

al-Buṭāḥ and al-Yamāma

10–12 AH

1 · WHERE IT HAPPENED

Madina (Medina) is printed. Mark al-Buṭāḥ and al-Yamāma (‘Aqrabā’) as they are named, and write the name beside each.

2 · WHEN IT HAPPENED

Write the event above its date, in order, as we reach it: the letter from al-Yamāma · al-Buṭāḥ · Khālīd ^{رضي} at Medina · ‘Aqrabā’.

3 · WHO

Three lines are printed. The fourth is yours — write the one incident you want to remember about each man.

Mālik b. Nuwayra^{رضي}

Of Banū Yarbū' of Tamīm · al-Buṭāḥ, 11 AH

He told his own tribe to disperse and enter into this matter, then stood apart when the chiefs of Tamīm came in to Khālid^{رضي}, and was killed after a patrol took him — the books tell that night four ways, and Abū Bakr^{رضي} paid his blood-money.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

Mujjā'a b. Murāra

A chief of Banū Ḥanīfa · 'Aqrabā', 11→12 AH

Taken with a party of forty to sixty riders the night before the battle, he was kept alive, in irons, in Khālid's^{رضي} own tent.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

Thābit b. Qays^{رضي}

The orator of the Anṣār · at Uḥud and Bay'at al-Riḍwān · 'Aqrabā', 11→12 AH

He stood beside the Prophet ﷺ when Musaylima came to Medina, and was put over the Anṣār for al-Yamāma.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

4 · TONIGHT'S LESSONS

Write each one in your own words as it is said.
