

Evening 6 — Bahrayn and Ḥaḍramawt, and the other side of the desert

Every slide as the room will see it, and under it every word of its notes. On a moving map the slide shows the frame it ends on, and each click's picture sits under its ► CLICK line. The short lines at the top are what you say; everything under a drawn rule is there if you need it.

Evening 6

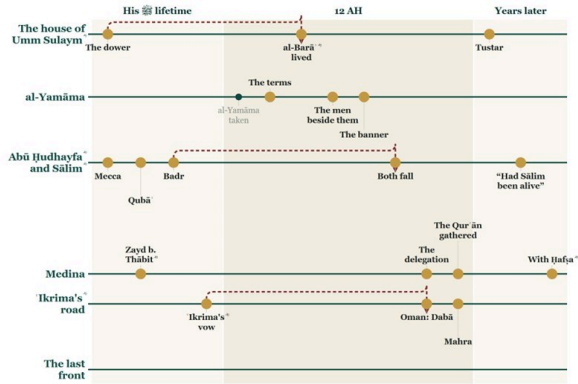

Bahrayn and Ḥaḍramawt

11–12 AH — the last two fronts

SAY

1. السلام عليكم — evening six.
2. Tonight: Bahrayn, and then Ḥaḍramawt — the last two fronts.

Where we stopped

BOOKEND IN — last week's Line, unchanged

SAY

1. Last week ended with Oman and Mahra settled.

From last week

Where we stand

Oman, Mahra settled by 'Ikrima ؓ and Ḥudhayfa

Ḥadramawt
not yet told

BOOKEND IN — last week's map, unchanged

SAY

1. Tonight: Bahrayn — and then Ḥadramawt, the last front.

Part I

Arabia, as the year 12 opens

SAY

1. Arabia, as the year 12 opens.

12 AH, Arabia

Arabia, as the year 12 opens

Bahrayn
not yet told

Ḥaḍramawt
not yet told

SAY

1. Where we are on the Line
2. Ibn Kathīr does not begin the year with a battle

► CLICK 1 — The two fronts we have not told: Bahrayn, and Ḥaḍramawt.

3. Right and left
4. What it was for, in his words
5. And what came of it
6. Which fronts you already have

7. Which two are still grey

8. And one step back before we go there

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

ASK — Before the map goes up: hands up if you thought these fronts were fought one after another.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Where we are on the Line — the year 12 opens. The map you are looking at is the one you walked out on last week.

2. Ibn Kathīr does not begin the year with a battle — he begins it with a description of where everybody was.

3. Right and left — the two direction words in the sentence you have just read out are the whole point: the armies were out in every direction at once, not taking their turn.

4. What it was for, in his words — to lay down the foundations of Islam, and to fight the tyrants among men.

5. And what came of it — the straying brought back, the truth returned to its place, the peninsula levelled, the furthest-off made as near as the nearest.

6. Which fronts you already have — al-Yamāma, the Yemen, Oman, Mahra. They overlapped. They were not fought one after another and then reported in a queue.

7. Which two are still grey — البحرين on the Gulf, and حضرموت on the south coast.

That is tonight.

8. And one step back before we go there — three things that were happening while you were watching al-Yamāma.

استُهلَّت هذه السنة، وجيوشُ الصديق وأمرأؤه الذين بعثهم لقتال أهل الردّة جَوَّالون في البلاد يمينًا وشمالًا،

لتمهيد قواعد الإسلام، وقتال الطُّغاة من الأنام، حتى ردَّ شارِد الدِّين بعد ذهابه، ورجع الحقُّ إلى نصابه،

"This year began while al-Ṣiddīq's armies and his commanders, whom he had sent to fight the people of the ridda, were roving the land right and left — to lay down the foundations of Islam and to fight the tyrants among men — until the straying of the religion was brought back after it had gone, and the truth returned to its proper place, and the Arabian peninsula was made level, and the furthest-off became like the nearest at hand."

— Ibn Kathīr, opening his chapter on the year 12 · ٦١ ص البداية والنهاية ج ٧

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

One view, and the page hedges it — on the same page, immediately after the dating of اليمامة > وقد قيل: إن وقعة جُوثا وعُمان ومهرة وما كان من الوقائع التي أشرنا إليها إنما كانت > اليمامة > <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3207> > 61البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > في سنة ثنتي عشرة

English: "And it has been said that the affair of Juwāthā, and Oman, and Mahra, and what there was > of the engagements we have referred to, were only in the year 12." △ The sentence opens with the hedge "and it has been said". Report it as one view, never as the book's own position. It matters for two reasons. It places Juwāthā — which is the البحرين front, tonight's first front — in the year 12. And it would put

Oman and Mahra, which this room was given last week, a year later than the course placed them. The course follows the narrative sequence; Ibn Kathīr records this as an alternative and does not choose. If a slip asks why the dates differ, that is the answer: the book carries both and declines to pick. Ibn Kathīr's own unhedged body text, on the same page — this one carries no "it is said": > وفيها كان قتلُ الملوك الأربعة: >

61البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > جَمْدٌ وَمُخْنُوسٌ وَأَبْضَعَةٌ وَمُشْرِحٌ

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3207> > English: "And in it was the killing of the four kings: Jamd, Mikhwas, Abḍa'a and Mishrah." The very next clause of the same sentence adds their sister: > 61البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > وأسروا أختهم العَمْرَدَةَ >

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3207> > English: "...and they took their sister al-'Amarrada captive." So the four kings of Kinda, whom evening 4 gave the room, are placed by Ibn Kathīr in the year 12, in his own voice. △ Spell the four names from the pool, not from this page. The pool prints Mikhwaṣ, Mishrah, Jamad, Abḍa'a, al-'Amarrada ; this page's own footnote (6) sets out how the manuscripts and the printed edition differ over three of the four and calls both readings corrupt, which is why the transliteration in the blockquote above — which follows this page — is not quite the pool's. Two artifacts must not disagree on a name: use the pool's forms on the slide.

△ The two blockquotes above are one sentence in the book, split here because a footnote marker «(6)» stands between them in the printed text. Read them as one line.

△△ The words "and they were killed on the day of al-Nujayr" on ص61 are the EDITOR'S FOOTNOTE, not Ibn Kathīr's body text. The phrase sits inside footnote (6) of that page, where Tadmuri is quoting al-Firūzābādī's القاموس >

61البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > فقتلوا يوم النُّجَيْرِ

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3207> > English: "...so they were killed on the day of al-Nujayr." Do not cite ص61 for the link between the four kings and al-Nujayr. That link is carried on the pool's own al-Nujayr pages; cite those.

اليمامة's date, on the same page, and it agrees with what the pool already says: وقد قال جماعة من علماء السير والتواريخ: إنّ وقعة اليمامة كانت في ربيع الأول من هذه السنة، > التي قبلها، والجمع بين القولين أنّ ابتداءها كان في السنة الماضية، [السنة] وقيل إنها كانت في أواخر 61. البدايه والنهايه ج 7 ص — > وانتهاءها وقع في هذه السنة الآتية

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3207> > English: "And a body of the scholars of sīra and of the histories have said that the affair of > al-Yamāma was in Rabī' al-Awwal of this year; and it is said that it was in the latter part of the > year before it. And the reconciling of the two views is that its beginning was in the year past and > its ending fell in this year coming." Δ The cache file reads «وقد قال» where the sense plainly requires «وقد قال». Eyeball this one against the page image before it reaches a slide . Safer still: speak the sense and quote only the reconciliation clause.

Δ This is Ibn Kathīr reconciling it in his own voice on ص 61, and it matches the pool's existing card (ص 49: begun in 11, سیر الراشدون ص + 36–35 البدايه ج 7 ص) finished in 12). Second page, same answer — do not present it as a new finding.

Δ "Concurrent" means the FRONTS overlapped — not that every action did. The sentence licenses the shape of the evening and no more than that. Several individual commanders' own fronts were plainly sequential, and the books say so in terms: 'Ikrima went to Oman, then to Mahra, then on to join al-Muhājir , and Khālid went Buzākha, then al-Buṭāḥ, then al-Yamāma. So the honest claim is: the fronts ran alongside one another; each commander's own road ran in order. If a listener presses, that distinction is the answer, and it costs nothing to give.

Δ THE MONTHS INSIDE 11–12هـ ARE NOT FIXED BY THE BOOKS. Two months are dated on pages we hold — Usāma's march in ربيع الأول 11هـ, and this page's ربيع الأول for اليمامة, which is itself one view of two. Everything else is sequence, not calendar. So the order this course tells the fronts in is the course's order, built from the narrative order and the explicit "when you are done with X, go to Y" instructions — not a dated timetable in the books. Say that aloud on this slide. It is the sentence that licenses the whole evening, and it is also what keeps the course honest.

Δ Cross-reference — the pool's closing card already carries Ibn Kathīr's وعامة ما وقع من هذه الحروب كان في أواخر سنة إحدى عشرة وأوائل سنة >

> 43 · البدايه والنهايه ج 7 ص — > ثنتي عشرة <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3189>

English: "And the general run of these wars was in the last part of the year 11 and the first part > of the year 12." This card and that one say the same thing from two pages and must not be made to disagree. RC80 is the opening frame; RC36 is the closing frame. If both are in the deck, RC80 states the shape and RC36 states the duration — do not let RC80 also claim the duration.

⚠ The quotation stops at «كالقريب الأدنى». The printed text continues with a bracketed «[الأقرب]», which footnote (2) marks as an addition from manuscript أ. It is left out deliberately.

12 AH, Arabia

Arabia, as the year 12 opens

اسْتُهْلَتْ هذه السنة، وجيوشُ الصديق وأُمرأوه الذين بعثهم لقتال أهل الرِّدة

This year began while al-Ṣiddīq's armies and his commanders, whom he had sent to fight the people of the ridda

جَوَّالون في البلاد يَمِينًا وَشَمَالًا were roving the land right and left

— Ibn Kathīr, opening his chapter on the year 12

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 61

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn Kathīr, opening his chapter on the year 12

LESSON — The book does not open the year with a battle. It opens it with a map — and on that map the armies are out in every direction at the same time.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

اسْتُهْلَتْ هذه السنة، وجيوشُ الصديق وأُمرأوه الذين بعثهم لقتال أهل الرِّدة جَوَّالون في البلاد يَمِينًا وَشَمَالًا،

لتمهيد قواعد الإسلام، وقاتل الطُّغاة من الأنام، حتى رَدَّ شارِد الدِّين بعد ذهابه، ورجع الحقُّ إلى نصابه،

"This year began while al-Ṣiddīq's armies and his commanders, whom he had sent to fight the people of the ridda, were roving the land right and left — to lay down the foundations of Islam and to fight the tyrants among men — until the straying of the religion was brought back after it had gone, and the truth returned to its proper place, and the Arabian peninsula was made level, and the furthest-off became like the nearest at hand."

————— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٦١

Part II

Bahrayn: the front that began first (11→12 AH)

SAY

1. Bahrayn: the front that began first (11→12 AH).

11 AH, the Gulf coast

From 'Ikrima's ^{عليه} journey, to Bahrayn

Last week

'Ikrima's ^{عليه} journey:
Oman, then Mahra

Tonight

Bahrayn — the front that began before them

Then

Ḥaḍramawt, the last front

BRIDGE

SAY

1. Last week: 'Ikrima's ^{عليه} journey east — Oman, then Mahra.
2. Tonight we go back once: to Bahrayn, which began before any of them.
3. Then forward, to Ḥaḍramawt — and we do not go back again.

Before the conquest of Mecca

Bahrayn, in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime

| al-Mundhir b.

Sāwāﷺ

holds Bahrayn for the Prophet ﷺ

| Hajar

its chief town

△ Ibn al-Athīr: year 6 — “or, it is said, 8”. Say “before the conquest of Mecca”.

SAY

1. Bahrayn is the whole Gulf coast of Arabia — not the island.

► CLICK 1 — The Prophet ﷺ sends al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī^{رحمہ} to al-Mundhir b. Sāwā.

2. al-Mundhir: of ‘Abd al-Qays, the ruler of Bahrayn.

► CLICK 2 — Bahrayn comes under Islam; al-Mundhir^{رحمہ} holds it for him.

3. Remember al-‘Alā’^{رضي}. Abū Bakr^{رضي} sends him to Bahrayn tonight.

11 AH, Bahrayn

al-Mundhir b. Sāwā ۞ — and Rabī'a

al-Jārūd ۞ holds 'Abd al-Qays to Islam

al-Ḥuṭam leads Bakr b. Wā'il out

△ Name no king — three books give his name three ways.

SAY

1. Bahrayn was already Muslim

► CLICK 1 — 11 AH. al-Mundhir ۞ dies, shortly after the Prophet ﷺ.

2. Two deaths, close together

► CLICK 2 — Rabī'a turn — all of Bahrayn but al-Jārūd ۞ and those with him.

3. Rabī'a turn

4. "We will restore the kingship"

5. Name no king

► CLICK 3 — al-Ḥuṭam b. Ḍubay'a comes out, at the head of Bakr b. Wā'il.

6. al-Ḥuṭam b. Ḍubay'a comes out

7. Not all of them had ever been Muslim

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Bahrayn was already Muslim — Under al-Mundhir b. Sāwā al-'Abdī^{رضه}, the Prophet's ﷺ own man there.

2. Two deaths, close together — The Prophet ﷺ; and shortly after him, al-Mundhir^{رضه}.

3. Rabī'a turn — all but al-Jārūd^{رضي} — Rabī'a in Bahrayn agreed on the ridda, except al-Jārūd^{رضي} and those who followed him.

4. "We will restore the kingship" — In a son of al-Nu'mān b. al-Mundhir's house: a monarchy brought back, not a false prophet followed.

5. Name no king — Three books give his name three ways; say only "a king of the old royal house".

6. al-Ḥuṭam b. Ḍubay'a comes out — Of Banū Qays b. Tha'laba, at the head of Bakr b. Wā'il.

7. Not all of them had ever been Muslim — Men who had never been Muslims joined him: on this front the ridda was not all ridda.

وَأَجْتَمَعَتْ رِبِيعُهُ بِالْبَحْرَيْنِ عَلَى الرِّدَّةِ إِلَّا الْجَارُودُ وَمَنْ تَبِعَهُ، وَقَالُوا: تَرُدُّ أَمْلَكَ
"And Rabī'a in Bahrayn agreed together upon the ridda — except al-Jārūd and those who followed him — and they said: we will restore the kingship."

— Ibn al-Athīr, on what Rabī'a said · ٢٢٢ ص في التاريخ ج ٢

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

كان من خبرهم أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ > (37البدايه ج 7 ص) The administration that was already there
ﷺ كان قد بعث العلاء بن الحضرمي إلى ملكها، المنذر بن ساوى العبدي، وأسلم على يديه وأقام فيهم
37البدايه والنهائيه ج 7 ص — > الإسلام والعدل، فلما توفي رسول الله ﷺ توفي المنذر بعده بقليل

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3183> > English: "The account of them is that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ had sent al-'Alā' b. al-Ḥaḍramī to > its king, al-Mundhir b.

Sāwā al-'Abdī, and he accepted Islam at his hands and established Islam and > justice among them. And when the Messenger of Allah ﷺ died, al-Mundhir died shortly after him." He was already ill when the news came (221الكامل ج 2 ص)

الكامل في التاريخ ج 2 — > مَاتَ النَّبِيُّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - كَانَ الْمُنْذِرُ بْنُ سَاوَى الْعَبْدِيِّ مَرِيضًا

ﷺ died, al-Mundhir b. Sāwā al-'Abdī was ill." What became of the governor — and it is on the page (37البدايه ج 7 ص) 38). 'Amr b. al-'Āṣ' was present with him in that final illness. Al-Mundhir asked him whether the Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to allow a sick man to assign anything out of his wealth; 'Amr' said yes, a third. He asked what to do with it, and 'Amr' offered him three ways — to give it to his relatives, or to the needy, or to make it a ṣadaqa after him, tied up and inalienable. He refused the third

— he said he disliked making it like the dedicated animals of the Jāhiliyya: > أن أجعله >
38· البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > كالبَحيرة والسَّائبة والوَصِيلَة والحام

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3184> > English: "...that I should make it like the baḥīra and the sā'iba and the waṣīla and the ḥām." He gave it away outright instead, and died; and 'Amr' used to marvel at him. △ This is a story about one man's scruple, not a ruling on waqf. Narrate it and move on; do not invite the room to draw a fiqh conclusion from it, and if a slip comes in asking, it goes to the later session. It is optional colour — the card works without it. △△ NAME NO KING — and this is the reason, so that no rebuild can undo it. Our pages carry three different forms of this man's name, and one of our authorities argues with himself about whether the word is a name at all: - «الغور», and the full form المنذر بن النعمان بن المنذر

ص7 ج — البدايه ج38 and 222 الكامل ج2 ص — 19، المعرور بن النعمان بن المنذر — البدايه ج7 ص - «الغور بن إسحاق inside the risings; - «ابن خلدون ج2 ص504»، - «الغور بن سويد» — ابن خلدون ج2 ص504, where the same two pages also carry the other form and the remark that

المعرور may be a name rather than a لقب. On stage: "they brought out a man of the old royal house and made him king." No name, no dynasty label. The word Lakhmid is modern scholarship and is on no page we hold [CONVENTIONAL-ESTIMATE]; الحيرة reaches us here only through ابن خلدون, who is framing-only — so neither word goes on the slide face. Not for the slide face — the naming, for the speaker only. Daniyal should see exactly what he is withholding, and that it is not a disagreement about who the man was but about what he was called: > تَرَدُّ الْمُلْكِ فِي الْمُنْذِرِ بْنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ تَرَدُّ الْمُلْكِ فِي الْمُنْذِرِ بْنِ النُّعْمَانِ بْنِ >
222 الكامل فى التاريخ ج2 ص — > الْمُنْذِرِ، وَكَانَ يُسَمَّى الْعُرُورُ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/913> > English: "We will restore the kingship in al-Mundhir b. al-Nu'mān b. al-Mundhir — and he used to > be called al-Gharūr." > فلما

مات المنذر ارتد أهل البحرين وملكوا عليهم الغور، وهو المنذر بن النعمان بن المنذر. وقال قائلهم: لو كان
> <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3184> > 38· البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > محمد نبياً ما مات

English: "When al-Mundhir died, the people of Bahrayn apostatised and made al-Gharūr king over > them — and he is al-Mundhir b. al-Nu'mān b. al-Mundhir. And one of them said: if Muḥammad had been > a prophet, he would not have died." △ The slogan in that second quotation belongs to , where it is answered — do not spend it here. If it is spoken on this card it must not be spoken again later in the evening; pick one. > 19· البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > وارتدت ربيعة مع المعرور بن النعمان بن المنذر >

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3165> (inside محمد بن إسحاق's roster) > English: "And Rabī'a apostatised with al-Ma'rūr b. al-Nu'mān b. al-Mundhir." ابن خلدون, named as his reading only — never as what happened. He reads the programme as the restoration of a client throne, and his own pages carry both name-forms: > ونصبوا > تاريخ ابن خلدون — > المنذر بن النعمان بن المنذر وكان يسمى المغرور، فأقاموه ملكاً كما كان قومه بالحيرة 504 ج 2 ص > <https://shamela.ws/book/12320/1301> > English: "And they set up al-Mundhir b. al-Nu'mān b. al-Mundhir, who used to be called > al-Maghrūr, and established him as a king, as his people had been at al-Hīra." > وأرسل إلى المغرور بن سويد > 504 تاريخ ابن خلدون ج 2 ص — > أخي النعمان بن المنذر

<https://shamela.ws/book/12320/1301> > English: "And he sent to al-Maghrūr b. Suwayd, brother of al-Nu'mān b. al-Mundhir." > — > ويقال إن المغرور اسمه وليس هو بلقب > 505 تاريخ ابن خلدون ج 2 ص > <https://shamela.ws/book/12320/1302> > English: "And it is said that al-Maghrūr is his name, and not a nickname." △ No ^{رب} for al-Mundhir b.

Sāwā on any artifact until a page is held. He accepted Islam in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime and held his appointment, and he is conventionally counted a Companion — but no page in sources/ states his Companionship, and al-'Alā' ^{رب} was sent to him, so our pages do not even place him in the Prophet's ﷺ presence. [STANDARD] (to verify). Nothing printed may carry the honorific; whether Daniyal says it aloud from his own knowledge is his own call. A الإصابة (or, سير) page (ترجمة, which is outside the safe list) would settle it in one fetch. △ The pun at the end of this front is not this card's. The captured king's own later line — "I am the deceived one, not the deceiver" (222 الكامل ج 2 ص) — belongs to the night of the trenches, where he is taken in the pursuit and becomes a Muslim — before the flight to Dārīn, not at it; ; (224 البدايه ج 7 ص 40, الكامل ج 2 ص). And note the tension before anyone speaks it: it is a pun on the very name this card refuses to say. It is Daniyal's decision whether to speak it at all; if he does, it is spoken as the man's own words about himself, after his Islam, and never as our label for him. △ It is not on as that card currently stands — if it is wanted, it has to be put there. △ Dating. The rising itself is 11هـ: it begins at the Prophet's ﷺ death and the governor's death shortly after. But Ibn Kathīr records a dissent about the fighting that followed — > وقد قيل: إن وقعة جوثا وعُمان ومهرة وما كان > 61 البدايه والنهايه ج 7 ص — > من الوقائع التي أشرنا إليها إنما كانت في سنة ثنتي عشرة

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3207> > English: "And it has been said that the affair of Juwāthā and Oman and Mahra, and the events we > have pointed to, were only in the year twelve." Do not let the Line put a hard 11هـ on the battles of this front.

11 AH, Bahrayn

al-Mundhir b. Sāwā ۞ — and Rabī'a

وَاجْتَمَعَتْ رِبِيعَةُ بِالْبَحْرَيْنِ عَلَى الرِّدَّةِ

And Rabī'a in Bahrayn agreed together upon the ridda

إِلَّا الْجَارُودُ وَمَنْ تَبِعَهُ

except al-Jārūd and those who followed him

وَقَالُوا: نَرُدُّ الْمُلْكَ and they said: we will restore the kingship.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on what Rabī'a said

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 222

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn al-Athīr, on what Rabī'a said

LESSON — The thing they wanted back on this front was not a religion. It was a throne.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

"And Rabī'a in Bahrayn agreed together upon the ridda — إِلَّا الْجَارُودُ وَمَنْ تَبِعَهُ، وَقَالُوا: نَرُدُّ الْمُلْكَ — except al-Jārūd and those who followed him — and they said: we will restore the kingship."

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٢

11 AH, Bahrayn

al-Jārūd b. al-Mu‘allā

‘Abd al-Qays were saying: had he been a prophet, he would not have died.

فَإِنَّ مُحَمَّدًا ﷺ مَاتَ كَمَا مَاتُوا

Muḥammad ﷺ has died just as they died

وَإِنِّي أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ and I bear witness that there is no god but Allah and that Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allah.

— al-Jārūd b. al-Mu‘allā, to his people

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 38

SAY

1. What ‘Abd al-Qays were saying
2. al-Jārūd b. al-Mu‘allā
3. He gathers them, and sets a condition
4. Were there prophets before him?
5. Do you know it, or only suppose it?
6. And what became of them?
7. "Then Muḥammad ﷺ died as they died"

1 read the Arabic on the slide

8. They said it back to him
9. He argued with nobody

LESSON — Both sides in that region were arguing from the same fact, and the difference was one man who asked his questions in the right order.

ASK — Before telling it: "Their slogan was: if he had been a prophet, he would not have died. How would you answer it?"

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. What 'Abd al-Qays were saying — "If Muḥammad had been a prophet, he would not have died."

2. al-Jārūd b. al-Mu'allā^{رضي} — Of 'Abd al-Qays; he had come to the Prophet ﷺ and learned the dīn with him.

3. He gathers them, and sets a condition — "Answer me if you know it, and do not answer me if you do not."

4. Were there prophets before him? — They said: yes.

5. Do you know it, or only suppose it? — They said: we know it.

6. And what became of them? — They said: they died.

7. "Then Muḥammad ﷺ died as they died" — And he bears witness aloud: no god but Allah, and Muḥammad is His servant and messenger.

8. They said it back to him — And added: you are the best of us, and our chief. They held firm on their Islam.

9. He argued with nobody — He asked them what they already knew, in order, and let them reach it themselves.

Muḥammad ﷺ "فإنَّ محمدًا ﷺ ماتَ كما ماتوا، وإني أشهدُ أن لا إله إلا الله وأنَّ محمدًا رسول الله died just as they died — and I bear witness that there is no god but Allah and that Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allah."

— al-Jārūd b. al-Mu'allā^{رضي}, to his people · ص ٣٨ ج ٧ البدايه والنهايه

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

The slogan itself, on the same page: «وقال قائلهم: لو كان محمد نبيًا ما مات». And on the same page, the besieged at جُواثى put their message out in four lines of verse: «أَبْلَغُ» △ «فُعود في جُواثا مُحصرينا ... فَهَلْ لَكُمْ إلى قومِ كرامٍ / وَفَتَيانَ المَدِينَةِ أَجْمَعينا ... أبا بَكْرٍ رَسولًا الكامل في التاريخ — > بِمَكَانٍ يُدعى طَاوُسَ فُقتِلَ سَوَّارٌ وَالْجَاوُودُ > English: "... at a place called Ṭāwūs; and Sawwār and al-Jārūd were killed." Still no dates on any page we hold. Ibn Hishām's note, as Ibn Kathīr carries it, is that he had been a Christian before his Islam .

11 AH, the coast of Bahrayn al-Ḥuṭam b. Ḍubayʿa

al-Ḥuṭam
comes down at al-
Qaṭīf and Hajar

Juwāthā
besieged by al-
Ḥuṭam's men

△ “Came down at” — the page does not say he took them.

△ The page does not say where al-Khaṭṭ is. The marker is approximate.

SAY

1. al-Ḥuṭam, with Bakr b. Wā'il

► CLICK 1 — al-Ḥuṭam comes down at al-Qaṭīf and at Hajar.

2. He comes down at al-Qaṭīf and Hajar

► CLICK 2 — al-Khaṭṭ is won over, with the Zuṭṭ and the Sabābija who live in it.

3. al-Khaṭṭ is won over

► CLICK 3 — He sends a force across the water, to Dārīn.

4. He sends a force to Dārīn

► CLICK 4 — And he sends to Juwāthā, and besieges the Muslims in it.

5. And he besieges Juwāthā

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. al-Ḥuṭam, with Bakr b. Wā'il — He is the man who does the fighting on this front.
2. He comes down at al-Qaṭīf and Hajar — "Came down at" is the page's verb. It does not say he took them.
3. al-Khaṭṭ is won over — A place the page names with the two peoples living in it, the Zuṭṭ and the Sabābija: drawn in, not marched on.
4. He sends a force to Dārīn — Across the water. Remember that island: this front ends there.

5. And he besieges Juwāthā — He sent to Juwāthā and shut the Muslims inside it.

وَحَرَجَ الْحُطَمُ بْنُ صُبَيْعَةَ أَخُو بَنِي قَيْسِ بْنِ ثَعْلَبَةَ فِي بَكْرِ بْنِ وَائِلٍ، فَاجْتَمَعَ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ غَيْرِ الْمُؤْتَدِّينَ مِمَّنْ لَمْ يَزَلْ
"And al-Ḥuṭam b. Ḍubay'a, of Banū Qays b. Tha'laba, went out at the head of Bakr b. Wā'il; and there gathered to him, besides the apostates, men who had never ceased to be idolaters."

— Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Ḥuṭam · ٢٢٢ ص الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

The ground, verbatim (الکامل ج 2 ص 222): > حَتَّى تَزَلَ الْقُطَيْفَ وَهَجَرَ، وَاسْتَعْوُوا الْحُطَّ وَمَنْ بِهَا مِنْ > (الکامل ج 2 ص 222) > الرُّطَّ وَالسَّبَابِجَةَ، وَبَعَثَ بَعْثًا إِلَى دَارِينَ، وَبَعَثَ إِلَى جُؤَاثَا فَحَصَرَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ al-Qaṭīf and Hajar, and they drew in al-Khaṭṭ and those of > the Zuṭṭ and the Sabābija who were there; and he sent a force to Dārīn, and he sent to Juwāthā and > besieged the Muslims." — exactly what we may say, and no more.

الکامل ج 2 ص 222 gives two things only: they were at الْحُطَّ, and they were drawn in with the place. They are listed apart from the Arab tribes, which is why they are named at all. No page in sources/shamela/ glosses either name — the only other cached occurrence is (الزُّطَّ والسَّابِجَةُ) 610 ص 2 «ابن خلدون ج 2 ص 610», forty men on guard), a different event thirty years later, which identifies nothing. So: say they were two communities already settled on that coast who were brought in with it, and say that who they were is not in the books we read.

⚠ Any identification beyond that needs معجم البلدان or a ترجمة fetched first. Do not supply one from general knowledge. ⚠ Two sieges, or one told twice?

Record it; do not resolve it. The same page carries both: > وَحَصَرَهُمْ أَصْحَابُ الْمُنْذِرِ

222 الكامل في التاريخ ج 2 ص — > بَعْدَهُ حَتَّى اسْتَنْقَذَهُمُ الْعَلَاءُ بْنُ الْحَضَرَمِيِّ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/913> > English: "And al-Mundhir's own men besieged them after him, until al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī > delivered them." That sentence besieges عبد القيس and attributes it to the dead governor's own men;

the sentence in this card's second quotation besieges جُوَاثِي and attributes it to al-Ḥuṭam. جُوَاثِي was a stronghold of 38, ed. fn. quoting (البدایه ج 7 ص

(معجم البلدان), so these are plausibly one siege reported twice — but no page says so, and we do not say it either. On stage, tell one siege: the one at جُوَاثِي. △

— this card is the only place al-Ḥuṭam is introduced, and it must never be cut.

His death is told on (the stirrup-leather, the severed foot, Qays b. ‘Āṣim's regret) and his embroidered cloak carries — and in the delivered series his name reaches a slide face for the first time on the last card of the block, after he is already dead. If this card is cut, a man the room has never met dies in front of it. △ Dating: as — the rising is 11هـ; Ibn Kathīr records that some put the fighting of this front, جُوَاثِي included, in 12هـ (البدایه ج 7 ص 61).

11 AH, the coast of Bahrayn al-Ḥuṭam b. Ḍubay‘a

وَحَرَجَ الْحُطَمُ بْنُ ضُبَيْعَةَ أَخُو بَنِي قَيْسٍ بْنِ ثَعْلَبَةَ فِي بَكْرِ بْنِ وَائِلٍ

And al-Ḥuṭam b. Ḍubay‘a, of Banū Qays b. Tha‘laba, went out at the head of Bakr b. Wā‘il

فَاجْتَمَعَ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ غَيْرِ الْمُتَدِّينَ مِمَّنْ لَمْ يَزَلْ مُشْرِكًا and there gathered to him, besides the apostates, men who had never ceased to be idolaters.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Ḥuṭam

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 222

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Ḥuṭam

LESSON — The word «ridḍa» names this whole front, and on this front it does not fit everyone inside it. Some of those men had never been Muslims to leave.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

وَحَرَجَ الْحُطَمُ بْنُ ضُبَيْعَةَ أَخُو بَنِي قَيْسٍ بْنِ ثَعْلَبَةَ فِي بَكْرِ بْنِ وَائِلٍ، فَاجْتَمَعَ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ غَيْرِ الْمُتَدِّينَ مِمَّنْ لَمْ يَزَلْ

مُشْرِكًا "And al-Ḥuṭam b. Ḍubay‘a, of Banū Qays b. Tha‘laba, went out at the head of Bakr b. Wā‘il; and there gathered to him, besides the apostates, men who had never ceased to be idolaters."

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٢ ————

11 AH, Juwāthā Juwāthā

Inside Juwāthā — besieged, and starving.

أَلَا أُبَلِّغُ أَبَا بَكْرٍ رَسُولًا ... وَفَتَيَانَ الْمَدِينَةِ أَجْمَعِينَ

Take a message to Abū Bakr, and to all the young men of Medina:

فَهَلْ لَكُمْ إِلَى قَوْمٍ كِرَامٍ ... فُعُودٍ فِي جُؤَاثَا مُحْصَرِينَ have you any thought for a noble people, sitting besieged in Juwāthā?

— ‘Abd Allāh b. Ḥadhf, besieged in Juwāthā

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 222

⚠ Do not speak the fourth line of the verse — the two books differ.

SAY

1. One village did not break
2. Shut in, and starving
3. A man inside sends four lines
4. Read the first two lines
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
5. Do not speak the fourth line
6. "Until Allah relieved them"

LESSON — The place that held out longest was one village, and its message out was four lines of verse.

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. One village did not break — Juwāthā: Ibn Kathīr says no other town in Bahrayn held.
2. Shut in, and starving — off from food until the hunger became severe.
3. A man inside sends four lines — ‘Abd Allāh b. Ḥadhf, one of the besieged.
4. Read the first two lines — A message to Abū Bakr [ؓ] and all the young men of Medina.

5. Do not speak the fourth line — The two books print a different word in it.

6. "Until Allah relieved them" — Ibn Kathīr's own words for how the siege ended; he gives no terms.

"قُعُودٍ فِي جُؤَاثَا مُحْصَرِينَآ ... وَفَتْيَانِ الْمَدِينَةِ أَجْمَعِينَآ فَهَلْ لَكُمْ إِلَى قَوْمِ كِرَامٍ ... أَلَا أُنَبِّغُ أَبَا بَكْرٍ رَسُولًا message to Abū Bakr, and to all the young men of Medina: have you any thought for a noble people, sitting besieged in Juwāthā?"

— ‘Abd Allāh b. Ḥadhaf, besieged in Juwāthā · ٢٢٢ ص الكامل ج ٢ (also ٣٨ ص ٧ البدايه ج ٧)

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

⚠ The rising there was not all apostasy: 222 notes that men who had never been Muslims joined al-Ḥuṭam — «مَنْ لَمْ يَزَلْ مُشْرِكًا». And nearby, ‘Abd al-Qays held firm behind al-Jārūd^ه. No honest map shades Bahrayn one colour.

⚠ The last hemistich of the verse differs between the two books (النصر / الصبر): read it off a page image before it reaches a slide.

11 AH, Medina to al-Dahnā'

al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī — the sixteen

al-‘Alā’^ⲉ sixteen riders, then an army

al-Dahnā’
he camps in the middle of it

△ The page names who joined him, not his road. The road is drawn through their lands.

SAY

1. al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī^ⲉ

► CLICK 1 — al-‘Alā’^ⲉ leaves Medina.

2. Sixteen riders, and a letter

► CLICK 2 — Thumāma^ⲉ joins, with Banū Ḥanīfa.

3. Thumāma b. Uṭhāl joins

► CLICK 3 — Qays b. 'Āṣim joins, and other clans of Tamīm.

4. Qays b. 'Āṣim joins, and more

► CLICK 4 — Into al-Dahnā'.

5. Into al-Dahnā'

6. Abū Hurayra^{رضي الله عنه} was on this march

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

ASK — line. notes for reads everything after that line into

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī^{رضي الله عنه} — The man the Prophet ﷺ had sent to Bahrayn; Abū Bakr^{رضي الله عنه} sends him now.

2. Sixteen riders, and a letter — Every Muslim he passes is to march out with him.

3. Thumāma b. Uthāl^{رضي الله عنه} joins — With the Muslims of Banū Ḥanīfa.

4. Qays b. ‘Āṣim joins, and more — He had divided the ṣadaqa out among his own clans, and repented; now he brings ṣadaqa out to meet him. Then other clans of Tamīm — a force the size of his own.

5. Into al-Dahnā' — He takes them into the sands, and camps in the middle of it.

6. Abū Hurayra^{رضي الله عنه} was on this march — He went back afterwards with a guide, to look at the place.

فَخَرَجَ مِنَ الْمَدِينَةِ فِي سِتَّةِ عَشَرَ رَاكِبًا، وَكَتَبَ لَهُ كِتَابًا: أَنْ يَنْفِرَ مَعَهُ كُلُّ مَنْ مَرَّ بِهِ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ إِلَى عَدُوِّهِمْ.

"He left Medina with sixteen riders, and he wrote him a letter: that every Muslim he passed should march out with him against their enemy."

— al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Sa‘d · ٢٤٤ ج ١ سير أعلام النبلاء

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

BACKGROUND, which is where the lifted Arabic belongs: the beats are what he says aloud, this is what he reads at home. markdown Who he was, in one breath — and all three lines are on a page we hold: > وَلَئِكَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ -صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ- الْبَحْرَيْنِ، ثُمَّ وَلِيَهَا >

سير أعلام النبلاء ج 1 ص 263 · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1689> > لَأُيِّي بَكْرٍ، وَغُمَرَ

English: "The Messenger of Allah صلى الله عليه وسلم appointed him over Bahrayn; then he held it for Abū Bakr, and for ‘Umar." > ثُوْفِي سَنَةً: إِحْدَى وَعَشْرَيْنِ >

سير أعلام النبلاء — > وقد كان العلاء من سادات الصحابة العلماء العبّاد مجابي الدعوة > 264 ج 1 ص

البدايه والنهايه — > وقد كان العلاء من سادات الصحابة العلماء العبّاد مجابي الدعوة > 39 ج 7 ص

English: "al-‘Alā’ was among the chiefs of the Companions, the learned, the much-worshipping, whose supplication was answered." The three questions, the فجر, and the water — البديهي's telling, which is fuller than the one the card carries: > أيها الناس أَلستم المسلمين؟ أَلستم في سبيل الله؟ أَلستم — البديهي والنهاية ج7 — > أَنْصَرَ اللهُ؟ قالوا: بلى، قال: فأبشروا فوالله لا يخذل الله مَنْ كَانَ في مثل حالكم 39ص > <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185> > English: "O people — are you not the Muslims? Are you not in the path of Allāh? Are you not the helpers of Allāh? They said: yes. He said: then rejoice, for by Allāh, Allāh does not abandon men who are in a state like yours." > البديهي — > على رُكْبتيه وجثا الناس، ونصب في الدعاء ورفع يديه وفعل الناس مثله حتى طلعت الشمس 39والنهاية ج7ص > <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185> > English: "The call was given for the dawn prayer as the fajr broke, and he prayed with the people; and when he had finished the prayer he went down on his knees, and the people went down on theirs, and he set himself to supplicate and raised his hands, and the people did as he did, until the sun rose." > فلما بلغ الثالثة إذا قد خلق الله إلى جانبهم غديرًا > 39البديهي والنهاية ج7ص — > عظيمًا من الماء القراح > English: "And when he reached the third time — there, Allāh had created beside them a great pool of sweet, clear water." > فما تعالى النهار حتى أقبلت الإبل من كل فجٍّ بما > 39البديهي والنهاية ج7ص — > عليها، لم يفقد الناس من أمتعتهم سلًا

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185> > English: "And the day had not grown high before the camels came in from every pass with their loads upon them; the people had not lost a thread of their baggage." And أبو هريرةؓ was standing in it — the detail that puts a Companion the whole room knows inside the scene, and it is الكامل's, not وَكَانَ أَبُو هُرَيْرَةَ فِيهِمْ، فَلَمَّا سَارُوا عَنْ ذَلِكَ الْمَكَانِ قَالَ لِمَنْجَابِ بْنِ رَاشِدٍ: كَيْفَ عَلِمْتُكَ بِمَوْضِعِ السَّبَايَةِ > 223 الكامل في التاريخ ج 2 ص — > الْمَاءُ؟ قَالَ: غَارَفَ بِهِ. فَقَالَ لَهُ: كُنْ مَعِيَ حَتَّى تُقِيمَنِي عَلَيْهِ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914> > English: "And Abū Hurayra was among them. When they had moved on from that place he said to Minjāb b. Rāshid: how well do you know where the water is? He said: I know it. He said to him: come with me until you set me over it." > وَمَلَأْتُ إِذَاوَيْتِي ثُمَّ وَصَعْتُهَا عَلَى شَفِيرِ الْعُدَيْرِ وَقُلْتُ: إِنْ كَانَ مَتًا مِنَ الْمَنْ عَرَفْتُهُ، > 223 الكامل في التاريخ ج2 ص — > وَإِنْ كَانَ عَيْنًا عَرَفْتُهُ، فَإِذَا مَنَّ مِنَ الْمَنْ. فَحَمَدَ اللَّهُ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914> > English: "... and I filled my water-skin, then set it on the lip of the pool and said: if it is a gift of the kind that is given, I shall know it; and if it is a spring, I shall know it — and it was a gift of the kind that is given. And he praised Allāh."

⚠ This is a كرامة narrative, and in البدايه it comes through سيف بن عمر. The card's own standing instruction, kept: narrate it as what the book narrates; build no doctrinal point on it. Beat 9 carries that to the lectern, which is the only place it was missing. Δ «Abū Hurayra^ر was his muezzin» — on the page, but the page marks the chain very weak. 264 سير ج 1 ص بعثني رسول الله ﷺ مع العلاء» carries «The Messenger of Allah ﷺ sent me with al-ʿAlā b. al-Ḥaḍramī and charged him concerning me, and I used to give the adhān for him" — and that same page's editorial note says of its isnād: وإسناده > 264 سير أعلام النبلاء ج 1 ص — > ضعيف جدا لان الواقدي

<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1690> > English: "... and its isnād is very weak, because al-Wāqidi is discarded." Do not say it flatly. What is solid is الكامل's «وكان أبو هريرة فيهم» — he was among them on that march — and that is what beat 8 says. Δ The books give no total for the force that reached Bahrayn.

222 الكامل ج 2 ص «في مثل غدته» says only that the Rabāb came in the like of his own number. There is no figure anywhere we hold. If a slip asks how many, say the books do not give one. Δ 264 سير compresses this campaign into two lines and its order is not the order we tell. Where الكامل and البدايه have هجر، the pincer and a month of trenches, 264 سير ج 1 ص: > فَسَارَ الْعَلَاءُ فِيمَنْ تَبِعَهُ، حَتَّى لَحِقَ > فَسَارَ الْعَلَاءُ فِيمَنْ تَبِعَهُ، حَتَّى لَحِقَ

— > بِحَصْنِ جَوَافِي (3)، فَقَاتَلَهُمْ، فَلَمْ يُفْلِتْ مِنْهُمْ أَحَدٌ. ثُمَّ أَتَى الْقَطِيفَ وَبِمَا جَمَعَ، فَقَاتَلَهُمْ، فَأَهْرَمُوا > بِحَصْنِ جَوَافِي (3)، فَقَاتَلَهُمْ، فَلَمْ يُفْلِتْ مِنْهُمْ أَحَدٌ. ثُمَّ أَتَى الْقَطِيفَ وَبِمَا جَمَعَ، فَقَاتَلَهُمْ، فَأَهْرَمُوا 264 سير أعلام النبلاء ج 1 ص > English: "So al-ʿAlā' marched with those who followed him, until he reached the fort of Juwāthā, and fought them, and not one of them escaped. Then he came to al-Qaṭīf, where there was a gathering, and fought them, and they were routed."

Tell الكامل's and البدايه's sequence — the march, هجر، the trench month, the night attack, سير دارين. is a biographical summary, not a second battle, and its wording at جَوَافِي does not make clear whom he fought there. That ambiguity is not to be resolved from the platform. عبرت: The state had almost no soldiers to send; what it sent instead was a commander and a piece of writing. Hands-up? Before telling it: "You have sixteen men and a province in revolt. What do you send?" On the road: in the middle of the Dahnā' the camels bolted at night with the water, the food and the tents, and the men were left in open sand. He told them — لَنْ تَرَاعُوا، أَنْتُمْ الْمُسْلِمُونَ، وَفِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ، وَأَنْصَارُ اللَّهِ، فَأَبْشُرُوا، فَوَاللَّهِ لَنْ تُخَذَّلُوا» —

39 البدايه ج 7 ص (223) الكامل ج 2 ص and prayed with them until sunrise, and water appeared beside them and the camels came back with nothing missing. Narrate it as what the book narrates; do not build a doctrinal point on it.

11 AH, Medina to al-Dahnā'

al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī — the sixteen

فَخَرَجَ مِنَ الْمَدِينَةِ فِي سِتَّةَ عَشَرَ رَاكِبًا

He left Medina with sixteen riders

وَكَتَبَ لَهُ كِتَابًا:

and he wrote him a letter:

أَنْ يَنْفِرَ مَعَهُ كُلُّ مَنْ مَرَّ بِهِ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ إِلَى عَدُوِّهِمْ.

*that every Muslim he passed should march out with him against their enemy.— al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Sa‘d

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 1, p. 264

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.WHO IS SPEAKING — al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Sa‘d*LESSON — The state had almost no soldiers to send; what it sent instead was a commander and a piece of writing.*————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

فَخَرَجَ مِنَ الْمَدِينَةِ فِي سِتَّةَ عَشَرَ رَاكِبًا، وَكَتَبَ لَهُ كِتَابًا: أَنْ يَنْفِرَ مَعَهُ كُلُّ مَنْ مَرَّ بِهِ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ إِلَى عَدُوِّهِمْ.

"He left Medina with sixteen riders, and he wrote him a letter: that every Muslim he passed should march out with him against their enemy."

———— سِير أعلام النبلاء ج ١ ص ٢٦٤

11 AH, al-Dahnā' — night

al-‘Alā’^١ at al-Dahnā’ — three questions

Night, in the sands. The camels have bolted with all they had.

أيها الناس أَلستم المسلمين؟

O people — are you not the Muslims?

أَلستم في سبيل الله؟

Are you not in the path of Allah?

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī^٢, to the army

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 39

△ Tell it as the book tells it — it comes through Sayf b. ‘Umar.

SAY

1. Night, in the middle of the sands
2. Nothing left but their clothes
3. He calls them together
4. Three questions

↑ read the Arabic on the slide

5. They said: yes
6. "Then rejoice"

LESSON — He did not promise them water. He reminded them who they were.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (3 slides in all)

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Night, in the middle of the sands — The camels bolt with the food, the tents and the water; not one is caught.
2. Nothing left but their clothes — The men begin making their bequests to one another.
3. He calls them together — al-‘Alā’^٣ has his caller summon the whole column.

4. Three questions — Are you not the Muslims? Are you not in the path of Allah? Are you not the helpers of Allah?

5. They said: yes — All of them.

6. "Then rejoice" — "By Allah, Allah does not abandon those who are in a state like yours."

أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ أَلَسْتُمْ الْمُسْلِمِينَ؟ أَلَسْتُمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ؟ أَلَسْتُمْ أَنْصَارَ اللَّهِ؟ قَالُوا: بَلَى، قَالَ: فَأَبَشِرُوا فَوَاللَّهِ لَا يَخْذُلُ اللَّهُ
"O people — are you not the Muslims? Are you not in the path of Allah? Are you not the helpers of Allah?" They said: "Yes." He said: "Then rejoice — for by Allah, Allah does not abandon those who are in a state like yours."

البدایہ والنہایہ ج ٧ ص ٣٩ · al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī^{رحمہ اللہ}, to the army

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

△ Narrate it as the book narrates it. In البدایہ this account comes through Sayf b. ‘Umar; it is told, and no ruling or creed is built on it.

IMAGE BRIEF — paste into the image generator

Night in a sand desert. A scatter of pack-saddles, water-skins and folded tents left on the sand, and the tracks of many camels running off into the dark; a few camels far away, small, moving away from the viewer. A sky full of stars. Empty and still. Restrained editorial illustration, muted ochre, deep teal and bone. Flat pure-white background (#FFFFFF) with no border, so it sits on a white slide with no seam. No text, no lettering, no map. No people and no faces — landscape, animals and objects only. 16:9.

11 AH, al-Dahnā' — night

al-‘Alā’ ٱ at al-Dahnā' — three questions

أَلَسْتُمْ أَنْصَارَ اللَّهِ؟

Are you not the helpers of Allah?

قالوا: بلى

They said: "Yes."

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī, to the army

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 39

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 3).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

أَلَسْتُمْ أَنْصَارَ اللَّهِ؟ Are you not the helpers of Allah? قالوا: بلى They said: "Yes."

11 AH, al-Dahnā' — night

al-‘Alā’ ٱ at al-Dahnā' — three questions

قال: فأبشروا فوالله لا يخذل الله من كان في مثل حالكم

He said: Then rejoice — for by Allah, Allah does not abandon those who are in a state like yours.

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī, to the army

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 39

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 3 of 3).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

قال: فأبشروا فوالله لا يخذل الله من كان في مثل حالكم He said: Then rejoice — for by Allah, Allah does not abandon those who are in a state like yours.

11 AH, al-Dahnā' — dawn

al-'Alā' ﷻ at al-Dahnā' — the prayer

Dawn. An army with nothing left but its clothes.

فلما قضى الصلاة جثا على رُكبتيه وجثا الناسُ

When he had finished the prayer he went down on his knees, and the people went down on theirs

ونصبَ في الدعاء ورفع يديه وفعلَ الناسُ مثله حتى طلعت الشمس

he set himself to supplication and raised his hands, and the people did as he did, until the sun rose.

— Ibn Kathīr, on what al-'Alā' ﷻ did at dawn

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 39

△ Tell it as the book tells it — build no ruling on it.

SAY

1. Fajr is called
2. He kneels, and they kneel
 - 1 read the Arabic on the slide
3. The shimmer, again and again
4. At the third time: water
5. And the camels come back
6. "Among the signs of Allah"
7. Told as the book tells it

LESSON — The first thing he did with an army that had lost everything was pray.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Fajr is called — At dawn he leads them in the prayer.
2. He kneels, and they kneel — He raises his hands in du'ā' and the men do the same — until the sun is up.
3. The shimmer, again and again — They watch the mirage on the sand while he keeps on in his du'ā'.

4. At the third time: water — A great pool of pure water beside them; they walk to it, drink, and wash.

5. And the camels come back — From every pass, with everything on them; not a thread was lost.

6. "Among the signs of Allah" — Ibn Kathīr's own closing words for what the men saw on that expedition.

7. Told as the book tells it — It comes through Sayf b. 'Umar; narrate it, and build nothing on it.

فلما قضى الصلاة جثا على ركبتيه وجثا الناس، ونصب في الدعاء ورفع يديه وفعل الناس مثله حتى طلعت الشمس
"When he had finished the prayer he went down on his knees, and the people went down on theirs; he set himself to supplication and raised his hands, and the people did as he did, until the sun rose."

— Ibn Kathīr, on what al-'Alā' ^{رضي} did at dawn · ص ٣٩ ج ٧ والبدايه والنهايه

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

What the book then narrates: > فلما بلغ الثالثة إذا قد خلق الله إلى جانبهم غديرًا عظيمًا من الماء > القراح، فمشى ومشى الناس إليه فشربوا واغتسلوا، فما تعالى النهار حتى أقبلت الإبل من كل فجٍّ بما عليها، لم
39البدايه والنهايه ج 7 ص — > يفقد الناس من أمتعتهم سلًا

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185> > English: "When he reached the third time, Allah had created beside them a great pool of pure water. > He walked to it, and the people walked to it, and they drank and washed; and the day was not high before > the camels came from every pass with what was on them — the people did not lose a thread of their baggage." And Ibn Kathīr's closing line: > فكان هذا مما عاين >
39البدايه والنهايه ج 7 ص — > الناس من آيات الله بهذه السرية

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185> > English: "This was among the signs of Allah that the people saw with their own eyes on that expedition."

———— IMAGE BRIEF — paste into the image generator —————

First light over a sand desert. In the foreground a wide, still pool of clear water lying in a hollow between dunes, catching the dawn; in the distance a line of loaded camels walking back toward it from several directions. Restrained editorial illustration, muted ochre, deep teal and bone. Flat pure-white background (#FFFFFF) with no border, so it sits on a white slide with no seam. No text, no lettering, no map. No people and no faces — landscape, animals and objects only. 16:9.

11 AH, al-Dahnā'

al-‘Alā’ ﷻ at al-Dahnā’ — the du‘ā’

يا عليُّم، يا حليم، ويا عليُّ، يا عظيم

O All-Knowing, O Forbearing, O Most High, O Tremendous

إنا عبيدُك وفي سبيلك نقاتلُ عدوك

we are Your servants, and in Your path we fight Your enemy — al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī ﷻ — in another telling, that of Sahm b. Minjāb

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 6, p. 231

△ Another telling, on another page. Do not join it to the dawn prayer.SAY

1. In another telling
2. Read the du‘ā’
 - 1 read the Arabic on the slide
3. "We are Your servants, and in Your path"
4. And at the sea
5. Two tellings, not one

LESSON — He said whose servants they were before he asked for anything.► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)*DETAIL — only if you need it

1. In another telling — Sahm b. Minjāb tells this march in the first person; Ibn Kathīr carries it among the signs.
2. Read the du‘ā’ — Slowly. Four names of Allah; then whose they are; then what they ask.
3. "We are Your servants, and in Your path" — He says whose they are before he asks for anything.

4. And at the sea — The same telling has one line for the crossing: "Make for us a way to Your enemy."

5. Two tellings, not one — There: the dawn prayer, on their knees, a pool. Here: two rak'as, and rain. Do not join them.

وقال في الدعاء: يا عظيم، يا حلیم، ويا علي، يا عظيم، إنا عبيدك وفي سبيلك نقاتل عدوك، اسقنا عَيْناً نشرب
And "منه ونتوضأ، فإذا تركناه فلا تجعل لأحدٍ فيه نصيباً غيرنا. وقال في البحر: اجعل لنا سبيلاً إلى عدوك he said in the supplication: O All-Knowing, O Forbearing, O Most High, O Tremendous — we are Your servants, and in Your path we fight Your enemy; give us rain from which we may drink and make wuḍū', and when we leave it, give no one a share in it but us. And he said at the sea: Make for us a way to Your enemy."

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī[ؒ] — in another telling, that of Sahm b. Minjāb · البدايه والنهائيه

ج ٦ ص ٢٣١

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

⚠ Not the dawn telling. These words are on a different page, through a different chain (Sahm b. Minjāb, by way of Ibn Abī al-Dunyā and al-Bayhaqī). The page that describes the kneeling gives no words . ⚠ Eyeball the du‘ā’ against the page image before it is projected (CLAUDE.md). ⚠ No honorific for Sahm b. Minjāb: no page we hold states his Companionship. ## Yemen I: al-Aswad al-‘Ansī, from the Abnā’ to the dawn adhān Source note: [] — read it for the pages behind these cards.

11 AH, al-Dahnā'

al-‘Alā’ ٱ at al-Dahnā’ — the du‘ā’

اسقنا غَيِّثًا نشربُ منه ونتوضَّأُ give us rain from which we may drink and make wuḍū’

فإذا تركناه فلا تجعل لأحدٍ فيه نصيبًا غيرنا and when we leave it, give no one a share in it but us

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī ٱ — in another telling, that of Sahm b. Minjāb

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 6, p. 231

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

DETAIL — only if you need itاسقنا غَيِّثًا نشربُ منه ونتوضَّأُ give us rain from which we may drink and make wuḍū’ فإذافإذا تركناه فلا تجعل لأحدٍ فيه نصيبًا غيرنا and when we leave it, give no one a share in it but us

11 AH, Hajar

Hajar — the trench month

al-‘Alā’ ٱلْأَلَا camps at Hajar; comes down from that side

al-Jārūd brings 'Abd al-Qays
down from theirs

⚠ A diagram: the page gives sides, no distances. Say “not to scale”.

SAY

► CLICK 1 — al-‘Alā’ ^{زفر} comes out of al-Dahnā’ and camps at Hajar.

1. al-‘Alā’ ^{رضه} camps at Hajar

► CLICK 2 — He sends to al-Jārūd^{جروود} — and ‘Abd al-Qays come down on al-Huṭam from their side.

2. He sends for al-Jārūd^ج

► CLICK 3 — He comes down on him from the Hajar side. Every one gathers.

3. And comes down on him himself

4. Everyone gathers

► CLICK 4 — Both sides dig trenches.

5. Both sides dig trenches

► CLICK 5 — A month. They fight by turns, and go back to their trenches.

6. A month

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

ASK — line.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. al-'Alā' ^{رضي} camps at Hajar — Out of al-Dahnā', the army comes down at Hajar itself.
2. He sends for al-Jārūd ^{رضي} — To bring 'Abd al-Qays down on al-Ḥuṭam from their own side.
3. And comes down on him himself — From the side next to Hajar.
4. Everyone gathers — All of them to al-Ḥuṭam, except the men of Dārīn; all the Muslims to al-'Alā' ^{رضي}.

5. Both sides dig trenches — The Muslims round themselves, and the enemy round theirs.

6. A month — They fight by turns and go back to their trenches; a month of it.

وَحَنَدَقَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَالْمُشْرِكُونَ، وَكَانُوا يَتَرَاوَحُونَ الْقِتَالَ وَيَرْجِعُونَ إِلَى حَنْدَقِهِمْ، فَكَانُوا كَذَلِكَ شَهْرًا "The Muslims dug a trench round themselves, and so did the mushrikūn; they would fight by turns and go back to their trench, and they went on like that for a month."

— Ibn al-Athīr, on the trench month · ص ٢٢٣ ج ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

△ AND DELETE its existing sub-note The chief's death, and the regret — البدايه ص 39: ج 7 ... now carries that whole scene, with الكامل's name for the man who cut the leg and the sequence settled. Two artifacts must not tell it twice (CLAUDE.md). markdown The dispositions — this is the beat that was on no card, and it is what makes pay off militarily: > ثُمَّ سَارُوا فَتَزَلُّوا بِحَجَرٍ، وَأَرْسَلَ الْعَلَاءُ إِلَى > الْجَارُودِ يَأْمُرُهُ أَنْ يَنْزِلَ بِعَبْدِ الْقَيْسِ عَلَى الْحُطَمِ مِمَّا يَلِيهِ، وَسَارَ هُوَ فَيَمْنُ مَعَهُ حَتَّى نَزَلَ عَلَيْهِ مِمَّا يَلِي هَجَرَ

> English: 233 · https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914 > English: "Then they marched on and camped at Hajar. And al-'Alā' sent to al-Jārūd, ordering him to come down with 'Abd al-Qays upon al-Ḥuṭam from his own side, while he himself marched with those who were with him until he camped against him on the Hajar side."

△ Beat 2 only works if the room has met al-Jārūd . He is — Al-Jārūd asks his tribe five questions — and that card is CORE. If is cut from the running order, beat 2 must carry his notice in one breath : al-Jārūd b. al-Mu'allā of 'Abd al-Qays, the man who held his own tribe to Islam when the rest of Bahrayn went. Why دارين still needs an operation after this battle is won: > فَاجْتَمَعَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ كُلُّهُمْ > 233 · الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 ص — > إِلَى الْحُطَمِ إِلَّا أَهْلَ دَارِينَ

https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914 > English: "And all the mushrikūn gathered to al-Ḥuṭam — except the people of Dārīn." The month, in الكامل's own words: > وَحَنَدَقَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَالْمُشْرِكُونَ، وَكَانُوا يَتَرَاوَحُونَ الْقِتَالَ وَيَرْجِعُونَ إِلَى > حَنْدَقِهِمْ، فَكَانُوا كَذَلِكَ شَهْرًا · 233 الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 ص — >

https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914 > English: "The Muslims dug a trench about themselves, and so did the mushrikūn; and they would take turns at the fighting and go back to their trench — and they were like that for a month."

And why a volunteer was asked for at all — the sentence that explains the whole scene, and it was on no card: > سَمِعَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ ضَوْضَاءَ هَزِيمَةٍ أَوْ قِتَالٍ، فَقَالَ الْعَلَاءُ: > 223 الكامل فى التاريخ ج2 ص — > مَنْ يَأْتِينَا بِخَبَرِ الْقَوْمِ؟

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914> > English: "The Muslims heard a commotion — of a rout, or of a battle. So al-‘Alā’ said: who will bring us news of these people?"

△△ WHY THE ENEMY CAMP WAS DRUNK: NO PAGE WE HOLD SAYS. Neither book gives an occasion — no feast, no festival, no reason at all. 39 البدايه ج7 ص البدايه والنهايه — > فوجدهم سُكَارَى لَا يَعْقِلُونَ مِنَ الشَّرَابِ، فَرَجَعَ إِلَيْهِ فَأَخْبَرَهُ > carries only:

> 39 ج7 ص · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185> > English: "... and he found them drunk, past understanding from the drink; and he went back to him and told him." What the pages do supply is the setting, not the cause — a month of trench stalemate, quoted above. Give the setting and supply no reason the books withhold. Beat 7 puts that at the lectern in the words he needs, because he will say it aloud. What the night took — both books, and they agree: >

· 224 الكامل فى التاريخ ج2 ص — > وَاسْتَوَلَى الْمُسْلِمُونَ عَلَى الْعُسْكَرِ، وَلَمْ يُفْلِتْ رَجُلٌ إِلَّا بِمَا عَلَيْهِ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/915> > English: "And the Muslims took possession of the camp, and not a man got away with anything but what was on him." — > واستولى على جميع أموالهم وحواصلهم وأثقالهم، فكانت غنيمة عظيمة جسيمة >

39 البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185> > English: "And he took possession of all their wealth, their stores and their baggage — and it was an immense, massive spoil." عبرت: A month of trenches was decided by one night on which one side could not think. Hands-up? no The chief's death, and the regret — 39 البدايه ج7 ص al-Ḥuṭam woke in confusion, his stirrup-leather parted, a man offered to fix it and cut his foot off; he lay asking every passer-by to finish him, and when Qays b. ‘Āṣim finally did and then saw the leg, he said: «واسوأته، لو أعلم ما به لم أحرّكته» "What a shameful thing; had I known his state I would not have touched him."

11 AH, Hajar

Hajar — the trench month

وَحَنَدَقَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَالْمُشْرِكُونَ

The Muslims dug a trench round themselves, and so did the mushrikūn

وَكَانُوا يَتَرَاوَحُونَ الْقِتَالَ وَيَرْجِعُونَ إِلَى حَنْدَقِهِمْ they would fight by turns and go back to their trench

فَكَانُوا كَذَلِكَ شَهْرًا

and they went on like that for a month.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on the trench month

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 223

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn al-Athīr, on the trench month

LESSON — A month of trenches was decided by one night on which one side could not think.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

وَحَنَدَقَ الْمُسْلِمُونَ عَلَى أَنْفُسِهِمْ وَالْمُشْرِكُونَ، وَكَانُوا يَتَرَاوَحُونَ الْقِتَالَ وَيَرْجِعُونَ إِلَى حَنْدَقِهِمْ، فَكَانُوا كَذَلِكَ شَهْرًا "The Muslims dug a trench round themselves, and so did the mushrikūn; they would fight by turns and go back to their trench, and they went on like that for a month."

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٣ ————

11 AH, Hajar — one night

‘Abd Allāh b. Ḥadhf, and his uncle

Ibn Ḥadhf

seized by al-Huṭam's men; freed
by his uncle

al-Ḥuṭam

his camp is drunk

⚠ Do not say why they were drinking. No page does.

SAY

1. A noise in the night

► CLICK 1 — A noise in the night. ‘Abd Allāh b. Ḥadhf goes to find out.

2. 'Abd Allāh b. Ḥadhaf goes

► CLICK 2 — They seize him at their trench — and he calls for his uncle.

3. He calls for his uncle
4. "A poor sort of sister's son"
5. "Feed me
6. Said to a man overcome by drink

► CLICK 3 — Fed, mounted, and let through. He tells al-'Alā' : they are drunk.

7. He comes back: they are drunk
8. Why they were drinking: no page says
9. One man or two?

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. A noise in the night — Like a rout, or like a battle; al-'Alā' asks who will find out.
2. 'Abd Allāh b. Ḥaddaf goes — He comes near their trench, and they take him.

3. He calls for his uncle — His mother was of 'Ijl: "Yā Abjarāh!" — and Abjar b. Bujayr comes, and knows him.
 4. "A poor sort of sister's son" — "...coming to your uncles tonight."
 5. "Feed me — I am dying of hunger" — He is fed; he asks for a mount, and is given one.
 6. Said to a man overcome by drink — The book's own explanation of why he was let go.
 7. He comes back: they are drunk — He enters the Muslims' camp and tells them.
 8. Why they were drinking: no page says — Give the month of stalemate as the setting; supply no reason.
 9. One man or two? — The books name an 'Abd Allāh b. Ḥadhf inside Juwāthā and here, and do not say if he is the same.
- لَا ظَنُّكَ بِمُسِ ابْنِ أُخْتِ اللَّيْلَةِ أَحْوَالِكَ "وَاللَّهِ إِنِّي لَأُظَنُّكَ بِمُسِ ابْنِ أُخْتِ اللَّيْلَةِ أَحْوَالِكَ" By Allāh, I think you a poor sort of sister's-son, coming to your uncles tonight."

— Abjar b. Bujayr, to his sister's son · ٢٢٣ ص في التاريخ ج ٢

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

The shout, and the uncle who answered it: > فَجَاءَ أَبْجَرُ بْنُ بُجَيْرٍ فَعَرَفَهُ > English: "So he began to call out: O Abjar! And Abjar b. Bujayr came, and recognised him." > > 223 · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914> > English: "So he began to call out: O Abjar! And Abjar b. Bujayr came, and recognised him." > > 223 · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914> > English: "And his mother was a woman of 'Ijl." What he answered when he was asked his business: > عَالَمٌ أَقْبِلُ وَحَوْلِي عَسَاكِرُ مِنْ عَجَلٍ وَتَيْمُ اللَّاتِ وَعَيْرُهُمَا؟ > > 223 · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914> > English: "What am I to come to, with armies of 'Ijl and Taym al-Lāt and others round about me?" Food before freedom: > دَعْنِي مِنْ هَذَا وَأَطْعِمْنِي؛ فَقَدْ مِتُّ جُوعًا > > 223 · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914> > English: "Let me alone about that, and feed me — I am dying of hunger." And the book's one clause, which explains the whole scene: > يَقُولُ هَذَا لِرَجُلٍ قَدْ غَلَبَ عَلَيْهِ السُّكْرُ، فَحَمَلَهُ عَلَى بَعِيرٍ وَرَوَّدَهُ وَجَوَّزَهُ > > 223 · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/914> > English: "He was saying this to a man whom drink had got the better of — so he mounted him on a camel, provisioned him, and let him through." And the uncle got away: > فَأَمَّا أَبْجَرُ فَأَقْلَتَ > —

ص 224 الكامل في التاريخ ج 2 > <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/915> > English: "As for Abjar, he escaped."

△△ 'Abdullāh b. Ḥadhf — one man or two? The books do not say. Raised by Daniyal, 2026-09-06, and it is a real ambiguity rather than a slip in one book. The same name stands in two places. Inside جُوائى, among the besieged, as the man who put out the four lines of verse: > وقد قال رجل منهم يقال له عبد الله بن حذف، > 38 البدايه والنهايه ج 7 ص — > أحد بني بكر بن كلاب، وقد اشتد عليه الجوع

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3184> > English: "And a man of theirs called 'Abdullāh b. Ḥadhf, one of Banū Bakr b. Kilāb, upon whom the hunger had grown severe, said ..." And in al-'Alā's ^{بن}camp at هَجَر, as the volunteer scout — 39 البدايه ج 7 ص and 223 الكامل ج 2 ص, the latter adding the عَجَلِي mother. If it is one man the sequence is coherent, and hunger appears in both scenes. But no page joins them, and البدايه gives a كَلابي paternal line where الكامل gives an عَجَلِي maternal one — which is not a contradiction, and is not a confirmation either. Do not assert from the platform that they are the same man. △ This whole card is الكامل's. ج 7 ص. 39 البدايه ج 7 ص has the night in one sentence: he went in among them, found them drunk, came back and told him. The uncle, the mother, the words, the food and the camel are in ج 2 ص 223 الكامل and nowhere else we hold. Attribute it that way if asked. △ The second quotation rests on a doubtful word. al-Ṭabarī (corroboration only; vol. 3 p. 308, as read in) reads the verb as uqtalu — "why am I to be killed, with the troops of 'ljl all round me?" — which is what the scene needs. Read it off a page image before it is spoken. △ No honorific for either man. No page we hold states the Companionship of 'Abdullāh b. Ḥadhf or of Abjar b. Bujayr. Say both names plain.

11 AH, Hajar — one night

‘Abd Allāh b. Ḥadhf, and his uncle

وَاللّٰهُ اِنِّىْ لَاطْنُكَ بِمَسِّ ابْنِ اُخْتِ اَتَيْتَ اللَّيْلَةَ اَحْوَالَكَ

"By Allāh, I think you a poor sort of sister's-son, coming to your uncles tonight."

— Abjar b. Bujayr, to his sister's son

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 223

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Abjar b. Bujayr, to his sister's son

LESSON — This war ran straight through families. The man who let him go knew exactly who he was, said so out loud, and let him go because he was his sister's son.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

وَاللّٰهُ اِنِّىْ لَاطْنُكَ بِمَسِّ ابْنِ اُخْتِ اَتَيْتَ اللَّيْلَةَ اَحْوَالَكَ "By Allāh, I think you a poor sort of sister's-son, coming to your uncles tonight."

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٣

11 AH, Hajar — that night

Qays b. 'Āṣim, and al-Ḥuṭam

al-'Alā' goes out at them, over the trench

al-Ḥuṭam killed by Qays b. 'Āṣim

⚠ Do not use Ibn Khaldūn on who killed him.

SAY

► CLICK 1 — The Muslims go out at them, over the trench.

1. The Muslims go in
2. al-Ḥuṭam wakes in confusion
3. A man in the dark
4. "Finish me"

► CLICK 2 — al-Ḥuṭam is killed. The camp is taken.

5. Qays b. ʿĀṣim does
6. "What a shameful thing"
7. The man they had made king
8. Do not use Ibn Khaldūn here

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. The Muslims go in — al-ʿAlā^{٢٠} mounts at once, and they fall on the camp.
 2. al-Ḥuṭam wakes in confusion — He mounts; his stirrup-leather parts; he calls out for someone to set his foot.
 3. A man in the dark — "I will; lift your foot" — and strikes it off. Ibn al-Athīr names him: ʿAfīf b. al-Mundhir.
 4. "Finish me" — He asks every man who passes; each one refuses.
 5. Qays b. ʿĀṣim does — The same Qays who joined the column on the road.
 6. "What a shameful thing" — Then he sees the leg: "had I known his condition, I would not have touched him."
 7. The man they had made king — ʿAfīf b. al-Mundhir takes him in the pursuit, that same night, and he accepts Islam. Ibn al-Athīr tells it here — before Dārīn.
 8. Do not use Ibn Khaldūn here — He gives three different killers on his own pages.
- البدایہ والنہایہ ج ۷ ص ۳۹ · "What a shameful thing — had I known his condition, I would not have touched him."

— Qays b. ʿĀṣim, standing over al-Ḥuṭam ·

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

فركب جوادهٗ فانقطع > whole: 39، البدايه ج7 ص — The stirrup, the foot, and the long wait —
 ركابُه فجعلَ يقولُ: مَنْ يُصْلِح لي ركابي؟ فجاء رجلٌ من المسلمين في الليل فقال: أنا أصلحُها لك، ارفع
 . 39، البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > رجلك، فلما رفعها ضربه بالسيف فقطعها مع قدمه

https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185 > English: "So he mounted his horse, and his stirrup-leather parted, and he began saying: who will set my stirrup right for me? A man of the Muslims came in the night and said: I will set it right for you — lift your foot. And when he lifted it he struck it with the sword and cut it off, with his foot." > فوقع صريعاً كلما مرَّ به أحدٌ يسأله أن يقتله فيأبى، حتى مرَّ به قيس بن عاصم فقال له: أنا الحطم فأقتلني فقتله > https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3185 > English: "So he fell stricken; and every time anyone passed him he would ask him to kill him, and the man would refuse — until Qays b. 'Āṣim passed him, and he said to him: I am al-Ḥuṭam, kill me. So he killed him." الكامل names the man who cut the leg, and settles the sequence — the cut first, then the killing: > فَأَمَّا أَنْجَرُ فَأَقْلَعْتُ، وَأَمَّا الْحُطَمُ فاقْتُلْتُ، >

224. الكامل فى التاريخ ج2 ص — > قَتَلَهُ قَيْسُ بْنُ عَاصِمٍ بَعْدَ أَنْ قَطَعَ عَفِيفُ بْنُ الْمُنْذِرِ السَّيْمِيُّ رِجْلَهُ
<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/915> > English: "As for Abjar, he escaped; and as for al-Ḥuṭam, he was killed — Qays b. 'Āṣim killed him, after 'Afīf b. al-Mundhir al-Taymī had cut off his leg." Who Qays b. 'Āṣim is, in one line from the page — he is already named in , and this is the line to use for him, because it is the one thing the books say he did: > وَلَحِقَ بِهِ أَيْضًا قَيْسُ بْنُ عَاصِمٍ الْمُنْعَرِيُّ، وَأَعْطَاهُ بَدَلَ مَا كَانَ قُيِّمَ مِنَ الصَّدَقَةِ بَعْدَ >
222. الكامل فى التاريخ ج2 ص — > - مَوْتَ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/913> > English: "And Qays b. 'Āṣim al-Minqarī also caught up with him, and gave him the replacement for what had been divided of the ṣadaqa after the death of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم."

⚠ No honorific for Qays b. 'Āṣim, and none for 'Afif b. al-Mundhir. No page we hold states the Companionship of either man, and 's rule is the rule. This is a gap worth closing — Qays b. 'Āṣim al-Minqarī may well be a Companion in the biographical literature; until a page we hold says so he is named plain. To verify. ⚠ DO NOT USE ابن خلدون FOR THIS DEATH. It is the clearest worked example in the whole pool of why ; and Jābir b. Buḥayr caught him and struck him and cut his tendon, and he died." and one page later, inside al-'Ālā's own despatch to Abū Bakr , on 506ج2 ص وكتب العلاء إلى أبي بكر بهزيمة أهل الخندق وقتل > 506ج2 ص — > الخطم قتله زيد وسميغ

<https://shamela.ws/book/12320/1303> > English: "And al-‘Alā’ wrote to Abū Bakr with the rout of the people of the trench and the killing of al-Khuṭam — Zayd and Sumayfa‘ killed him."

— and the editor's footnote to that very line records yet another copy reading «مسمع». Three readings, two pages, one book. He also mis-names the father, and then the man: 504 ج 2 ص has «الحطم بن ربيعة» where 222 الكامل ج 2 ص and 7 البدايه ج 7 ص have «الحطم بن ضبيعة بن ضبيعة» 39 ص, and 506 ج 2 ص spells the name «الحطم» against «الحطم» on his own previous page. > △ CORRECTION, and it changes a page citation.), not 504 ص, and > «قتله زيد وسميع» is on 506 ج 2 ص (index 1303). 504 ص (index 1301) carries only the rising and the > father's name «بن ربيعة». The pages cited on this card are the checked ones. △ البدايه does not name the man who cut the foot — only «رجل من», a man of the Muslims. The name عفيف بن المنذر التيمي is alone. Say it as الكامل's if asked. △ Where this death sits in the running order. It ends the هجر fighting, so it is told before دارين and never after it: in the survivors take ship, and the man they had been following is already dead. The خميصه that was his belongs to the Thumāma^{نذر} card, which is later still — do not reach forward to it here.

11 AH, Hajar — that nightQays b. 'Āṣim, and al-Ḥuṭam

al-Ḥuṭam mounts in the dark; his stirrup-leather parts.

'Afif b. al-Mundhir offers to set it right.

واسوأته، لو أعلم ما به لم أحرَّكُه

"What a shameful thing — had I known his condition, I would not have touched him."

— Qays b. 'Āṣim, standing over al-Ḥuṭam

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 39

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Qays b. 'Āṣim, standing over al-Ḥuṭam

LESSON — He asked every man who passed to kill him and they refused; the one who finally did it was sorry the moment he saw the state he was already in. The book kept the regret, not the kill.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

البدایہ والنہایہ ج ۷ ص ۳۹ "What a shameful thing — had I known his condition, I would not have touched him."

———— البدایہ والنہایہ ج ۷ ص ۳۹ ————

———— IMAGE BRIEF — paste into the image generator —————

OPTIONAL — a background image, if you want one: A saddled Arabian horse standing alone at night in a camp, head turned, with one stirrup-leather broken and hanging loose from the saddle. A low tent edge and a dying fire behind it. Restrained editorial illustration, muted ochre, deep teal and bone. Flat pure-white background (#FFFFFF) with no border, so it sits on a white slide with no seam. No text, no lettering, no map. No people and no faces — landscape, animals and objects only. 16:9.

11–12 AH, the coast of Bahrayn

‘Utayba and al-Muthannā — the roads

the beaten
take ship for Dārīn;
the rest go home

‘Utayba b. al-Nahhās and al-Muthannā b. Ḥāritha shut the roads

△ The page says “on every road” — name no place for either man.

SAY

1. Dārīn had never come to Hajar

► CLICK 1 — The bulk of the beaten take ship for Dārīn. The rest go home.

2. The beaten take ship

► CLICK 2 — al-‘Alā^{رضي} writes to the Muslims of Bakr b. Wā’il: sit in wait on every road.

man. Δ No honorific for either on the pages we hold.

11–12 AH, the coast of Bahrayn

‘Utayba and al-Muthannā — the roads

فَكَتَبَ الْعَلَاءُ إِلَى مَنْ ثَبَتَ عَلَى إِسْلَامِهِ مِنْ بَكْرِ بْنِ وَائِلٍ

So al-‘Alā’ wrote to those of Bakr b. Wā’il who had held firm on their Islam

مِنْهُمْ عُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ النَّهَّاسِ وَالْمُتَنَّى بْنُ حَارِثَةَ وَغَيْرُهُمَا among them ‘Utayba b. al-Nahhās and al-Muthannā b. Ḥāritha and others

— Ibn al-Athīr, on the letter al-‘Alā’ ؓ wrote

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 224

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn al-Athīr, on the letter al-‘Alā’ ؓ wrote

LESSON — He closed the roads behind the enemy before he opened one in front of himself.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

فَكَتَبَ الْعَلَاءُ إِلَى مَنْ ثَبَتَ عَلَى إِسْلَامِهِ مِنْ بَكْرِ بْنِ وَائِلٍ، مِنْهُمْ عُتَيْبَةُ بْنُ النَّهَّاسِ وَالْمُتَنَّى بْنُ حَارِثَةَ وَغَيْرُهُمَا، يَأْمُرُهُمْ بِالْفُجُودِ لِلْمُنْهَزِمِينَ وَالْمُرْتَدِّينَ بِكُلِّ طَرِيقٍ "So al-‘Alā’ wrote to those of Bakr b. Wā’il who had held firm on their Islam — among them ‘Utayba b. al-Nahhās and al-Muthannā
b. Ḥāritha and others — ordering them to sit in wait for the routed and the apostates on every road."

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٤ ————

11–12 AH, the coast of Bahrayn

‘Utayba and al-Muthannā — the roads

يَأْمُرُهُمْ بِالْقُعُودِ لِلْمُنْهَرِمِينَ وَالْمُرْتَدِّينَ بِكُلِّ طَرِيقٍ ordering them to sit in wait for the routed and the apostates on every road.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on the letter al-‘Alā’ ۞ wrote

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 224

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

يَأْمُرُهُمْ بِالْقُعُودِ لِلْمُنْهَرِمِينَ وَالْمُرْتَدِّينَ بِكُلِّ طَرِيقٍ ordering them to sit in wait for the routed and the apostates on every road.

11–12 AH, the shore

al-‘Alā’^ب at the shore

The shore opposite Dārīn. The same men who were at al-Dahnā’.

قَدْ أَرَأَكُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ آيَاتِهِ فِي الْبَرِّ

Allah has shown you His signs on land

لِتَعْتَبِرُوا بِهَا فِي الْبَحْرِ

so that you may take heed by them at sea.

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī^ب, to the army at the shore

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 224

SAY

1. The same men who were at al-Dahnā’
2. "His signs on land"
1 read the Arabic on the slide
3. "Rise against your enemy"

LESSON — What they had seen in the desert was the reason he gave them for the sea.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. The same men who were at al-Dahnā’ — He is speaking to the army that lost its camels and found the water.
2. "His signs on land" — "Allah has shown you His signs on land, so that you may take heed by them at sea."
3. "Rise against your enemy" — "...and take the sea in your stride."

"Allah has shown you His signs on land so that you may take heed by them at sea. So rise against your enemy, and take the sea in your stride."

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī^ب, to the army at the shore · ٢٢٤ ص ٢ الكامل في التاريخ

11–12 AH, the shore

al-‘Alā’ at the shore

فَاثْهَضُوا إِلَى عَدُوِّكُمْ وَاسْتَعْرِضُوا الْبَحْرَ

So rise against your enemy, and take the sea in your stride.

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī, to the army at the shore

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 224

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

DETAIL — only if you need it

فَاثْهَضُوا إِلَى عَدُوِّكُمْ وَاسْتَعْرِضُوا الْبَحْرَ So rise against your enemy, and take the sea in your stride.

11–12 AH, the shore

al-‘Alā’ — the du‘ā’

By ship, a day and a night. He rides his horse into the sea.

يا أرحمَ الراحمين، يا حكيمُ يا كريمُ

O Most Merciful of the merciful; O Wise, O Generous

يا أحدُ يا صمدُ، يا حيُّ يا مُحيي

O One, O Eternal; O Living, O Giver of life

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī, riding into the sea

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 40

△ Read the du‘ā’ slowly. It is the whole slide.

SAY

1. The shore, and no time for ships
2. He rides in first
3. Read the du‘ā’

↑ read the Arabic on the slide

4. He orders the army to say it

LESSON — He asked first, and he went in first.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. The shore, and no time for ships — By ship the crossing is a day and a night; the enemy would be gone.
2. He rides in first — On his horse, saying the du‘ā’ aloud.
3. Read the du‘ā’ — Slowly; it is the whole of the slide.
4. He orders the army to say it — And to ride in after him; and they did.

يا أرحمَ الراحمين، يا حكيمُ يا كريمُ، يا أحدُ يا صمدُ، يا حيُّ يا مُحيي، يا قيُّومُ، يا ذا الجلال والإكرام، لا إله إلا
 "O Most Merciful of the merciful; O Wise, O Generous; O One, O Eternal; O أنت يا ربنا Living, O Giver of life; O Sustainer; O Lord of majesty and honour — there is no god but You, our Lord."

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī^{رضي}, riding into the sea · ٤٠ ص ٧ ج ١ البدايه والنهائيه

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

What they walked on, as the book describes it: > يمشون على مثل رملَةٍ دُمْتَةٍ فوقها ماء لا يغمر >

· 40 البدايه والنهائيه ج 7 ص — > أخفاف الإبل، ولا يصلُ إلى ركبِ الخيل

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3186> > English: "...walking on something like soft sand with water over it — not covering the camels' pads, nor > reaching the horses' knees." △ Eyeball the du‘ā’ against the page image before it is projected (CLAUDE.md). △ Narrated as the book narrates it; no ruling is built on it.

IMAGE BRIEF — paste into the image generator

A shallow, calm sea at dawn seen from a low sandy shore; the water is glassy and only ankle-deep far out, with a flat low island on the horizon. Hoof-prints lead from the sand into the water. Restrained editorial illustration, muted ochre, deep teal and bone. Flat pure-white background (#FFFFFF) with no border, so it sits on a white slide with no seam. No text, no lettering, no map. No people and no faces — landscape, animals and objects only. 16:9.

11–12 AH, the shore

al-‘Alā’ — the du‘ā’

يا قَيُّوْمُ، يا ذا الجلال والإكرام

O Sustainer; O Lord of majesty and honour

لا إله إلا أنت يا رَبَّنَا

there is no god but You, our Lord.

— al-‘Alā’ b. al-Ḥaḍramī, riding into the sea

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 40

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

يا قَيُّوْمُ، يا ذا الجلال والإكرام O Sustainer; O Lord of majesty and honour يا رَبَّنَا

there is no god but You, our Lord.

11–12 AH, Dārīn

Dārīn

al-'Alā' ﺍﻟﺤﻮﺳﻴﻦ fords the strait, on horseback

Dārīn taken by al-'Alā' ﺍﻟﺤﻮﺳﻴﻦ,
the same day

△ A strait, forded — not a sea that parted. Say what the page says.

△ The island is drawn large, and off the shore. A diagram.

SAY

► CLICK 1 — al-'Alā' ﺍﻟﺤﻮﺳﻴﻦ comes down to the shore.

1. al-'Alā' ﺍﻟﺤﻮﺳﻴﻦ comes down to the shore

► CLICK 2 — Into the water, on horseback — he fords the strait.

2. Into the water, on horseback
3. "Like soft sand with water over it"

► CLICK 3 — Dārīn falls. He is back the same day.

4. Dārīn falls
5. Nothing lost in the sea
6. "Islam settled there"

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. al-'Alā' ^{علاء} comes down to the shore — With the whole army.
2. Into the water, on horseback — He fords the strait, by Allah's leave.
3. "Like soft sand with water over it" — Ibn Kathīr: not covering the camels' pads, nor reaching the horses' knees. Ibn al-Athīr: covering the pads. Give no depth. By ship: a day and a night.

11–12 AH, Dārīn
Dārīn

وَضَرَبَ الْإِسْلَامُ فِيهَا بِجِرَانِهِ.

"And Islam settled its neck to the ground there."

— Ibn al-Athīr, closing the chapter

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 224

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn al-Athīr, closing the chapter

LESSON — He closed the roads behind the enemy before he opened one in front of himself.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

وَضَرَبَ الْإِسْلَامُ فِيهَا بِجِرَانِهِ. "And Islam settled its neck to the ground there."

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٢٤ ————

11–12 AH, Hajar

The monk of Hajar

He had been with the army through all of it.

ثَلَاثَةُ أَشْيَاءَ حَشِيْتُ أَنْ يَمَسَّحَنِي اللَّهُ بِغَدَاهَا:

Three things, after which I feared Allah would transform me:

فَيُضِّفُ فِي الرَّمَالِ، وَيَمْهِّدُ أَتْبَاجَ الْبَحْرِ، وَدُعَاءَ سَمِعْتُهُ فِي عَسْكَرِهِمْ فِي الْهَوَاءِ سَحَرًا water welling up in the sands, the levelling of the sea's swells, and a supplication I heard in their camp, in the air, before dawn.

— A monk of Hajar, asked why he became a Muslim

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 224

SAY

1. A monk of Hajar, with the army
2. He became a Muslim, and was asked why
3. "Three things"
 - 1 read the Arabic on the slide
4. Water in the sands; the sea laid flat
5. He could repeat the du'a'
6. "Men are not helped like that..."
7. How it reached us

LESSON — The strongest witness for what happened on this front is the one man in it who had no reason to take their side.

ASK — Before beat 3: "Hands up — who has been wondering, while I have been telling all this, how anybody knows that it happened?"

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. A monk of Hajar, with the army — He was with the Muslims through all of it.
2. He became a Muslim, and was asked why — A man explaining himself afterwards.
3. "Three things" — He feared what Allah would do to him had he seen them and not believed.

4. Water in the sands; the sea laid flat — And a du‘ā’ he heard in the camp before dawn.

5. He could repeat the du‘ā’ — The book prints the words he says he heard.

6. "Men are not helped like that..." — "...unless they are on the truth."

7. How it reached us — The Companions used to hear it from him afterwards.

ثَلَاثَةُ أَشْيَاءَ خَشِيتُ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَنِي اللَّهُ بَعْدَهَا: فَيُضْ فِي الرِّمَالِ، وَيَمْهِدُ أَتْبَاجَ الْبَحْرِ، وَدُعَاءٌ سَمِعْتُهُ فِي عَسْكَرِهِمْ

Three things, after which I feared Allah would transform me: water

welling up in the sands, the levelling of the sea's swells, and a supplication I heard in their camp, in the air, before dawn."

— A monk of Hajar, asked why he became a Muslim · ٢٢٤ ص الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

How the question was put to him, in the words that open the report: > وَكَانَ مَعَ >

الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 — > الْمُسْلِمِينَ رَاهِبٌ مِنْ أَهْلِ هَجَرَ، فَأَسْلَمَ، فَقِيلَ لَهُ: مَا حَمَلَكَ عَلَى الْإِسْلَامِ؟

224 ص · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/915> > English: "And there was with the Muslims a monk of the people of Hajar, and he became a Muslim. It > was said to him: what brought you to Islam?" How the account reached us — the line الكامل ends the chapter on: > فَكَانَ أَصْحَابُ النَّبِيِّ - > فَعَلِمْتُ أَنَّ الْقَوْمَ لَمْ يُعَانُوا بِالْمَلَائِكَةِ إِلَّا وَهُمْ عَلَى حَقٍّ، فَكَانَ أَصْحَابُ النَّبِيِّ - >

225 الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 ص — > صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - يَسْمَعُونَ هَذَا مِنْهُ بَعْدُ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/916> > English: "So I knew that these people would not be helped by the angels unless they were upon the > truth. And the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ used to hear this from him afterwards." What البدايه

أنه كان مع المسلمين في هذه المواقف والمشاهد التي رأوها من >

البدايه — > أمر العلاء، وما أجرى الله على يديه من الكرامات، رجل من أهل هَجَرَ راهب فأسلم حينئذ

40 والنهيه ج 7 ص · <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3186> > English: "...that there was with the Muslims, in these scenes and sights which they saw of al-‘Alā’s > affair and of what Allah brought about by his hands, a man of the people of Hajar, a monk, who became a > Muslim then and there." Ibn Kathīr gives this on the authority of سيف بن عمر التميمي and says so on the page. His version is also shorter: his man gives one reason — that he feared being transformed, from the signs he had seen — and then the supplication he heard at سحر. The three-item list is الكامل's form. If the card says "three", cite 224 الكامل ج 2 ص for it, never البدايه. What the three refer to — the water in the sands is the night at الدَّهْنَاءَ، where the camels bolted with everything on them and water was found beside the men by morning (ص 39البدايه ج 7 الكامل ج 2; 223ص); the levelling of the sea is the دارين crossing of RC27. △ The page lists the three without naming either episode. It is ص 40البدايه ج 7 that places this man at them. Say it the way the pages do — he had been with them for all of it — and do not assert a one-to-one match the page does not make. △ MONK IS ESTABLISHED. BISHOP IS NOT. Both pages say راهب, a monk: the الكامل report opens with it (quoted above), and ص 40البدايه ج 7 has «رجل من أهل هَجَر راهب». So the monk of Hajar is exactly what the books support, and it is a plain factual descriptor from the source, not a coined title (CLAUDE.md). Do not upgrade him to a bishop, do not name him, and do not state what community he came from — no page we hold gives any of the three. △ NO HONORIFIC. No page we hold states that he ever saw the Prophet ﷺ, so he gets no ربه. He became a Muslim in 12هـ, after the Prophet ﷺ had died. If a slip asks whether he was a Companion: the books do not say, and neither do we. △ THIS IS A كرامه -ADJACENT REPORT AND البدايه FRAMES IT AS ONE — وما أجرى الله على «(البدايه ج 7 ص 40). Narrate it as the book narrates it. Do not build a doctrinal point on it, do not defend it from the platform, and do not soften it either. If challenged: this is what the book records, with the name of the man it records it from, and we are reading a book. △ Eyeball every Arabic line on this card against the page image before it reaches a slide (CLAUDE.md). البدايه's text here is lightly vocalised and الكامل's is fully vocalised, so the two will not look alike on screen even where they agree. △ ADD TO , العلاء ربه or دارين — and this is its best entry in the whole part: an eyewitness from outside the community, explaining himself, with the chain stated on the page. It is also the licence for the one source remark this evening is allowed — at the moment a listener asks "how do we know that?", inside the story. Not a methodology slot, and not a recurring one. △ — the row this card answers. ربه , هَجَر , al-‘Alā, No new proper name walks on stage here: the man is unnamed, and دارين and الكهناء runsheet row "the monk of Hajar — no notice needed; the books do not name him".

12 AH, the road from Dārīn

Thumāma b. Uthāl^{رضي}

On the road home, wearing a cloak from the spoils. It had been al-Ḥuṭam's.

فَقَالُوا لَهُ: أَنْتَ قَتَلْتَ الْحُطَمَ! فَقَالَ: لَمْ أَقْتُلْهُ، وَلَكِنِّي اشْتَرَيْتُهَا مِنَ الْمَغْنَمِ.

They said to him: You killed al-Ḥuṭam! He said: I did not kill him — I bought it from the spoils.

فَوَثَبُوا عَلَيْهِ فَقَتَلُوهُ.

So they fell on him and killed him.

— Banū Qays b. Tha'labā, and Thumāma^{رضي}

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 224

⚠ Skip this slide if the room is heavy.

SAY

1. Thumāma b. Uthāl^{رضي} again
2. He had joined al-'Alā^{رضي} on the road
3. A cloak from the spoils
4. al-Ḥuṭam's tribe saw it on him
5. "You killed al-Ḥuṭam"

↑ read the Arabic on the slide

6. Tell it plainly, and move on

LESSON — He survived the war and was killed for a piece of cloth by men who had already surrendered.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Thumāma b. Uthāl^{رضي} again — The room met him on evening 4, of Banū Ḥanīfa itself.
2. He had joined al-'Alā^{رضي} on the road — With the Muslims of Banū Ḥanīfa.
3. A cloak from the spoils — An embroidered one; it had been al-Ḥuṭam's.

4. al-Ḥuṭam's tribe saw it on him — Banū Qays b. Tha'laba, on the road home from Dārīn.

5. "You killed al-Ḥuṭam" — "I did not; I came by it out of the spoils." They fell on him and killed him.

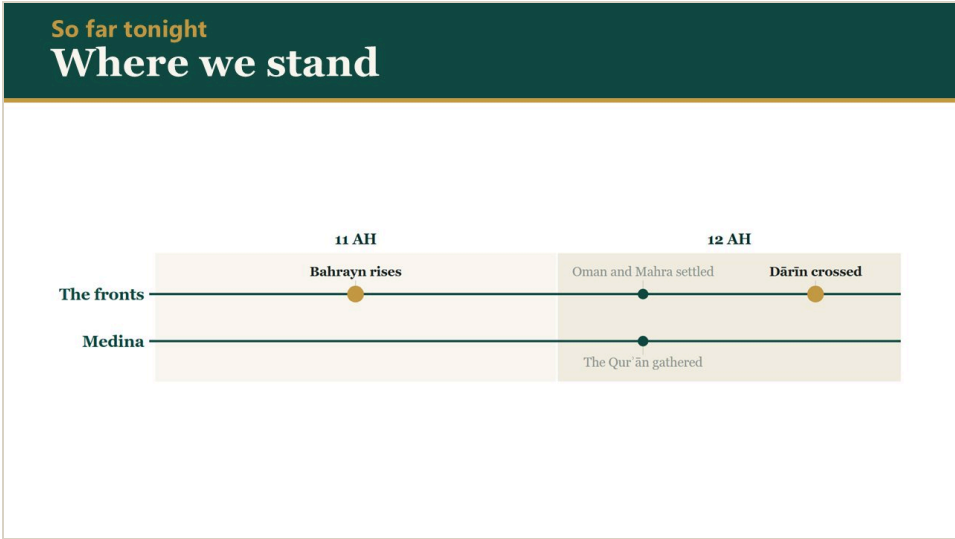

6. Tell it plainly, and move on — Two sentences; skip it if the room is heavy.

فَقَالُوا لَهُ: أَنْتَ قَتَلْتَ الْحُطَمَ! فَقَالَ: لَمْ أَقْتُلْهُ، وَلَكِنِّي اشْتَرَيْتُهَا مِنَ الْمَعْنَمِ. فَوُثِّبُوا عَلَيْهِ فَقَتَلُوهُ him: You killed al-Ḥuṭam! He said: I did not kill him — I bought it from the spoils. So they fell on him and killed him."

— Banū Qays b. Tha'laba, and Thumāma ^{رضي} · ٢٢٤ ص الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

⚠ This is not in البدايه . Cite 224 الكامل ج 2 (and 506 ابن خلدون ج 2 ص only.

CHECKPOINT 1 — the Line

SAY

- 1. Bahrayn is told: Juwāthā, al-Dahnā', the trench, the sea.
(Next slide: the map. The time check is there.)

So far tonight

Where we stand

Bahraynheld again, by al-
'Alā'Hāḍramawt

not yet told

CHECKPOINT 1 — the mapSAY

1. One patch on this map is still grey: Hāḍramawt.

⌚ Past 0:36 here — close here.

CARRY ON — “One front is left. It began with a quarrel about camels.”

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

OUT OF TIME — this is your ending. Stay on this map, and say:

“One front was left, and the books say it began with one she-camel. Next week: how.”

Then a loud السلام عليكم, and the dua. Next week opens on these two slides.

Part III

Kinda, before any of it (10 AH)

SAY

1. Kinda, before any of it (10 AH).

10 AH, Medina

Kinda, two years earlier

Two years earlier

the delegation of Kinda comes to Medina

At its head

al-Ash'ath b. Qays

Then

forward again, to Ḥaḍramawt

BRIDGE

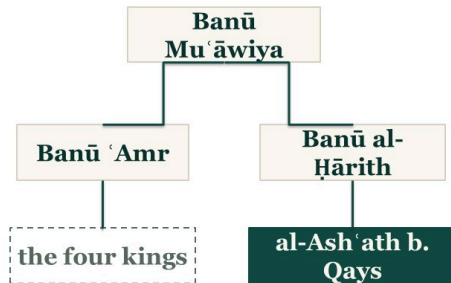

SAY

1. One step back — and this is the only one tonight.
2. Two years before the Prophet ﷺ died: the delegation of Kinda, at Medina.
3. At its head, al-Ash'ath b. Qays. The last front is his.

kings once — and two branches in 11 AH
Kinda

Ākil al-Murār

kings of the north,
before Islam

TREE — Kinda. Point as you go.

SAY — Who were Kinda?

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. A tribe of the south, of Qaḥṭān, that had once given kings to the northern Arabs: the tribes of Bakr, tired of the strong eating the weak, asked a Tubba' of Yemen for a king, and he gave them a man of Kinda — Ḥujr b. 'Amr, Ākil al-Murār.
2. Its height: al-Ḥārith b. 'Amr, given al-Ḥīra by one Persian king and hunted out of it by the next; forty-eight men of the house were put to death. Ibn al-Athīr says openly that some of this looks like Kinda praising itself.
3. In 11 AH, Kinda's Banū Mu'āwiya had two branches: Banū 'Amr, whose four brothers the books call the four kings — and Banū al-Ḥārith, the branch of al-Ash'ath b. Qays.
4. Side by side, with no line between them: the books show the royal past and the royal title, and do not say that one caused the other. Nor do we.

IF THE ROOM IS WITH YOU: one of al-Ḥārith's sons, another Ḥujr, ruled Banū Asad harshly — and they killed him in his tent.

⚠ No date before Islam is on this slide, and none is to be said: they are estimates.

BACKGROUND (read at home, not aloud) — the house's stories in full: • A Yemeni house made kings over the northern tribes: Kinda was a southern tribe — Of Qaḥṭān, not of the northern Arabs it came to rule.; The north had a problem — Among Bakr the reckless had overpowered the wise; the strong ate the weak.; They wanted a king from outside — Not one of their own, whom half would obey and half defy.; So they went to a Tubba' of Yemen — And he gave them a man of Kinda: Ḥujr b. 'Amr, Ākil al-Murār.; What he did with it — He settled at Baṭn 'Āqil and took back Bakr's lands from al-Ḥīra.; Ibn Khaldūn tells it differently — A Ḥimyarite king set Ḥujr over all of Ma'add. Say both; resolve neither. • al-Ḥārith b. 'Amr — al-Ḥīra given, al-Ḥīra taken back: Ḥujr's grandson al-Ḥārith — A king of great power and far-reaching name, in Ibn al-Athīr's words.; A Persian quarrel reaches the Arabs — Qubādh adopted the teaching of Mazdak; his governor at al-Ḥīra refused.; al-Ḥārith accepted, and was given al-Ḥīra — The high point of the house.; The next Persian king undid it — Anūshirwān killed Mazdak, restored the old governor, and hunted al-Ḥārith.; What it cost the house — Forty-eight men of it were caught and put to death, two of them his sons.; The historian's own caution — Ibn al-Athīr says openly that some of this looks like Kinda praising itself. • Ḥujr and Banū Asad — "far from us in lineage": The northern chiefs come to him — The killing between us will wipe us out; send your sons to hold us apart.; Four sons set as kings — One over each of the tribes.; Ḥujr goes to Banū Asad — And takes a yearly levy from them.; They throw out his collectors — He came with an army, killed their leading men, drove the rest to Tihāma.; He relented and called them back — And a day's march from him, they turned.; They reached his tent and killed him — The man who struck him was one whose father Ḥujr had killed. • "The four kings" — side by side, no arrow between: A year or so later, Kinda broke away — The same tribe, the same men, the other side of the line.; "The four kings" — Four brothers of one Kinda clan, with their sister, taking to their strongholds.; al-Ash'ath was not one of them — He was of a different branch of the tribe.; What Ibn al-Athīr says the cause was — An arrangement for carrying zakāt between Kinda and Ḥaḍramawt.; Not the kingship — The books show the royal past, the royal claim and the royal title, and draw no line between them.; And neither do we — The question is left open, because the sources leave it open.

10 AH, Medina

al-Ash‘ath b. Qays — at Medina

The delegation of Kinda, in silk. al-Ash‘ath claims a shared royal ancestor.

لا، نحن بنو النَّضْر بن كنانة

No. We are the sons of al-Naḍr b. Kināna.

لا نَقْفُو أُمَّنَا، ولا ننتفي من أبينا

We do not trace ourselves through our mother, and we do not disown our father.

— The Prophet ﷺ, to the delegation of Kinda

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 5, p. 56

SAY

1. Kinda comes to Medina
2. How they came in
3. "What is this silk on your necks?"
4. Then the claim of kinship
5. The Prophet ﷺ smiled, and refused it

↑ read the Arabic on the slide

6. And al-Ash‘ath closed it himself

LESSON — They offered him a royal ancestry as a gift, and he declined it with a smile.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Kinda comes to Medina — A large delegation, al-Ash‘ath b. Qays at its head.
2. How they came in — Hair combed, kohl on their eyes, Yemeni cloaks edged with silk.
3. "What is this silk on your necks?" — Asked after they had said they had accepted Islam. They tore it off.
4. Then the claim of kinship — We are the sons of Ākil al-Murār, and so are you.

5. The Prophet ﷺ smiled, and refused it — We are the sons of al-Naḍr b. Kināna; we do not trace ourselves through our mother.

6. And al-Ash'ath closed it himself — Any man I hear say it again gets eighty lashes.

"No. We are the sons of al-Naḍr b. Kināna. We do not trace ourselves through our mother, and we do not disown our father."

— The Prophet ﷺ, to the delegation of Kinda · البدايه والنهايه ج ٥ ص ٥٦

Part IV

Ḥaḍramawt: the last front (11→12 AH)

SAY

1. Ḥaḍramawt: the last front (11→12 AH).

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Ziyād b. Labīdؓ, in Ḥaḍramawt

Ḥaḍramawt

Ziyād b. Labīdؓ, the Prophet's ﷺ governor

Kinda

its neighbour

SAY

1. Who Ziyād b. Labīdؓ is

► CLICK 1 — The arrangement: ṣadaqa carried both ways.

2. An arrangement from the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime

3. Banū Walī'a have no camels

4. Ḥaḍramawt promises to look into it

5. After the Prophet ﷺ died

► CLICK 2 — 'Carry it yourselves' — and it was not carried.

6. Ḥaḍramawt's answer
7. Kinda turns on the governor
8. Home with nothing settled
9. Ziyād ^{رضي الله عنه} does nothing yet

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Who Ziyād b. Labīd ^{رضي الله عنه} is — Of the Anṣār, of Banū Bayāḍa of the Khazraj; the Prophet's ^ﷺ own appointee over Ḥaḍramawt, and he held the post through the whole war.
2. An arrangement from the Prophet's ^ﷺ lifetime — Part of Ḥaḍramawt's ṣadaqa went to Kinda, and part of Kinda's went to Ḥaḍramawt.
3. Banū Walī'a have no camels — A clan of Kinda told Ḥaḍramawt: we have no camels to carry it; send it to us loaded.
4. Ḥaḍramawt promises to look into it — If you really have no camels, we will send it loaded.
5. After the Prophet ^ﷺ died — Banū Walī'a came: deliver it, the way you promised the Messenger of Allah ^ﷺ.
6. Ḥaḍramawt's answer — You do have camels: carry it yourselves.
7. Kinda turns on the governor — To Ziyād b. Labīd ^{رضي الله عنه} they said: you are with them against us.

9. Ziyād ^{زید} does nothing yet — He was waiting for al-Muhājir ^{مهاجر} to arrive.

— Banū Walī‘a, to the men of Ḥaḍramawt · ص ۲۳۰ الكامل فى التاريخ ج ۲

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921> > English: "When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ died, Banū Walī'a said: Deliver it to us, as you promised > the Messenger of Allah ﷺ! They said: You do have mounts — carry it yourselves. And they said to > Ziyād: You are with them against us." Ziyād's waiting: «(ج2) وَأَمْسَكَ عَنْهُمْ زِيَادٌ أَنْ يَطَارُوا لِلْمُهَاجِرِ» (ج2) only — the Ḥaḍramawt campaign is not in the al-Bidāyah. Follow with (the she-camel called Shadhra).

11-12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Ziyād b. Labīd , in Ḥaḍramawt

قَالَتْ بَنُو وَلَيْعَةَ: أَأَبْلَعُونَا كَمَا وَعَدْتُمْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -!

Banū Walī'a said: Deliver it to us, as you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ!

فَقَالُوا: إِنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرًا فَاحْتَمِلُوا

They said: You do have mounts — carry it yourselves.

— Banū Walī'a, to the men of Ḥaḍramawt

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 230

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Banū Walī'a, to the men of Ḥaḍramawt

LESSON — A small promise made in the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime was tested the day after he died, and the province went to war over the answer.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

قَالَتْ بَنُو وَلَيْعَةَ: أَأَبْلَعُونَا كَمَا وَعَدْتُمْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ -! فَقَالُوا: إِنْ لَكُمْ ظَهْرًا فَاحْتَمِلُوا

"Banū Walī'a said: Deliver it to us, as you promised the Messenger of Allah ﷺ! They said: You do have mounts — carry it yourselves."

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Ziyād b. Labīd ٱ — and Shadhra

A she-camel, branded for the ṣadaqa by mistake. Ziyād ٱ will not give her back.

فَقَالَ حَارِثَةُ: ذَاكَ إِذَا كُنْتَ يَهُودِيًّا

Ḥāritha said: That would be so if you were a Jew

وَأَطْلَقَ عِقْلَهَا وَبَعَثَهَا وَقَامَ دُونَهَا.

and he untied her hobble and drove her off and stood in front of her.

— Ḥāritha b. Surāqa, to Ziyād b. Labīdٱ

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 230

SAY

1. A young she-camel is branded
2. She was not his to give
3. The brothers ask for her back
4. Ziyād ٱ refuses
5. A third man, Ḥāritha, rides up
6. Ḥāritha unties her

↑ read the Arabic on the slide

LESSON — A province went to war over one animal, a naming mistake and a public insult, and every part of that is on one page.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. A young she-camel is branded — Collecting the zakāt in Kinda, Ziyād b. Labīd ٱ took a young she-camel from a man and branded her.
2. She was not his to give — She belonged to his brother, her name was Shadhra, and he had brought her by mistake.
3. The brothers ask for her back — The brother said so, and the first man agreed and asked for her back.

4. Ziyād[ؓ] refuses — She had already passed into the right of Allah, he said.

5. A third man, Ḥāritha, rides up — Release her and take another, he said. Ziyād[ؓ] answered that he had no way to do that.

6. Ḥāritha unties her — He said one sentence, untied her hobble himself, and stood in front of her.

فَقَالَ حَارِثَةُ: ذَاكَ إِذَا كُنْتَ يَهُودِيًّا، وَأَطْلَقَ عِقْلَهَا وَبَعَثَهَا وَقَامَ دُونَهَا. "Ḥāritha said: That would be so if you were a Jew — and he untied her hobble and drove her off and stood in front of her."

— Ḥāritha b. Surāqa, to Ziyād b. Labīd[ؓ] · ٢٣٠ ص الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

⚠ البدايه carries no Ḥaḍramawt campaign at all. Cite 229–232, never 2 ص الكامل, for everything in this card and the next. The underlying grievance was administrative: the Prophet ﷺ had ordered some of Ḥaḍramawt's zakāt placed in Kinda and some of Kinda's in Ḥaḍramawt, and after his death nobody would carry it (230 الكامل ج 2 ص).

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-‘Addā’, and Ḥāritha b. Surāqa

Ziyād b.

Labīd with Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn

Banū

Mu‘āwiya of Kinda, come out for Ḥāritha

△ al-Basūs: say only “an old war that had started the same way”.

SAY

1. A warning spoken over the camel
2. Al-‘Addā’ calls out to his clan
3. Ḥāritha b. Surāqa unties her
4. Ziyād[ؓ] takes her back

► CLICK 1 — Two great camps face each other.

5. Two great camps face each other

6. Two demands, two refusals

► CLICK 2 — A strike by night.

7. A strike by night

► CLICK 3 — Kinda roused: no ṣadaqa.

8. The freed men rouse Kinda

9. Al-Ḥuṣayn b. Numayr steps between

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. A warning spoken over the camel — When Ziyād^{رضي} refused to give her back: do not let Shadhra be for you what al-Basūs was.

2. Al-‘Addā’ calls out to his clan — The camel's owner raised the cry to his own people.

3. Ḥāritha b. Surāqa unties her — He raised the call too, came up to Ziyād^{رضي الله عنه}, and untied the camel.
 4. Ziyād^{رضي الله عنه} takes her back — Young men of Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn tied up Ḥāritha and his companions, and took the camel back.
 5. Two great camps face each other — Banū Mu‘āwiya for Ḥāritha, Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn for Ziyād^{رضي الله عنه}; Kinda held back, their men being prisoners.
 6. Two demands, two refusals — Ziyād^{رضي الله عنه} told them to put down their weapons; they refused and demanded their men; he refused.
 7. A strike by night — Ziyād^{رضي الله عنه} hit them in the dark, and they scattered.
 8. The freed men rouse Kinda — Ziyād^{رضي الله عنه} let Ḥāritha and the others go; they roused their people, and a large force called: no ṣadaqa.
 9. Al-Ḥuṣayn b. Numayr steps between — He was sent between the two sides, and for a little while they held off.
- Al-‘Addā’ called out: يَا آلَ عَمْرٍو، أَضَامَ وَأُضْطَهَدُ! إِنَّ الدَّلِيلَ مَنْ أَكَلَ فِي دَارِهِ family of ‘Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled? The humbled man is the one who is devoured in his own home!"
- al-‘Addā’, calling to his clan · ص ٢٣٠ في التاريخ ج ٢

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

Also on the page: فَلَجَأَ فِي أَخْذِهَا، فَقَالَ لَهَا: لَا تَكُونِي شَذْرَةً عَلَيْكُمْ كَالْبَسُوسِ. فَقَادَى الْعَدَاءُ: يَا آلَ >
 · 230 الكامل في التاريخ ج 2 ص — > اِعْمُرُوا، أَضَامَ وَأُضْطَهَدُ! إِنَّ الدَّلِيلَ مَنْ أَكَلَ فِي دَارِهِ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921> > English: "He persisted in taking her, and it was said: Do not let Shadhra be to you what al-Basūs > was. And al-‘Addā’ called out: O family of ‘Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled? The humbled man > is the one who is devoured in his own home!" >
 فَأَمَرَ زِيَادٌ شَبَابًا مِنْ حَضْرَمَوْتَ وَالسَّكُونِ فَمَنَعُوهُ >
 وَكَتَفُوهُ، وَكَتَفُوا أَصْحَابَهُ وَأَخَذُوا الْبَكْرَةَ، وَتَصَايَحَتْ كِنْدَةُ، وَغَضِبَتْ بَنُو مُعَاوِيَةَ لِحَارِثَةَ وَأَطْهَرُوا أَمْرَهُمْ، وَغَضِبَتْ >
 حَضْرَمَوْتُ وَالسَّكُونُ لِرِيَادٍ، وَتَوَاتَى عَسْكَرَانِ عَظِيمَانِ مِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ، وَلَمْ يُجِدْ بَنُو مُعَاوِيَةَ شَيْئًا لِمَكَانِ أَسْرَانِهِمْ >
<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/921> > English: "Ziyād ordered some young men of Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn, and they stopped him and bound > him, bound his companions, and took the young camel. Kinda raised a shout; Banū Mu‘āwiya were angry > on Ḥāritha's behalf and came out openly; Ḥaḍramawt and al-Sakūn were angry on Ziyād's behalf; two > great camps faced each other — and Banū Mu‘āwiya did nothing, because their men were prisoners."

△ Who spoke the Basūs sentence is unclear in the printed wording («فَقَالَ لَهَا») — say "a warning was spoken" (§X item 2). Al-Basūs is [STANDARD] (to verify) — the she-camel at the start of the long pre-Islamic war of Bakr and Taghlib; no page here says so. The release and the call to refuse ṣadaqa: «ج 2 ص» (231) وَنَادَوْا بِمَنْعِ الصَّدَقَةِ.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-‘Addā’, and Ḥāritha b. Surāqa

فَنَادَى الْعَدَاءُ: يَا آلَ عَمْرٍو، أَضَامُ وَأُضْطَهَدُ!

Al-‘Addā’ called out: O family of ‘Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled?

إِنَّ الدَّلِيلَ مَنْ أُكِلَ فِي دَارِهِ!

The humbled man is the one who is devoured in his own home!

— al-‘Addā’, calling to his clan

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 230

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — al-‘Addā’, calling to his clan

LESSON — Once the quarrel became a matter of honour, being right about the camel no longer decided anything. البسوس needs a gloss, and we do not have one on a page we hold. The warning only works if the room

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

“Al-‘Addā’ called out: O family of ‘Amr — am I to be wronged and trampled? The humbled man is the one who is devoured in his own home!”

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٠ ———

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ, and his son

Banū

Mu‘āwiya

each chief holds his own pasture

Shuraḥbīl and his son

go over to Ziyād°

SAY

► CLICK 1 — Each chief takes his own pasture as a stronghold.

1. Banū Mu‘āwiya withhold the ṣadaqa
2. Except one man and his son
3. They tell their clan why

► CLICK 2 — One man and his son walk out, to Ziyād's ^{بنو}camp.

4. They move to Ziyād's ^{رحله} camp

5. Their advice: strike tonight

6. The danger in waiting

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. Banū Mu'āwiya withhold the ṣadaqa — The whole clan agreed, and each chief took up his own reserved pasture as a stronghold.

2. Except one man and his son — Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son would not go with their clan.

3. They tell their clan why — Before leaving, the two men told Banū Mu'āwiya why they would not come.

4. They move to Ziyād's ^{رحله} camp — Father and son moved out, and camped with Ziyād .

5. Their advice: strike tonight — Before the men drifting toward the rebels from al-Sakāsik, al-Sakūn and Ḥaḍramawt get there.

6. The danger in waiting — If you wait, we are afraid people will drift away from us to them.

إِنَّهُ لَقَبِيحٌ بِالْأَحْزَارِ السُّفُلِ، إِنَّ الْكِرَامَ لَيَلْزِمُونَ الشُّبُهَةَ فَيَتَكْرَمُونَ أَنْ يَنْقَلِبُوا إِلَى أَوْضَحَ مِنْهَا خِفَافَةَ الْعَارِ، فَكَيْفَ
 الْإِنْتِقَالُ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ الْحَسَنِ الْجَمِيلِ وَالْحَقِّ إِلَى الْبَاطِلِ وَالْقَبِيحِ "It is an ugly thing in free men to change sides. Men of honour will stay with a doubtful position, and think it beneath them to move even to a clearer one, for fear of the disgrace — so how much worse to move from what is good, fair and true to what is false and ugly!"

— Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son, to their clan · ص ٢٣١ ج ٢ فى التاريخ الكامل

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

⚠ Quote only to «وَالْقَيْحِ» — the next clause reads against the sense. It was his son, not his father («وَابْنُهُ») — this corrects the campaign note

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ, and his son

إِنَّهُ لَقَبِيحٌ بِالْأَحْزَارِ التَّنْقُلِ

It is an ugly thing in free men to change sides.

إِنَّ الْكِرَامَ لَيَلْزِمُونَ الشُّبْهَةَ

Men of honour will stay with a doubtful position

— Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son, to their clan

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son, to their clan

LESSON — He used his tribe's own code of honour — never change sides — as the reason not to follow his tribe.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

إِنَّهُ لَقَبِيحٌ بِالْأَحْزَارِ التَّنْقُلِ، إِنَّ الْكِرَامَ لَيَلْزِمُونَ الشُّبْهَةَ فَيَنْكَرُمُونَ أَنْ يَنْتَقِلُوا إِلَى أَوْضَحَ مِنْهَا مَخَافَةَ الْعَارِ، فَكَيْفَ
 الْإِنْتِقَالُ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ الْحَسَنِ الْجَمِيلِ وَالْحَقِّ إِلَى الْبَاطِلِ وَالْقَبِيحِ "It is an ugly thing in free men to change sides. Men of honour will stay with a doubtful position, and think it beneath them to move even to a clearer one, for fear of the disgrace — so how much worse to move from what is good, fair and true to what is false and ugly!"

———— الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ, and his son

فَيَتَكَرَّمُونَ أَنْ يَنْتَقِلُوا إِلَى أَوْضَحَ مِنْهَا مَخَافَةَ الْعَارِ

and think it beneath them to move even to a clearer one, for fear of the disgrace فَكَيْفَ الْإِنْتِقَالُ مِنَ الْأَمْرِ الْحَسَنِ الْجَمِيلِ وَالْحَقِّ إِلَى الْبَاطِلِ وَالْقَبِيحِ!

*so how much worse to move from what is good, fair and true to what is false and ugly!— Shuraḥbīl b. al-Simṭ and his son, to their clan

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

DETAIL — only if you need it

فَيَتَكَرَّمُونَ أَنْ يَنْتَقِلُوا إِلَى أَوْضَحَ مِنْهَا مَخَافَةَ الْعَارِ and think it beneath them to move even to a clearer one, for fear of the disgrace إِلَى الْبَاطِلِ وَالْحَقِّ إِلَى الْجَمِيلِ وَالْحَقِّ إِلَى الْبَاطِلِ وَالْقَبِيحِ!

so how much worse to move from what is good, fair and true to what is false and ugly!

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The four kings — Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ, Jamad, Abda‘a

Ziyād b.

Labīd strikes at night,
from five sides

the four kings killed by Ziyād's men,
at their fires

△ No source ties the old kingship to the ridda. Imply nothing.

SAY

► CLICK 1 — They ring the pastures in the dark — from five sides.

1. Ziyād ^ﷺ agrees to a night attack
2. Round their fires
3. From five directions at once

► CLICK 2 — The four kings are killed.

4. The four kings are killed
5. Four, or four and a sister
6. Many killed, the rest run

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Ziyād ^{رضي الله عنه} agrees to a night attack — They gathered in the dark and ringed the pastures.
2. Round their fires — They found the men sitting round their fires.
3. From five directions at once — Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya, the strongest of Kinda with the numbers, were attacked from five sides.
4. The four kings are killed — Four brothers, the chiefs of Banū ‘Amr: Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ, Jamad and Abḍa‘a.
5. Four, or four and a sister — Ibn al-Athīr adds their sister, al-‘Amarrada; al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Ishāq, names four kings and no sister.
6. Many killed, the rest run — Many others were killed that night; whoever could run, ran.

فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ نيرانِهِمْ، فَأَكْبُوا عَلَى بَنِي عَمْرِو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ وَالشُّوْكَةُ — مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجِهٍ

"They found them sitting round their fires, and fell on Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya — who had the numbers and the strength — from five directions."

— Ibn al-Athīr, on that night · ٢٣١ ص ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

Also on the page: فَأَجَابَهُمْ إِلَى تَبْيِيتِ الْقَوْمِ، فَاجْتَمَعُوا وَطَوَّقُوهُمْ فِي مَحَاجِرِهِمْ، فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ > نِيرَانِهِمْ، فَأَكْبُوا عَلَى بَنِي عَمْرِو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ وَالشُّوْكَةُ - مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجِهٍ، فَأَصَابُوا مِشْرَحًا وَمُخَوَّصًا الْكَامِلَ فِي التَّارِيخِ ج 2 — > - وَجَمْدًا وَأَبْصَعَةً وَأُخْتَهُمُ الْعَمْرَدَةَ، وَأَذْرَكَتْهُمْ لَعْنَةُ النَّبِيِّ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ ص231 · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922> > English: "He agreed to the night attack. They gathered and ringed them in their pastures, and found > them sitting round their fires. They fell on Banū 'Amr b. Mu'āwiya — who had the numbers and the > strength — from five directions, and struck down Mishraḥ, Mikhwaṣ, Jamad, Abḍa'a and their sister > al-'Amarrada; and the curse of the Prophet ﷺ overtook them." Al-Dhahabī, from Ibn Ishāq — four, and no sister: > أن زيادا بيتهم فقتل ملوكا أربعة: > . 62 سير أعلام النبلاء، ج الراشدون ص — > . جمدا، ومخوصا ومشرحا، وأبضعة <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/1210> > English: "...that Ziyād fell on them by night and killed four kings: Jamad, Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ and > Abḍa'a." Record both counts side by side; do not choose. The origin of the Prophet's ﷺ curse is the Kinda-delegation note; do not explain it from the floor. Ibn Khaldūn adds that the captive women cried out as they passed (ص (492 ج 2) — his detail, attributed to him.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

The four kings — Mikhwaṣ, Mishraḥ, Jamad, Abḍa‘a

فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ نِيرَانِهِمْ

They found them sitting round their fires

فَأَكْبُوا عَلَى بَنِي عَمْرِو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ وَالشَّوْكَةُ — مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجِهٍ and fell on Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya — who had the numbers and the strength — from five directions.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on that night

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn al-Athīr, on that night

LESSON — The night attack ended the four kings and brought the fifth man into the war.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

فَوَجَدُوهُمْ جُلُوسًا حَوْلَ نِيرَانِهِمْ، فَأَكْبُوا عَلَى بَنِي عَمْرِو بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، وَفِيهِمُ الْعَدَدُ وَالشَّوْكَةُ — مِنْ خَمْسَةِ أَوْجِهٍ

"They found them sitting round their fires, and fell on Banū ‘Amr b. Mu‘āwiya — who had the numbers and the strength — from five directions."

————— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-Ash‘ath b. Qays — the column he stopped

the captives taken by Ziyād°, on the road home

al-Ash‘ath b.

Qays

rises, and takes them back

SAY

► CLICK 1 — The column turns for home.

1. The column turns for home

► CLICK 2 — Its road passes one man: al-Ash‘ath b. Qays.

2. And its road passes one man
3. Who he is
4. The room has met him before

► CLICK 3 — He takes the captives back.

5. He rises with his people
6. And gathers everyone he can

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. The column turns for home — Ziyād^{رضي} with the property and the captives of the four kings.
2. And its road passes one man — al-Ash'ath b. Qays, who had not been in the fighting at all.

3. Who he is — Of Kinda, but not of Banū 'Amr: a different branch from the four brothers just killed.

4. The room has met him before — He led Kinda's delegation into the Prophet's ﷺ mosque, at their head.

5. He rises with his people — And takes the captives back out of the column.

6. And gathers everyone he can — From here, this war is his.

وَعَادَ زِيَادُ بْنُ لَبِيدٍ بِالْأَمْوَالِ وَالسَّيِّ، وَاجْتَاؤُوا بِالْأَشْعَثِ، فَتَارَ فِي قَوْمِهِ، فَاسْتَقْدَهُمْ وَجَمَعَ الْجُمُوعَ "Ziyād b.

Labid returned with the property and the captives, and they passed by al-Ash'ath; so he rose with his people, recovered them, and gathered the gatherings."

— Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Ash'ath · ٢٣١ ص الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

Who he is, page-cited: he led the Kinda delegation to Medina ; and Ibn al-Athīr's "four kings" are of معاوية بن عمرو, a different branch of Kinda from his . No source ties the old Kinda kingship to this ردة — say nothing that implies it .

⚠ This card exists because sits in an optional block. Without it, al-Ash'ath walks onto the stage as a bare name and then carries seven cards. If the Kinda flashback is cut, this card is not cut.

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-Ash‘ath b. Qays — the column he

stopped

وَعَادَ زِيَادُ بْنُ لَبِيدٍ بِالْأَمْوَالِ وَالسَّيِّ

Ziyād b. Labīd returned with the property and the captives

وَاجْتَنَزَوْا بِالْأَشْعَثِ

and they passed by al-Ash‘ath

فَثَارَ فِي قَوْمِهِ، فَاسْتَنْقَذَهُمْ وَجَمَعَ الْجُمُوعَ.

so he rose with his people, recovered them, and gathered the gatherings.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Ash‘ath

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Ash‘ath

LESSON — The man who had brought his tribe to the Prophet ﷺ himself is the man who now raises it against Medina — and that is not a contradiction the books explain.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

"Ziyād b. Labīd returned with the property and the captives, and they passed by al-Ash‘ath; فَثَارَ فِي قَوْمِهِ، فَاسْتَنْقَذَهُمْ وَجَمَعَ الْجُمُوعَ Labīd returned with the property and the captives, and they passed by al-Ash‘ath; so he rose with his people, recovered them, and gathered the gatherings."

———— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١ ————

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-Muhājir ٱ and ʿIkrima ٱ — to al-Nujayr

al-Muhājir ٱ from Ṣanʿāʾ, ahead of his army

ʿIkrima ٱ
with the main body

al-Nujayr
the fort

SAY

1. A letter: hurry

► CLICK 1 — al-Muhājir ٱ rides ahead with the fastest men.

2. Al-Muhājir ٱ rides ahead

► CLICK 2 — Maḥjar al-Zurqān: Kinda breaks, and runs.

3. The battle at Maḥjar al-Zurqān

► CLICK 3 — Kinda run for al-Nujayr. ‘Ikrima brings up the main body.

4. A fort already repaired

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. A letter: hurry — Ziyād رضى wrote to al-Muhājir رضى, and the letter met him on the road.
2. Al-Muhājir رضى rides ahead — He handed the army to ‘Ikrima رضى and hurried on with the fastest men.
3. The battle at Maḥjar al-Zurqān — Al-Muhājir رضى joined Ziyād رضى and marched on Kinda; they met, and Kinda broke and ran.
4. A fort already repaired — Kinda took refuge in the fort of al-Nujayr, which they had already repaired and put in order.

فَرَجَعُوا إِلَىٰ حِصْنِهِمْ، وَخَشَعَتِ ثَمُوسُهُمْ وَخَافُوا الْمَوْتَ "They went back into their fort; their spirits sank, and they feared death."

— Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Nujayr · ٢٣١ ص ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern ————

Also on the page: > وَكَتَبَ زِيَادٌ إِلَى الْمُهَاجِرِ يَسْتَحِثُّهُ، فَلَقِيَهُ الْكِتَابُ بِالطَّرِيقِ فَاسْتَخْلَفَ عَلَى الْجُنْدِ > 231 الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 ص — > عِكْرِمَةُ بْنُ أَبِي جَهْلٍ، وَتَعَجَّلَ فِي سَرَعَانِ النَّاسِ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922> > English: "Ziyād wrote to al-Muhājir urging him on; the letter met him on the road, and he left > 'Ikrima b. Abī Jahl in charge of the army and hurried ahead with the quickest of the men." > فَاهْرَمَتْ كِنْدَةُ وَقُتِلَتْ، > 231 الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 ص — > وَخَرَجُوا هُرَابًا فَالْتَجَأُوا إِلَى النَّجِيرِ، وَقَدْ رَمَوْهُ وَأَصْلَحُوهُ

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/922> > English: "Kinda was routed and cut down; they fled and took refuge in al-Nujayr — which they had > already repaired and put in order." Where the letter met him: الكامل says only «بالطريق»; Ibn Khaldūn says «(ج 2 ص 494) بالمفازة بين مأرب وحضرموت» — his detail, not for the map as fact. Pairs with 's map line ('Ikrima closing the last road).

11–12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-Muhājir ۞ and ʿIkrima ۞ — to al-Nujayr

فَرَجَعُوا إِلَىٰ حِصْنِهِمْ، وَخَشَعَتِ نُفُوسُهُمْ وَخَافُوا الْقَتْلَ

"They went back into their fort; their spirits sank, and they feared death."

— Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Nujayr

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 231

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn al-Athīr, on al-Nujayr

LESSON — They had prepared the place to retreat to before they fought, and it became the place they could not leave.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

فَرَجَعُوا إِلَىٰ حِصْنِهِمْ، وَخَشَعَتِ نُفُوسُهُمْ وَخَافُوا الْقَتْلَ "They went back into their fort; their spirits sank, and they feared death."

———— الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣١

11 or 12 AH, Ḥaḍramawt

al-Nujayr — the siege

al-Muhājir with Ziyād , besieges Kinda in the fort

ʿIkrima brings up the main body

△ A diagram: the page gives no side to any commander. Say “not to scale”.

SAY

1. Kinda are inside al-Nujayr — the fort they had already repaired.

► CLICK 1 — al-Muhājir comes down on them, with Ziyād . The Muslims besiege the fort.

► CLICK 2 — ʿIkrima arrives with the main body. The siege grows hard.

► CLICK 3 — Raiding parties spread out through the country, after the rest.

► CLICK 4 — Those inside come out and fight. Many are killed — and they go back in.

2. Their spirits sank, and they feared death. Next: what al-Ash'ath did.

11 or 12 AH, al-Nujayr

al-Ash‘ath b. Qays — and Jaḥdam

Inside al-Nujayr, al-Ash‘ath writes the names of the men to be spared.

وَنَسِيَ الْأَشْعَثُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ نَفْسَهُ لِأَنَّ جَحْدَمًا وَتَبَّ عَلَيْهِ بِسِكِّينٍ، فَقَالَ: تَكْتُبُنِي أَوْ أَقْتُلُكَ؟

Al-Ash‘ath forgot to write himself in, because Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife and said: Will you write me in, or shall I kill you?

فَكَتَبَهُ وَنَسِيَ نَفْسَهُ

So he wrote him in, and forgot himself.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on the writing

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 232

△ Say “11 or 12 AH” — the books differ.

SAY

1. Al-Ash‘ath comes out with nine men
2. A guarantee in return for the gate
3. Write whatever you want
4. Jaḥdam and the knife
5. He forgets himself
 - 1 read the Arabic on the slide
6. The gate is opened
7. The document comes out
8. Al-Muhājir^{رحله} has him bound
9. Sent to Abū Bakr^{رحله} with the captives

LESSON — The decision about al-Ash‘ath was not taken in anger at the gate; it was sent to the man whose job it was.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Al-Ash‘ath comes out with nine men — The leaders inside had begun to fear for their own lives.

2. A guarantee in return for the gate — They asked Ziyād^{رضي} to guarantee them and their families, in return for opening the gate.
3. Write whatever you want — Ziyād^{رضي} agreed: write it, and bring it to me to seal.
4. Jaḥdam and the knife — As al-Ash'ath wrote, Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife: write me in, or I kill you.
5. He forgets himself — Al-Ash'ath wrote Jaḥdam in, and left his own name out.
6. The gate is opened — Every fighting man inside was killed.
7. The document comes out — Everyone named in it was spared, and al-Ash'ath's own name was not there.
8. Al-Muhājir^{رضي} has him bound — He praised Allah that al-Ash'ath's mouth had erred, and had him bound tight.
9. Sent to Abū Bakr^{رضي} with the captives — Someone said: send him to Abū Bakr^{رضي}, who knows best the ruling on him.

وَنَسِيَ الْأَشْعَثُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ نَفْسَهُ لِأَنَّ جَحْدَمًا وَثَبَ عَلَيْهِ بِسِكِّينٍ، فَقَالَ: تَكْتُبُنِي أَوْ أَقْتُلُكَ؟ فَكَتَبَهُ وَنَسِيَ
 "Al-Ash'ath forgot to write himself in, because Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife and said: Will you write me in, or shall I kill you? So he wrote him in, and forgot himself."

— Ibn al-Athīr, on the writing ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢ · الكامل فى التاريخ

— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —

Also on the page: > فَخَرَجَ الْأَشْعَثُ وَمَعَهُ تِسْعَةُ نَفَرٍ، فَطَلَبُوا مِنْ زِيَادٍ أَنْ يُؤَمِّنَهُمْ وَأَهْلِيَهُمْ عَلَى أَنْ >
 يَفْتَحُوا لَهُ الْبَابَ. فَأَجَابَهُمْ إِلَى ذَلِكَ وَقَالَ: أَكْتُبُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ ثُمَّ هَلُّمُوا الْكِتَابَ حَتَّى أَخْتِمَهُ. فَعَلُوا، وَنَسِيَ
 > الْأَشْعَثُ أَنْ يَكْتُبَ نَفْسَهُ لِأَنَّ جَحْدَمًا وَثَبَ عَلَيْهِ بِسِكِّينٍ، فَقَالَ: تَكْتُبُنِي أَوْ أَقْتُلُكَ؟ فَكَتَبَهُ وَنَسِيَ نَفْسَهُ — > English: "Al-Ash'ath came out with nine men, and they asked Ziyād to guarantee them and their > households on condition that they opened the gate to him. He agreed and said:
 Write whatever you > want, then bring me the document so that I can seal it. They did — and al-Ash'ath forgot to write > himself in, because Jaḥdam leapt at him with a knife and said: Will you write me in, or shall I kill > you? So he wrote him in, and forgot himself." > فَقَالَ الْمُهَاجِرُ: الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي حَطَّأَ فَكَأَ يَا أَشْعَثُ يَا عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ! قَدْ كُنْتُ أَشْتَهِي أَنْ > يُخْرِجَكَ اللَّهُ! وَشَدَّهُ كِتَافًا، فَقِيلَ لَهُ: أَعِزُّهُ وَسَيِّرْهُ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ، فَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْحُكْمِ فِيهِ. فَسَيَّرَهُ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ مَعَ
 السَّيِّئِ — > English: 232 · الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 ص — >

"Al-Muhājir said: Praise be to Allah, who made your mouth err, Ash'ath — you enemy of > Allah! I had been longing for Allah to disgrace you! And he bound him tight. Someone said to him: > Hold him back and send him to Abū Bakr — he knows best the ruling on him. So he sent him to Abū Bakr > with the captives." Pairs with , whose statement opens al-Muhājir's sentence («الحمد لله الذي خطأ فاك»).

⚠ «يَا عَدُوَّ اللَّهِ» is said to a man who is later a Companion — keep it in the notes, not on a slide. Jaḥdam is named once, with no lineage (§X item 5). The page also says the fighters were beheaded after capture — «وَصَرُّوا أَعْنَاقَهُمْ صَبْرًا». Narrate it plainly if asked; do not enlarge it.

So far tonight

Where we stand

CHECKPOINT 2 — the Line

SAY

- 1. Ḥaḍramawt is told: from a she-camel to a fort.
- (Next slide: the map. The time check is there.)

Where we stand

opened to Ziyād and al-Muhājir sent to Medina in bonds

SAY

 Past 0:40 here — close here.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

"al-Ash‘ath stood in front of Abū Bakr[ؓ], in bonds. Next week: what Abū Bakr[ؓ] did with him."

Then a loud السلام عليكم, and the dua. Next week opens on these two slides.

Part V

Medina, and after (12 AH → years later)

SAY

1. Medina, and after (12 AH → years later).

12 AH, Medina

Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه and al-Ash‘ath, at Medina al-Ash‘ath, in bonds, argues that the truce covers him.

قَالَ: إِنَّمَا وَجَبَ الصُّلْحُ بَعْدَ خَتْمِ الصَّحِيفَةِ عَلَى مَنْ فِيهَا

He said: The peace became binding, once the document was sealed, only on those named in it

وَأِنَّمَا كُنْتُ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُرَاوِضًا.

before that you were only negotiating.

— Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه, to al-Ash‘ath

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 232

SAY

1. Al-Ash‘ath before Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه
2. Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه gives the answer
3. Al-Ash‘ath argues the law
4. Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه answers on the law
 - 1 read the Arabic on the slide
5. Fearing death, he stops arguing
6. Give me back my wife
7. The best man in my country
8. Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه spares him
9. Al-Dhahabī's shorter version
10. Ten, or seventy

LESSON — He won his life only after he stopped arguing that he was owed it.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Al-Ash‘ath before Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه — Asked what he thought would be done with him, he said he did not know.

2. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} gives the answer — Then I will kill you.

3. Al-Ash'ath argues the law — I negotiated that peace for ten, he said, so my blood is not lawful.

4. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} answers on the law — The answer turned on the document, and on the moment it was sealed.

5. Fearing death, he stops arguing — Look for some good in me. Free me. Forgive my stumble. Treat me as you treated others like me.

6. Give me back my wife — He had asked for Abū Bakr's ^{رضي} sister and delayed the wedding; then the Prophet ﷺ died, and he apostatised.

7. The best man in my country — Do that, he said, and you will find me the best in my country for the religion of Allah.

8. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} spares him — He spared al-Ash'ath's life and gave him back his family.

9. Al-Dhahabī's shorter version — We will kill you. Be gracious to me, and I accept Islam. He did, and married his sister to him.

10. Ten, or seventy — Ibn al-Athīr has the peace negotiated for ten; al-Dhahabī gives seventy. The books differ.

"He said: The peace became binding, once the document was sealed, only on those named in it; before that you were only negotiating."

— Abū Bakr ^{رضي}, to al-Ash'ath · 232 ص الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

Also on the page: > فَلَمَّا قَدِمَ الْمَدِينَةَ قَالَ لَهُ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: مَا تَرَانِي أَصْنَعُ بِكَ؟ قَالَ: لَا أَعْلَمُ. قَالَ: فَإِنِّي أَقْتُلُكَ. قَالَ: فَأَنَا الَّذِي رَاوَضْتُ الْقَوْمَ فِي عَشْرَةِ فَمَا يَحِلُّ دَمِي. قَالَ: إِنَّمَا وَجِبَ الصُّلْحُ بَعْدَ خْتِمِ الصَّحِيفَةِ 232 الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 ص — > عَلَى مَنْ فِيهَا، وَإِنَّمَا كُنْتُ قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُرَاوِضًا

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> > English: "When he reached Medina, Abū Bakr said to him: What do you think I will do with you? He > said: I do not know. He said: Then I will kill you. He said: But I am the one who negotiated with the > people for ten — so my blood is not lawful. He said: The peace became binding, once the document was > sealed, only on those named in it; before that you were only negotiating." > فَلَمَّا حَشِيَ الْقَتْلُ قَالَ: أَوْتَحَسَّبُ فِي خَيْرٍ، فَطُطِلْتُ إِسَارِي وَتُقْبَلُنِي عَشْرَتِي، وَتَفْعَلُ بِي مِثْلَ > 232 الكامل فى التاريخ ج 2 ص — > مَا فَعَلْتُ بِأَمْتَالِي، وَتَرُدُّ عَلَيَّ رَوْحَتِي؟

<https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> > English: "When he feared he would be killed,

he said: Or will you look for some good in me — free > me from my bonds, forgive my stumble, do with me what you have done with men like me, and give me > back my wife?" > الكامل — > فَإِنْ فَعَلْتَ ذَلِكَ تَجِدُنِي خَيْرَ أَهْلِ بِلَادِي لِدِينِ اللَّهِ. فَحَقَّقَ دَمَهُ وَرَدَّ عَلَيْهِ أَهْلَهُ >

ص 232 · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/923> > English: "If you do that, you will find me the best of the people of my country for the religion > of Allah. So he spared his blood and gave him back his family." Al-Dhahabī's shorter version (al-Nakha'ī, via Abū 'Ubayd's al-Amwāl) — a variant, kept beside the first, not in place of it: > فَأُتِيَ بِهِ الصِّدِّيقُ، فَقَالَ: إِنَّا قَاتِلُوكَ، لَا أَمَانَ لَكَ. فَقَالَ: تُمُنُّ عَلَيَّ وَأُسْلِمُ؟ قَالَ: فَفَعَلَ، وَرَوَّجَهُ أُخْتَهُ >

> — ص 39 · <https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2019> > English: "He was brought to al-Ṣiddīq, who said: We are going to kill you; you have no > safe-conduct. He said: Will you do me a kindness, and I become Muslim? He said: And he did so, and > married his sister to him." △ Her name differs: Umm Farwa in الكامل, Farwa bint Abī Quḥāfa in ص 39 سیر 2 ج, where he asks for the marriage after the pardon rather than having it restored. Say "Abū Bakr's ^سsister". △ The number differs:

ten in الكامل («إِنِّي عَشْرَةٌ»), seventy in سیر — the card's narrative keeps الكامل's ten because it tells الكامل's exchange; do not reconcile them. Which "men like me" he meant is not on the page (§X item 12). Follow with (the wedding feast in the camel market), which tells al-Dhahabī's version in its narrative.

12 AH, Medina

al-Ash‘athؓ — pardoned, and married

Pardoned, and married to Abū Bakr's ؓ sister.

وَاللّٰهُ مَا كَفَرْتُ؛ وَلَكِنَّ هَٰذَا الرَّجُلَ زَوَّجَنِي أُخْتَهُ

By God, I have not disbelieved. This man has married his sister to me

وَلَوْ كُنَّا فِي بِلَادِنَا لَكَانَتْ لَنَا وَلِيْمَةٌ غَيْرُ هَذِهِ

and had we been in our own country we would have had a wedding feast other than this one.

— al-Ash‘athؓ , in the market at Medina

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 39

⚠ Do not name Abū Bakr's ؓ sister — the books differ.

SAY

1. Safe conduct, but not for himself
2. Brought captive to Abū Bakr ؓ
3. He asks for favour
4. Released, and married into the family
5. A sword in the camel market
6. Medina thinks he has turned again
7. He throws the sword down

↑ read the Arabic on the slide

LESSON — A man newly forgiven will sometimes announce it in the loudest and least convenient way available to him.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Safe conduct, but not for himself — Besieged, he took safe conduct for seventy men, al-Dhahabī says, and not for himself.

2. Brought captive to Abū Bakr [ؓ] — We are going to kill you, Abū Bakr [ؓ] told him plainly; you have no safe conduct.

3. He asks for favour — Will you show me favour, he asked, and I become Muslim?

4. Released, and married into the family — Abū Bakr [ؓ] showed him favour, loosed his bonds, and married his own sister to him.

5. A sword in the camel market — He drew his sword, walked into the camel market of Medina, and began hamstringing every camel and bull he saw.

6. Medina thinks he has turned again — The people shouted that he had apostatised again.

7. He throws the sword down — Then he threw the sword down and explained himself.

وَاللّٰهُ مَا كَفَرْتُ؛ وَلَكِنَّ هَٰذَا الرَّجُلَ رَوَّجَنِي أُخْتَهُ؛ وَلَوْ كُنَّا فِي بِلَادِنَا لَكَانَتْ لَنَا وَلِيْمَةٌ غَيْرُ هَٰذِهِ، يَا أَهْلَ الْمَدِيْنَةِ،
"By God, I have not disbelieved. This man has married his sister to me, and had we been in our own country we would have had a wedding feast other than this one. People of Medina — slaughter and eat! And owners of the camels, come and take the like of them!"

— al-Ash'ath [ؓ], in the market at Medina · ص ٣٩ ج ٢ سير أعلام النبلاء

12 AH, Medina

al-Ash‘ath ﷺ — pardoned, and married

يَا أَهْلَ الْمَدِينَةِ، انْحَرُوا، وَكُلُوا! وَيَا أَهْلَ الْإِبِلِ تَعَالَوْا خُذُوا شَرَوَاهَا!

People of Medina — slaughter and eat! And owners of the camels, come and take the like of them!

— al-Ash‘ath ﷺ, in the market at Medina

Siyar A'lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 39

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

يَا أَهْلَ الْمَدِينَةِ، انْحَرُوا، وَكُلُوا! وَيَا أَهْلَ الْإِبِلِ تَعَالَوْا خُذُوا شَرَوَاهَا People of Medina — slaughter and eat! And owners of the camels, come and take the like of them!

Years later: al-Qādisiyya, Nahāwand

Tūlayḥā , ‘Amr and Qays

Years later. Three men who had once turned, now in the army.

ولقد اتهمنا ثلاثة نفر

We did suspect three men

فما رأينا كما هجمنا عليهم من أمانتهم وزهدهم:

and when we came upon them we found nothing to match their trustworthiness and their abstinence:

— Jābir b. ‘Abd Allāh , of the army at al-Qādisiyya

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 243

SAY

1. A look ahead, and say so
2. Three men of this evening go north
3. Sent to call Rustam to Islam
4. Qays commands the left wing
5. An eye each at the Yarmūk
6. Side by side at Nahāwand
7. What Jābir ^{رضي} swore
8. Three men were suspected
9. They looked into the three
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
10. Who the three were
11. Two books on Qays

LESSON — The army kept watching the men who had once turned, and the watching found nothing; both of those facts are in the record.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. A look ahead, and say so — The next four names are battles this course reaches in later evenings; note only that these men are in them.

2. Three men of this evening go north — Qays, ‘Amr^{رضي} and al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} are met again at the Yarmūk, al-Qādisiyya and Nahāwand.

3. Sent to call Rustam to Islam — Al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} and ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib^{رضي} were among the men Sa‘d^{رضي} sent before al-Qādisiyya.

4. Qays commands the left wing — He fought at the Yarmūk, came east with reinforcements from Syria, and commanded the left at al-Qādisiyya.

5. An eye each at the Yarmūk — Qays and al-Ash‘ath^{رضي} each lost an eye at the Yarmūk.

6. Side by side at Nahāwand — Ibn Kathīr lists ‘Amr^{رضي}, Qays and Ṭulayḥa^{رضي} among the leading men of the army.

7. What Jābir^{رضي} swore — Ibn Kathīr records that Jābir^{رضي} swore: we found no one at al-Qādisiyya wanting this world with the next.

8. Three men were suspected — They had suspected three men of wanting this world.

9. They looked into the three — And when they looked, they found nothing to match their honesty and their indifference to this world.

10. Who the three were — Ṭulayḥa^{رضي}, who had claimed prophethood; ‘Amr^{رضي}, who had followed al-Aswad; Qays, who had turned on the Abnā’.

11. Two books on Qays — Ibn Kathīr says Qays left Islam; al-Dhahabī’s notice of him, a commander known for courage, does not mention it.

ولقد اتهمنا ثلاثة نفر، فما رأينا كما هجمنا عليهم من أمانتهم وزهدهم: طليحة بن خويلد الأسدي، وعمر بن
المكشوح. "We did suspect three men — and when we came upon them we found nothing to match their trustworthiness and their abstinence:
Ṭulayḥa b. Khuwaylid al-Asadī, ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib, and Qays b. al-Makshūh."

— Jābir b. ‘Abd Allāh^{رضي}, of the army at al-Qādisiyya · ج ٧ ص ٢٤٣ البدايه والنهايه

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

△ The saying comes through Sayf b. ‘Umar — say "Ibn Kathīr records that Jābir^{رضي} said". △ SPEAKER'S DISCRETION on Qays: no honorific — no page here states his Companionship. Stop at the Yarmūk and Nahāwand; both al-Ash‘ath's and Qays's notices go on to Šiffin, which is not this session. Close with (»إِنَّ هَذَا لَمْ يَرْتَدَّ، وَإِنِّي ارْتَدَدْتُ«). Hand-off: al-Ash'ath's later house is the third sister note. Also on the page: > ثم بعث سعدٌ جماعةً من السادات منهم النعمان بن مُقَرِّن، وفُرَات بن حَيَّان، وَخَنْظَلَةُ بن الربيع التميمي، وعطارِد بن حاجب، والأشعث بن قيس، والمغيرة بن شعبة، 133البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > وعمرو بن معد يكرب، يدعون رستم إلى الله

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3279> > English: "Then Sa'd sent a group of the leading men — among them al-Nu'mān b. Muqarrin, Furāt b. > Ḥayyān, Ḥanzala b. al-Rabī' al-Tamīmī, 'Uṭārid b. Ḥājib, al-Ash'ath b. Qays, al-Mughīra b. Shu'ba > and 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib — to call Rustam to Allah." > وعلى الميسرة

قيس بن مكشوح، وكان قيس والمغيرة بن شعبة قد قدما على سعد مدداً من عند أبي عبيدة من الشام 139البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > . بعدما شهدا وقعة اليرموك

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3285> > English: "And over the left wing, Qays b. Makshūḥ. Qays and al-Mughīra b. Shu'ba had come to Sa'd as > reinforcements from Abū 'Ubayda in Syria, after they had fought at the Yarmūk." > ما أطلعنا على أحدٍ من أهل القادسية يريد الدنيا مع الآخرة، ولقد اتهمنا ثلاثة نفرٍ، فما > رأينا كما هجمنا عليهم من أمانتهم وزهدهم: طُلَيْحَةُ بن خُوَيْلِد الأسدي، وَعَمْرُو بن معدي كرب، وقيس > <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3389> 243البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > . بن المكشوح

English: "[Jābir b. 'Abd Allāh said, on oath:] We never came upon anyone among the men of > al-Qādisiyya who wanted this world along with the next. We did suspect three men — and when we came > upon them we found nothing to match their trustworthiness and their abstinence: Ṭulayḥa b. Khuwaylid > al-Asadī, 'Amr b. Ma'dī Karib, and Qays b. al-Makshūḥ." Al-Dhababī's whole notice on Qays b. Makshūḥ — it does not mention the ridda at all: > الْأَمِيرُ، أَبُو حَسَّانِ الْمُرَادِيِّ، مِنْ وَجُوهِ الْعَرَبِ الْمُؤَصِّفِينَ بِالشَّجَاعَةِ. وَكَانَ مِنْ أَعَانَ عَلَى قَتْلِ > 520سير أعلام النبلاء ج3 ص — > . الْأَسْوَدِ الْعَنْسِيِّ، وَقُلِعَتْ عَيْنُهُ يَوْمَ الْيَرْمُوكِ

<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/3128> > English: "The commander, Abū Ḥassān al-Murādī, one of the notable Arabs known for courage. He was > among those who helped kill al-Aswad al-'Ansī, and his eye was put out on the day of the Yarmūk." △ The same notice goes on to say Qays was killed at Ṣiffīn among 'Alī's commanders — that clause is not quoted here and does not go into this session. The books differ on Qays: > (البدايه ج7 ص «ارتدَّ عن الإسلام» 42) against a notice that is silent on it (520سير ج3 ص). Record both; decide nothing. ## Kinda: the kingdom before Islam, and the house of al-Ash'ath Source note: [] — read it for the pages behind these cards.

Years later: al-Qādisiyya, Nahāwand

Ṭulayḥa , ‘Amr and Qays

طُلَيْحَةُ بْنُ خُوَيْلِدِ الْأَسَدِيِّ، وَعَمْرُو بْنُ مَعْدِي كَرِبَ، وَقَيْسُ بْنُ الْمَكْشُوحِ.
Ṭulayḥa b. Khuwaylid al-Asadī, ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib, and Qays b. al-Makshūh.

— Jābir b. ‘Abd Allāh , of the army at al-Qādisiyya

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 243

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

طُلَيْحَةُ بْنُ خُوَيْلِدِ الْأَسَدِيِّ، وَعَمْرُو بْنُ مَعْدِي كَرِبَ، وَقَيْسُ بْنُ الْمَكْشُوحِ. Ṭulayḥa b. Khuwaylid al-Asadī, ‘Amr b. Ma‘dī Karib, and Qays b. al-Makshūh.

Years later

al-Ash‘ath رضي الله عنه and Jarīr b. ‘Abd Allāh رضي الله عنه

A funeral, years later. al-Ash‘ath رضي الله عنه steps back for Jarīr رضي الله عنه.

إِنَّ هَذَا لَمْ يَرْتَدَّ، وَإِنِّي ارْتَدَدْتُ.

"This man did not apostatise. And I did."

— al-Ash‘ath رضي الله عنه, of Jarīr b. ‘Abd Allāh رضي الله عنه

Siyar A‘lam al-Nubala, vol. 2, p. 40

SAY

1. He steps back at a funeral
2. Somebody asks him why
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
3. Said in public, years afterwards

LESSON — A man who will say the worst thing about himself out loud has taken its power away from everybody else.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. He steps back at a funeral — At a funeral, al-Ash‘ath رضي الله عنه stepped back and put Jarīr b. ‘Abd Allāh رضي الله عنه forward to lead the prayer.
2. Somebody asks him why — He gave the reason in six words.
3. Said in public, years afterwards — Forgiven, married into al-Ṣiddīq's رضي الله عنه family, made a commander, and he still said it of himself.

إِنَّ هَذَا لَمْ يَرْتَدَّ، وَإِنِّي ارْتَدَدْتُ. "This man did not apostatise. And I did."

— al-Ash‘ath رضي الله عنه, of Jarīr b. ‘Abd Allāh رضي الله عنه ص ٤٠ ج ٢ سير أعلام النبلاء

So far tonight

Where we stand

CHECKPOINT 3 — the Line

SAY

1. The last two fronts are told — and al-Ash'ath[ؓ], who came back.

(Next slide: the map. The time check is there.)

So far tonight

Where we stand

Arabia

one colour, in two years

al-Ash‘ath

pardoned by Abū Bakr

CHECKPOINT 3 — the map

SAY

1. The peninsula is one colour.

⌚ Past 0:40 here — close here. This is the natural end.

CARRY ON — “The fighting is over. Now: what do the books say the whole of it was?”

DETAIL — only if you need it

OUT OF TIME — this is your ending. Stay on this map, and say:

“Two years after the Prophet ﷺ died, all of Arabia was on one side. Next week: what the books say the whole of it was.”

Then a loud السلام عليكم, and the dua. Next week opens on these two slides.

Part VI

Thaqīf, Najrān, the Azd: who did not break away (11 AH)

SAY

1. Thaqīf, Najrān, the Azd: who did not break away (11 AH).

11 AH — the same months

Thaqīf, Najrān, the Azd

So far

Bahrayn, then Ḥaḍramawt: front after front

Now

the same months —
al-Ṭā'if, Najrān, Oman

The question

who did not break — and why?

BRIDGE

SAY

1. So far tonight, every slide has been a front.
2. Now the same months, from the side: who did not break at all.
3. Some of them are the people you would least expect.

11 AH, al-Ṭā'if

Thaqīf, at al-Ṭā'if

al-Ṭā'if. They had been Muslim for only two years.

وقد كانت ثقيف بالطائف ثبتوا على الإسلام

Thaqīf at Ṭā'if had stood firm upon Islam:

لم يفرُّوا ولا ارتدّوا

they did not flee and they did not apostatise.

— Ibn Kathīr, on Thaqīf

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 9

SAY

1. Thaqīf: Muslim for only two years
2. They did not flee, they did not turn
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
3. One young man stood among them
4. Three caliphs left him there
5. So it was not about how long

LESSON — The newest Muslims in the peninsula held, and what was standing among them was a man the Prophet ﷺ had chosen and Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} left exactly where he was.

ASK — Before beat 1: "Who do you think held firmer that year — the oldest Muslims in Arabia, or the newest?" newest?"

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Thaqīf: Muslim for only two years — They came into Islam in the year 9, two years before all this.
2. They did not flee, they did not turn — Ibn Kathīr's own words; read them off the slide.

3. One young man stood among them — ‘Uthmān b. Abī al-‘Āṣ^{رضي}, whom the Prophet ﷺ put over them for his intelligence and his eagerness for good — the youngest man in the delegation.

4. Three caliphs left him there — Abū Bakr^{رضي} confirmed him over al-Ṭā’if, and ‘Umar^{رضي} after him.

5. So it was not about how long — Tribes inside Islam far longer broke; the newest Muslims in the peninsula held.

"Thaqīf at Ṭā’if had stood firm upon Islam: they did not flee and they did not apostatise."

— Ibn Kathīr, on Thaqīf · البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٩

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

The man, from سیر أعلام النبلاء ج 2 ص 374 (<https://shamela.ws/book/10906/2354>),

قَدِمَ فِي وَفْدٍ ثَقِيفٍ عَلَى النَّبِيِّ ﷺ فِي سَنَةِ > عثمان بن أبي العاص^{رضي} الثقفي الطائفي on الذبهي رحمه الله تَسْمَعُ، فَأَسْلَمُوا، وَأَمَرَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ لِمَا رَأَى مِنْ عَقْلِهِ وَحِرْصِهِ عَلَى الْخَيْرِ وَالِدَيْنِ، وَكَانَ أَصْغَرَ الْوَفْدِ سِنًا. ثُمَّ أَقَرَّهُ أَبُو > English: "He came in the delegation of Thaqīf to the Prophet ﷺ in the year 9, and they became > Muslim; and he put him in command over them for what he saw of his intelligence and his eagerness > for good and for religion — and he was the youngest of the delegation in years. Then Abū Bakr > confirmed him over Ṭā’if, and then ‘Umar." △ The famous line often attributed to عثمان بن أبي العاص^{رضي} — that Thaqīf were the last to enter Islam and would not be the first to leave it — could not be found on any page fetched in this pass. It is not at 374–375 سیر ج 2 ص 374 and not at 9 البدايه ج 7 ص 9. Do not use it. (to verify)

11–12 AH, Najrān

Najrān

While Muslim tribes broke their word, a Christian community came to renew its own.

أَرْسَلُوا وَفْدًا لِيَجَدُّوا عَهْدَهُمْ مَعَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ

They sent a delegation to renew their covenant with Abū Bakr

فَكَتَبَ بِذَلِكَ كِتَابًا and he wrote a document to that effect.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on Najrān

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 227

SAY

1. Not everyone in Arabia was Muslim
2. Najrān held the Prophet's ﷺ covenant
3. They sent to renew it
4. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} wrote it down

↑ read the Arabic on the slide

5. No date and no names on the page
6. Ibn Kathīr names them again

LESSON — The war ended with the peninsula in two conditions, not one — and the book names the second condition with a community that never left.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Not everyone in Arabia was Muslim — And not every community that was not Muslim rose.
2. Najrān held the Prophet's ﷺ covenant — A Christian community, under a covenant he ﷺ had given them himself.
3. They sent to renew it — While Muslim tribes were breaking theirs, Najrān sent a delegation to Medina to renew its own.

4. Abū Bakr ^{رضي} wrote it down — He wrote them a document to that effect.
5. No date and no names on the page — Ibn al-Athīr gives one sentence; supply nothing more.
6. Ibn Kathīr names them again — When he sums the war up, the peninsula ends in obedience or covenant, "like the people of Najrān".
- أَرْسَلُوا وَفْدًا لِيُجَدِّدُوا عَهْدَهُمْ مَعَ أَبِي بَكْرٍ، فُكْتُبَ بِذَلِكَ كِتَابًا
"They sent a delegation to renew their covenant with Abū Bakr, and he wrote a document to that effect."
- Ibn al-Athīr, on Najrān · ٢٢٧ ص الكامل في التاريخ ج ٢

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

- ⚠ Do not open the Najrān delegation of the Prophet's ﷺ lifetime, or the مباهلة. That is a different subject and a different evening; tonight Najrān is one line in a campaign chapter.
- ⚠ Single-source. البدايه carries Najrān in RC36's summing-up but not this delegation. Say "Ibn al-Athīr records..."

11 AH, Banū Tamīm

Banū Tamīm — three answers

One tribe, in one month.

كانت بنو تميم قد اختلفت آراؤهم أيام الرِّدَّة

The views of Banū Tamīm differed in the days of the ridda:

— Ibn Kathīr, on Banū Tamīm

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 28

SAY

1. Banū Tamīm: not one answer
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
2. Some withheld the zakāt
3. Some sent it to Abū Bakr ^{رضي}
4. Some waited
5. The tribe of al-Buṭāḥ
6. No tribe is one colour

LESSON — The honest map has three colours inside one tribe, and the sentence that licenses it is the book's own.

ASK — Before showing it: "One tribe. How many different answers can it give at the same moment?"

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Banū Tamīm: not one answer — The book stops its own narrative to say what they did, and it is three things.
2. Some withheld the zakāt — Some of them turned.

3. Some sent it to Abū Bakr ^{رضي} — The ṣadaqa money went in to Medina.
4. Some waited — They held back to see how the matter would go.
5. The tribe of al-Buṭāḥ — The room met Banū Tamīm on evening 4; this is that tribe, counted honestly.
6. No tribe is one colour — A map that shades Banū Tamīm a single colour is contradicted by the book it is drawn from.

كانت بنو تميم قد اختلفت أراؤهم أيام الرِّدَّة، فمنهم من ارتدَّ ومنع الزَّكاة، ومنهم من بعثَ بأموال الصَّدقات إلى الصِّدِّيق، ومنهم من توقف لينظر في أمره. "The views of Banū Tamīm differed in the days of the ridda: some of them apostatised and withheld the zakāt; some of them sent the ṣadaqa monies to al-Ṣiddīq; and some of them held back to see how the matter would go."

— Ibn Kathīr, on Banū Tamīm · ٢٨ ص ٧ البدايه والنهايه

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

Cross-reference: , and adds only the collectors' names and the mechanism.

11 AH, Banū Tamīm

Banū Tamīm — three answers

فمنهم من ارتدَّ ومنعَ الزكاة

some of them apostatised and withheld the zakāt

ومنهم من بعثَ بأموالِ الصَّدقاتِ إلى الصِّديقِ

some of them sent the ṣadaqa monies to al-Ṣiddīq

ومنهم من توقفَ لينظرَ في أمره.

*and some of them held back to see how the matter would go.— Ibn Kathīr, on Banū Tamīm

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 28

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

DETAIL — only if you need it

ومنهم من ارتدَّ ومنعَ الزكاة some of them apostatised and withheld the zakāt

ومنهم من بعثَ بأموالِ الصَّدقاتِ إلى الصِّديقِ some of them sent the ṣadaqa monies to al-Ṣiddīq

ومنهم من توقفَ لينظرَ في أمره. and some of them held back to see how the matter would go.

11 AH, the tribes

The verse of the men who refused

The men who withheld the zakāt, in their own words.

أَطَعْنَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِذْ كَانَ بَيْنَنَا

We obeyed the Messenger of Allah while he was among us

فَوَاعَجَبْنَا مَا بَالُ مُلْكِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ

so how strange: what is this about the rule of Abū Bakr?

— A verse of the tribes that refused, as Ibn Kathīr records it

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 18

SAY

1. The other side, in its own words
2. "What is this rule of Abū Bakr?"
1 read the Arabic on the slide
3. The longer version
4. Not the prayer, not the Prophet ﷺ
5. Only: who is obeyed now

LESSON — The refusal stated itself in the language of who should rule, and the answer it was given was in the language of what is owed.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. The other side, in its own words — The book twice prints a verse from the men who refused.
2. "What is this rule of Abū Bakr?" — "We obeyed the Messenger of Allah while he was among us — so what is this about the rule of Abū Bakr?"
3. The longer version — At ج 7 ص 20 it asks whether it is to be left to Bakr after him, and calls that a thing that breaks the back.
4. Not the prayer, not the Prophet ﷺ — Nothing in the lines denies either.

5. Only: who is obeyed now — That is what the verse objects to. Say it and stop; it is not a verdict on anyone.

فَوَاعَجَبًا مَا بَالُ مُلْكِ أَبِي بَكْرٍ ... أَطَعْنَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِذْ كَانَ بَيْنَنَا "We obeyed the Messenger of Allah while he was among us — so how strange: what is this about the rule of Abū Bakr?"

— A verse of the tribes that refused, as Ibn Kathīr records it · ١٨ ص · ج ٧ والنهاية (and again · ٢٠ ص · ج ٧)

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

The four-line version at ج 20 ص 7 (<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3166>) adds: «أَيُورَثُنَا» — "وَتِلْكَ لَعَمْرُ اللَّهِ قَاصِمَةُ الظَّهْرِ ... بَكْرًا إِذَا مَاتَ بَعْدَهُ" — "Is he to leave us to Bakr as an inheritance when he dies? That, by God's life, breaks the back."

⚠ Say whose words these are before reading them. They are a rebel's verse, printed by the book as the objection that was being made against the caliphate — not as a description of it. Pair this card with and so the room hears the objection and the answer in the same minute, and do not leave the verse standing alone at the end of a block.

11 AH, Oman and Medina

The Azd — Medina, and Oman

The Azd of Oman — kin to the Anṣār of Medina.

فنبَغَ فيهم رجلٌ يقالُ له: ذو التاج لَقِيْطُ بن مالِك الأَزْدِي

There arose among them a man called Dhū al-Tāj, Laqīṭ b. Mālik al-Azdī

وكان يُسَمَّى في الجاهلية الجُلَنْدَى، فادَّعى النَّبُوَّةَ أَيضاً who used to be called al-Julandā in the Jāhiliyya — and he too claimed prophethood.

— Ibn Kathīr, on Oman

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 41

SAY

1. One tribe, two ends of the map
2. The Anṣār are of al-Azd
3. In Oman: behind Laqīṭ
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
4. At al-Yamāma: under Thābit b. Qays^{نه}
5. Same descent, opposite choices
6. About that year only

LESSON — Descent explains the vocabulary people used that year. It does not predict where any of them stood.

ASK — Before telling it: "The Anṣār of Medina, and the tribe that rose in Oman — how are the two related?"

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. One tribe, two ends of the map — The fact that stops a genealogy from turning into a theory.
2. The Anṣār are of al-Azd — And so are the Azd of Oman.
3. In Oman: behind Laqīṭ — The Azd of Oman rose behind Laqīṭ b. Mālik al-Azdī, whom the room met last week.

4. At al-Yamāma: under Thābit b. Qays^{رضي} — The Azd of Medina carried the Anṣār's banner; he dug his feet in to his shins and died standing.

5. Same descent, opposite choices — In the same year.

6. About that year only — It says nothing about anyone alive; do not let it.

فنبع فيهم رجلٌ يقال له: ذو التاج لقيطُ بن مالك الأزدي، وكان يُسمَّى في الجاهلية الجُلندى، فادَّعى النبوة أيضًا "There arose among them a man called Dhū al-Tāj, Laqīṭ b. Mālik al-Azdī — who used to be called al-Julandā in the Jāhiliyya — and he too claimed prophethood."

— Ibn Kathīr, on Oman ٧ ج ١ ص ٤٠ البدايه والنهايه

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

This عبرت line is the safest and truest thing the speaker can say about the whole قحطان/عدنان strand, and it is what keeps the fault-line slides from becoming an ethnic theory. If only one sentence of survives the cut, keep this one.

Part VII

Medina, 12 AH: Ibn Kathīr and Ibn Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه on the whole war

SAY

1. Medina, 12 AH: Ibn Kathīr and Ibn Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه on the whole war.

12 AH, the whole peninsula

Ibn Kathīr, on the whole war

Ibn Kathīr has finished telling the war. He stops, and says what it was.

ما من ناحية من جزيرة العرب إلا حصل في أهلها ردّة لبعض الناس

There was no region of the Arabian peninsula in which apostasy did not occur among some of its people

فبعث الصديق إليهم جيوشاً وأمرأاً يكونون عوناً لمن في تلك الناحية من المؤمنين

so al-Ṣiddīq sent them armies and commanders to be a support to whichever believers were in that region

— Ibn Kathīr, summing up the war

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 43

SAY

1. Ibn Kathīr stops and sums up
2. No region untouched
 - 1 read the Arabic on the slide
3. Armies sent to support believers
4. The fifth went to Medina
5. Obedience, or covenant
6. The end of 11, the start of 12

LESSON — The armies were sent to hold up people who were already standing, and the whole thing was over in a little more than a year.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Ibn Kathīr stops and sums up — At the end of his own account; this comes after Ḥaḍramawt, never before it.
2. No region untouched — There was no part of Arabia in which some people did not turn.
3. Armies sent to support believers — Abū Bakr ^{رضي الله عنه} sent commanders to help whichever believers were already standing in each region — not to subdue it.
4. The fifth went to Medina — And was spent among the people.

5. Obedience, or covenant — Until nobody was left but people in obedience and people under a covenant, "like the people of Najrān".

6. The end of 11, the start of 12 — His own words for how long it took: two years, not a generation.

ما من ناحية من جزيرة العرب إلا وحصلَ في أهلها ردَّةٌ لبعض الناس، فبعثَ الصِّدِّيقُ إليهم جيوشًا وأمراء ولم يزل الأمر كذلك حتى لم يبق بجزيرة العرب إلا أهل طاعة لله ... يكونون عونًا لمن في تلك الناحية من المؤمنين ولرسوله، وأهل ذمة من الصديق، كأهل نجران وما جرى مجراهم والله الحمد. وعامة ما وقع من هذه الحروب "There was no region of the Arabian peninsula in which apostasy did not occur among some of its people; so al-Ṣiddīq sent them armies and commanders to be a support to whichever believers were in that region ... And matters continued so until there remained in the peninsula none but people obedient to Allah and His Messenger, and people under al-Ṣiddīq's protection, such as the people of Najrān. The general run of these wars was in the last part of the year 11 and the first part of the year 12."

— Ibn Kathīr, summing up the war ٧ ج ٢٣ ص ٠ البدايه والنهايه

11 AH, Medina

‘Abd Allāh b. Mas‘ūdؓ

Ibn al-Athīr opens his whole chapter on the war with these words.

لَقَدْ قُومْنَا بَعْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مَقَامًا كِدْنَا نَهْلِكُ فِيهِ، لَوْلَا أَنَّ اللَّهَ مَنَّ عَلَيْنَا

بِأَبِي بَكْرٍ

We stood, after the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, in a position in which we nearly perished, had Allah not favoured us with Abū Bakr.

أَجْعُنَا عَلَى أَنْ لَا تُقَاتِلَ عَلَى ابْنَةِ مَخَاضٍ وَابْنَةِ لَبُونٍ

We had agreed not to fight over a bint makhāḍ or a bint labūn

— ‘Abd Allāh b. Mas‘ūdؓ

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 201

△ No isnād is given. Narrate it as what the book carries.

SAY

1. Ibn al-Athīr opens with a verdict
2. ‘Abd Allāh b. Mas‘ūdؓ is speaking
3. "We nearly perished"
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
4. They had agreed not to fight
5. To live quietly and worship
6. The consensus went the other way
7. Then Allah resolved Abū Bakrؓ
8. The two terms of evening 2

LESSON — A Companion, looking back, says plainly that the right answer was not the one they had all agreed on.

ASK — Before beat 4: "He says they had already agreed on something. What do you think they had agreed?"

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Ibn al-Athīr opens with a verdict — Before any event of the Ridda, he quotes a Companion looking back.
 2. ‘Abd Allāh b. Mas‘ūd^{رضي} is speaking — The room knows him; no introduction.
 3. "We nearly perished" — "We stood, after the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, in a position in which we nearly perished — had Allah not favoured us with Abū Bakr."
 4. They had agreed not to fight — Over a young she-camel: a bint makhāḍ and a bint labūn.
 5. To live quietly and worship — To live off the Arab settlements and worship Allah until certainty came.
 6. The consensus went the other way — Say it plainly; a Companion is the one who records it.
 7. Then Allah resolved Abū Bakr^{رضي} — "Then Allah resolved for Abū Bakr to fight them."
 8. The two terms of evening 2 — He accepted nothing but the humiliating terms or the war that drives out; the loop closes on the words it opened with.
- لَقَدْ فُئِمْنَا بَعْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ - صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ - مَقَامًا كِدْنَا تَهْلِكُ فِيهِ، لَوْلَا أَنَّ اللَّهَ مَنَّ عَلَيْنَا بِأَبِي بَكْرٍ، أَجْمَعًا عَلَى أَنْ لَا تُقَاتِلَ عَلَى ابْنَةِ مَخَاضٍ وَابْنَةِ لَبُونٍ، وَأَنْ نَأْكُلَ قَرَى عَرَبِيَّةً، وَنَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ حَتَّى يَأْتِيَنَا الْيَقِينُ
- "We stood, after the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, in a position in which we nearly perished, had Allah not favoured us with Abū Bakr. We had agreed not to fight over a bint makhāḍ or a bint labūn, and to live off the Arab settlements, and to worship Allah until certainty came to us."
- ‘Abd Allāh b. Mas‘ūd^{رضي} · ٢٠١ ص ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

⚠ Ibn al-Athīr prints this at the head of the chapter with no isnād. Narrate it as what the book carries — "Ibn al-Athīr opens his account by quoting Ibn Mas‘ūd^{رضي}" — and build no ruling on it.

⚠ This is not a مشاجرات card. It is a Companion praising Abū Bakr^{رضي} for a decision, and nothing in it judges anyone. Keep it there.

11 AH, Medina

Abū Bakrؓ , and the men of Badr

On who was given command — and who was not.

لَا أَسْتَعِیلُ أَهْلَ بَدْرٍ، أَدْعُهُمْ حَتَّى يَلْقُوا اللَّهَ بِصَالِحِ أَعْمَالِهِمْ

I do not put the men of Badr into office. I leave them so they may meet Allah with their good deeds for Allah wards off by them and by the righteous more than He gives victory through them.

فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ يَدْفَعُ بِهِمْ وَبِالصَّالِحِينَ أَكْثَرَ مِمَّا يَنْتَصِرُ بِهِمْ.

— Abū Bakrؓ — and, beside it, 'Umar'sؓ view

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 215

⚠ A difference of judgement, not a dispute. Do not adjudicate.

SAY

1. Whom Abū Bakrؓ would not appoint
2. Not the men of Badr
3. His reason
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
4. 'Umarؓ saw it differently
5. Both views, on one page
6. A difference of judgement, not a dispute

LESSON — Two men who agreed about the war disagreed about who should run it, and the book records both without making a quarrel of it.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Whom Abū Bakrؓ would not appoint — He had a policy about who did not get commands.
2. Not the men of Badr — "I leave them so they may meet Allah with their good deeds."

3. His reason — Allah wards off harm through such men more than He gives victory through them.

4. ‘Umar[ؓ] saw it differently — The book records, on the same page, that he held they should be employed.

5. Both views, on one page — Two men who agreed about the war disagreed about who should run it.

6. A difference of judgement, not a dispute — Do not dress it as one, and do not adjudicate it.

لَا أَسْتَعْمِلُ أَهْلَ بَدْرٍ، أَدْعُهُمْ حَتَّى يَلْقُوا اللَّهَ بِصَالِحِ أَعْمَالِهِمْ، فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ يَدْفَعُ بِهِمْ وَبِالصَّالِحِينَ أَكْثَرَ مِمَّا يَنْتَصِرُ
بِهِمْ. وَكَانَ عُمَرُ يَرَى اسْتِعْمَالَهُمْ عَلَى الْجُنْدِ وَغَيْرِهِ

I do not put the men of Badr into office. I leave them so they may meet Allah with their good deeds — for Allah wards off by them and by the righteous more than He gives victory through them. And ‘Umar held that they should be employed over the troops and otherwise."

— Abū Bakr[ؓ] — and, beside it, ‘Umar's[ؓ] view · ٢١٥ ص ٢ فى التاريخ الكامل

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

This is the safest possible demonstration of how the sources handle disagreement — a real difference of judgement between the first two caliphs, recorded plainly, with nothing at stake.

11 AH, Medina

Abū Bakrؓ , and the men of Badr

وَكَانَ عُمَرُ يَرَى اسْتِعْمَالَهُمْ عَلَى الْجُنْدِ وَغَيْرِهِ.

And 'Umar held that they should be employed over the troops and otherwise.

— Abū Bakr ؓ — and, beside it, 'Umar's ؓ view

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 215

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

وَكَانَ عُمَرُ يَرَى اسْتِعْمَالَهُمْ عَلَى الْجُنْدِ وَغَيْرِهِ. And 'Umar held that they should be employed over the troops and otherwise.

11 AH, Dhū al-Qaṣṣa

The eleven banners, from Dhū al-Qaṣṣa

IMAGE GOES HERE

Eleven plain cloth banners on spear-shafts, planted upright in a row on open stony ground at first light, each a different muted colour, stirring slightly in the wind; a low line of dark hills behind. Nothing else on the

Dhū al-Qaṣṣa

eleven banners, tied by Abū Bakrؓ

SAY

1. The eleven banners, read back
2. One sitting at Dhū al-Qaṣṣa
3. Round the map, by name
4. The books differ on the count
5. Khālīd b. Saʿīdؓ : no battle on any page
6. Ordered in one sitting

LESSON — The whole war was ordered in one sitting, by a man who had just been turned back from leading it himself.

ASK — Before the table: "Medina is one town. How many armies would you send out at once?"

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. The eleven banners, read back — A recap: the room saw this on evening 2; tonight every sector is settled.
2. One sitting at Dhū al-Qaṣṣa — A day's ride from Medina: eleven banners tied, each commander given a region.
3. Round the map, by name — Name them now that the room has met almost all of them.

4. The books differ on the count — One of them folds two commands into one; say that and pick no number.
5. Khālīd b. Saʿīd ^{رضي}: no battle on any page — He has the Syrian marches on the roster and nothing narrated of him there; say so aloud.
6. Ordered in one sitting — By a man who had just been turned back from leading it himself.

————— IMAGE BRIEF — paste into the image generator —————

Eleven plain cloth banners on spear-shafts, planted upright in a row on open stony ground at first light, each a different muted colour, stirring slightly in the wind; a low line of dark hills behind. Nothing else on the ground. Restrained editorial illustration, muted ochre, deep teal and bone. Flat pure-white background (#FFFFFF) with no border, so it sits on a white slide with no seam. No text, no lettering, no map. No people and no faces — landscape, animals and objects only. 16:9.

'Umar's ﷺ caliphate, Medina

'Umar ﷺ — the captives bought back

Years later, the captives of these wars are still held.

إِنَّهُ لَقَبِيحٌ بِالْعَرَبِ أَنْ يَمْلِكَ بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضًا

"It is a shameful thing for the Arabs that some of them should own others."

— 'Umar ﷺ, as caliph

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 232

SAY

1. Years later: 'Umar ﷺ as caliph
2. "Shameful for Arabs to own Arabs"
1 read the Arabic on the slide
3. A ransom price
4. Lighter for Ḥanīfa and Kinda
5. The women were found
6. The state bought them back

LESSON — The war's last act was the state buying back the people its own victory had taken.

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. Years later: 'Umar ﷺ as caliph — A look ahead, and say so; the page does not fix the year.
2. "Shameful for Arabs to own Arabs" — He said it was a shameful thing for Arabs to own one another.
3. A ransom price — He consulted, and set it: six or seven camels a head.
4. Lighter for Ḥanīfa and Kinda — Because so many of their men had been killed — the two names of these evenings.

5. The women were found — Sought out wherever they had been taken.

6. The state bought them back — The war's last act was buying back the people its own victory had taken.

إِنَّهُ لَقَيْبٌ بِالْعَرَبِ أَنَّ يَمْلِكَ بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضًا "It is a shameful thing for the Arabs that some of them should own others."

ج ٢ ج ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ ج ٢ ص ٢٣٢ · 'Umar[ؓ], as caliph
ص ٢٣٣

So far tonight

Where we stand

CHECKPOINT 4 — the Line

SAY

1. Both fronts — and then the whole war, seen from its end.

(Next slide: the map. The time check is there.)

So far tonight

Where we stand

Dhū al-Qaṣṣa

eleven banners, sent by Abū Bakrؓ

Arabia

every sector settled

CHECKPOINT 4 — the map

SAY

1. Eleven banners left one sitting. Every sector is this colour now.

⌚ Past 0:52 here — close here. This is the last checkpoint built.

CARRY ON — “One question is left: why did it not break again?”

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

OUT OF TIME — this is your ending. Stay on this map, and say:

“There were two empires on the other side of that desert. Next week: did either of them know?”

Then a loud السلام عليكم, and the dua. Next week opens on these two slides.

Part VIII

Ibn Khaldūn: why Arabia did not break again

SAY

1. Ibn Khaldūn: why Arabia did not break again.

Seven centuries later

Ibn Khaldūn — as he reads it

A historian, seven centuries later, asks how it was possible.

أَنَّ الصَّبْغَةَ الدِّينِيَّةَ تَذْهَبُ بِالتَّنَافُسِ وَالتَّحَاسُدِ الَّذِي فِي أَهْلِ الْعَصَبِيَّةِ the religious colouring takes away the rivalry and mutual envy that are in people of عَصَبِيَّة

وتفرد الوجهة إلى الحق
and makes their direction single, towards the truth

— Ibn Khaldūn — as he reads it

Ibn Khaldun, vol. 1, p. 198

△ Say his name, and “as he reads it”. He never wrote this about the Ridda.

SAY

1. Ibn Khaldūn: a reader, not a witness
2. His question
3. Not more men
4. The call removes rivalry
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
5. One direction
6. "As Ibn Khaldūn reads it"

LESSON — What changed in Arabia was not how many men there were, but which way they were all facing.

ASK — Before beat 3: "What would you need, to turn that map into one army? More men?" Take two answers, then read him. had changed?"

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Ibn Khaldūn: a reader, not a witness — رحمه الله; he wrote seven centuries after these events, and his book asks why peoples rise and fall.
2. His question — How does a peninsula that has just fragmented move against two empires within two years?

3. Not more men — His answer multiplies nobody's numbers.

4. The call removes rivalry — A religious call takes away the envy among people bound by kin, and points them all one way.

5. One direction — Then nothing stands in front of them: the object is equal in every eye, and they will die for it.

6. "As Ibn Khaldūn reads it" — He never wrote this about the Ridda; joining his chapter to the year 11 is this course's doing, not his.

أَنَّ الصَّبْغَةَ الدِّينِيَّةَ تَذْهَبُ بِالتَّنَافُسِ وَالتَّحَاسُدِ الَّذِي فِي أَهْلِ الْعَصَبِيَّةِ وَتَفْرُدُ الْوَجْهَةَ إِلَى ... وَالسَّبَبُ فِي ذَلِكَ الْحَقُّ فَإِذَا حَصَلَ لَهُمُ الْإِسْتِبْصَارُ فِي أَمْرِهِمْ لَمْ يَقِفْ لَهُمْ شَيْءٌ لِأَنَّ الْوَجْهَةَ وَاحِدَةٌ وَالْمَطْلُوبُ مُتَسَاوٍ عِنْدَهُمْ وَهُمْ "The reason for it ... is that the religious colouring takes away the rivalry and mutual envy that are in people of عصبية, and makes their direction single, towards the truth. Then, once clear sight in their affair is theirs, nothing stands in their way — because the direction is one, the object is equal in all their eyes, and they will die for it."

— Ibn Khaldūn — as he reads it · ١٩٨ ص ج ١ تاريخ ابن خلدون

————— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

△ The slide must carry his name and the words "as he reads it". He never wrote this about the ridda; joining his chapter to the year eleven is our doing .

Tonight on the Line

THE CLOSE — the Line

SAY

1. Bahrayn: Juwāthā, al-Dahnā', the trench, the sea.
2. Kinda, two years earlier — then Ḥaḍramawt, to al-Nujayr.
3. Medina: al-Ash'ath, in bonds — and pardoned.
4. And the whole war — Ibn Kathīr, and Ibn Mas'ūd[ؓ].

12 AH, Arabia

Where we stand

Bahrayn

held again, by al-
'Alā'

Ḥaḍramawt

taken by Ziyād and al-Muhājir

THE CLOSE — the map

SAY

1. When you came in, two patches here were grey.

► CLICK 1 — Bahrayn — held again.

► CLICK 2 — Ḥaḍramawt — the last front, taken.

► CLICK 3 — The peninsula, in one colour.

Tonight

- | Bahrayn
- | al-Dahnā'
- | Ḥaḍramawt
- | al-Ash'ath
- | Ibn Mas'ūd , on the war

TONIGHT — say each name, then its line

SAY

1. Bahrayn
2. al-Dahnā'
3. Ḥaḍramawt
4. al-Ash'ath
5. Ibn Mas'ūd , on the war

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. Bahrayn — He closed the roads behind the enemy before he opened one in front of himself.
2. al-Dahnā' — He did not promise them water. He reminded them who they were.
3. Ḥaḍramawt — The decision about al-Ash'ath was not taken in anger at the gate; it was sent to the man whose job it was.
4. al-Ash'ath — A man who will say the worst thing about himself out loud has taken its power away from everybody else.
5. Ibn Mas'ūd , on the war — A Companion, looking back, says plainly that the right answer was not the one they had all agreed on.

Next week

Two years after the Prophet ﷺ died, all of Arabia was on one side. There were two empires on the other side of the desert. Did either of them know?

IF YOU STOP HERE — ask it, and pause. Then a loud السلام عليكم — and the dua.

IF YOU CARRY ON — ask it, and go straight on: Part IX is the answer.

Part IX

Persia and Rome: the other side of the desert (12 AH)

SAY

1. Persia and Rome: the other side of the desert (12 AH).

12 AH, the other side of the desert

Persia and Rome — beyond Arabia

PERSIA

al-Madā'in — the house of Kistrā

ROME

Heraclius — Syria is his

△ The two zones are outlines. No page we hold gives either empire's borders.

SAY

1. All of Arabia is one colour. Now look past it.

► CLICK 1 — Persia. You know how its king died: by his own son.

► CLICK 2 — Rome. Its emperor is Heraclius, and Syria is his.

2. What our books say of each, and what each was told.

12–13 AH, al-Madā'in

The house of Kistrā

لَمْ يَبْقَ إِلَّا غُلَامٌ يُدْعَى يَزْدَجِرْدَ مِنْ وَلَدِ شَهْرِيَّارَ بْنِ كِسْرَى، وَأُمُّهُ مِنْ أَهْلِ بَادُورِيَا.

“None is left but a boy called Yazdagird, of the line of Shahriyār son of Kistrā; his mother is of the people of Bādūrayā.”

فَأَرْسَلُوا إِلَيْهَا وَطَلَبُوهُ مِنْهَا

So they sent to her and asked her for him.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on how Persia found its last king

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 284

△ Say the names as the page's. Do not reconcile them with other histories.

△ Stop before Rustam and al-Qādisiyya — later evenings.

SAY

1. You know how Kistrā died
2. The books name the son
3. What Shīrā did to his own house
4. So Persia had to search for a king
5. One boy had been got away
 - 1 read the Arabic on the slide
6. That is the house the letter went to
7. Ibn al-Athīr tells the search a year on

LESSON — The throne they were about to face had been emptied by its own family.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. You know how Kistrā died — Evening 3: “my Lord has killed your lord tonight” — by his own son.
2. The books name the son — Shīrā.

3. What Shīrā did to his own house — He gathered its women, and killed the males. Ibn al-Athīr says it in passing.
4. So Persia had to search for a king — Its great men sent for the women of Kīsrā's house, to find one male of the line.
5. One boy had been got away — Yazdagird. His mother had sent him to her brothers. They made him king, at twenty-one.
6. That is the house the letter went to — Khālīd's ^٢ letter was sent on "to Shīrā son of Kīsrā, and Ardashīr son of Shīrā".
7. Ibn al-Athīr tells the search a year on — Under year 13. The killing it looks back to is older.

لَمْ يَبْقَ إِلَّا غُلَامٌ يُدْعَى يَزْدَجَرْدَ مِنْ وَلَدِ شَهْرِيَّارَ بْنِ كِسْرَى، وَأُمُّهُ مِنْ أَهْلِ بَادُورِيَا. فَأَرْسَلُوا إِلَيْهَا وَطَلَبُوهُ مِنْهَا، وَكَانَتْ قَدْ أَتَرَتْهُ أَيَّامَ شِيرَى حِينَ جَمَعَهُنَّ فَقَتَلَ الذُّكُورَ، وَأَرْسَلَتْهُ إِلَى أَحْوَالِهِ، فَلَمَّا سَأَلُوهَا عَنْهُ دَلَّتْهُمْ عَلَيْهِ، فَجَاءُوا بِهِ فَمَلَكُوهُ وَهُوَ ابْنُ إِحْدَى وَعِشْرِينَ سَنَةً "None is left but a boy called Yazdagird, of the line of Shahriyār son of Kīsrā; his mother is of the people of Bādūrayā." So they sent to her and asked her for him. She had got him away in the days of Shīrā — when he gathered them and killed the males — and had sent him to his mother's brothers. When they asked her about him she led them to him; and they brought him and made him king, at twenty-one.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on how Persia found its last king · ص ٢٨٤ ج ٢ في التاريخ الكامل

———— BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern —————

Who the letter was sent on to: > فكتب إليه خالد فبعث هرمز بكتاب خالد إلى شيرى بن كسرى، > <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3210> · 64 البدايه والنهايه ج 7 ص — > وأردشير بن شيرى

English: "So Khālīd wrote to him; and Hurmuz sent Khālīd's letter on to Shīrā son of Kīsrā, and Ardashīr son of Shīrā." △ Say the names as the page's, and do not reconcile them. General histories put Shīrā's death within months of his father's [CONVENTIONAL-ESTIMATE]; Ibn Kathīr's page, following Sayf, has the letter sent on to him in year 12.

△ Narrate and stop. This is Persian court history told by Muslim historians. Rustam, the Bridge and al-Qādisiyya are later evenings — the page names Rustam and al-Fayrūzān; the slide does not.

△ No dates for Shīrā, Ardashīr or Yazdagird are on any page we hold .

12–13 AH, al-Madā'in

The house of Kisrā

وَكَاثَتْ قَدْ أَنْزَلَتْهُ أَيَّامَ شِيرَى حِينَ جَمَعَهُنَّ فَقَتَلَ الذُّكُورَ، وَأَرْسَلَتْهُ إِلَى أَحْوَالِهِ

She had got him away in the days of Shīrā — when he gathered them and killed the males — and had sent him to his mother's brothers.

فَلَمَّا سَأَلُوهَا عَنْهُ دَلَّتْهُمْ عَلَيْهِ، فَجَاءُوا بِهِ فَمَلَّكُوهُ وَهُوَ ابْنُ إِحْدَى وَعِشْرِينَ سَنَةً

When they asked her about him she led them to him; and they brought him and made him king, at twenty-one.

— Ibn al-Athīr, on how Persia found its last king

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 284

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

وَكَاثَتْ قَدْ أَنْزَلَتْهُ أَيَّامَ شِيرَى حِينَ جَمَعَهُنَّ فَقَتَلَ الذُّكُورَ، وَأَرْسَلَتْهُ إِلَى أَحْوَالِهِ She had got him away in the days of Shīrā — when he gathered them and killed the males — and had sent him to his mother's brothers. فَمَلَّكُوهُ وَهُوَ ابْنُ إِحْدَى فَلَمَّا سَأَلُوهَا عَنْهُ دَلَّتْهُمْ عَلَيْهِ، فَجَاءُوا بِهِ فَمَلَّكُوهُ وَهُوَ ابْنُ إِحْدَى وَعِشْرِينَ سَنَةً When they asked her about him she led them to him; and they brought him and made him king, at twenty-one.

Part X

Medina, Iraq and Syria: two letters leave, and what each empire heard (12–13 AH)

SAY

1. Medina, Iraq and Syria: two letters leave, and what each empire heard (12–13 AH).

Muḥarram 12 AH, al-Yamāma to Iraq

Khālīdؓ — the order to Iraq

Khālīdؓ ordered to Iraq,
from its lower end

al-Madā'in
Persia's capital —
he is not sent there

△ Muḥarram 12 is al-Madā'inī's date — say whose it is.

SAY

1. Khālīdؓ has just finished al-Yamāma

► CLICK 1 — Khālīdؓ leaves al-Yamāma for the lower end of Iraq.

2. Not "conquer Iraq"

3. Call them first

4. Then the jizya; then the sword

5. Compel no one to march

6. And use no man who turned

7. Whose date it is

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

DETAIL — only if you need it

1. Khālīd^{رضي} has just finished al-Yamāma — And a letter comes from Abū Bakr^{رضي}, in Medina.

2. Not “conquer Iraq” — Come at Iraq from its lower end.

3. Call them first — If they answer, they are Muslims: what is yours is theirs.

4. Then the jizya; then the sword — In that order, as the order gives it.

5. Compel no one to march — The first restraint: no man is forced to go.

6. And use no man who turned — The second: nobody who apostatised, even if he has come back.

7. Whose date it is — Muḥarram of year 12 is al-Madā'inī's, by his chain. Ibn Kathīr reports it.

وَأَنْ يَتَأَلَّفَ النَّاسَ وَيَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَى اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ، فَإِنْ أَجَابُوا وَإِلَّا أَخَذَ مِنْهُمْ الْجِزْيَةَ فَإِنْ امْتَنَعُوا عَنْ ذَلِكَ قَاتِلْهُمْ، ...that he should win the people over and call them to God; if they answered, well, and if not, take the jizya from them; and if they refused that, fight them. And he ordered him not to compel anyone to march with him, and not to make use of any man who had apostatised from Islam, even if he had returned to it."

— Ibn Kathīr, on what Abū Bakr^{رضي} ordered Khālīd^{رضي} · ٦٢ ص ٧ ج ٧ البدايه والنهايه

Muḥarram 12 AH, al-Yamāma to Iraq

Khālīd ٱ — the order to Iraq

وَأَنْ يَتَأَلَّفَ النَّاسَ وَيَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَى اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ

...that he should win the people over and call them to God

فَإِنْ أَجَابُوا وَإِلَّا أَخَذَ مِنْهُمْ الْجِزْيَةَ فَإِنْ امْتَنَعُوا عَنْ ذَلِكَ قَاتِلْهُمْ

if they answered, well, and if not, take the jizya from them; and if they refused that, fight them.

— Ibn Kathīr, on what Abū Bakr ٱ ordered Khālīdٱ

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 62

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.WHO IS SPEAKING — Ibn Kathīr, on what Abū Bakr ٱ ordered Khālīd ٱ*LESSON — A state that has just won a civil war and still refuses to conscript the defeated is telling you what it thinks it is for.*► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)*DETAIL — only if you need it

وَأَنْ يَتَأَلَّفَ النَّاسَ وَيَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَى اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ، فَإِنْ أَجَابُوا وَإِلَّا أَخَذَ مِنْهُمْ الْجِزْيَةَ فَإِنْ امْتَنَعُوا عَنْ ذَلِكَ قَاتِلْهُمْ،
 ...that he عاد إليه [قد] وأمره أن لا يُكْرِهَ أَحَدًا عَلَى الْمَسِيرِ مَعَهُ، وَلَا يَسْتَعِثُّ بِمَنْ ارْتَدَّ عَنِ الْإِسْلَامِ وَإِنْ كَانَ should win the people over and call them to God; if they answered, well, and if not, take the jizya from them; and if they refused that, fight them. And he ordered him not to compel anyone to march with him, and not to make use of any man who had apostatised from Islam, even if he had returned to it."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٦٢

Muḥarram 12 AH, al-Yamāma to Iraq

Khālīd ٱ — the order to Iraq

وأمره أن لا يُكْرِه أحداً على المسير معه

And he ordered him not to compel anyone to march with him

ولا يستعينُ بمن ارتدَّ عن الإسلام وإن كان [قد] عاد إليه and not to make use of any man who had apostatised from Islam, even if he had returned to it.

— Ibn Kathīr, on what Abū Bakr ٱ ordered Khālīdٱ

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 62

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

DETAIL — only if you need it

وأمره أن لا يُكْرِه أحداً على المسير معه And he ordered him not to compel anyone to march with him عاد إليه [قد] ولا يستعينُ بمن ارتدَّ عن الإسلام وإن كان and not to make use of any man who had apostatised from Islam, even if he had returned to it.

Early 13 AH, Medina

Syria — four commanders, four roads

Medina

four commanders leave by four roads

Syria

four provinces given, none yet taken

△ The provinces are given, not taken. Nothing is taken tonight.

SAY

1. Arabia is finished; he turns to Syria
2. Not one army
3. The four

► CLICK 1 — Four commanders, four separate roads — toward Syria.

4. Four separate roads
5. On foot, beside the riders

6. He was following a verse

7. Nothing is taken tonight

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Arabia is finished; he turns to Syria — Early in year 13.

2. Not one army — Four commanders, each given a province before it is taken.

3. The four — Yazīd b. Abī Sufyān^{رضي} Damascus; Abū ‘Ubayda^{رضي} Ḥimṣ; ‘Amr b. al-‘Āṣ^{رضي} Palestine; Shurahbīl b. Ḥasana^{رضي} Jordan.

4. Four separate roads — He orders each of them to take a different one.

5. On foot, beside the riders — He walks out of Medina beside each of them, giving his instructions.

6. He was following a verse — Ibn Kathīr: Ya‘qūb's words to his sons — do not enter by one gate.

7. Nothing is taken tonight — The provinces are named. Their taking belongs to later evenings.

﴿يُوسُفُ: ٦٧﴾ ... مِنْ بَابٍ وَاحِدٍ وَادْخُلُوا مِنْ أَبْوَابٍ مُتَفَرِّقَةٍ ... ﴿وَقَالَ يَا بَنِيَّ لَا تَدْخُلُوا﴾ "O my sons, do not enter by one gate; enter by separate gates."

— Ya‘qūb, peace be upon him, to his sons — Sūrat Yūsuf ج ٧ · 67

ص ٨٣-٨٤

Early 13 AH, Medina

Syria — four commanders, four roads

وَقَالَ يَا بَنِيَّ لَا تَدْخُلُوا

O my sons, do not enter

مِنْ بَابٍ وَاحِدٍ وَادْخُلُوا مِنْ أَبْوَابٍ مُتَفَرِّقَةٍ

by one gate; enter by separate gates

— Ya'qūb, peace be upon him, to his sons — Sūrat Yūsuf 67

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, pp. 83–84

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.

WHO IS SPEAKING — Ya'qūb, peace be upon him, to his sons — Sūrat Yūsuf 67

LESSON — A plan is safer when it is not one plan.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

﴿يُوسُفُ: ٦٧﴾ ... مِنْ بَابٍ وَاحِدٍ وَادْخُلُوا مِنْ أَبْوَابٍ مُتَفَرِّقَةٍ ... ﴿وَقَالَ يَا بَنِيَّ لَا تَدْخُلُوا not enter by one gate; enter by separate gates."

— البدايه والنهائيه ج ٧ ص ٨٣-٨٤

13 AH, leaving Medina

Abū Bakr[ؓ] , to Yazīd b. Abī Sufyān[ؓ]

Abū Bakr[ؓ] , on foot, beside Yazīd's[ؓ] horse.

إِنِّي قَدْ وَلَّيْتُكَ لِأَبْلُوكَ وَأَجْرَبَكَ وَأُخْرِجَكَ

I have put you in office to test you, to try you and to bring you out.

فَإِنْ أَحْسَنْتَ رَدَدْتُكَ إِلَى عَمَلِكَ وَزِدْتُكَ، وَإِنْ أَسَأْتَ عَزَلْتُكَ

If you do well I will return you to your post and add to it; and if you do badly I will dismiss you

— Abū Bakr[ؓ] , to Yazīd b. Abī Sufyān[ؓ]

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 249

△ Abū Sufyān's[ؓ] son, Mu'āwiya's[ؓ] brother — say it plainly; nothing of what came later.

SAY

1. Yazīd b. Abī Sufyān[ؓ]
2. Abū Bakr[ؓ] walks him out
3. Not a speech about victory
4. "I have put you in office to test you"
5. "Beware the arrogance of the Jāhiliyya"

↑ read the Arabic on the slide

6. Ibn al-Athīr's verdict

LESSON — An appointment is a trial, not a reward, and saying so at the start is what makes the dismissal fair later.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Yazīd b. Abī Sufyān[ؓ] — Abū Sufyān's[ؓ] son and Mu'āwiya's[ؓ] brother: the house on last evening's family tree. He has the largest column.
2. Abū Bakr[ؓ] walks him out — On foot, beside his horse.

3. Not a speech about victory — A job description.

4. "I have put you in office to test you" — Do well, and I extend your post; do badly, and I dismiss you.

5. "Beware the arrogance of the Jāhiliyya" — God hates it, and hates those who carry it.

6. Ibn al-Athīr's verdict — One of the best charges ever given to a man in office.

... إِنِّي قَدْ وَلَّيْتُكَ لِأَبْلُوكَ وَأُخْرِجَكَ، فَإِنْ أَحْسَنْتَ رَدَدْتُكَ إِلَى عَمَلِكَ وَزِدْتُكَ، وَإِنْ أَسَأْتَ عَزَلْتُكَ

فَإِيَّاكَ وَعُيْبَةُ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْغِضُهَا وَيَبْغِضُ أَهْلَهَا "I have put you in office to test you, to try you and to bring you out. If you do well I will return you to your post and add to it; and if you do badly I will dismiss you ... And beware the arrogance of the Jāhiliyya — God hates it, and hates those who carry it."

— Abū Bakr[ؓ], to Yazīd b. Abī Sufyān[ؓ] · ٢٤٩ ص ٢ ج ٢ فى التاريخ الكامل

13 AH, leaving Medina

Abū Bakrؓ , to Yazīd b. Abī Sufyānؓ

... فَإِيَّاكَ وَعُيَّةَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ يُبْغِضُهَا وَيُبْغِضُ أَهْلَهَا

... And beware the arrogance of the Jāhiliyya — God hates it, and hates those who carry it.

— Abū Bakrؓ , to Yazīd b. Abī Sufyānؓ

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 249

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

... فَإِيَّاكَ وَعُيَّةَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ، فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ يُبْغِضُهَا وَيُبْغِضُ أَهْلَهَا ... And beware the arrogance of the Jāhiliyya — God hates it, and hates those who carry it.

13 AH, Medina

‘Amr b. al-‘Āṣ — one arrow

Offered the Syrian command — and left free to keep the post he had.

إِنِّي سَهْمٌ مِنْ سِهَامِ الْإِسْلَامِ

I am one arrow of the arrows of Islam

وَأَنْتَ بَعْدَ اللَّهِ الرَّامِي بِهَا وَالْجَامِعُ لَهَا and you — after God — are the one who shoots them and the one who gathers them.

— ‘Amr b. al-‘Āṣ, to Abū Bakr[ؓ]

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 249

SAY

1. A letter to ‘Amr b. al-‘Āṣ[ؓ]
2. And leaves him free
3. He answers in one sentence
↑ read the Arabic on the slide
4. “Shoot the hardest”

LESSON — A man who lets himself be aimed by someone else has settled the question of who he is working for.

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. A letter to ‘Amr b. al-‘Āṣ[ؓ] — Abū Bakr[ؓ] offers him the Syrian command.
2. And leaves him free — He may keep the post he already has, if he prefers it.
3. He answers in one sentence — Read it.
4. “Shoot the hardest” — He asks to be sent where it is hardest.

إِنِّي سَهْمٌ مِنْ سِهَامِ الْإِسْلَامِ، وَأَنْتَ بَعْدَ اللَّهِ الرَّامِي بِهَا وَالْجَامِعُ لَهَا، فَأَنْظُرُ أَشَدَّهَا وَأَخْشَاهَا وَأَفْضَلَهَا فَأَرْمِي بِهِ

I am one arrow of the arrows of Islam, and you — after God — are the one who shoots them and the one who gathers them. So look for the hardest of them, and the most feared, and the best, and shoot it."

— ‘Amr b. al-‘Āṣ[ؓ], to Abū Bakr[ؓ] · ٢٤٩ ص ٢ الكامل فى التاريخ

13 AH, Medina

‘Amr b. al-‘Āṣ — one arrow

فَانْظُرْ أَشَدَّهَا وَأَحْشَاهَا وَأَفْضَلَهَا فَأَرْمِ بِهِ

So look for the hardest of them, and the most feared, and the best, and shoot it.

— ‘Amr b. al-‘Āṣ, to Abū Bakr

al-Kamil, vol. 2, p. 249

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

DETAIL — only if you need it

فَانْظُرْ أَشَدَّهَا وَأَحْشَاهَا وَأَفْضَلَهَا فَأَرْمِ بِهِ So look for the hardest of them, and the most feared, and the best, and shoot it.

12 AH, lower Iraq

Khālīdؓ — the letter to al-Madā'in

Khālīdؓ
writes to al-Madā'in; he does not march

al-Madā'in
Kisrā's commanders, marzubāns and ministers

⚠ Do not say he had taken al-Ḥīra. The page says its people chose the jizya.

SAY

1. Khālīdؓ is in lower Iraq

► CLICK 1 — A letter goes to al-Madā'in — not an army.

2. He does not march on al-Madā'in

3. How we have the letter

4. What he says of Persia

5. One offer, one alternative

6. "A people who love death as you love life"

7. They were left marvelling

► NEXT SLIDE — the Arabic, and its lesson

ASK — Ask the room: how far is Medina from the Persian capital? Then tell them a letter went, before an army did.

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Khālīd^{رضي} is in lower Iraq — The first people he met there chose the jizya.

2. He does not march on al-Madā'in — He writes to it: to Kisrā's commanders, his marzubāns and his ministers.

3. How we have the letter — al-Sha'bī: the family of Buqayla read it out to him.

4. What he says of Persia — "Praise be to Allah, who has broken up your company, taken away your kingship and weakened your scheming."

5. One offer, one alternative — Islam; or hostages, and a covenant of protection.

6. "A people who love death as you love life" — Read the line.

7. They were left marvelling — Ibn Kathīr's own last words on it.

فابعثوا إِلَيَّ بِالرُّهْنِ واعتقدوا مني الدِّمَةَ، و (إِلَّا) فوالذي لا إِلَهَ غَيْرُهُ لأبعثن إليكم قومًا يحبُّون الموتَ كما تحبُّون الحياةَ
...so send me hostages and take a covenant of protection from me.

Otherwise — by Him beside whom there is no god — I shall send against you a people who love death as you love life."

— Khālīd b. al-Walīd^{رضي}, to the marzubāns of Persia · ٦٤ ص ٧ البدايه والنهائيه ج

12 AH, lower Iraq

Khālīd ͢ — the letter to al-Madā'in

فابعثوا إليّ بالرُّهن واعتقدوا مني الدِّمة

...so send me hostages and take a covenant of protection from me.

و (إلا) فوالذي لا إله غيره

Otherwise — by Him beside whom there is no god

لأبعثن إليكم قومًا يحبّون الموت كما تحبّون أنتم الحياة

*I shall send against you a people who love death as you love life.— Khālīd b. al-Walīd ͢, to the marzubāns of Persia

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 64

READ the Arabic on the slide — then its English.WHO IS SPEAKING — Khālīd b. al-Walīd ͢, to the marzubāns of Persia*LESSON — A man who has made peace with his own death is very difficult to bargain with.*DETAIL — only if you need it

فابعثوا إليّ بالرُّهن واعتقدوا مني الدِّمة، و (إلا) فوالذي لا إله غيره لأبعثن إليكم قومًا يحبّون الموت كما تحبّون

...so send me hostages and take a covenant of protection from me. أنتم الحياة

Otherwise — by Him beside whom there is no god — I shall send against you a people who love death as you love life."

— البدايه والنهايه ج ٧ ص ٦٤

13 AH, Syria

Heraclius, to the Romans

The four columns are on the road. The Romans write to their emperor.

وَيُحْكَمُ إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ أَهْلُ دِينٍ جَدِيدٍ

Woe to you — these are the people of a new religion

وَأَنَّهُمْ لَا قِبَلَ لِأَحَدٍ بِهِمْ and no one has the strength to face them.

— Heraclius, to the Romans — as Ibn Kathīr reports it

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 86

△ A Muslim historian's report of a Roman council. Narrate it as the book's.

△ Stop at “they refused”. The armies are the next evening.

SAY

1. The four columns are on the road
2. “They feared greatly”
3. Where he was
4. Read what he said
 - ↑ read the Arabic on the slide
5. His advice: make peace
6. “Refuse, and they will take Syria”
7. They refused
8. Stop here

LESSON — He saw it, and said it, and was not listened to.

ASK — Before the name is said: who do you think spoke these words?

► NEXT SLIDE — the same words go on (2 slides in all)

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. The four columns are on the road — And the Romans hear of it.

2. "They feared greatly" — And they wrote to Heraclius, the emperor of the Romans.
3. Where he was — At Ḥimṣ, it is said; or on pilgrimage that year at Bayt al-Maqdis. Ibn al-Athīr: in Jerusalem.
4. Read what he said — "The people of a new religion; no one has the strength to face them."
5. His advice: make peace — Half the revenue of Syria, and the mountains remain yours.
6. "Refuse, and they will take Syria" — And press you hard in your mountains as well.
7. They refused — "They snorted at that", the page says. He went to Ḥimṣ, and ordered the armies out.
8. Stop here — What the armies did is the next evening.

وَيُحْكَمُ إِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ أَهْلُ دِينٍ جَدِيدٍ، وَإِنَّمَا لَا قَبْلَ لِأَحَدٍ بِهِمْ، فَأَطِيعُونِي وَصَالِحِيهِمْ بِمَا تَصَالِحُونَهُمْ عَلَى نِصْفِ
 "Woe" خراج الشام وبيقى لكم جبال الروم، وإن أتم أيتيم ذلك أخذوا منكم الشام وضيقوا عليكم جبال الروم to you — these are the people of a new religion, and no one has the strength to face them. So obey me, and make peace with them — on half the revenue of Syria, and the mountains of the Romans remain yours. If you refuse that, they will take Syria from you, and press you hard in the mountains of the Romans."

— Heraclius, to the Romans — as Ibn Kathīr reports it · البدایہ والنہایہ ج ۷ ص ۸۶

BACKGROUND — for home, not for the lectern

[illegible]

ص251 · <https://shamela.ws/book/21712/942> > English: "Word of that reached the Romans, and they wrote to Heraclius — he was in Jerusalem. He said: I think you should make peace with the Muslims. By God, to make peace with them for half of what Syria yields, and keep half of it along with the land of the Romans, is dearer to you than that they overcome you for Syria and half the land of the Romans. And they scattered from him, and disobeyed him." Where he was, and what they did with his advice: > — كان حج عامه ذلك إلى بيت المقدس [بل] فيقال: إنه كان يومئذ بمحص، ويقال >

86 · البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص <https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3232> > English: "It is said that he was at Himṣ that day; and it is said: rather, he had made pilgrimage that year to Bayt al-Maqdis." > 86 · البدايه والنهايه ج7 ص — > فنخروا من ذلك نخرة حُمُر الوحش >

<https://shamela.ws/book/30097/3232> > English: "And they snorted at that, the snort

of wild asses.” △ A Muslim historian's report of a Roman council — Ibn Kathīr marks it as Sayf's telling, with others. Narrate it as what the book carries; build nothing on its wording.

△ Stop at “they refused”. The deployments that follow on the same page — ninety thousand against ‘Amr^{رضي}, and the rest — are and the next evening.

△ Heraclius is new to the room. One breath: the emperor of the Romans. No dates for him are on a page we hold. ## القادسية, the embassy to رستم, and المدائن

Source note: [] — read it for the pages behind these cards.

13 AH, Syria

Heraclius, to the Romans

فأطيعوني وصالحوهم بما تصالحوهم على نصفِ خراج الشام ويبقى لكم جبالُ الروم

So obey me, and make peace with them — on half the revenue of Syria, and the mountains of the Romans remain yours.

وإن أنتم أبيتم ذلك أخذوا منكم الشام وضيقوا عليكم جبال الروم

If you refuse that, they will take Syria from you, and press you hard in the mountains of the Romans.

— Heraclius, to the Romans — as Ibn Kathīr reports it

al-Bidaya wa'l-Nihaya, vol. 7, p. 86

READ the Arabic — the same words, continued (slide 2 of 2).

Each part: the Arabic, then its meaning.

————— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

فأطيعوني وصالحوهم بما تصالحوهم على نصفِ خراج الشام ويبقى لكم جبالُ الروم So obey me, and make peace with them — on half the revenue of Syria, and the mountains of the Romans remain yours. وإن أنتم أبيتم ذلك أخذوا منكم الشام وضيقوا عليكم جبال الروم. If you refuse that, they will take Syria from you, and press you hard in the mountains of the Romans.

Tonight on the Line

THE CLOSE — the Line

SAY

1. The Ridda, whole: every front, one colour.
2. Muḥarram of year 12 — the order to Iraq.
3. Early in year 13 — four commanders, four roads.
4. And nothing taken yet.

13 AH, beyond Arabia

Where we stand

Iraq

Khālīd 𐤎 at its lower end; a letter

Syria

four commanders, four roads — nothing taken

THE CLOSE — the map

SAY

1. When you came in, the map ended at Arabia's edge.
2. East: one commander, and one letter.
3. North: four commanders, on four roads.
4. Not a town has been taken.

Tonight

| Persia

| Iraq

| Syria

| Yazīd^{رضي}

| Rome

TONIGHT — say each name, then its line

SAY

1. Persia
2. Iraq
3. Syria
4. Yazīd^{رضي}
5. Rome

———— DETAIL — only if you need it —————

1. Persia — The throne they were about to face had been emptied by its own family.
2. Iraq — A state that has just won a civil war and still refuses to conscript the defeated is telling you what it thinks it is for.
3. Syria — A plan is safer when it is not one plan.
4. Yazīd^{رضي} — An appointment is a trial, not a reward, and saying so at the start is what makes the dismissal fair later.
5. Rome — He saw it, and said it, and was not listened to.

Next week

The emperor of the Romans told them:
make peace. They refused him. What did it cost them?

Ask it, and pause. Then a loud السلام عليكم — and the dua. The room must know it has ended.