men had memorised

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ, at عَمْرِيَاء [SOURCED] · Map: The blue block stops going backwards and begins to re-form.

What happened: With the line broken, the Companions began calling to each other across the field. From every side they called to Khālīd[ؓ] to clear them a way through. And they began enjoining one another by the thing they had in common that the bedouin contingents did not: People of Sūrat al-Baqara — today the sorcery is undone. The army was re-formed by men calling each other by what they had memorised.

Beats:

1. The line has broken — And the Companions begin calling to one another across the field.
2. "Set us clear, Khālīd!" — The call goes up from every side.
3. A company cuts its way through — Muhājirūn and Anṣār, forcing a way clear.
4. And they call each other by a sūra — People of Sūrat al-Baqara: today the sorcery is undone.
5. What re-formed the army — Not an order. Men naming each other by what they had memorised.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

وجعلت الصحابة يتواصون بينهم ويقولون: يا أصحاب سورة البقرة، بطل السحر اليوم

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>

English: "And the Companions began enjoining one another, saying: People of Sūrat al-Baqara — today the sorcery is undone."

عبرت: When the line broke, what re-formed it was what the men had memorised.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: «أخلصنا يا خالد: ونادوا من كل جانب» — "and they called from every side: set us clear, Khālid!" (البدايه ج ٧ ص ٣٣) <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>.

26. Thābit b. Qays^{رض} puts on his shroud

Runsheet: ٢٨٤٥ صحيح البخاري. Give his notice first — خطيب الأنصار — and the room closes the loop from #2 itself

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ, at عقرباء [SOURCED] · Map: No movement. Hold the map still on عقرباء for this card.

What happened: Thābit b. Qays b. Shammās^{رض} was the orator of the Anṣār — of the Khazraj, brother by his mother to ‘Abdallāh b. Rawāḥa^{رض}; not at Badr, and at Uḥud and at Bay‘at al-Riḍwān. He carried the Anṣār's banner that day. Anas^{رض} came to him while the line was going backwards and found him rubbing himself with burial perfume. He had put on two white garments — the ones he was buried in. Anas^{رض} said: do you not see what is happening? He said: in a moment, nephew. Then he came forward past the men who were falling back, told them to get out of his way, and said the thing everyone in that generation would have understood: this is not how we used to fight alongside the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. Then he took the Anṣār's banner, dug his feet into the ground to the middle of his shins, and did not move from there until he was killed.

Beats:

1. Who he was — Thābit b. Qays^{رض}, the orator of the Anṣār, at Uḥud and Bay‘at al-Riḍwān, carrying their banner.

2. Anas ^{رضي} finds him — While the line is going backwards, he is perfuming himself with ḥanūṭ.
3. He is putting on his shroud — The two white garments he was buried in.
4. "In a moment, nephew" — Asked whether he can see what is happening.
5. Then he comes forward — Past the men falling back: get out of our faces so we can strike them.
6. "This is not how we used to fight with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ" — Said to a generation that knew exactly what he meant.
7. He digs his feet in — Holding the Anṣār's banner, to the middle of his shins, and did not move.
8. And was killed there — He never left the spot.

Quote after beat: 6

The statement:

هَكَذَا عَنْ وُجُوهِِنَا تُقَارِعُ الْقَوْمَ، بِئْسَ مَا عَوَّدْتُمْ أَقْرَانَكُمْ، مَا هَكَذَا كُنَّا تُقَاتِلُ مَعَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

— صحيح البخاري ٢٨٤٥ — <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1737> · سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٣١١

English: "Get out of our faces so we can strike the enemy. Wretched is what you have accustomed your opponents to! This is not how we used to fight alongside the Messenger of Allah ﷺ."

عبرت: He did not tell them what to do; he told them what they had already been.

Hands-up? no

His تراجم notice, for the one breath:

خَطِيبُ الْأَنْصَارِ، كَانَ مِنْ نُجَبَاءِ أَصْحَابِ مُحَمَّدٍ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - وَلَمْ يَشْهَدْ
بَدْرًا، شَهِدَ أُحُدًا، وَبَيْعَةَ الرُّضْوَانِ.

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٣٠٩ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1735>

English: "The orator of the Anṣār. He was among the noblest of Muḥammad's ﷺ Companions. He was not at Badr; he was at Uḥud and at Bay'at al-Riḍwān."

His mother's other sons were عمرة بنت رواحة and عبد الله بن رواحة (same page). He is also the Companion standing beside the Prophet ﷺ in ATA/E-TB16 — tell that card first and let the room make the connection itself.

Also on the page: ٢١٧ ص ٢ الكامل has him adding that he dissociated himself before Allah from what both armies were doing that day. And ٣٢-البدايه ج ٧ ص ٣٣ has him holding the position: «بن قيس لقدميه في الأرض إلى أنصاف ساقيه، وهو حامل لواء الأنصار بعدما تحنط وتكفن وحفر ثابت» (<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3179>).

27. Sālim^{رض} — "A wretched bearer of the Qur'ān I should be"

Runsheet: One sentence of the سير notice, not the whole of it

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ، at عقرباء [SOURCED] · Map: No movement. The Muhājirūn's banner, held.

What happened: The Muhājirūn asked the man holding their banner whether he was afraid the line would be broken from his side. Sālim^{رض}, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض}, answered in six words: a wretched bearer of the Qur'ān I should be, then. This is the man the Prophet ﷺ went out at night to listen to, and the man who had led the Muhājirūn in prayer at Qubā' before the Prophet ﷺ arrived, because he carried more of the Qur'ān than any of them. He was killed on that field.

Beats:

1. The question put to him — Do you fear we shall be broken from your side?
2. His answer — A wretched bearer of the Qur'ān I should be, then.

3. Who he was — The freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي}, and the best reciter among the Muhājirūn.
4. He led them in prayer at Qubā' — Before the Prophet ﷺ arrived, because he carried the most Qur'ān.
5. The Prophet ﷺ went out at night to listen to him — One line, and the room knows what was lost.
6. He was killed there — Holding the banner he had been asked about.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

وقال المهاجرون لسالم مولى أبي حذيفة: أتخشى أن نؤتى من قبلك؟ فقال: بئس حامل القرآن أنا إذا.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٣٤ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3180>

English: "The Muhājirūn said to Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa: Do you fear we shall be broken from your side? He said: A wretched bearer of the Qur'ān I should be, then."

عبرت: He answered a question about the battle line with a statement about the Qur'ān, and the two were the same answer.

Hands-up? no

Also in the books: سير ج ١ ص ١٦٨ — the Prophet ﷺ went out at night to the voice and found it was Sālim^{رضي}, and said «الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي جَعَلَ فِي أُمَّتِي مِثْلَكَ»; al-Dhahabī grades the chain «إسناده جيد». Use one sentence of this, not the whole notice.

28. Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رضي} — "I will not speak"

Runsheet: 'Umar's^{رضي} elder brother. This is where #15's loop closes. 'Umar's^{رضي} grief for him is told on evening 5, with the dead of al-Yamāma

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ, at عَقْرَبَاء [SOURCED] · Map: No movement. One wing of the blue block.

What happened: ‘Umar’s^{رضي} elder brother — Muslim before ‘Umar^{رضي} was — held one of the wings. He called out to the men to bite down on their back teeth, strike into the enemy and go forward. Then he said that he would not speak another word until Allah routed them, or until he met Allah and put his case to Him. And he was killed there.

Beats:

1. Who he was — ‘Umar’s^{رضي} elder brother, Muslim before ‘Umar^{رضي} was, holding one wing.
2. "Bite down on your back teeth" — Strike into your enemy, and go forward.
3. And then the vow — I will not speak until Allah routs them.
4. "Or I meet Allah and speak to Him with my case" — He said nothing more that day.
5. He was killed there — A martyr, on that wing.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

أيها الناس عَضُّوا عَلَى أَضْرَاسِكُمْ، وَاضْرِبُوا فِي عَدُوِّكُمْ وَامْضُوا قَدَمًا ... وَاللَّهِ لَا أَتَكَلَّمُ حَتَّى يَهْزِمَهُمُ اللَّهُ أَوْ أَلْقَى اللَّهُ فَأَكْلِمَهُ بِحَجَّتِي

— <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3180> · البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٣٤

English: "People — bite down on your back teeth, strike into your enemy and go forward ... By Allah, I will not speak until Allah routs them, or I meet Allah and speak to Him with my case."

عبرت: He put his own silence on the outcome, and did not live to break it.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/908> adds «لَا نَحُورُ بَعْدَ الرَّجَالِ» and «عَضُّوا أَبْصَارَكُمْ» (217 ص ٢١٧). ‘Umar’s^{رضي} grief for him is carried by the people strand (zayd-ibn-al-khattab-and-the-dead-of-yamama.md), and by RCT/E-RC23.

29. Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رضي} — "adorn the Qur’ān with deeds"

Runsheets: Three men, three answers, all three about the Qur’ān

Tier: CORE · When: ١١هـ → ١٢هـ, at عَقْرَبَاء [SOURCED] · Map: No movement. The other wing.

What happened: On the other wing, Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض} — whose own father had been killed at Badr fighting against the Muslims — called out one line to the men around him: people of the Qur'ān, adorn the Qur'ān with deeds. Then he charged into them until he had driven them back, and he was killed. He and Sālim^{رض}, his freedman, died on the same field on the same day.

Beats:

1. The other wing — Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض}, whose own father fell at Badr on the other side.
2. One line to the men around him — People of the Qur'ān: adorn the Qur'ān with deeds.
3. Then he charged — Until he had driven them back.
4. And was killed — On the same field, on the same day as Sālim^{رض}.
5. Master and freedman — The two of them are buried out of the same battle.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

يَا أَهْلَ الْقُرْآنِ زَيِّنُوا الْقُرْآنَ بِالْفِعَالِ

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٣٤ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3180>

English: "People of the Qur'ān — adorn the Qur'ān with deeds."

عبرت: Three men that morning answered the same question three ways, and all three answers were about the Qur'ān.

Hands-up? no

30. Khālīd^{رض} between the lines, and the offer he made first

Runsheet: ⚠ The watchword «يا محمداه» is off the face and off the cue (review, 2026-09-22): in this country it is a proof-text in a live dispute. It stays in the notes; say it only as the army's battle-cry, recorded as history, or not at all. Prepared answer: QA_BANK.md §6.11

Tier: GOOD · When: ١١هـ → ١٢هـ, at عَقْرَبَاء [SOURCED] · Map: A single marker in the gap between the two blocks.

What happened: Khālīd^{رض} charged through until he was past them, rode along opposite Musaylima watching for a chance to reach him, then came back and stood in the gap between the two lines and called for single combat, naming his own father and his own people. Then he called out the Muslims' watchword for that day — Yā Muḥammadāh — and no one came out to him whom he did not kill. And before the fighting closed, he came near Musaylima and offered him terms and a return to the truth. It was refused.

Beats:

1. He rides the length of the line — Past them, opposite Musaylima, watching for a chance at him.
2. Then he stands in the gap — Between the two armies, and calls for single combat.
3. He names himself — I am the son of al-Walīd the seasoned; I am the son of 'Āmir and Zayd.
4. And calls the watchword — Their watchword that day was: Yā Muḥammadāh.
5. No one came out to him and lived — The books say it plainly.
6. And he had offered terms first — He came near Musaylima and offered him a return to the truth. Refused.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

أنا ابن الوليد العَوْد، أنا ابن عامر وزيد، ثم نادى بشعار المسلمين - وكان شعارهم
يومئذ: يا محمداه - وجعل لا يبرز لهم أحدٌ إلا قتله

— البداية والنهاية ج ٧ ص ٣٤ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3180>

English: "I am the son of al-Walīd the seasoned; I am the son of 'Āmir and Zayd — then he called out the Muslims' watchword, and their watchword that day was: Yā Muḥammadāh! — and no one came out against him but he killed him."

عبرت: He offered terms in the middle of the worst day of the war, and it is recorded that they were refused.

Hands-up? no

Also on the page: «ثم اقترب من مسيلمة، فعرض عليه النَّصْفَ والرجوع إلى الحق» — "then he drew near Musaylima and offered him fair terms and a return to the truth" (ج ٧ ص ٣٤) · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3180>.

31. «امتازوا» — the order that turned the day

Runsheet: Spare [HANDS]: "The line is breaking and you do not know where. What do you change?" — ask it before you click to the map, which shows the answer. The face title is Every clan under its own banner: the day is not yet decided at STOP C

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ، at عَقْرَبَاء [SOURCED] · Map: The blue block at عَقْرَبَاء splits into separate labelled sections — Muhājirūn, Anṣār, and the tribes each under their own banner.

What happened: Khālīd^{رض} looked at what was happening to his men and gave an order that had nothing to do with weapons. Separate out. Every clan under its own banner, fighting under it. He wanted two things: to know what each group was actually worth, and to know exactly where the line was being broken. They separated. And once they had, they started saying to one another that today, running would be shameful.

Beats:

1. He looks at the state of his men — And gives an order that has nothing to do with weapons.
2. "Separate out" — Every clan under its own banner, fighting under it.
3. Why — So we may know what each clan is worth, and where we are being broken.
4. They separated — Muhājirūn, Anṣār, and every tribe under its own.
5. And then they said it to each other — Today, running is shameful.
6. The honest coda — The books do not settle which clan fought hardest.

Quote after beat: 5

The statement:

امْتَازُوا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ لِنَعْلَمَ بَلَاءَ كُلِّ حَيٍّ، وَلِنَعْلَمَ مِنْ أَيْنَ تُؤْتَى ... فَلَمَّا امْتَازُوا قَالَ
بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ: الْيَوْمَ يُسْتَحَى مِنَ الْفِرَارِ.

— <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/908> · الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢١٧

English: "Separate out, people, so we may know what each clan is worth, and know from where we are being broken ... and when they had separated, they said to one another: Today, running is shameful."

عبرت: He did not make them braver; he made it impossible for anyone's failure to be anonymous.

Hands-up? Before telling it: "The line is breaking and you do not know where. What do you change?"

Also on the page: [△] Ibn al-Athīr adds, on the same page, that it did not settle who fought hardest — only that the dead were more numerous among the Muhājirūn, the Anṣār and the townsmen than among the bedouin: «وَلَمْ يُدْرَ أَيُّ الْفَرِيقَيْنِ كَانَ أَكْثَرَ نِكََايَةً». And البدايه ج ٧
وقد ميز خالد المهاجرين من الأنصار من الأعراب، وكل بني — gives the same order in narrative — «حتى يعرف الناس من أين يؤتون، أب على رأيهم، يقاتلون تحتها
(<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3180>).

Part V — The day decided

32. حديقة الموت — al-Barā' over the wall

Runsheet: The climax. [HANDS] 4: "The gate is shut, the wall is solid, and there are thousands inside. What do you do?" — ask it before the map slide, which shows the answer. Beat 3 is al-Barā' 's notice, in one breath. Gloss the name once — the books call it «حديقة الموت», the Garden of Death (البدايه ج ٧ ص ٣٤). He lived — سیر says eighty-odd wounds and a month under Khālid's care; do not say he died there

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ → ١١هـ [SOURCED] · Map: The red block collapses back from عَقْرَبَاء into a small walled enclosure. The gate is drawn shut. Then it opens from the inside.

What happened: When Banū Ḥanīfa broke, one of their commanders called them into a walled garden and shut the gate behind them. There were thousands of them inside and the wall was solid. Al-Barā' b. Mālīk — the brother of Anas, the Prophet's servant — told the Muslims to throw him over it. They refused. He made them do it. They lifted him on a shield raised on spear-shafts until he topped the wall, and he went down among them alone, and fought his way to the gate, and opened it.

Beats:

1. The line breaks the other way — Banū Ḥanīfa fall back, and one of their commanders calls them into a walled garden.
2. The gate is shut behind them — Thousands inside, the wall solid; the books call it the Garden of Death.
3. Who al-Barā' was — al-Barā' b. Mālīk, the brother of Anas, the Prophet's servant.
4. "Throw me over onto them" — The men refuse. He swears by Allah that they will do it.
5. Over the wall on a shield — Lifted on spear-shafts until he topped it, and he went down among them alone.
6. He opens the gate from the inside — He fought his way to it, and the army came in behind him.
7. What it cost him — Some eighty-odd wounds, and Khālid stayed a month treating them. He lived.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

يَا مَعْشَرَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ، أَلْقُونِي عَلَيْهِمْ فِي الْحَدِيقَةِ. فَقَالُوا: لَا نَفْعَلُ، فَقَالَ: وَاللَّهِ
لَتَطْرَحَنِّي عَلَيْهِمْ بِهَا! ... وَقَاتَلَ عَلَى الْبَابِ وَفَتَحَهُ لِلْمُسْلِمِينَ.

— ٢١٨ ص ٢ · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/909>

English: "Company of Muslims — throw me over onto them into the garden. They said: we will not.

He said: By Allah, you will throw me onto them in it! ... And he fought at the gate and opened it for the Muslims."

عبرت: One man asked to be thrown where nobody could follow him, and the whole army came in behind him through the gate he opened.

Hands-up? Before telling it: "The gate is shut, the wall is solid, and there are thousands inside. What do you do?"

What it cost him — ١٩٦ ص ١ سبر ج ١: «بِضْعَةٍ وَثَمَانِينَ جُرْحًا فَجُرِحَ يَوْمَئِذٍ» — some eighty-odd wounds, and Khālid stayed a month over him treating them. He survived. △ Ibn Khaldūn appears to list him among the killed; سبر contradicts it.

Do not say he died there.

33. The death of Musaylima, and what Waḥshī^{رض} said afterwards

Runsheet: △ "a second man came up" — the books name different men. △ Do not use the سبر line about "the best of the people of the earth and the worst": it is a ranking claim the room will argue with Tier: CORE · When: ١٢٥ هـ → ١٢٦ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: The enclosure fills blue. اليمامة turns from red to blue.

What happened: They got through to him standing in a gap in the wall. Waḥshī b. Ḥarb^{رض} — the man who had killed Ḥamza^{رض} at Uḥud, before he was a Muslim — threw his javelin, and it went through him and out the other side; a second man struck him with a sword and he fell. A woman cried out from the fort above. And afterwards, when Waḥshī^{رض} was asked about the battle, what he said was not about himself.

Beats:

1. They reach him in a gap in the wall — The fighting comes to where Musaylima stood.
2. Waḥshī b. Ḥarb^{رض} — The man who had killed Ḥamza^{رض} at Uḥud, before he was a Muslim.
3. The javelin, and a second man — It went through him and out the other side; a second man came up and struck, and he fell.
4. A woman cried out from the fort above — At the moment he went down.
5. Khālīd^{رض} is shown a body — Is this him? "No, by Allah — this one is better than him."
6. What Waḥshī^{رض} said afterwards — Not about himself: he never saw men more steadfast in death than Musaylima's companions.

Quote after beat: 6

The statement:

وَعَنْ وَحْشِيِّ، قَالَ: لَمْ أَرِ قَطُّ أَصْبَرَ عَلَى الْمَوْتِ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ مُسَيْلِمَةَ، ثُمَّ ذَكَرَ أَنَّهُ
شَارَكَ فِي قَتْلِ مُسَيْلِمَةَ.

— (سير الخلفاء الراشدين) سير أعلام النبلاء — <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1196> ص ٤٨

English: "From Waḥshī: I never saw men more steadfast in the face of death than Musaylima's companions — then he mentioned that he had a share in killing Musaylima."

عبرت: The man who killed their leader is the one the book quotes praising their courage.

Hands-up? no Sources differ on the second man: ج ٧ ص ٣٤ البدایہ names Abū Dujāna^{رض}; Say "a second man came up". Do not use the anonymous saying on the same سير page about "the best of the people of the earth and the worst" — it makes a ranking claim the room will want to argue with. Use البدایہ's plain apposition instead: Waḥshī b. Ḥarb^{رض}, who had killed Ḥamza^{رض}.

And Khālīd^{رض} walking the dead with the prisoner — ج ٧ ص ٣٥ البدایہ: he was shown a body and asked, is this him? «لا، والله هذا خير منه». Then they came to a small sallow man, and Khālīd^{رض} said: «الله على اتباعكم هذا قبحكم» — "May Allah disfigure you for following this."

34. The treaty he was tricked into, and kept

Runsheet: Mujjā'a's third appearance, and the end of his arc. Say it beside evening 2's reprisals (RCT/E-RC11): the same commander, one campaign, both pages

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢٥ [SOURCED] · Map: The forts of اليمامة, ringed and then unringed.

What happened: The forts were still holding, and the Muslims were exhausted. The prisoner — Mujjā'a, now the negotiator — went in to consult his people and came back saying they refused the terms. What he had actually done was dress the women and the old men in armour and put them up on the walls. Khālīd^{رضي} looked at the battlements, saw them full of heads, and settled. Then the forts were opened and there was nobody inside but women, children and old men. And then a letter arrived from Medina ordering him to kill every grown man among them.

Beats:

1. The forts are still holding — The fighting is over, the forts are not, and the army is exhausted.
2. The prisoner is now the negotiator — Mujjā'a goes in to consult his own people.
3. What he actually did — He put the women and the old men up on the walls in armour.
4. Khālīd^{رضي} looks at the battlements — He sees them full of heads, and settles on terms.
5. The forts open — Inside there are women, children and old men, and nobody else.
6. "You tricked me" — "They are my people, and I could not do other than I did."
7. Then the caliph's letter arrives — Kill every grown man among them. The terms had already been given.
8. He kept faith and did not betray them — The agreement had been made, so it stood.

Quote after beat: 7

The statement:

وَوَصَلَ كِتَابُ أَبِي بَكْرٍ إِلَى خَالِدٍ أَنْ يَقْتُلَ كُلَّ مُحْتَلِمٍ، وَكَانَ قَدْ صَالَحَهُمْ، فَوَفَّى لَهُمْ وَلَمْ يَغْدِرْ.

— ٢١٩ ص ٢ · الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/910>

English: "And Abū Bakr's letter reached Khālid, ordering him to kill every man who had reached puberty — but he had already made terms with them, so he kept faith with them and did not betray them."

عبرت: He had been deceived into the agreement and he kept it anyway, because the agreement had already been made.

Hands-up? Before telling it: "You have signed terms. Then you find out you were tricked into them. Are you still bound?"

The exchange: ابن (الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٩) «هُمْ قَوْمِي، وَلَمْ أَسْتَطِعْ إِلَّا مَا صَنَعْتُ» — «!خَدَعْتَنِي! وَيْحَكَ» confirms the kept treaty independently. ٥٠٣ ص ٢ ج ٢

Pair this card directly with E-RC11. The same commander, in one campaign: reprisals by fire on one page, and a treaty honoured against a caliph's written order on another. Say both.

35. Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رض}, and his brother

Runsheet: This is where #28's silence is answered. 'Umar's^{رض} grief, and his son's reply

Tier: GOOD · When: ربيع الأول ١٢هـ, [SOURCED] · Map: No movement.

What happened: He was older than 'Umar^{رض} and he had become a Muslim before him. At Badr, 'Umar^{رض} offered him his own mail coat and he refused it — he said he wanted from martyrdom what his brother wanted. At al-Yamāma he carried a banner and would not speak until it was over, and he was killed. When the army came home, 'Umar^{رض} turned on his own son 'Abdullāh^{رض} for coming back alive.

Beats:

1. The elder brother — Older than 'Umar^{رض}, and a Muslim before him.

2. At Badr, the mail coat — ‘Umar^{رضي} offered him his own; he refused it, wanting from martyrdom what his brother wanted.
3. At al-Yamāma — He carried a banner, would not speak until it was over, and was killed.
4. The army comes home — ‘Umar^{رضي} turns on his own son ‘Abdullāh^{رضي} for coming back alive.
5. The son's answer — He asked Allah for martyrdom and was given it; I strove for it and was not.
6. "He became Muslim before me, and was martyred before me" — And: the east wind never blows but I find in it the scent of Zayd.

Quote after beat: 6

The statement:

وَكَانَ يَقُولُ: أَسْلَمَ قَبْلِي، وَاسْتُشْهِدَ قَبْلِي ... وَكَانَ يَقُولُ: مَا هَبَّتِ الصَّبَا إِلَّا وَأَنَا
أَجِدُ رِيحَ زَيْدٍ.

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٢٩٨ - <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1724>

English: "He used to say: He became Muslim before me and was martyred before me ... And he used to say: The east wind never blows but I find in it the scent of Zayd."

عبرت: The Companions' grief is recorded as carefully as their victories, and by the same men.

Hands-up? no

The son's answer, on the page — الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٩: «وَجَهِدْتُ» — "He asked Allah for martyrdom and was given it; I strove for it to be driven to me and I was not given it."

Part VI — The dead of al-Yamāma

36. The banner nobody would leave on the ground

Runsheet: The hand-off itself, in ^{رض}الذبي's own sentence: Zayd ^{رض} falls, Sālim ^{رض} picks the banner up. Three books give three different banner arrangements — say only that it changed hands because the man holding it was killed. Never a diagram

Tier: GOOD · When: ١٢٥هـ, at اليمامة [SOURCED] · Map: عَقْرَبَاء — one marker, three hands.

What happened: Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb ^{رض} — the elder brother of 'Umar ^{رض} — carried the banner forward into the enemy until he was killed. The banner fell. Sālim ^{رض} picked it up. Al-Dhahabī ^{رض} records it in one sentence in Zayd's ^{رض} own notice, and Ibn Kathīr ^{رض} records it twice, in two separate death notices on consecutive pages (ج ٧ ص ٤٩ and ص ٥٠ ج ٧).

Beats:

1. Zayd ^{رض} carries it forward — The Muslims' banner was with him, and he kept pressing forward into the enemy.
2. Until he was killed — He fought on with it until he was killed, and the banner fell.
3. Sālim ^{رض} takes it up — The freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa ^{رض} picks it off the ground.
4. How we know — al-Dhahabī ^{رض} records it once; Ibn Kathīr ^{رض} twice, on consecutive pages.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

وَكَاثَتْ رَايَةُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ مَعَهُ يَوْمَ الْيَمَامَةِ، فَلَمْ يَزَلْ يَقْدُمُ بِهَا فِي نَحْرِ الْعَدُوِّ، ثُمَّ قَاتَلَ حَتَّى قُتِلَ، فَوَقَعَتِ الرَّايَةُ، فَأَخَذَهَا سَالِمٌ مَوْلَى أَبِي حَذِيفَةَ

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٢٩٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1724>

English: "The Muslims' banner was with him on the day of al-Yamāma, and he kept pressing forward with it into the enemy's throat, and then fought until he was killed. The banner fell — and Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa, took it up."

عبرت: Every man who took it knew what had happened to the man before him.

Hands-up? no

△ Three books give three different banner arrangements at al-Yamāma. Do not draw a diagram — say only that the banner changed hands because the man holding it was killed.

37. Take the Qur'ān from four

Runsheet: The تراجم notice for both men, one breath each: Sālim^{رض}, and Abū Ḥudhayfa b. 'Utba^{رض}. △ The four names do not go on the slide — ابن كثير quotes only the opening clause, and the four are صحيح مسلم ٢٤٦٤ in the editor's note (QA_BANK.md $5.3)

Tier: CORE · When: the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime [SOURCED] · Map: n/a.

What happened: Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله, writing Sālim's^{رض} death notice, gives the reason the ummah remembered him. He was one of four men the Prophet ﷺ named when he told the Companions from whom to take the Qur'ān. One of the four was a freed slave of the house of Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض}.

Beats:

1. Who has just picked up the banner — Sālim^{رض}, the freed slave of Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض}, of the household that kept him.
2. Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض}, in one breath — Of Quraysh, son of 'Utba b. Rabi'a, a man of Badr, Muslim before the house of al-Arqam.
3. Why the ummah remembers Sālim^{رض} — The Prophet ﷺ named four men to take the Qur'ān from, and he was one of them.
4. What that means on this field — The man now holding the banner is one of the four.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

وهو أحد الأربعة الذين قال فيهم رسول الله ﷺ: "استقرئوا القرآن من أربعة" فذكر منهم سالمًا مولى أبي حذيفة

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٥٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3196>

English: "And he is one of the four of whom the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: 'Take the Qur'ān from four' — and he mentioned Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa, among them."

عبرت: Standing in this matter was decided by what a man carried, and by nothing else about him.

Hands-up? no

△ Slide rule: Ibn Kathīr's own text quotes only the opening clause. If the four names go on screen they must be captioned to صحيح مسلم ٢٤٦٤ as given in the editor's note on البدايه ج ٧ ص ٥٠ — never to ابن كثير. See §5.3.

38. Two men who dug a pit and did not come out of it

Runsheet: Thābit b. Qays^{رض} and Sālim^{رض}, after the line had been driven back three times. △
The بحارى-anchored wording of those words belongs to Thābit^{رض} (RCT/E-RC18, §7.4(a)) — attribute it that way

Tier: GOOD · When: ١٢٥هـ, at اليمامة [SOURCED] · Map: عَقْرَبَاء, the point where the line stopped moving.

What happened: Banū Ḥanīfa had driven the Muslims back three times. Thābit b. Qays^{رض} and Sālim^{رض} said the same thing to each other: this is not how we used to fight alongside the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. So they dug a pit, stood in it, and fought from there. Neither came out.

Beats:

1. Driven back three times — Banū Ḥanīfa had pushed the Muslim line backwards three times.
2. What the two of them said — This is not how we used to fight alongside the Messenger of Allah ﷺ.

3. What they did about it — They dug a pit for themselves, went down into it, and fought from there.
4. Neither came out — Both were killed where they stood.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

فقال ثابتٌ وسالمٌ مولى أبي حذيفة: ما هكذا كنّا نقاتلُ مع رسول الله ﷺ، فجعلوا لأنفسهما حفرة فدخلوا فيها فقاتلا حتى قُتلا

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3194>

English: "Thābit and Sālim, the freedman of Abū Ḥudhayfa, said: This is not how we used to fight alongside the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. And the two of them made a pit for themselves and went down into it and fought until they were killed."

عبرت: They fixed the line by taking away their own ability to move back from it.

Hands-up? no

⚠ The Bukhārī-anchored version of these words (البخاري ٢٨٤٥, via ص ٣١١ ج ١ سير) belongs to ثابت بن قيس. Attribute accordingly; see §7.4(a) and RCT E-RC18.

39. The hand, and the verse

Runsheet: The right hand, then the left, then the chest. Make the link aloud: the āya he recited is the one Abū Bakr^{رضي} read out to Medina the day the Prophet ﷺ died — one year before this field

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ, at اليمامة [SOURCED] · Map: n/a — hold on the عَقْرَبَاء marker.

What happened: Sālim^{رضي} was holding the banner when his right hand was severed. He took the banner in his left. That hand was cut too. So he clasped the banner to his chest, and he recited. The verse he recited was the one Abū Bakr^{رضي} had recited to the people of Medina the day the Prophet ﷺ died, the year before: Muḥammad is no more than a Messenger; messengers have passed away before him. Then he recited the verse that follows it: and how many a prophet fought, and with him many devoted men.

Beats:

1. The right hand — He is holding the banner when his right hand is severed.
2. The left hand — He takes the banner in his left, and that hand is cut too.
3. He holds it with what is left — He clasps the banner to his chest, and he recites.
4. The āya — The same āya Abū Bakr^{رضي} read out to Medina the day the Prophet ﷺ died, the year before.
5. And the āya after it — And how many a prophet fought, and with him many devoted men.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

انقطعت يده اليمنى فأخذها بيساره، فقطعت فاحتضنها وهو يقول: ﴿وَمَا مُحَمَّدٌ إِلَّا
رَسُولٌ قَدْ خَلَتْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ الرُّسُلُ﴾ [آل عمران: ١٤٤] ﴿وَكَأَيِّنْ مِنْ نَبِيِّ قَاتَلَ مَعَهُ
رِجُيُونَ كَثِيرٌ﴾ [آل عمران: ١٤٦]

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٥٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3196>

English: "His right hand was severed, so he took the banner in his left; that was cut off, so he clasped it to his chest, saying: ﴿Muḥammad is no more than a Messenger; messengers have passed away before him﴾ ﴿And how many a prophet fought, and with him many devoted men﴾."

عبرت: The verse that steadied Medina in the year eleven is the verse a man recited on the ground in the year twelve.

Hands-up? Before it: "Does anyone remember the āya Abū Bakr^{رضي} read out the day the Prophet ﷺ died?" — then let the slide answer.

40. "Lay me down between them"

Runsheet: △ The second man is «فلان» in the source — do not name him. △ No approved source says they were buried in one grave (§10.3 of the note)

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ, at اليمامة [SOURCED] · Map: n/a.

What happened: Struck down, Sālim رضى asked the men near him a question. What had become of Abū Ḥudhayfa? They told him he had been killed. He asked about one other man. They told him he was dead too. Then he asked them for one thing, and it was the last thing he asked for.

Beats:

1. Struck down — He asks the men near him one question: what has become of Abū Ḥudhayfa رضى ?
2. The answer — He has been killed.
3. He asks about one more man — The source says only "so-and-so", and we do not name him either.
4. The last thing he asked for — Then lay me down between the two of them.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

فلما صرع قال لأصحابه: ما فعل أبو حذيفة؟ قالوا: قُتل، قال: فما فعل فلان؟

قالوا: قُتل، قال: فأضجعوني بينهما

— البدایہ والنہایہ ج ٧ ص ٥٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3196>

English: "When he was struck down he said to his companions: What has become of Abū Ḥudhayfa?

They said: He has been killed. He said: And what has become of so-and-so? They said: He has been killed. He said: Then lay me down between the two of them."

عبرت: The freed slave's last request was to be put back beside the household that had taken him in.

Hands-up? no

⚠ The second man is «فلان» in the source. Do not name him. And no approved source says they were buried in one grave — see §10.3.

41. How they were found

Runsheet: ⚠ الذهبي gives this with «وقيل». Carry it across in the delivery: "it is said that...", never "they were found"

Tier: GOOD · When: ١٢٥, after الإمامة [SOURCED] — reported by الذهبي as «وقيل» ·

Map: n/a.

What happened: In his notice on Sālim^{رض}, al-Dhahabī رحمه الله gives a report he introduces with the word it is said — which is his way of passing something on without vouching for it. And elsewhere, in the roll of the day's martyrs (سير ج ١ ص ٢٩٨), he lists the two of them first, and in that order: Abū Ḥudhayfa b. 'Utba al-'Abshamī, and his freedman Sālim, one of the reciters.

Beats:

1. How al-Dhahabī رحمه الله gives it — With the words "it is said", which is how a scholar passes something on without vouching for it.
2. What is said — The two were found together, the head of one at the feet of the other.
3. Say it his way — "It is said that...", never "they were found".
4. Where he does vouch — In his roll of that day's martyrs he lists the two of them first, and in that order.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

وَقِيلَ: إِنَّ سَالِمًا وُجِدَ هُوَ وَمَوْلَاهُ أَبُو حُذَيْفَةَ، رَأْسُ أَحَدِهِمَا عِنْدَ رِجْلَي الْآخَرِ صَرِيعَيْنِ -رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا-

— سِير أَعْلَام النَّبَلَاء ج ١ ص ١٦٩ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1595>

English: "And it is said: Sālim was found, he and his patron Abū Ḥudhayfa, the head of one of them at the feet of the other, both struck down^{رض}."

عبرت: The books that list the dead of that day put the master and the freedman on one line.

Hands-up? no

⚠ Carry «وقيل» across into the delivery: "it is said that...", not "they were found".

42. "Had Sālim been alive"

Runsheet: The payoff of the whole thread, eleven years on: عمر^{رض} dying, and the شورى. ⚠ Say "it is related that..." — Ibn Kathīr's own passive. ⚠ Do not merge the سِير ج ١ ص ١٧٠ version naming Abū 'Ubayda^{رض} as well: الذبهي weakens its chain on the page

Tier: CORE · When: ٢٣٥, Medina [SOURCED] · Map: n/a — the timeline jumps forward eleven years and comes back.

What happened: Eleven years after al-Yamāma, 'Umar^{رض} was dying of the assassin's wound, and the question of who would follow him would not wait. He refused to name one man and set up a council of six instead. And it is related that he said that had Sālim^{رض} been alive, he would not have made it a council at all. Ibn 'Abd al-Barr رحمه الله explains what that means: he would have gone by Sālim's^{رض} judgement about whom to appoint.

Beats:

1. Eleven years later — 'Umar^{رض} is dying of the assassin's wound, and the succession will not wait.
2. What he did — He refused to name one man, and made it a council of six instead.
3. What is related of him — Had Sālim^{رض} been alive, I would not have made it a council.

4. What that means — Ibn ‘Abd al-Barr رحمه الله: he would have gone by Sālim's judgement on whom to appoint.
5. Say it as Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله writes it — "It is related that...", and nothing stronger.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

وروي عن عمر أنه قال لما احتُضر: لو كانَ سالمٌ حيًّا لما جعلتها شُورى

— البدایہ والنہایہ ج ٧ ص ٥٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3196>

English: "And it is related of ‘Umar that he said, when death was upon him: Had Sālim been alive I would not have made it a shūrā."

عبرت: Eleven years later, the man the Commander of the Faithful wished were still in the room was a freed slave who had died holding a banner.

Hands-up? no

△ Say "it is related that..." — Ibn Kathīr's own passive. A second, differently worded report in سیر ج ١ ص ١٧٠ names both سالمٌ and أبو عبدة الذہبی weakens its chain on the page. Do not merge the two.

43. The inheritance that was sent back

Runsheet: △ Do not read the name of the woman who freed him — the printed page gives it two ways on one page (§4.2). △ سیر ج ١ ص ١٦٩ tells the estate differently: tell one version, captioned to البدایہ ج ٧ ص ٥٠

Tier: GOOD · When: after ١٢٥ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: n/a.

What happened: Sālim رحمه الله died leaving property and no heir of his own. Under the law of walā' it went to the woman who had freed him, so ‘Umar رحمه الله sent it to her. She sent it back. Her reason was that she had freed him outright — sā'iba — and had never freed him expecting a return. ‘Umar رحمه الله put the estate into the treasury instead.

Beats:

1. He left property and no heir of his own — Under the law of walā' it goes to the woman who had freed him.
2. 'Umar^{رضي} sends it to her — And she sends it back.
3. Her reason — She had freed him outright, and had never freed him expecting a return.
4. Where it went instead — 'Umar^{رضي} put the estate into the treasury.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

وقد بعث عمرُ بميراثه إلى مولاته التي أعتقته "بثينة" فردته وقالت: إنما أعتقته سائبةً، فجعله عمر في بيت المال

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٥٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3196>

English: "Umar sent his inheritance to the woman who had freed him, Buthayna; and she sent it back and said: I freed him only as sā'iba. So 'Umar put it into the treasury."

* (⚠ The name «بثينة» appears in the printed text here and «ثبينة» a few lines above it on the same page. Do not read the name aloud — say "the woman who had freed him".

See §4.2.)*

عبرت: She had a legal claim on what he left, and she said she had not freed him in order to have one.

Hands-up? no

⚠ ١٦٩ ج ١ ص ١٦٩ tells the same estate differently (sold for 200 dirhams and given to «أمه»).

Tell one version only, captioned to البدايه ج ٧ ص ٥٠. See §7.6.

Part VII — Who else was on that field

44. Two brothers by appointment

Runsheet: The مؤاخاة pairing of Zayd^{رض} with Ma'n b. 'Adī^{رض} — and the second pair, Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض} with 'Abbād b. Bishr^{رض}. ⚠ The مؤاخاة's own year is [CONVENTIONAL-ESTIMATE]: say "when the Muhājirūn arrived", never a year

Tier: CORE · When: the مؤاخاة, on the arrival in المدينة [CONVENTIONAL-ESTIMATE] — the approved sources give it no year → اليمامة ١٢ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: Two dots — Mecca and Medina — joined by a line; then the line moved intact to عقرباء.

What happened: When the Muhājirūn arrived in Medina with nothing, the Prophet ﷺ paired each of them with a man of the Anṣār and made the two of them brothers. Zayd b. al-Khaṭṭāb^{رض}, of Quraysh, was paired with Ma'n b. 'Adī^{رض} of Banū al-'Ajlān, an ally of the Anṣār. Years later, both of them were on the field at al-Yamāma. Both of them were killed there, on the same day. And they were not the only such pair: Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض} and 'Abbād b. Bishr^{رض} had been paired the same way, and they died there too.

Beats:

1. The Muhājirūn arrive with nothing — The Prophet ﷺ pairs each of them with a man of the Anṣār, as brothers.
2. Zayd's^{رض} brother by appointment — Ma'n b. 'Adī^{رض}, of Banū al-'Ajlān, an ally of the Anṣār.
3. Years later, one field — Both were at al-Yamāma, and both were killed there.
4. And not the only such pair — Abū Ḥudhayfa^{رض} and 'Abbād b. Bishr^{رض} were paired the same way, and died there too.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

وقد آخى رسول الله ﷺ بينه وبين معن بن عديّ الأنصاري وقد قُتلا جميعاً باليمامة.

— البداية والنهاية ج ٧ ص ٤٩ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3195>

English: "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ made him and Ma'n b. 'Adī al-Anṣārī brothers, and the two of them were killed together at al-Yamāma."

عبرت: The tie was made in a year when they owned nothing, and it was still holding on the day they died.

Hands-up? Before telling it: "You are given a brother — not born to you, assigned to you. How long would you expect that to last?" The second pair: البدايه ج ٧ ص ٥٥ وآخى رسول الله — «اليمامة بينه وبين عبّاد بن بشر وقد قُتلا شهيدين يوم سير ج ١ ص ٢٩٨». carries the first pairing independently.

45. «So that I may confirm him dead»

Runsheet: Ma'n^{رض} on the day the Prophet ﷺ died — and he is one of the two men who met Abū Bakr^{رض} and 'Umar^{رض} on the road to the Saqīfa, which evening 1 told. △ Chain honesty (§4.2): البدايه ج ٧ ص ٥٤ connected through Ibn 'Umar^{رض}, the سير editor notes the preserved form is مرسل from عروه — say so if challenged

Tier: CORE · When: اليمامة ١٢ هـ → المدينه ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: n/a.

What happened: When the Prophet ﷺ died, the people in Medina wept and said they wished they had died before him, because they were afraid of what would happen to them after him. One man said the opposite. He said he did not want to have died first — he wanted to be alive afterwards, so that he could confirm the Prophet ﷺ dead the same way he had confirmed him alive. His name was Ma'n b. 'Adī^{رض}. He was one of the two men who met Abū Bakr^{رض} and 'Umar^{رض} on the road to the Saqīfa. And in the following year he was killed at al-Yamāma, in the war fought to hold what he had said he would confirm.

Beats:

1. The day the Prophet ﷺ died — Medina wept, and men said they wished they had died before him.
2. One man said the opposite — Ma'n b. 'Adī^{رض}, Zayd's^{رض} brother by appointment.
3. What he said — I do not wish I had died first: let me confirm him dead as I confirmed him alive.
4. Where else he stood — He was one of the two men who met Abū Bakr^{رض} and 'Umar^{رض} on the road to the Saqīfa.
5. The year after — He was killed at al-Yamāma, in the war fought to hold what he said he would confirm.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

فَقَالَ مَعْنٌ: لِكَيْ - وَاللَّهِ - مَا أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِثُّ قَبْلِهِ حَتَّى أُصَدِّقَهُ مَيِّتًا، كَمَا صَدَّقْتُهُ حَيًّا.

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٣٢١ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1747>

English: "But I, by Allah, do not wish that I had died before him — so that I may confirm him dead as I confirmed him alive."

عبرت: He did not want to be spared what came next; he wanted to be there for it.

Hands-up? no Chain honesty (§4.2): ٥٤ ج ٧ ص ٥٤ gives it with a connected chain through ^{رض}ابن عمر; the سير editor notes that the preserved form is mursal from عروة. Say so if challenged. This card is the bookend for E-ZY8 — tell them together or not at all.

46. The man who killed him

Runsheet: [HANDS] 5: "The man who killed your brother is standing in front of you, and he is now a Muslim. What is there to say?" △ The sources record no answer from 'Umar ^{رض} — do not supply one. △ Give Ibn Kathīr's own handling of the competing report: it is this part's "how do we know?" beat Tier: CORE · When: ^{رض}اليمامة ١٢ هـ, and afterwards in ^{رض}المدينة [SOURCED] · Map: n/a.

What happened: The man who killed ^{رض}Zayd was called Abū Maryam al-Ḥanafī. He fought that day on the other side. Afterwards he became a Muslim. And at some point after that he stood in front of ^{رض}'Umar — the dead man's younger brother, now the Commander of the Faithful — and said this to him. ^{رض}'Umar later appointed him a judge. Ibn Kathīr records a second report naming a different killer, and records that Ibn 'Abd al-Barr preferred it, and then says the second report does not disprove the first.

Beats:

1. Who killed ^{رض}Zayd — A man called Abū Maryam al-Ḥanafī, fighting that day on the other side.

2. Afterwards — He became a Muslim.
3. He stands in front of 'Umar^{رضي} — The dead man's younger brother, now Commander of the Faithful.
4. What he said — Allah honoured Zayd^{رضي} at my hand, and did not disgrace me at his.
5. What the sources do not give — Any answer from 'Umar^{رضي}. We do not supply one. He later made him a judge.
6. A competing report, handled on the page — Ibn Kathīr names another killer, says Ibn 'Abd al-Barr preferred it, then says it does not disprove the first.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

ثم قتل زيدًا رجل يقال له: أبو مريم الحنفي، وقد أسلم بعد ذلك وقال لعمر: يا أمير المؤمنين إن الله أكرم زيدًا بيدي ولم يُهني علي يده.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤٩ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3195>

English: "Then Zayd was killed by a man called Abū Maryam al-Ḥanafī, who afterwards became a Muslim and said to 'Umar: Commander of the Faithful — Allah honoured Zayd at my hand, and did not disgrace me at his."

عبرت: He did not ask to be forgiven; he told the brother what he thought Allah had done with both of them.

Hands-up? Before telling it: "The man who killed your brother is standing in front of you, and he is now a Muslim. What is there to say?" ⚠ The sources record no answer from 'Umar^{رضي}. Do not supply one. ⚠ Give Ibn Kathīr's own handling of the competing report — it is the "how do we know?" beat of this act (§2.7).

47. The arrow he pulled out

Runsheet: Abū 'Aqīl^{رضي}, a chief of the Anṣār and a man of Badr. △△ The long famous version — the night wound, the dead arm, the severed arm, "who won?" — is in NO approved source (§X.2). Tell only the sentence on the card

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢هـ، اليمامة [SOURCED] · Map: No movement.

What happened: Abū 'Aqīl^{رضي} was one of the chiefs of the Anṣār and a man of Badr. At al-Yamāma an arrow hit him. He pulled it out himself. Then he bound himself up, took his sword, and went back to fighting. He fought until he was killed. When they came to him afterwards, they found many wounds on him.

Beats:

1. Who he was — Abū 'Aqīl^{رضي}, one of the chiefs of the Anṣār and a man of Badr.
2. The arrow — It struck him at al-Yamāma, and he pulled it out himself.
3. What he did next — Bound himself up, took his sword, and went back into the fighting.
4. Afterwards — He fought until he was killed, and many wounds were found on him.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

أصابه سهم يوم اليمامة فنزعه، وتحزم وأخذ السيف وقاتل حتى قتل، فوجد به جراحات كثيرة.

— سيرة الخلفاء الراشدين (سير أعلام النبلاء) ص ٦٠ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1208>

English: "An arrow struck him on the day of al-Yamāma and he pulled it out, bound himself up, took his sword and fought until he was killed — and many wounds were found on him."

عبرت: Nobody carried him out and nobody was asked to.

Hands-up? no ص ٥٧ ج ٧ البدايه gives the same sentence. △△ The long famous version of this account — the night wound, the dead arm, the severed arm, the fourteen wounds, "who won?" — is NOT in any approved source (§X.2). Tell only what is above.

48. The son of the head of the hypocrites

Runsheet: ⚠ Where he died is disputed (سير الراشدون; الإمامة: البدايه/سير) — say (جواثي: ص ٦١ سير الراشدون; الإمامة: البدايه/سير) — say "in this war". ⚠ Do not print a verse number without checking a مصحف

Tier: GOOD · When: ١٢ هـ, الإمامة [SOURCED] · Map: n/a.

What happened: ‘Abd Allāh b. ‘Abd Allāh b. Ubayy^{رض} was the son of the man the Qur’ān calls the head of the hypocrites. He was a Muslim, he was at Badr and at everything after it, and the books call him one of the best of the Companions. He was the hardest of all people on his own father. When that father died, the Prophet ﷺ gave his own shirt for the burial and prayed over him — as an honour to the son. And a few years after that, the son was killed at al-Yamāma.

Beats:

1. Whose son he was — ‘Abdullāh b. ‘Abdullāh b. Ubayy^{رض}: his father is the man the Qur’ān calls the head of the hypocrites.
2. What he himself was — A Muslim at Badr and at everything after it; the books call him one of the best of them.
3. Hardest of all people on his own father — And the books record that plainly.
4. At that father's burial — The Prophet ﷺ gave his own shirt and prayed over him, as an honour to the son.
5. A few years later — The son was killed in this war.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

وكان أبوه رأسَ المنافقين، وكان أشدَّ الناس على أبيه، ولو أذن له رسول الله فيه
لضربَ عُنُقَه.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٥٣ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3199>

English: "His father was the head of the hypocrites, and he was the hardest of all people on his father — had the Messenger of Allah ﷺ permitted him, he would have struck his neck."

عبرت: A man is not his father, and the books are careful to record that they were not confused about it.

Hands-up? no Where he died is disputed: ٣٢٢ ص ١ سير ج ١ and ٥٣ ص ٧ البدايه ج ٧ say records a report that it was جواثي. Say "in this war" if the field is not needed. verify against a The سير page prints the verse reference as [٨٩: التوبة]; before printing any number.

49. Three generations, one morning

Runsheet: "three men of his own household with him" and do not count them out

Tier: GOOD · When: ١٢ هـ, اليمامة [SOURCED] · Map: n/a.

What happened: Ḥazn al-Makhzūmī^{رض} was a man of Mecca of Banū Makhzūm, and the grandfather of Saʿīd b. al-Musayyab^{رحمه الله}, one of the great jurists of the next generation. The Prophet ﷺ once wanted to change his name — Ḥazn means rough ground — to Sahl, which means smooth. He refused: he would not change a name his parents had given him. And the report ends: so the roughness never left us. At al-Yamāma, Ḥazn^{رض} was killed. So were two of his sons. So was a grandson.

Beats:

1. Who he was — Ḥazn al-Makhzūmī^{رض} of Mecca, grandfather of Saʿīd b. al-Musayyab^{رحمه الله}.
2. The name — The Prophet ﷺ wanted to change it; he would not change a name his parents had given him.
3. How the report ends — So the roughness never left us.
4. At al-Yamāma — He was killed, and three men of his own household with him.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

أراد رسول الله ﷺ أن يسميه سَهْلًا فامتنع وقال: لا أُغَيِّرُ اسْمًا سَمَانِيَهُ أَبَوَايَ، فلم تزل الحزونة فينا. استشهد يومَ اليمامة. وقتل معه أيضًا ابناه عبد الرحمن ووهب، وابن ابنه حكيمُ بن وهبِ بن حزن.

— صحيح البخاري ٦١٩٠: the naming report: <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3195> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٤٩ —

English: "The Messenger of Allah ﷺ wanted to name him Sahl, and he refused, saying: I will not change a name my parents gave me. So the roughness never left us. He was martyred on the day of al-Yamāma; and killed with him also were his two sons 'Abd al-Raḥmān and Wahb, and his grandson Hakīm b. Wahb b. Ḥazn."

عبرت: One household sent four men to one field and none of them came back.

Hands-up? no △ سير الراشدون ص ٥٧ makes the fourth man a son rather than a grandson. Say: "three men of his own household with him — the sources differ over whether the fourth was his son or his grandson." △ The page does not say Sa'īd b. al-Musayyab رحمه الله told the story; «فلم تزل الحزونة فينا» is part of the report as البدايه prints it. Do not attribute the telling to him from the platform — say only that the naming report is in صحيح البخاري ٦١٩٠ (ed. fn., ج ٧ ص ٤٩). △ Nothing on the page gives his age. Do not call him old.

50. The mother at al-Yamāma

Runsheet: △ SPEAKER'S DISCRETION — this is the most severe card in the evening. It is what was done to Ḥabīb b. Zayd^{رض}, and what his mother Umm 'Umāra^{رض} did after it. Tell it plainly and without dwelling; do not elaborate beyond the page. If the room is heavy, skip it

Tier: CORE · When: ١٢ هـ → ١١ هـ [SOURCED] · Map: A single line from عَقْرَبَاءَ to المدينه

What happened: Musaylima had a man named Ḥabīb b. Zayd^{رضي} in his hands. He asked him whether he testified that Muḥammad ﷺ was the Messenger of Allah, and Ḥabīb^{رضي} said yes. Then he asked whether he testified that he, Musaylima, was a messenger of Allah — and Ḥabīb^{رضي} said: I do not hear. So he began to cut him apart, one limb at a time, and Ḥabīb^{رضي} never gave him more than that answer, until he died in his hands. Ḥabīb's^{رضي} mother was Umm ʿUmāra Nusayba bint Kaʿb رضي الله عنها, who had been at al-ʿAqaba, at Uḥud, at al-Ḥudaybiya and at Ḥunayn. When the army marched to al-Yamāma, she went with it. Her hand was cut off there. She came back to Medina covered in wounds, and Abū Bakr^{رضي}, while he was caliph, was seen coming to her to ask after her.

Beats:

1. A man in Musaylima's hands — Ḥabīb b. Zayd^{رضي}, asked whether he testified that Muḥammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allah.
2. He said yes — Then he was asked to testify the same of Musaylima, and said: I do not hear.
3. He was cut apart, limb by limb — And he never gave more than that one answer, until he died.
4. His mother — Umm ʿUmāra Nusayba bint Kaʿb رضي الله عنها: al-ʿAqaba, Uḥud, al-Ḥudaybiya, Ḥunayn.
5. She went out with the army — Her hand was cut off at al-Yamāma, and she came back covered in wounds.
6. Abū Bakr^{رضي}, while he was caliph — Was seen coming to her to ask after her.

Quote after beat: 3

The statement:

فيقول: أتشهدُ أني رسولُ الله؟ فيقول: لا أسمع، فجعل يقطّعه عضوًا عضوًا حتى مات في يديه، لا يزيده على ذلك.

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٣ ص ٤٢٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/1402>

English: "Then he would say: Do you testify that I am the Messenger of Allah? And he would say:

I do not hear. So he began to cut him apart limb by limb until he died in his hands — and he never gave him more than that."

عبرت: He was not asked to say anything; he was asked to hear something, and he would not.

Hands-up? no The wounds: سير ج ٢ ص ٢٨١ — hand cut off at al-Yamāma and eleven wounds besides. △ البدايه ج ٣ ص ٤٢٨ says twelve wounds; give one figure with its caption, or say only "covered in wounds". △ سير ج ٢ ص ٢٨٢ names her other son 'Abd Allāh b. Zayd^{رض} as the man who killed Musaylima with his sword — one of four accounts in the safe list; do not settle it ($9.3).

51. The father at al-Yamāma, the son at al-Yarmūk

Runsheet: △ Frame اليرموك aloud as a battle we have not reached (#43, forward reference). △ Do not read the Arabic of the dream and do not render its second image — say only what the card says he interpreted Tier: GOOD · When: اليمامة ١٢ هـ, then اليرموك — whose own year is disputed in the sources (١٣٥ / ١٥٥) [SOURCED] · Map: Two marks a long way apart — عَقْرَبَاء in central Najd, and اليرموك on the Syrian frontier.

What happened: Al-Ṭufayl b. 'Amr al-Dawsī^{رض} was the man who took Islam back to his own tribe and brought ninety households of Daws to Medina. He went out to al-Yamāma with his son 'Amr. Before the battle he had a dream, and he read it aloud himself: that he would be killed and buried, and that his son would press hard for martyrdom and would not get it that year. Both halves came true. The father was killed at al-Yamāma. The son was killed a few years later, at al-Yarmūk.

Beats:

1. Who he was — al-Ṭufayl b. ʿAmr al-Dawsī^{رض}, who took Islam back to Daws and brought ninety households to Medina.
2. He went out with his son — ʿAmr, to al-Yamāma.
3. A dream before the battle, which he read aloud himself — He would be killed and buried; his son would press for martyrdom and not get it that year.
4. Both halves came true — The father was killed at al-Yamāma.
5. The son — Killed a few years later at al-Yarmūk, a battle this course has not reached yet.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

فأولها بأنه سيقتل ويدفن، وأن ابنه يحرص على الشهادة فلا ينالها عامه ذلك. وقد
وقع الأمر كما أولها، ثم قُتل ابنه شهيداً يوم اليرموك.

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٥٢ · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3198>

English: "He interpreted it himself: that he would be killed and buried, and that his son would press for martyrdom and not attain it that year. And it happened exactly as he interpreted it — and then his son was killed a martyr on the day of al-Yarmūk."

عبرت: He read his own end aloud before the battle, and then went into it anyway.

Hands-up? no ⚠ Do not read the Arabic of the dream itself aloud and do not render its second image. Say: he dreamed his head was shaved and the earth took him in, and that his son was trying to reach him and could not. Ibn Kathīr's interpretation is his own text and is safe to give. Corroboration for the son at اليرموك ص ١١٣: سیر الراشدون · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1258> — «طريف، قتل باليرموك عمرو بن الطفيل بن عمرو بن»

Part VIII — What was left

52. «Do not put al-Barā' over an army»

Runsheet: Answers what the room has been holding since #32 — the man who went over the wall lived. $\triangle$ The page opens with «قيل»: say "it is reported that 'Umar ^{رضي} wrote".

Hands-up is switched off: the room has just buried a field

Tier: GOOD · When: the caliphate of عمر ^{رضي}, ٢٣-١٣ هـ [SOURCED] for the caliphate; the letter itself is undated · Map: n/a

What happened: Anas b. Mālik's elder brother al-Barā' was the kind of fighter other men lined up behind. It is reported that 'Umar wrote to his army commanders about him, and the instruction was not to give him a command. The reason given was not that he was unreliable. It was the opposite.

Beats:

1. The man who went over the wall lived — al-Barā' b. Mālik ^{رضي}, and this is what was said of him afterwards.
2. His house — Brother of Anas b. Mālik ^{رضي}, who served the Prophet ﷺ ten years.
3. What is reported of 'Umar ^{رضي} — That he wrote to his army commanders about him.
4. The instruction — Do not put al-Barā' in command of an army.
5. The reason — Not that he was unreliable: that he presses forward, and takes the men with him.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

لَا تَسْتَعْمِلُوا الْبَرَاءَ عَلَى جَيْشٍ، فَإِنَّهُ مَهْلَكَةٌ مِنَ الْمَهَالِكِ يَقْدُمُ بِهِمْ.

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ١٩٦ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1622>

English: "Do not put al-Barā' in command of an army, for he is a destruction among destructions — he presses forward with them."

عبرت: Courage is not the same qualification as command, and a state has to know the difference.

Hands-up? yes — "Would you put the bravest man in the room in charge of the room?"

(Delivery note: the page opens with «قِيلَ». Say "it is reported that 'Umar^{رضي} wrote", not "'Umar wrote".)

53. «Do you see me dying in my bed?»

Runsheet: Cut first. △ The counts move — ninety-nine, ninety-odd, a hundred. Say "the reports give ninety-odd" and move on. Beat 4 is where he did die: تُسْتَرُّ، years later

Tier: GOOD · When: at Medina or Basra, undated · Map: n/a

What happened: Anas came in on his brother and found him singing over his bow. He asked him how long that was going to go on. His brother answered with a question of his own, and then with a number: ninety-nine men killed in single combat, not counting what he had shared in with everyone else. In a second telling Anas puts the question the other way and asks him why he sings poetry when Allah has given him the Qur'ān instead.

Beats:

1. His brother comes in on him — Anas^{رضي} finds him singing over his bow, and asks how long that will go on.
2. The answer is a question — Do you see me dying in my bed?
3. And then a number — The reports give ninety-odd killed in single combat, besides what he shared in with others.
4. He did not die in his bed — He was killed at Tustar, years later, in the assault he had prayed for.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

أَتَرَانِي أَمُوتُ عَلَى فِرَاشِي؟ وَاللَّهِ لَقَدْ قَتَلْتُ بِضْعاً وَتِسْعِينَ.

— سير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ١٩٨ · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1624>

English: "Do you see me dying in my bed? By Allah, I have killed ninety-odd."

عبرت: Two brothers in one house, and each thought the other needed correcting.

Hands-up? no (Delivery note: the counts move — ninety-nine in one chain, ninety-odd in another, a hundred in a third. Say "the reports give ninety-odd" and move on.)

54. The number nobody can give

Runsheet: The card that stops a wrong number being said aloud. [HANDS] 6: "How many men who had the whole Qur'ān by heart died that day? What would you guess?" — then the honest answer: the books do not give one Tier: CORE · When: ١٢٥, after the battle [SOURCED] · Map: n/a — this is the last slide of the al-Yamāma act.

What happened: After al-Yamāma, Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} ordered the Qur'ān collected, and the reason the books give is that the killing had run hot among the reciters. That is the phrase all three of them use. What none of them gives is a number. Ibn Kathīr's own summary of the Muslim dead is four hundred and fifty — and he says in the same breath that he is counting bearers of the Qur'ān, Companions and others together in that one figure. So we know why the Qur'ān was collected. We do not know how many reciters died. We only know that it was enough.

Beats:

1. The question the room is already asking — How many men who carried the Qur'ān died that day?
2. What the books do say — The killing ran hot among the reciters on the day of al-Yamāma.
3. What none of them gives — A number for the reciters.
4. Ibn Kathīr's own total — Four hundred and fifty Muslim dead, counting reciters, Companions and others together.
5. So we say it plainly — We know why the Qur'ān was collected. We do not know how many were lost. Only that it was enough.

Quote after beat: 2

The statement:

وذلك بعد ما استَحَرَّ القُتْلُ في القُرَّاء يوم اليمامة كما ثبت به الحديث في صحيح البخاري.

— صحيح البخاري ٤٩٨٦ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3225> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٧٩ —

English: "...and that was after the killing had run hot among the reciters on the day of al-Yamāma, as the ḥadīth in Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī establishes."

عبرت: They did not wait to find out how much had been lost before they secured what was left.

Hands-up? Before telling it: "How many men who had the whole Qur'ān by heart died that day? What would you guess?" — then give the honest answer: the books do not say. ⚠ This is the card that stops a wrong number being said. The figures the safe list does give run from 58 to more than 1,080 ($Y), and none of them is a count of reciters. ⚠ Anyone who says "450 reciters" has misread البدايه ج ٧ ص ٥٥.

55. The Qur'ān was collected because of this

Runsheet: The true ending. End here and go straight to the closing bookend — say nothing after it

Tier: CORE — the true ending · When: ١٢٥ [SOURCED] · Map: The Line, not the map. Put a single mark on ١٢٥.

What happened: So many of the reciters were killed at al-Yamāma that Abū Bakr ^{رض} ordered the Qur'ān gathered — from the flat stones and the palm-stalks and the memories of men — so that it would not go with them. Two of the four books say it in the same place, and both of them point at al-Bukhārī for it.

Beats:

1. Count this day's dead differently — So many of the reciters were killed at al-Yamāma.
2. Abū Bakr ^{رض} gives an order — Zayd b. Thābit ^{رض} is to gather the Qur'ān.
3. Out of what it was gathered — The flat stones, the palm-stalks, and the memories of men.

4. Why then — So that it would not go with the men who carried it.
5. Both books say it in the same place — al-Bidāya and al-Kāmil, and both point at al-Bukhārī.
6. The muṣḥaf in this room — It was gathered because of the men who were killed in that garden.

Quote after beat: 4

The statement:

فيها أمر الصديق زيد بن ثابت أن يجمع القرآن من اللّخاف والعُسب وصدور الرجال، وذلك بعد ما استحرّ القتل في القراء يوم اليمامة كما ثبت به الحديث في صحيح البخاري.

— صحيح البخاري ٤٩٨٦ — <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3225> · البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٧٩ —

English: "In it, al-Ṣiddīq ordered Zayd b. Thābit to gather the Qur'ān from the flat stones and the palm-stalks and the breasts of men — and that was after killing had grown severe among the reciters on the day of al-Yamāma, as the ḥadīth in Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī establishes."

عبرت: The mushaf the room reads from was gathered because of the men who were killed in the garden.

Hands-up? no — end here and go straight to the closing bookend.

الكامل ج ٢ ص ٢١٩ , in the same place: «أَمَرَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ بِجَمْعِ الْقُرْآنِ لِمَا رَأَى مِنْ كَثْرَةِ مَنْ قُتِلَ مِنَ الصَّحَابَةِ؛ لِئَلَّا يَذْهَبَ الْقُرْآنُ».