

Two Years, Three Months

11–13 AH · 632–634 CE

1 · WHERE IT HAPPENED

Mark three places as they are named, and write the name beside each.

2 · WHEN IT HAPPENED

The first box and the last are filled in. Write the year into three of the four empty boxes as we reach them.

3 · WHO

Three lines are printed. The fourth is yours — write the one incident you want to remember about each man.

أبو حذيفة • سالم مولى أبي حذيفة

Badr 2 AH · both killed at al-Yamāma, 12 AH

Master and freed slave. Sālim came from Iṣṭakhr in Persia and led the Muhājirūn in prayer at Qubā', with 'Umar behind him, because he had the most Qur'an of them. Abū Ḥudhayfa was the son of 'Utba b. Rabī'a, who fell at Badr fighting the Muslims. They were killed on the same morning, and Sālim asked to be laid down between them.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

البراء بن مالك

Ḥadīqat al-Mawt, al-Yamāma, 11–12 AH · brother of Anas b. Mālik

Banū Ḥanīfa shut themselves inside a walled garden. He made the Muslims throw him over the wall on a shield, went down among them alone, fought his way to the gate and opened it from the inside. He came out with eighty-odd wounds and lived; Khālīd b. al-Walīd stayed a month treating them.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

زيد بن الخطاب

Paired with Ma'n b. 'Adī at the mu'ākhāt · killed at al-Yamāma, 12 AH

'Umar's brother, who accepted Islam before him. Carrying a banner at al-Yamāma he told the men to bite down and go forward, and vowed not to speak again until Allah routed them or he met Allah. When the news reached 'Umar he said: he outstripped me to the two good things.

One incident — write it as you hear it:

4 · TONIGHT'S LESSONS

Write each one in your own words as it is said.
